

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES OF ORDER:

IN CONDUCTING THE BUSINESS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WESTERN NEW YORK.

I. After the Convention has passed upon the irregular and defective certificates, if any, reported by the Committee under section 5th of Canon II, the next business in order shall be the election of a Secretary in conformity with the Canon.

II. The following Standing Committees shall then be appointed by the President:

1. On the admission into union with this Convention of Churches applying for the same, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.
2. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, to consist of three Laymen.
3. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, to consist of three Laymen.
4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the Fund, to consist of three Laymen.
5. On unfinished business, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

III. Immediately upon the appointment of the Standing Committees, any matter properly referable to the aforesaid Committees, may then be presented for reference.

IV. Motions, notices, and resolutions shall then be in order.

V. A Treasurer of the Convention, and a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen shall then be appointed by ballot, unless dispensed with by a unanimous vote; when they may be appointed on motion.

VI. On the second, and every succeeding day during the sitting of the Convention, after the Daily Morning Prayer, the order of business, which shall not be departed from without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, shall be as follows:

- i. The reading, correcting, and approving of the minutes of the preceding day.
 - ii. Calling the names of the absent members, and entering in the Journal those who appear.
 - iii. Reports from Standing Committees in the following order:
 1. On the admission into union with the Convention of this Diocese, of Churches applying for that purpose.
 2. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.
 3. On the Treasurer's accounts.
 4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the Fund.
 5. On unfinished business.
 - iv. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer, when these officers have any business committed to them, shall then be in order; and then reports from the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, and from the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.
 - v. Reports from the Special Committees in the order in which they were appointed.
 - vi. Unfinished business shall then be in order.
 - vii. Motions, resolutions, and miscellaneous business.
- VII. The Bishop's Address shall be in order at any time.
- VIII. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair, shall vote thereon unless excused by the House.
- IX. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded; and when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, when required by the President, or any member.
- X. If the question in debate contain several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.
- XI. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived it shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.
- XII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIII. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it ; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and the churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journals.

XIV. Any five votes may require the ayes and noes to be taken by orders ; and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XVI. A question being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision ; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XVII. All special committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House ; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XVIII. The election of the Standing Committee, and of Deputies to the General Convention, and the election of any person to supply a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, or in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, shall be the order of the day for 12 o'clock, on the second day of every annual meeting of the Convention.

XIX. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect ; unless by the votes of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XX. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected, and approved.

XXI. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning ; take a recess from one to three o'clock in the afternoon ; and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock, P. M.

On motion,

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention ; Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church not belonging to this Diocese ; Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and Clergymen of the Church of England, as by law established in Great Britain and its dependencies, who may be present, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

The President having announced this invitation, the following gentlemen took their seats, viz :

The Rev. Richard Cox, Rev. W. N. Irish, Rev. W. W. Bours, Rev. Wm. M. Carmichael, D. D., Rev. D. E. Barr, Rev. Aaron A. Van Nostrand, Rev. Peter S. Ruth, Rev. William C. Cooper, Rev. Samuel H. Norton, Rev. Edward Andrews, D. D., Rev. John E. Battin, Rev. Francis J. R. Lightbourne, Rev. Edward Z. Lewis.

The Chair then announced the following Standing Committees :

Messrs. Peter M. Dox, Lansing B. Swan and William Seaver.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention—

Messrs. William C. Pierrepont, Fletcher Williams, and B. P. Beardsley.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate—

Messrs. Horatio Seymour, Trumbull Carey and Elijah Ford.

On Unfinished Business—

Rev. W. B. Ashley, Messrs. H. A. Risley and Caleb B. Drake.

The following Churches applied for admission into union with this Convention, viz :

The Church of the Ascension, Buffalo.

St. James Church, Buffalo.

Christ Church, Rochester.

St. Mary's Church, Truxton, Cortland county.

On motion, the applications were referred to the Standing Committee on the admission of Churches into union with this Convention.

The House then proceeded to the election of a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, and a Treasurer of the Convention. A vote by ballot being, in both cases, dispensed with,

DAVID S. HALL, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen; and

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Convention.

The Secretary then called for Reports from the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, the Education and Missionary Board, the Treasurer of the Convention, and the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, which, having been laid on the table, were severally referred, on motion, to the respective Standing Committees.

The Bishop then in compliance with the Canon, delivered the following

ADDRESS.

MY BRETHREN—THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE CONVENTION :

I present to you, as required by the Canon of the Church, the annual Record of my proceedings, since the adjournment of the Convention, on the 17th of August, 1854.

On the 18th of August I proceeded, according to appointment, to the Parish at Rome, where, in Zion Church, in the evening, I preached and confirmed one person.

On the evening of Sunday the 20th, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On Sunday, the 27th, in the morning, I preached in St. John's Church, Catharine, Schuyler county, and confirmed fifteen persons, to whom I delivered an address.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in the Methodist Chapel at Havana, now the county town of Schuyler county.

On the 30th, I attended a meeting of the Trustees of De Veaux College, at Niagara Falls.

On the 31st, in St. Peter's Church, at Niagara Falls, I preached and confirmed seven persons, to whom I delivered an address.

On September 1st, I transferred the Rev. Levi W. Corson to the Diocese of Michigan, and the Rev. George Watson, D. D., to the Diocese of Ohio.

On the 3d, in the morning, I preached and confirmed six persons in St. Mark's Church, Penn Yan, Yates county.

In the afternoon I preached in the Methodist Chapel at Dundee, in the same county.

On Friday afternoon, the 8th, in St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, I assisted in reading prayers, and I baptized Arthur Browne Livermore, the infant son of the Rector.

On Sunday morning and evening, the 10th, I preached in Grace Church, Rochester.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in Christ Church, Pittsford, and confirmed two persons.

On the 13th I received into this Diocese from Connecticut, the Rev. James Rankin, who has been elected Rector of St. Paul's Church, Owego, in the place of the Rev. George Watson, D. D., removed to Ohio.

On the 15th I transferred the Rev. John V. Van Ingen, D. D., to Minnesota, to the jurisdiction of the Rt. Rev. Jackson Kemper, D. D., Missionary Bishop.

On the 16th I confirmed in St. James' Church, Syracuse, three persons, to whom I delivered an address.

On Sunday, the 17th, in the morning, I preached in Zion Church, McLean, and confirmed three persons.

In the afternoon of the same day I preached at Calvary Church, Homer, and confirmed three persons.

And still later in the afternoon of the same day, I preached in the Presbyterian house of worship, in Cortlandville.

I preached in St. John's Church, Ithaca, in the afternoon of the 16th.

On the 19th, in the afternoon, I preached in St. Mark's Church Candor, and confirmed two persons belonging to St. John's Church, Speedsville.

In St. Paul's Church, Owego, on the 20th, I preached and confirmed seven persons.

On the 20th I transferred the Rev. Montgomery Schuyler to the Diocese of Missouri.

On the 21st I consecrated the new Church, at Corning, Steuben county, to the worship of Almighty God, by the name of Christ Church, confirmed seven persons, and preached on the occasion.

On the 22d I held an ordination in Christ Church, Corning, and admitted the Rev. Napoleon Barrows, Deacon, to the order of Priests, and administered the holy communion. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Andrew Hull, of Elmira.

I heard this day, Friday the 22d, by telegraph, of the lamented death of Bishop Wainwright on the 21st, and was invited to the funeral on Saturday, which my duties and engagements prevented me from attending.

On the 24th I officiated for the Church of the Redeemer, in the Academy, at Addison, in the morning, where I preached and confirmed six persons.

In the afternoon of the same day I read prayers and preached in the Methodist Chapel at Rathbunville.

On the 25th, in the afternoon, I preached in St. Thomas' Church, Bath, and confirmed fifteen persons, including one confirmed in private.

I preached in St. James' Church, Hammondsport, on the morning of the 26th.

And in the afternoon of the same day I preached in the Church Room at Bradford for St. Andrew's Church, and confirmed five persons.

On the 28th I transferred the Rev. Henry C. Stowell, Deacon, to the Diocese of Indiana.

I administered the Holy Communion in Trinity Church, Geneva, on the morning of October 1st, and in the evening I preached in St. Peter's Chapel.

On the 5th and 6th I attended the meeting in New York, of the joint Committee of the General Convention on the Canon Law of the Church.

While in New York, on the 8th, I baptized two children, Annie Nicoll and De Lancey Nicoll, of St. Paul's Chapel in that city.

On the 15th, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva, in the evening.

On the 17th I transferred the Rev. Stephen Douglass to the Diocese of New Jersey.

On the 18th, in St. Luke's Church, Rochester, I officiated under the appointment of the Presiding Bishop as one of the consecrators of the Rt. Rev. Henry Washington Lee, D. D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Iowa, the Rt. Rev. John H. Hopkins, D. D., of Vermont, being the consecrator, and Bishops McCoskry, De Lancey, Eastburn, Burgess and Whitehouse assisting in the solemn act.

The resignation of his parish, and his consecration to the Bishopric of the distant Diocese of Iowa, produced a vacancy in the rectorship of St. Luke's Church, of which he has been for seven years the Rector.

To attend these services I was obliged to postpone my visitation, which, however, I commenced the next day, by proceeding to Brownville, Jefferson county, where on the 20th, in the morning, I preached and confirmed two persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in All Saints' Church, Dexter, and confirmed two persons.

On the morning of the 21st I preached in the Baptist house of worship at Three Mile Bay, and confirmed two persons connected with St. John's Church, Cape Vincent, in which, on the 22d, I preached both morning and afternoon, confirming in the morning six persons : making eight for the parish.

Monday afternoon, the 23d, I officiated in St. Peter's Church, Redwood, then vacant, and confirmed one person.

On the morning of the 24th, I preached in St. James' Church, Theresa, then also vacant, and confirmed one person.

In Trinity Church, Watertown, on the morning of the 25th, I preached and confirmed fifty-five persons, including one confirmed in private.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached and confirmed seven persons in Christ Church, Sackett's Harbor.

I preached in Emanuel Church, Adams, in the morning of the 26th, and in the afternoon in Zion Church, Pierrepont Manor, both parishes being vacant.

In the morning of the 27th, I preached in St. James' Church, Pualaski, and confirmed two persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in Trinity Church, Camden, and confirmed ten persons.

I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva, in the evening of the 29th.

On the 30th I received into this Diocese from Connecticut, the Rev. Samuel Hanson Coxe, who had been unanimously chosen Rector of St. Paul's Church, Oxford, Chenango county.

On the 31st I transferred the Rev. Peter S. Ruth, Presbyterian, to the Diocese of New York.

On the 1st of November, in conformity to the Resolution of the Convention, I addressed a brief pastoral letter to the Laity, urging the need and obligation of enlarged provision for the support of the parochial clergy, by the increase of their regular stated salaries, and by the subsidiary mode recommended by the Convention, of an annual donation on thanksgiving day, throughout the Diocese.*

On Sunday, November 5th, in the morning, I preached and administered the holy communion in Trinity Church, and in the evening preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

I read prayers in the evening of the 12th, in St. Peter's Chapel, when the Rev. C. C. Hoffman, a Missionary to Africa, preached on the subject of that mission.

On Wednesday, the 15th, I attended a meeting of the Trustees of the De Veaux College at Lockport.

On the 16th, I consecrated the new Church edifice, erected by the congregation of Christ Church, Lockport, by the name of Christ Church, preached on the occasion, and administered the holy communion. We were favored with the presence of three of our Reverend Brethren from the Diocese of Toronto, the Rev. Messrs. Fuller, Townly and Ingles, who participated in the services.

* See Appendix, for this Letter.

On the morning of the 17th, in Grace Church, Lockport, I confirmed five persons, to whom I delivered an address.

In the afternoon of the same day in St. Peter's Church, Niagara Falls, I confirmed five persons, to whom I delivered an address.

On Saturday morning, the 18th, I consecrated the new Church edifice of St. James' Church, Buffalo, the fourth Church in that city, and preached on the occasion.

* DEPOSITION OF BENJAMIN W. WHITCHER.—Whereas, Benjamin W. Whitche a Presbyter of this Diocese, in violation of his ordination vows and pledges, and forsaking the truth of God, for fundamental errors, has abandoned the communion of the Protestant Episcopal Church, by a formal admission into a religious body not in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church, namely the Roman Catholic body, as attested by his own written statement, I do, in conformity with the canon in such case provided, with the consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, pronounce the said Benjamin W. Whitche ipso facto, deposed to all intents and purposes, from the holy ministry of the Church. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

And I do hereby give the required notice of the apostacy and deposition of the said Benjamin W. Whitche.

GENEVA, W. N. Y., April 24th, 1855.

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,

Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York.

In presence of BENJAMIN HALE, Presbyter, W. N. Y.

W. H. A. BISELL, Presbyter, W. N. Y.

Holy Communion. In the afternoon I briefly addressed the children of the congregation after they were catechised by the Rector.

I read prayers and preached in Christ Church, Bridgewater, in the afternoon of May 7th.

In the afternoon of the 5th, I preached in St. John's Church, Mount Morris, and confirmed five persons, including one confirmed in private.

After the services, I laid the corner stone of a new Church edifice for this Parish.

I preached in St. Peter's Church, Dansville, in the afternoon of the 6th, and confirmed sixteen persons.

From the 8th to the 11th of June, accompanied by the Rev. Dr. Shelton, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Buffalo, I made a visit of respect and friendship to the Lord Bishop of Toronto, on which occasion I preached on the 10th in the Cathedral of St. James, Toronto, in the morning, and the Rev. Dr. Shelton preached in the afternoon; enjoyed for a few days the hospitality of his Lordship, an agreeable intercourse with several of the Clergy and Laity, and the polite attentions of the Mayor of Toronto.

On Sunday, the 10th, Mr. James S. Bush was admitted to the Holy Order of Deacons, at Saratoga Springs, by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Potter, Provisional Bishop of New York, acting at my request.

Sunday, the 17th, I visited the Churches in Utica. In the morning I preached and confirmed twelve (including one from Zion Church, Rome,) in Calvary Church.

In the afternoon I preached and confirmed nine (including one from Calvary Church) in Grace Church.

In the evening I preached and confirmed thirty-one (including one confirmed in private) in Trinity Church.

In the afternoon of the 18th, I preached and confirmed seven persons in St. Stephen's Church, New Hartford.

On Tuesday morning, the 19th, I preached in the Congregational Chapel at Whitestown, and after the services, I laid the corner stone of St. John's Church in that village.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. Peter's Church, Oriskany, and confirmed two persons.

On the 20th, I preached in the morning in the Presbyterian house of worship at Hampton and confirmed one person.

And in the evening I preached in Zion Church, Rome, and confirmed eighteen persons, including one sick person confirmed in private.

At Holland Patent, on the 21st, in the morning, I baptized Edward De Lancey Bradin, the infant son of the Rector, and preached in St. Paul's Church.

In the afternoon of the same day, in the Union house of worship, at Alder Creek, I preached, baptized two children and confirmed two persons.

In St. Paul's Church, Constableville, on the 22d, in the morning, I preached, confirmed seven persons and briefly addressed the Sunday Scholars, after they had been publicly catechised by the Rector.

On Sunday, the 24th, in Trinity Church, Lowville, I preached in the morning and afternoon, and at the former service I confirmed two persons.

On the 26th, I received into this Diocese the Rev. Benjamin Watson, who had been elected Rector of St. Luke's Church, Rochester, from the Diocese of Rhode Island.

On the 29th, I received into the Diocese the Rev. Daniel E. Loveridge, from the Diocese of Indiana, and the Rev. William Long, from the Diocese of Connecticut. The former is the Missionary at St. James', Hammondsport, and the latter is Missionary at Geddes, laboring to establish a new Church in the city of Syracuse.

On Sunday morning, July 1st, I preached in Trinity Church, Geneva, and administered the Holy Communion.

In the evening of the same day, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, in the same village.

On the 8th, in the morning, I preached and confirmed sixteen persons (including one in private the day before) in St. John's Church, Canandaigua; and preached again in the same Church in the afternoon.

In the evening of the same day, I preached in Zion Church, Palmyra, and confirmed twelve persons, including two from St. Mark's Church, Newark.

On the 13th, I confirmed in private a sick person of Trinity Church, Geneva.

On the 14th, I transferred the Rev. James S. Bush, Deacon, to the Diocese of New York.

On the 15th, I preached in the morning and evening in St. James' Church, Skaneateles, and confirmed at the morning service three persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. John's Church, Marcellus.

In the evening of the 16th, in the Chapel of Hobart Free College, Geneva, I held a Confirmation and confirmed four of the students, to whom I delivered an address; Prayers and the Preface being read by the Rev. Dr. Hale, President of the Institution.

I attended, on the 19th, the Commencement at Hobart Free College, which is gradually enlarging in numbers and usefulness, and commands the confidence and patronage of the Church ; the number of undergraduates having been larger during the past year than during any former year of its existence.

On the 19th, also, I admitted Messrs. Thomas S. Meacham, Chester Smith Percival, George Ward Dunbar, and Henry Whitehouse Spalding, as candidates for Holy Orders.

On the 22d, in the morning, I visited Christ Church, Jordan, where I preached and confirmed eight persons, including two from St. Paul's Church, Port Byron.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in the room occupied by the congregation of St. Paul's Church, at Port Byron, where the erection of a small Church edifice is about to be commenced.

On the 26th, I laid, at Elmira, the corner stone of a handsome new Church edifice about to be erected in place of the old Church, and made a brief address on the occasion.

On the 29th, in the morning, I read Prayers, baptized one child, confirmed one person, preached and administered the Holy Communion in St. John's Church, Clyde.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in Grace Church, Lyons, and confirmed ten persons.

On the morning of the 30th, I preached in St. John's Church,odus.

And in the afternoon I preached in the new and unfinished edifice of Christ Church, Sodus Point.

On the morning of the 31st, I preached in the Union House at Pultneyville, and confirmed one person.

I attended a meeting of the Trustees of the De Veaux College, at Niagara Falls, on the 3d of August, and visited the buildings now in progress of erection.

On the 5th, I preached and administered the Holy Communion in Trinity Church, Geneva, in the morning, and preached in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening.

On the 6th, I gave my canonical consent to the organization of a new Church at Truxton, Cortland county.

On the 6th, I also performed the duty imposed upon me by Canon II of 1853, of pronouncing deposition upon John Sidney Davenport, a Presbyterian of this Diocese, residing in the city of New York, who had connected himself with a religious body, usually called the Irvingites, and was held ipso facto deposed by Canon I of 1853. I append the form of the Sentence which presents the facts of this mournful case of delusion, which has repudiated private counsel, warning, argument and expostulation in its sad career.*

* DEPOSITION PRONOUNCED.—Whereas, John Sidney Davenport, a Presbyterian of this Diocese, has confessed to me in a personal interview, that he had received confirmation of orders from the Apostle of a religious body, (usually called the Irvingites,) and which body is distinct from the Protestant Episcopal Church, attended their public worship, received their doctrines, had partaken of their ordinances and officiated in their services; but did decline and refuse to put these admissions in a written form as requested by me, and did also decline to avail himself of the provisions of Canon V of 1850.

And whereas, after giving him, the said John Sidney Davenport, the notice required by Canon II of 1853, I did receive from him, the said John Sidney Davenport, a written communication signed by him, in which also, while acknowledging the receipt of the notice, and protesting against the Canon and all action under it, and while denying in words, that he has abandoned the communion of the Protestant Episcopal Church or been formally admitted into any other religious body, he nevertheless admits and avows as follows, viz: That there is a religious body called "The Church under Apostles," (so called,) and that he is in connection with the same, and is in communion with the Apostles, (so called,) as a fourth order in the Church: That the communities gathered under the (so called) Apostles have a separate existence as a body distinct from other Churches: That he, the said John Sidney Davenport, had some time since avowed his conviction that God had restored Apostles (so called) to the Church, and that these (new called Apostles) had received a power and authority higher than by the divine constitution belonged to Bishops: That a little more than a year ago one of the (so called) Apostles was in this land fulfilling his ministry: And that he, the said John Sidney Davenport, did go up to his place of ministry and did receive the laying on of his (so called) Apostle's hands: That at a later period, he, the said John Sidney Davenport, had gone to the (so called) Apostle and received from him confirmation of orders: That this confirmation of orders was to supply whatever was lacking through imperfection of the ordinances as they had been retained in the Church: That he, the said John Sidney Davenport, does acknowledge the (so called) Apostles as from God, had received the laying on of hands of one of them, and partaken in their communion and ministry: And that for the greater part of the last five years, he, the said John Sidney Davenport, had been a believer in this work of the ministry of the revived Apostles (so called.)

And whereas, the said religious body (usually called the Irvingites) is not in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church; and by such confessed, avowed and admitted acts, proceedings and views, on the part of the said Presbyterian, John Sidney Davenport, he, the said John Sidney Davenport, is held under Canon I of 1853, ipso facto, deposed to all intents and purposes;

On the 12th, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva, in the evening.

On the 14th, I held an Ordination in Christ Church, Binghamton, and admitted Mr. Edward Zechariah Lewis to the Order of Deacons, and the Rev. Dewitt C. Loop and the Rev. William White Bours to the Order of Priests.

The Rev. Mr. Bours had been transferred to the Diocese of Florida, and was ordained by me on the request of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Rutledge, the Bishop of that Diocese. I administered the Holy Communion. The sermon was preached by the Rev. M. Douglass, of Waterloo.

On the 14th, I received into the Diocese the Rev. Edward Moyses, from the Diocese of New York, who has been appointed Missionary at Cape Vincent.

This day, the 15th, I have closed my annual labors by uniting with you in the services of this temple, delivering a charge to the Clergy and administering the Holy Communion.

I present a summary of my labors during the Conventional year :

I have officiated in 91 organized Parishes in the Diocese, and in 8 places where there is no organization, and once out of the Diocese.

I have baptized 9 children and 1 adult—in all 10.

Administered the Holy Communion 16 times.

Admitted 9 new candidates for Holy Orders.

Ordained 2 Deacons, (including one ordained for me by Bishop Potter of New York.)

and whereas, it is made my duty by Canon II of 1853, to pronounce him so deposed, after three months' notice, which notice has been given, and is acknowledged to have been received by the said Presbyter, John Sidney Davenport, on the twenty-sixth day of April last: Now, THEREFORE, I do, on this sixth day of August, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-five, in conformity to the Canon in such case provided, and with the consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, PRONOUNCE the said John Sidney Davenport, DEPOSED to all intents and purposes from the holy ministry of the Church: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

W. N. Y., GENEVA, August 6th, 1855.

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY,

Bishop of the Diocese of W. N. Y.

In presence of KENDRICK METCALF, Presbyter.

W. H. A. BISSELL, Presbyter.

Ordained 8 Priests, (including one ordained for the Bishop of Florida.)

Instituted 2 Rectors.

Officiated at 2 Funerals.

Consecrated 3 Churches.

Laid the corner stone of 3 Churches.

Given my canonical consent to the organization of 4 new congregations.

Transferred 12 Clergymen to other Dioceses.

Received 13 Clergymen into this Diocese.

Deposed 2 Presbyters.

Read Prayers 16 times.

Preached 136 times.

Delivered Addresses 36 times.

Confirmed 812 persons in 73 Churches, averaging about 11 persons to each congregation.

In discharging my duties I have traveled about 6,800 miles.

Beside the changes stated in the preceding record, the following have occurred in the Diocese :

The Rev. John E. Battin has resigned the Missionary station at Lowville, Lewis county.

The Rev. George N. Cheney has accepted the charge of Trinity Church, Rochester.

The Rev. Malcolm Douglass has taken charge of St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Edward Livermore on account of ill health.

The Rev. Robert Horwood, having resigned Trinity Church, Fayetteville, has been appointed Missionary at Theresa and Redwood, Jefferson county.

He is succeeded at Fayetteville and Jamesville by the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, from St. Thomas' Church, Hamilton, Madison county, which at present is vacant.

The Rev. Gurdon Huntington has resigned Christ Church, Sackett's Harbor, which also is vacant.

The Rev. John Leech has resigned the Parish at Moravia, and removed to Aurora, where he is in charge of St. Paul's Church, extending occasional services to Moravia.

The Rev. Francis J. R. Lightbourn has recently returned from Bermuda, to renew his labors in the Diocese.

The Rev. Dr. Kendrick Metcalf has added to his labors as Professor in Hobart Free College, by taking charge, as Missionary, of St. John's Church, Vienna.

The Rev. Daniel Murphy has resigned the Missionary station at Granby, Oswego county.

The Rev. Andrew Oliver has become the Rector of St. Paul's Church, Brownville.

The Rev. William Paret has resigned St. John's Church, Clyde, and taken charge of Zion Church, Pierrepont Manor.

The Rev. O. F. Starkey has resigned Christ Church, Lockport.

The Rev. James O. Stokes has been Missionary at Hunt's Hollow and Nunda, since November last.

The Rev. Moses E. Wilson has resigned the Missionary station at Olean and Cuba, and has removed to Louisiana.

The Rev. Charles Woodward has resigned Trinity Church, Seneca Falls, and is succeeded by the Rev. John M. Guion, the late Chaplain at the Auburn State Prison.

The Rev. Charles Purviance, of the Diocese of Missouri, spent a few months at Catharine and Havana, acting temporarily as a Missionary, but was not transferred to this Diocese, and has removed to New York.

The Rev. N. W. Munroe, who officiated a short time at Norwich, did not continue his labors there, and was not transferred to the Diocese.

The Rev. Charles E. Beardsley has taken charge of the Missionary station at Olean and Cuba, but is not yet transferred to this Diocese.

The Rev. Aaron A. Van Nostrand has been called to the charge of St. John's Church, Clyde, but has not been transferred to the Diocese.

Since the last Convention, two candidates for Holy Orders have been ordained Deacons, viz: James Smith Bush and Edward Zechariah Lewis.

Two have been transferred to other Dioceses, viz: William McAuley to the Diocese of Georgia, and Stephen Green Hayward to the Diocese of Oregon; but having received no notice of their reception, I retain their names on the list of candidates in this Diocese.

Nine new candidates for Holy Orders have been admitted, viz: Aaron Reed Van Antwerp, William McAuley, Jedediah Winslow, George Moore, Robert B. Coffin, Thomas S. Meacham, Chester Smith Percival, George Ward Dunbar, and Henry Whitehouse Spalding.

The present number (including the two not yet notified as received elsewhere) is seventeen.

Edward Hart Jewett,	Admitted.	June 10, 1851

George Ward Dunbar, . . .	"	July 19, 1855
Henry Whitehouse Spalding,	"	July 19, 1855

Of these, Messrs. Winslow, Coffin, Meacham and Percival were admitted under the new Canon of 1853.

One, Edward Hart Jewett, with the consent of the Faculty of the Seminary and my concurrence, spent the last year in prosecuting studies in Hobart Free College, and having received the honors of the College in a diploma as Bachelor of Arts, will enter the General Seminary in October, to complete his theological studies in the second class of that Institution.

Aid has been extended to three beneficiaries by the Education and Missionary Board.

Eight Deacons, viz: Rev. Napoleon Barrows, Rev. John Gott Webster, Rev. William T. Gibson, Rev. Andrew Oliver, Rev. Josiah M. Hedges, Rev. Robert Horwood, Rev. Dewitt C. Loop, and Rev. William W. Bours, (ordained for Florida,) have been admitted to the Priesthood.

Two Presbyters have been deposed.

The whole number of Clergymen canonically connected with this Diocese is 118, consisting of 1 Bishop, 114 Priests and 3 Deacons, with 17 candidates for Holy Orders. Two have been called to Parishes in the Diocese, but are not yet transferred to it—making in all 120 Clergymen connected with the Diocese.

Of these, 4 are engaged exclusively in the instruction of youth, 8 are on the list of disabled Clergy, 6 are prevented by age or sickness from parochial or missionary labor, but sustain themselves. The rest are engaged in parochial or missionary work in the Diocese, or seeking to be so engaged, while 3 add to the labors of the Ministry public or private teaching in school or college as a means of support.

I have given canonical consent to the organization of new Parishes at Buffalo, Erie county; Truxton, Cortland county; Syracuse, Onondaga county, and Chittenango, Madison county.

Three new Churches have been consecrated, viz: Christ Church, Corning; Christ Church, Lockport, and St. James' Church, Buffalo.

The Rector of St. John's Church, Canandaigua, having declined to sanction the organization of a second congregation in that village, an appeal was made to me from his decision, and authority asked for such an organization, under Canon IX of 1853. With all my solicitude for the increase of Churches in the Diocese, I was compelled to decide against the appeal, and to withhold my sanction of the step.

Under the Canon, the case is to be reported to the Convention of the Diocese, with the reasons for withholding my assent, for the final action of that body. I decided against the appeal—

1. Because that portion of the Episcopal population which resides in the district where the new organization is proposed, does not generally unite in the appeal for a new Parish. Of the fifteen names appended to the appeal, but three or four are from the district; which, nevertheless, contains thirty-nine Episcopal families.

2. Because the existing congregation of St. John's Church contemplate an enlargement, as soon as practicable, of the present edifice, or the erection of a new and larger one in a central position, where all can be conveniently accommodated.

3. Because three-fourths of the Episcopal population in the district to be accommodated, would prefer a central Church edifice for the whole village to a second organization, which would make two feeble, instead of one vigorous congregation.

4. Because the entire population, shown by the census to be 4,248, instead of, as was supposed, 6,000, does not as yet supply Episcopalians enough to sustain two Parishes in the village.

I have laid the corner stone of three new Churches, viz: St. John's, Mount Morris; St. John's, Whitesboro, and Trinity Church, Elmira.

The following named Church edifices are not yet completed, but in progress, viz :

St. John's Church,.....Vienna,
 Christ Church,.....Sodus Point,
 Grace Church,.....Baldwinsville,
 The Church at.....Havana,
 Grace Church,.....Waverly,
 St. Luke's Church,.....Brockport,
 St. John's Church,.....Whitestown,
 St. Paul's Church,.....Oswego,
 St. Luke's Church,.....Jamestown.

The following Church edifices are regularly used, though not yet consecrated on account of impending debt, viz :

The Church of the Evangelists,Oswego,
 St. Peter's Chapel,.....Geneva,
 St. John's Church,.....Dunkirk,
 Christ Church,.....Binghamton,
 Grace Church,.....Lockport,

It is matter of thankful and gratifying reflection that during the last ten or twelve years, there have been expended within the Diocese, in the erection of new Churches, the repairs of old ones, and the purchase or erection of parsonages, about half a million of dollars.

The Diocese has at present 45 Missionaries, laboring within its borders; 54 have labored for portions of the year, and 32 for the whole year. Several of the stations are now vacant, owing to the general want of laborers prevailing throughout the Church.

The collections and donations for the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen have for this year amounted to $1704 07, from 88 parishes. Eight clergymen have received the benefit of the Fund in increased amounts to several of them. The whole sum appropriated and paid to them is $1400.

The total sum received by the Treasurers of the Convention and of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, exclusive of interest on the Permanent Missionary Fund, and of contributions from sources exterior to the Diocese, is $9763 35.

The amount raised in the Diocese but not sent to its objects through the Diocesan Treasurer, as far as can be ascertained, is about $750.

The whole amount raised in the Diocese for recognized Church objects, aside from Parochial objects, will be thus—viz :

Christmas Fund Collections and Donations,....	$1,704 07
Monthly Collections and Donations,.....	9,763 35
Sent by donors without going through the Diocesan Treasury,.....	750 00

Total,.....$12,217 42

The Permanent Missionary Fund of the Diocese is now in charge of William Young, Esq., appointed Trustee of the Fund by the Education and Missionary Board, subject to the ratification of the Convention, in the place of N. B. Kidder, Esq., who had removed from the Diocese, and had previously, on the 1st of February, at my request, placed the securities of the Fund in my hands, as President of the Education and Missionary Boards. The securities have all been duly assigned to the new Trustee, whose Report will be laid before you. The interest for the year, $734 78, has been paid to the Diocesan Treasurer for our Diocesan Missions.

The Van Waganen Missionary Fund for Chenango county amounts at present to $1,580 16, as reported by the Trustee, Joseph Juliand, Esq.

I refer you to the Report of the Education and Missionary Boards for the details connected with those funds, and their connection with our Diocesan Missions.

The Report of the De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children will be laid before you. The erection of the buildings has been commenced, and they are to be completed next year without entrenchment on the capital. In compliance with the provisions of the Charter, the Trustees, in January last, laid before me, as Bishop of the Diocese, "a full statement of the property and funds in their charge," from which it appears that the amount of personal assets is $104,807 57, and the estimated value of the real estate, exclusive of the domain (about 340 acres) on which the buildings are to be erected, is $69,845.

The two modes of relief suggested in my last year's Address, for the defective and inadequate support of the clergy—

1. The increase of their regular stated salaries,
2. And an Annual Donation on Thanksgiving Day,— have been carried into some effect. In several cases the regular salaries have been increased, and in very many, if not all, the Annual Thanksgiving Donation has been made, affording, in numerous instances, a most seasonable and needful relief. May the zeal and benevolence of the Diocese continue and enlarge in both departments!

The want of additional clergy is the distressing want of this Diocese, as it is of the Church at large in our country. My reflections on the difficulty of procuring the requisite number for the supply of our congregations, for the expansion of the Church, for Missions abroad and at home, and for aggressive movements upon sin and error in the world have led me to the conclusion of avowing and urging the need of a "TRAINING SCHOOL FOR CANDIDATES," in every Diocese, as the true, permanent and effective mode of relief.

The principle of training for school teachers, male and female, is adopted, both at home and abroad, in normal schools, and training schools, some forty of which now exist in England. Why may not the same principle be applied to the preparatory steps of clerical training ?

The inward call to the ministry must come from the Spirit of God to the individual. But this is not incompatible with the early, diligent, careful, anxious and guarded culture of the mind, and its preservation from the exposures and temptations and the counteracting influence of the world, the flesh and the devil. It is not Colleges that we need for such an object ; it is not Theological Seminaries, as they now exist, that we need ; but an institution for earlier control, guidance, protection and training—to lead the opening mind to God's work, as Samuel was led—as Timothy was led ;—from the earliest dawn of the spiritual mind to its full development,—from the embryo wish to be devoted to God in the ministry, to the consummation of it in the actual bestowal of the authorized commission. Thousands of children have been consecrated by parental will and prayer, to the ministry, without reaching it. Hundreds of children have themselves panted for the holy office in vain. Ardent piety and high talent have been lost to the Church for want of some institution to cherish these early displays for its holy ends, at the needful time ; and to baffle the alienating, corrupting and overwhelming influence of the world and the flesh, which interpose to defeat the desire and intention alike of parent and child.

The tender bud of piety is exposed to the cold atmosphere and rude blasts of sin and the world, and alas ! it perishes ; or you place it where an impure and unsanctified heat expands it into selfishness, levity and vice. Many a mother has committed her tender son, the child of watchfulness and prayer, solemnly devoted in her inmost soul, to the service and ministry of God her Saviour, to the public school, the eminent academy, and the distinguished college, to have her holy wishes and aspirations crushed by disappointment ; simply because our schools, academies and colleges are not exclusively arranged and adapted to the work of cherishing the seed there deposited. The associations, influences, ways, habits, tones of thought, prevailing views are worldly ; and instead of fostering, counteract the holy desires and ministerial views of the child. He is led into temptation, instead of being kept out of it.

What we need, I think, and what wealth and liberality can best bestow upon the Church, is a "Training School for Candidates," in each Diocese, where School, Academical and College Education, if necessary, can be obtained by children designed by their parents, or themselves, for the ministry, without the exposures to which they are now subjected—a literal "school of the prophets," where "education for the ministry," is not a side, or contingent object, but the sole object of the instructions, associations, devotions, influences and labors of the entire establishment.

Such an institution would, I think, be immediately filled by youth seeking the holy ministry, and such only should be admitted into it. Such only should be retained in it.

The full plan and details of such an institution I do not present. I merely suggest it, as, in my judgment, the mode of relief which the exigences of the Church or to the want of ministers, emphatically demands.

I am glad to learn that it is the topic on which a reverend brother will, this evening, God willing, present to your minds more mature and extended views. I earnestly commend it to your consideration, prayers, and designs of good to the Church.

I would suggest to the Convention the expediency of authorizing the Standing Committee to apply to the Legislature for the incorporation of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy, and also of the Education and Missionary Board with the Trustee of the Permanent Missionary Fund, with a view to the greater security and safer management of the said funds.

I reserve my views, beyond the expressions in my last Address, in regard to the Memorial to the House of Bishops, until it be known what proposals, if any, the Commission shall report.

I have thus presented to your notice the customary details and views which the Canon contemplates.

Let us enter on our Conventional duties with thankful hearts that during the past year God has been graciously pleased to withhold from the Clergy the hand of death, to bless their labors, and to allow us to meet in harmony, love and peace on this occasion.

To His continued blessing, and to the guidance of his Holy Spirit, I affectionately and fervently commend you all.

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,
Bishop of the Diocese.

August 15th, 1855.

On motion of Mr. P. M. Dox,

Resolved, That so much of the address of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop as relates to the incorporation by the Legislature of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund—and the Education and Missionary Committee of the Diocese, with the Treasurer of the Permanent Missionary Fund, be referred to the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of those funds.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Gregory, so much of the address of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop as refers to and recommends the establishment of a training school for the young, with a view to education for the Ministry, be referred to a Committee of seven, to report to this Convention at eleven o'clock to-morrow morning.

Whereupon, the Rt. Rev. the Chair named Rev. Dr. Gregory, Rev. J. J. Brandegee, Rev. M. Van Rensselaer, Rev. E. Ingersoll, Messrs. W. C. Pierrepont, H. Seymour, George J. Gardner, to constitute the Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Shelton, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the admission of Churches into union with the Convention, presented the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on the admission of Churches into union with this Convention, report, that they have examined the papers from the Church of the Ascension, in the city of Buffalo, and St. James' Church, in the city of Buffalo, of Christ Church, in the city of Rochester, and of St. Mary's Church, Truxton, Cortland county, and find them all correct.

The Committee therefore recommend that said Churches be admitted into union with this Convention.

WILLIAM SHELTON,
F. W. HUBBARD,
CHARLES B. PERRY.

The question in the case of these Churches, recommended by the Committee, being taken separately,

On motion,

On motion,

Resolved, That St. James' Church, Buffalo, be admitted into union with this Convention.

On motion,

Resolved, That Christ Church, Rochester, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Whereupon, Messrs. S. O. Smith and D. B. Beach, deputies from this Parish, presented their certificates and took their seats.

On motion,

Resolved, That St. Mary's Church, Truxton, Cortland county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Whereupon, Mr. David K. Smith, a deputy from this Parish, presented his certificate and took his seat.

The hour designated by the XXist Rule of Order, for that purpose, having arrived, the House adjourned to 9 o'clock on Thursday morning.

THURSDAY MORNING, August 16th, 1855.

The Convention met: Morning Prayer was read by the Rev. R. N. Parke, assisted by the Rev. William Paret, who read the Lessons; the remainder of the services being read by the Rev. Malcom Douglass, after which the Rt. Rev. the President took the Chair.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read, and on motion, approved.

On calling the absent members, the Rev. George L. Foote, Rev. Noble Palmer, and Rev. Rufus D. Stearns, not present at the calling of the roll yesterday, answered to their names and took their seats.

Also the following Deputies :—

Chautauque, .St. John's, Dunkirk,.....J. Bulkley.

 Madison,St. Peter's, Cazenovia,Charles Crandall.
 Monroe,Grace, Rochester,.....George H. Mumford.
 Ontario,.....Zion, East Bloomfield,Frederick N. Tobey.
 Tioga,Grace, Waverly,.....Thomas Yates.

Reports from Standing Committees were then called for in the order named in the VIth Rule of Order.

The Committee on the admission of Churches into union with the Convention, reported having examined the documents relating to St. Paul's Church, Chittenango, and find them correct, and recommend its adoption into union with the Convention.

Whereupon, on motion,

Resolved, That St. Paul's Church, Chittenango, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Mr. Sanford Cobb presented the certificate of his appointment as a deputy from this Parish, and took his seat.

Mr. P. M. Dox, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, presented the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, respectfully report, that they have examined the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, for the year ending August 1st, 1855, compared them with the vouchers, and find them correct.

The Receipts of the Treasurer have been as follows:

Balance on hand August 1st, 1854,.....	$2,364 54
Collection in Convention, August 16th, 1854,.....	63 31
Amount received for Interest on Loans to August 1st, 1855,	167 86
Collections from 68 Parishes,	1,704 07
	$4,299 78

Disbursements.

Amount paid 8 Clergymen:

Four received $200 each,.....	$800 00
Four " $150 "	600 00
Paid for Postage,	64

Leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of.$2,899 14

The Treasurer reports that the sum of $2,586 51 of the balance in his hands, is temporarily loaned on interest at 7 per cent., the security therefor being certificates for Central Railroad Stock, worth, at their present value, $3,800.

In view of the rapid accumulation of the Christmas Fund, the recommendation of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, in his Annual Address, seems eminently proper. The security of the fund, by judicious investment, can be best attained by the incorporation of the same. Your Committee have, therefore, directed their Chairman to present to the Convention, for its adoption, a resolution which contemplates that object.

Respectfully submitted,

PETER M. DOX,
WM. SEAVER,
LANSING B. SWAN.

August 16th, 1855.

The Rev. W. B. Ashley, in behalf of the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Unfinished Business, respectfully report, that they have examined the Journal of the last Convention, and find on page 61 that a Select Committee was appointed on the subject of "Churches losing their connection with the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese" on account of neglecting to elect Vestries, with instructions to report to this Convention.

And on page 62, that the Committee on the Increase of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, was continued in charge of that subject, with instructions to report to this Convention.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WM. BLISS ASHLEY,
H. A. RISLEY,
CALEB B. DRAKE.

Reports from the Special Committees in the order in which they were appointed, being called for,

Mr. F. W. Hubbard, from the Special Committee appointed at the Convention of 1854 on the subject of the Dissolution of Religious Corporations, made the following

REPORT:

The Select Committee to which was referred the Report of the Standing Committee on the subject of the Dissolution of Incorporated Churches by neglect to elect Vestries, etc., and to which was also referred the Canon passed in 1842, "of Churches losing their connection with the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese," respectfully report:—

These incorporations are created by virtue of the general law upon the subject of Church incorporations, to be found in the 1 Rev. Stat., p. 1179, 4th Ed.; and have the powers and capacities given by that statute, as well as by the general law in relation to incorporations, to be found in the same volume at page 1178. By the terms of their charters, such corporations have perpetual existence, and the point that is presented, is in relation to the causes or circumstances that will, of themselves, work a dissolution of such an incorporation, or will so far work a dissolution as that individuals may treat them as dissolved, the sovereign authority not having interfered in the matter.

A regularly organized Church fails for a series of years, five years for example, to hold an election of officers, to maintain any religious services, the congregation become dispersed or die, and the corporation possesses no property, but no proceedings are instituted by the Attorney General to procure a judicial decree of dissolution: Has this body still a corporate existence, or is it a defunct body?

A reference to a few established authorities will answer this inquiry.

In the case of the Attorney General vs. The Bank of Niagara, Hopk. 800, where the corporation had discontinued its business for four successive years, the Court held that the Bank had not forfeited its corporate privileges by non-user, saying, "The mere omission by a corporation to exercise its powers, does not of itself, unconnected with other acts, work a forfeiture of its charter. This rule is so laid down in the English books, and has been repeatedly recognized in our own Courts." Insolvency and the offence of buying up its own notes at a discount, were also charged against the Bank, but the Court refused to decree its dissolution.

In 5th Johns., Ch. R. 866, Slee vs. Bloom and others. The Dutchess Cotton Manufacturing Company, organized under the law of 1811, ceased, after December, 1817, to have any meetings of its trustees or to do any business or act, and on the first of February, 1818, all the property of the corporation, real and personal, was sold upon execution.

In April, 1819, the plaintiff, a creditor of the Company, commenced a suit against the defendants as stockholders, to hold them personally liable under the seventh section of the statute, on the ground that the corporation was dissolved.

Chancellor Kent held, that although the corporation was liable to be dissolved by the institution of judicial proceedings on the part of the State, that the non-user or mis-user of its franchises did not work a forfeiture until such proceedings were actually taken. He asserts that a neglect to elect officers on the day indicated in the charter would not be important, but that by express authority of the statute, the Company would not thereby be dissolved, but those already elected would continue officers until their places were supplied by others. He cites from 1 Pierre Williams, 207, the case of Regina vs. Ballivos, where vacancies were required to be filled up in fifteen days, but the corporation had neglected to fill them until twenty-two years had passed, and all the burgesses authorized to elect were extinct but one. The Court did not think it reasonable that this one should have the power of electing all the rest, but they did not therefore declare the corporation at an end, nor as the Committee understand the case, did they hold that it was a cause of dissolution. He also cites, with approbation, the remark of Powell, J., that a corporation might, upon their charter day, choose a bailiff, though there was none then in being, and had not been for twenty years before. He says that a corporation may be dissolved by the death of all its members, (not officers,) or the destruction of an integral part of it, or by surrender of its franchises into the hands of the government, or by forfeiture of its charter through abuse or neglect of its franchises.

In the last case, he says, the forfeiture must be judicially ascertained and declared, and that the power which may have been abused or abandoned cannot be taken away but by regular process.

In 6 Paige R. 118, the Court of Chancery held, that although the statute declared that a corporation should be deemed to have surrendered its charter and to be dissolved when it had remained insolvent for a year, or had suspended its ordinary business, or neglected to pay its undisputed evidences of debt for one year, that still the corporation is not actually dissolved, until proceedings have been instituted in law or equity to have such dissolution judicially declared.

The Court say: "The object of the statute was not to put an immediate end to the corporation for all purposes, at the termination of the year from which the insolvency or non-user commenced, so as to deprive its creditors of all the rights and remedies by suit against the corporation itself, but to enable the creditors, and all others who are interested in having the surrender of the corporate privileges and a dissolution of the corporation judicially declared, to take the proper proceedings for that purpose."

This, it will be observed, was an attempt to compel one creditor who had obtained the corporate property upon judgment and execution, in satisfaction of his own debt, to apply it distributively, upon all the corporate debts, on the ground that the corporation was dissolved by non-user when the judgment proceedings were taken, and that such proceedings were therefore void. The Court, however, did not sustain the claim.

In Angel and Ames on Corporations, it is thus laid down: If a corporation refuses to continue the election of officers till all die who could make an election, the corporation is dissolved; but where the corporators possess the power to assemble and choose officers to carry into effect the objects of the incorporation, a neglect to choose officers will not work a dissolution, but will merely suspend the exercise of the powers of the corporation until proper officers are chosen. (Angel and Ames, Cap. 108.)

(Angel and Ames on Corp., 728 and onward.) In England, corporations may be dissolved, first, by act of Parliament; secondly, by the loss of all its members, by death or otherwise, or by the loss of an integral part, where it has more than one separate and distinct component part; thirdly, by the surrender of its franchises; and fourthly, through forfeiture of its charter by abuse or negligence of the privileges conferred by it.

A dissolution by act of Parliament or by act of the Legislature, it is not now necessary for us to discuss.

A dissolution by the death of the members, takes place only when all the corporators are dead, or so few remain that by the constitution of the corporation they cannot continue the succession. As long, however, as the remaining corporators are sufficient in number to continue the succession, the body remains; as though all the monks of an abbey died, yet if the abbot was alive, the corporation was not determined, since the abbot might profess others.

(Angel and Ames, 738.) Even this dissolution is spoken of in this authority, not as an absolute dissolution, but to use the precise language, "as a dissolution to all purposes of action, at least."

At p. 734: Corporations failing to elect their officers are spoken of as suspended, rather than dissolved.

At p. 735: Private corporations aggregate in this country are distinguished from municipal corporations in this, that they are not in general composed of integral parts. The stockholders compose the company, and the managers, or directors, or officers, are their agents, necessary for the management of the affairs of the company, but not essential to its existence as such, and not forming an integral part. The corporation exists per se, so far as it is requisite for the maintenance of perpetual succession and the holding and preserving its franchises. The non-existence of the managers does not suppose the non-existence of the corporation. The latter may be dormant, its franchises may be suspended for want of the means of action, but the capacity to restore its functionaries by means of new elections may remain.

A dissolution by surrender technically, only takes place where the corporation, by its own expressed assent, formally or substantially made, abandons and gives up its corporate existence, and where such abandonment is also duly accepted. (Angel and Ames, 786-7.)

What this acceptance must be, or to whom made, is not clearly indicated in the books, nor is it important to the present inquiry, if we bear in mind that a surrender is different from, and independent of, non-user or mis-user of the corporate franchises, and cannot be inferred from such non or mis-user. (A. and A., 789.)

A great variety of instances are collected at p. 749 of Angel and Ames, showing that a corporation may be stripped of its property, be deficient in almost every sign of external life, and yet not be deemed to have surrendered or lost its legal existence.

The recent case in the Court of Appeals, of Mann vs. Pents, 8 Coms., 415, reversing 2 Sand., ch. 257, although not directly upon the point in question, recognizes the view for which we contend, and holds that the return of an execution unsatisfied against a corporation, and a sequestration of its property, does not necessarily dissolve the corporation.

As apparently against this array of authorities, which might be greatly increased, and only apparently, we find the following cases:

In Slee vs. Bloom, 19 Johns., R. 456, the case already commented upon as decided in 5th Johns. Chancery, was presented in the late Court for the Correction of Errors. This Court then decided that where a manufacturing company ceased, after December, 1817, to have any meeting of its trustees, or to do any business or act, and where on the first of February, 1818, all the property, real and personal, was sold upon execution, the corporation should be deemed dissolved so far as to render the stockholders personally liable in a suit commenced against them by a creditor in April, 1819.

The case was, however, put upon the ground that the corporation had itself renounced its rights; Ch. J. Spencer saying (at p. 474): "In coming to the conclusion that the corporation in this case is dissolved, I lay out of the case everything of mis-user or non-user, excepting the influence which the fact of non-user may have, as evidence connected with other facts, to show the renunciation of the corporate rights. Upon the reasons and authorities cited by the Chancellor, mis-user or non-user cannot be relied upon as a specific ground of dissolution." Again: "The ground upon which I place my opinion that the corporation is dissolved, is, that they have done, and suffered acts to be done, equivalent to a direct surrender. The Chancellor coincides, and it does not, in my judgment, admit of a doubt that a corporation may be dissolved by a surrender of all their corporate rights."

As already shown, a surrender, formal and affirmative, by the direct assent of the corporation, or of the body of the society, is a well known mode of producing the dissolution of a corporation, and is distinct and independent of the question of non-user or mis-user.

This case of Slee vs. Bloom, (at pp. 476, 477,) shows too, quite clearly, that the corporation was held to be dissolved, simply, so far as to render the stockholders personally liable, and that as to rights of persons or property, (as rights of common, &c.,) the corporation could not be said to be dissolved, till the sovereign power should interfere, and a decree of dissolution be judicially declared.

And upon the same idea, was passed the statute of April 16th, 1844, enacting that where a Church neglects to elect its officers, it shall not be deemed to be dissolved, provided the omissions are supplied within one year. It means that unless they elect within the one year, they shall be adjudged to be dissolved upon proper proceedings taken, not that they are ipso facto dissolved and cease to exist.

In the case of Penniman vs. Briggs, (Hopk. 300,) it appeared that a woolen manufacturing company was organized under the act of 1811; that in January, 1818, all its real and personal property was sold on execution; that it was then, and ever since had been, totally insolvent; that it had ceased to manufacture, or to act as a corporation in any respect since that time. Creditors brought a suit against the stockholders, alleging that the company was dissolved. The Chancellor, upon an investigation of the law, held that a mere omission to exercise a corporate franchise is not a forfeiture of the franchise, or a dissolution of the corporation; that besides the omission to use the corporate powers in that case, there was an entire inability to exercise them by reason of a total want of funds. He says that many other corporations, such as those instituted for police, or for the administration of civil, religious or literary concerns, may well exist and execute the purpose of their institution without funds. In that case, and for those reasons, he held the corporation to be dissolved in fact, and that the stockholders were liable.

He, however, expressly refused to declare that the company had lost all its rights, but merely that as between the creditors and stockholders it was to be deemed dissolved.

If this opinion is good law, it is placed upon grounds, in the opinion of the Chancellor, which would expressly exclude a religious corporation from a similar destruction.

In the recent case of Robertson vs. Bullions, (1 Kernan's Rep., p. 248,) the Court of Appeals decided, that religious corporations are to be regarded as civil corporations, governed by the ordinary rules of the common law; that the members of the society or congregation are the corporators, and not the trustees; that the trustees, (in the Church, the wardens and vestrymen) stand in the same relation to the corporation as directors to a bank.

The Court of Appeals also recently decided, in The People vs. Fulton, (1 Kernan's Rep., p. 94,) that the trustees of a religious corporation are the mere managing agents or officers, not invested with any title to the Church property, in trust or otherwise; that the title and also the legal possession is in the corporation, subject to the management of the trustees, the same as the property of any other civil corporation is, to its officers or directors.

The Committee find no difficulty in arriving at the following conclusions:—

1. That the neglect of a Church corporation for a series of years to hold an election of officers, to maintain religious services, or to hold property, is a mere non-user of its franchises, which will not destroy the corporate existence, until judicial proceedings are taken to declare the existence at an end.

2. That the death, dispersion, or incapacity to act for other reasons, of all its officers, would not produce such destruction. It would be suspended until the congregation should elect other officers, not destroyed.

3. If all the members of the corporation who could make an election are dead, or legally incapable of acting, then the corporation, not having the possible ability to restore its powers of action, becomes dissolved. The members of the corporation are those described in the statute (2 R. S., 1179, 4th Ed.) as 1st, "the male persons of full age who shall have belonged to such Church or congregation for the last twelve months preceding such election;" 2d, "those who shall have been received therein, (i. e. into such Church,) by the rite of confirmation, or by receiving the Holy Communion, or by purchasing or hiring a pew or seat in said Church, or by some joint act of the parties and the Rector, whereby they shall have attached themselves to the Protestant Episcopal Church."

4. In all these cases, except the last, when the remaining portion of the Church wish to revive their corporate body and renew its practical powers, they are to meet on the day appointed in their charter, and elect their officers.

5. That the Wardens and Vestrymen duly elected continue in office until others are elected in their stead, unless by judgment of ouster the corporation is declared dissolved.

The Canon passed in 1842, referred to your Committee, provides that for certain delinquencies, a Church shall lose its right of representation in the Convention of the Diocese; but no provision is made as to representation in the case of a Church losing its corporate existence by judicial decree or otherwise. In the opinion of your Committee, however, no such provision or Canon on that subject is necessary. By the fourth Canon of the Diocese, due incorporation is made a condition precedent to the admission of a church into union with the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese. Should a Church, therefore, lose its charter by the judgment of a competent tribunal, it would plainly forfeit its alliance with the Diocese; and the Convention, in the exercise of its ordinary parliamentary powers, in determining the qualification of its members, would doubtless possess the right and the power to refuse a representation therefrom. This is upon the principle of the implied obligation and duty resting upon an individual Church to continue its corporate existence so long as it claims to maintain its connection with the Diocese, and its representation in Convention.

The Committee, therefore, make no recommendation in the premises.

The Rev. Dr. Gregory, from the Committee on that portion of the Address which relates to the Diocesan Training School, the hour having arrived for that purpose, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee to which was referred so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to a Diocesan Training School, respectfully report, that they have given to the subject all the consideration which was possible in the brief time allowed them for that purpose. The matter is confessedly one of very great importance—an importance which is enhanced by the continually increasing necessities of the Church, and the continually increasing inadequacy of supply from any existing means or institutions.

That something should be done with a view to increase the number of candidates for the Ministry, must be evident to all. The existing deficiency does not arise from the want of young men who are willing to be educated with a view to the Ministry, but from the want of means to aid and encourage such young persons as have no pecuniary resources of their own.

There are two modes by which this aid and encouragement may be afforded. One mode is by scholarships, or by such equivalent pensions from individuals or congregations as shall be assigned to young men at an early age, leaving them to pursue their academic studies wherever it is most convenient to them.

The other mode is by supporting and educating young men, from an early age, in schools established expressly and exclusively for training them to be candidates for the Ministry. The Committee, for the want of time, are not prepared to suggest the details of any plan by which this mode may be adopted. Your Committee, therefore recommend:—

1. That it be earnestly proposed to every congregation of the Diocese, to provide some aid, however small, to one or more such youths as, being themselves destitute, are nevertheless, willing to seek an education preparatory to becoming candidates for the Ministry.

2. That the subject of a Diocesan Training School be referred to a Committee for further consideration, and to be reported on at the next Convention.

JNO. J. BRANDEGEE,
HORATIO SEYMOUR,
EDW'D INGERSOLL,
W. C. PIERREPONT,
GEO. J. GARDNER.

The resolutions recommended by Committee were, on motion, adopted.

Whereupon, the Rt. Rev. the President named Rev. Messrs. Gregory, Ashley, Brandegge and Van Rensselaer, and Messrs. Seymour, Pierrepont and Dox, to constitute the Committee.

Mr. H. Seymour, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee to which was referred the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, report, that they have not been able to examine the securities in the hands of the Trustees, but they are satisfied, from an examination of the report and the receipts attached to the same, that it contains a correct statement of the condition of the Fund.

HORATIO SEYMOUR,
TRUMBULL CAREY,
ELIJAH FORD.

To the President of the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York :

The Trustees for the care and management of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York, report:

That the bonds and mortgages belonging to the Fund are the same in number and amount of principal as last year, and they refer to the schedule attached to the last annual report for a list thereof.

The interest on all the securities has been received and paid to the Bishop, (whose receipt for the amount, $2,620 64, is hereto annexed,) except on one bond and mortgage for $900, which is now under foreclosure, and on which the whole principal and all arrearages of interest, amounting on the first day of May last to $1,089, will doubtless be realized in a short time; and excepting the semi-annual interest due the first of May on two other securities, being $52 50.

There has also been received from time to time, for interest on moneys not permanently invested, the sum of $146 37, and for net interest on notes given to increase the fund, $22 47. The amount received by the Treasurer of the Diocese for contributions to make up deficiencies of the Bishop's Income, is $50 87. The receipts of the Bishop for the various sums above specified are annexed.

The amount of principal of the notes given for the increase of the Fund, as reported last year, and then unpaid or uncollected, was.....$2,148 44

 Additional notes have since been received; amounting (principal) to 150 00
 $2,298 44
 There has since been received on account of the principal,..... 889 68
 Leaving of principal still unpaid,$1,908 78

The annual instalments of many of the notes are payable in July, in various places, and no remittances have as yet been received on account of them.

Supposing the whole remaining principal of the notes to be collectable, the whole Fund in charge of the Trustees will stand thus:

Bonds and Mortgages,.....	$39,050 00
Principal of Notes for increase,.....	1,908 78
Moneys not permanently invested,	2,091 22
Total,	$48,050 00

In behalf of the Trustees,

August 14th, 1855.

J. WATSON WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Mr. W. C. Pierrepont, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, respectfully report, that they have examined the Accounts of the Treasurer and all the vouchers therein referred to, for the year ending on the first day of August instant, and that they find them in all respects correct and satisfactory.

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop, having in his Address reported to the Convention his decision in regard to the application for the organization of a new Parish in the village of Canandaigua, and the reasons for withholding his assent under Canon IX of the General Convention of 1853—

On motion of Mr. Rogers,

Resolved, That the decision of the Bishop in the case of the proposed new Parish at Canandaigua, be affirmed.

The hour having arrived for the order of the day, (see Rules of Order, § XVIII,) the House proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and the Deputies to the General Convention, by one ballot, as directed by Section 2 of Canon XII, Mr. William A. Seaver and the Rev. Amos B. Beach being appointed by the Rt. Rev. the President to receive, as tellers, the votes of the Clergy, and the Rev. E. H. Cressey, D. D., and Mr. Peter M. Dox, to receive the votes of the Laity.

On counting the ballots, it appeared that the following persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and were, therefore, declared duly elected :

STANDING COMMITTEE.

Rev. Benjamin Hale, D. D.	Mr. David S. Hall,

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Proal,

Resolved, That the Clergy present their Parochial Reports to the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, as required by Canon XII of the General Convention of 1853 ; that the reading of the same be dispensed with, and that they be printed, as usual, in the Appendix of the Journal.

The Rt. Rev. the President presented, in behalf of the Education and Missionary Committee of the Diocese, the following

REPORT:

The Education and Missionary Board present their Annual Report as follows:

The number of Missionaries employed in the Diocese during the last year is fifty-four. Thirty-two of them have labored in their respective spheres for the whole year, and twenty-two for shorter periods. Sixty Churches have enjoyed their services. The present number of Missionaries is forty-five. The Education Fund has aided three Beneficiaries. The Parochial reports present the details of the labors of the Missionaries.

The Trustee of the Permanent Missionary Fund, N. B. Kidder, Esq., on the 1st of February last, handed over the securities of the Fund to the Bishop of the Diocese, as President of the Board, on his request; and having relinquished the charge of the Fund, William Young, Esq., of Geneva, was appointed Trustee of the Fund in his place, by the Board, subject to the approval of this Convention. His Report of the state of the Fund is appended. The entire interest, $734 78, has been paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese. The securities consist of $5000 in Kentucky State Bonds, $5211 in Bonds and Mortgages, and $1000 in Mortgage Bond (No. 191,) of Canandaigua and Elmira Rail Road, in all amounting to $11,211.

The Report and account of the Trustee having been examined, audited and certified, are appended.

The Van Waganen Fund is reported by the Trustee, Joseph Julland, Esq., to amount at present to $1,680 16, duly invested. This Report is annexed.

There have been appropriated to the Education Fund $238 83, and to the Diocesan Missionary, $4,808 97.

The Board have to lament the difficulty of securing Missionary laborers in the field, and earnestly pray for the increase of them in the Diocese, and throughout the Church.

All which is respectfully submitted, by order of the Education and Missionary Board.

W. H. DE LANCEY, Chairman.

GENEVA, August 10th, 1855.

To the Rt. Rev. William H. De Lancey, Chairman of the Education and Missionary Board in the Diocese of Western New York:

DAVID S. HALL.

GENEVA, August 8th, 1855.

To the Rt. Rev. William H. De Lancey, Chairman of the Education and Missionary Board of the Diocese of Western New York.

The undersigned, Trustee of the Van Wagonen Missionary Fund for the county of Chenango would respectfully report, that the amount of said Fund at the date of the last Annual Report was,.....$1,482 16
Received on account of interest,.....98 00

Present amount of said Fund,.....$1,580 16

The first loan made by me was made on the first day of January, 1850, for the term of five years, which term expired on the first day of January last, at which time the principal sum of $1000 was paid, together with the arrears of interest. I effected a new loan on the 31st of March last, of the sum of $1,200 on bond and mortgage, for the term of six years. This, together with a bond and mortgage for the sum of $400, bearing date January 1st, 1854, constitutes the securities held by me, which in the aggregate amount to $1,600, being $19 84 more than the present amount of the Fund. This will be retained out of the accruing interest.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOSEPH JULIAND, Trustee.

GENEVE, August 1st, 1855.

The Rt. Rev. the President presented, on the subject of the De Veaux College, the following

REPORT:

To the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Trustees of the De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children, as required by the articles of incorporation, respectfully report to your body, that they have, since the last report, commenced the erection of the College buildings, which they hope to complete next year; that as soon as the buildings and grounds are prepared, pupils will be received and the instruction will be commenced.

They report, also, that the vacancy in the Board reported last year, has been supplied by the election of Jacob A. Barker, Esq., of Buffalo, as one of the Trustees.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY, President.

JOSEPH M. CLARKE, Secretary.

NIAGARA FALLS, August 3d, 1855.

The hour designated by the XXist Rule of Order for that purpose having arrived, the House, on motion, took a recess till half-past 3 o'clock.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 3½ o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled.

On motion of Mr. H. Seymour,

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to report to the Convention what action shall be had whenever the Bishop withholds his assent to the organization of any new Parish, and reports the reasons for withholding his consent, to the Convention, in pursuance of the provisions of Canon IX of the General Convention of 1853.

Whereupon, the Rt. Rev. the President named Messrs. H. Seymour, H. W. Rogers, G. C. Shearman, Rev. Dr. Gregory, and the Rev. Dr. Shelton.

On motion of the Rev. Amos B. Beach,

Resolved, That this Convention has heard with special edification and pleasure the able, instructive and timely Charge delivered by the Bishop of the Diocese to the Clergy at the opening of the same, and that he be respectfully requested to furnish a copy for publication. Also,

Resolved, That in the event of the consent of the Bishop to the publication of said charge, 2,500 copies be printed at the expense of the Convention.

On motion of Mr. P. M. Dox,

Resolved, That so much of the Address of the Bishop as refers to the Permanent Missionary Fund, be, and the same is hereby referred to the Standing Committee of the Diocese, with authority, if they shall deem it expedient, to take measures to secure the passage of a law, by the next Legislature, incorporating the Trustees of that Fund.

Mr. Rogers presented the following resolution, which, after discussion being had thereupon, was, on motion, laid on the table :

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to procure, if practicable, an act to be passed by the Legislature, declaring that the omission of a religious corporation to elect a Board of Trustees or Vestry for three consecutive years, shall be deemed and taken ipso facto to work a dissolution of such corporation.

On motion,

Resolved, That 1,800 copies of the Journal of the Convention be printed and distributed, as usual, under the direction of the Secretary.

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to prepay the postage on those copies of the Journal directed by Canon to be transmitted by mail.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the congregation of Christ Church, Binghamton, for the hospitality so generously extended to its members during the present session, and that the Rev. the Rector be requested to give publicity to this resolution in such way as he may deem expedient.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the Directors of the Buffalo, Corning & New York Railroad Company, and the Syracuse & Binghamton Railroad Company, for the favor extended to the members of this House, granting them the privileges of their Roads at half price ; and that the Rector of Christ Church, Binghamton, communicate this resolution to the proper authorities.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Gregory,

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be presented to the Rev. Dr. Proal, the Secretary, and his Assistant, the Rev. William A. Matson, for their services at this session of the Convention.

The House then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the usual exercises.

Whereupon, after an address from the Rt. Rev. the President, the Convention united in chanting the Gloria in Excelsis, and in appropriate prayers from the Liturgy, by the Bishop, and after his blessing, adjourned sine die.

Signed by order of the Convention,

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,

PRESIDENT OF THE CONVENTION.

P. A. PROAL, Secretary.

W. A. MATSON, Assistant Secretary.

I have officiated for this Church and Nunda since November 26th, 1854. The people attending these Churches are sincerely attached to the Church, regular in their attendance, devout in their worship, kind in their deportment to their Clergyman, and cheerfully and faithfully pay him in accordance with their ability. Land for a parsonage was bequeathed in the will of the late Mr. Hunt, and a subscription has been commenced.

BROOME COUNTY.

Christ Church, Binghamton.

[There is no report from this Parish.]

St. Luke's Church, Harpersville ; the Rev. NOBLE PALMER, Rector.

Congregation...Families 46, (adults 140, children 60,) total number of individuals 200; baptisms...adults 3, infants 5, total 8; confirmed 7; communicants...(admitted 7, received 8,) total added 10, removed 8, present number 70; marriage 1; burials 4; public services...on Sundays 112, on other days 24, total number of services 136; the Holy Communion publicly administered 13 times, and in private once; children catechised...number of children 10, number of times 2; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 1, female 3,) total 4; pupils, (male 10, female 20,) total 30.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV. and actually transmitted to the Treasurer from August 1st, 1854, to August 1st, 1855, have been made and appropriated as follows, viz :

For Diocesan Missions,	$16 30
For Bibles and Prayer Books,	2 00

For Domestic Missions,	3 00
For Parochial objects,	450 00
Total,	$475 55

The contributions on Thanksgiving Day, additional to my stated salary, amounted to about $30. Through the praiseworthy zeal and industry of the ladies, and the liberality of members of the Parish, considerable improvement has been made in the Church edifice, both as to its appearance and convenience.

Zion Church, Windsor ; the Rev. NOBLE PALMER, Missionary.

There has been but little noticeable improvement in this Parish since my last report. I have held services there, to average, once a month. Baptisms..adult 1, children 2, total 3; confirmed 1; the Holy Communion publicly administered once. The whole amount of contributions in the Parish is scarcely worth mentioning, being about $16 towards my salary, and $2 for Domestic Missions.

The want of a suitable house to worship in—the many removals from the Parish of members of the Church, and those interested in it—the distance of the Missionary from the Parish, and the difficulty in finding means of conveyance thither, are all disadvantages in the way of building up the Church. Nevertheless, we labor in hope that a good Providence may shortly remove some of them, and better things be reported another year.

CATTARAUGUS COUNTY.

St. John's Church, Ellicottville.

[There is no report from this Parish.]

St. Stephen's Church, Olean ; Reported by the Wardens.

Baptisms..infants 4; communicants 24; marriages 2; public services to Easter Monday..on Sundays 48, on other days 6, total 54; the Holy Communion publicly administered 6 times, and in private once.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV. and actually transmitted to the Treasurer from August 1st, 1854, to August 1st, 1855, have been made and appropriated as follows, viz :

For Diocesan Missions,..... $10 00

The following sums have also been collected for other objects, viz :

For the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen,..... $ 5 00

For Sunday School Books,..... 4 00

For Parochial objects,..... 4 67

Total,..... $23 67

The Rev. Mr. Wilson resigned the Parish on Easter Monday last. Between this and the first Sunday after Trinity, we had services on Sunday twice. Since this day, the Rev. Charles E. Beardsley has been officiating as our Minister. One infant has been baptized, and we have had services—this day included—on Sundays ten times; making the whole number of services on Sundays and other days, during the year ending August 1st, 1855, 66.

CAYUGA COUNTY.

St. Peter's Church, Auburn ; the Rev. E. HARRISON CRESSY, D. D., Rector.

The following sums have also been collected for other objects, viz :

For the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen,	$ 7 00
For Parochial objects,.....	124 50

Total, $189 75

The services of the Church continue to be attended by strangers, some of whom are manifesting an increasing interest. Measures have been taken to secure a suitable lot for a Church edifice, and we hope ere long to have a more commodious place of worship than the one which we at present occupy. Harmony prevails amongst us, and a determination, so far as God has given us the means, to further the best interests of the Church entrusted to our stewardship.

St. Paul's Church, Montezuma.

[There is no report from this Parish.]

St. Matthew's Church, Moravia ; the Rev. JOHN LEECH, Missionary.

For Parochial objects, 6 50

Total,..... $9 50

St. Paul's Church, Port Byron ; the Rev. JOHN GOTT WEBSTER, Missionary.

Congregation..Families 18; baptisms..adults 2, infants 4, total 6; confirmed 2; communicants..(admitted 2, received 2,) total added 4, removed 2, present number 9; burial 1; public services..on Sundays 27; the Holy Communion publicly administered once; Sunday school 1; teachers (female) 2; pupils, (male 14, female 16,) total 30.

The following sums have been collected, viz :

For "Sailors' Home," New York,..... $ 6 68

For Parochial objects, 16 79

Total,..... $23 42

What we still want most here, after God's blessing, is a convenient place of divine worship. A gentleman of Syracuse, well known in the Church for his beneficence and liberality, has pledged a lot for a Church edifice, when the requisite amount for building one shall be raised. A subscription for that object is just being started. The above amount for the "Sailors' Home," is made up by the offerings of the Sunday school children.

CHAUTAUQUE COUNTY.

St. John's Church, Dunkirk ; the Rev. WILLIAM B. EDSON, Missionary.

Congregation..Families 25, (adults 60, children 50,) total number of individuals 110; baptisms..adults 11, infants 3, total 14; communicants..(received 8,) removed 2, present number 18; marriage 1; burials 3; public services..on Sundays 54, on other days 9, total number of services 63; the Holy Communion publicly administered 3 times; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 1, female 4,) total 5; pupils 30.

For Parochial objects, (including Communion Alms,)..... 272 13

Total,..... $296 50

My connection with this Parish began on the 29th of October, 1854. Previously, it had never had a resident pastor. Services are now held two-thirds of the time. The prompt liberality in defraying the various expenses incident to a renewed attempt to establish the Church here, as well as the increasing interest shown in the services, are especially encouraging. It is hoped that an undertaking so favorably begun, will not be suffered to come to nought.

St. Peter's Church, Forrestville ; the Rev. WILLIAM B. EDSON, Missionary.

Congregation..Families 18, (adults 25, children 21,) total number of individuals 46; baptisms..infants 2; communicants..(received 2,; died 1, present number 18; burial 1; public services..on Sundays 28.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV. and actually transmitted to the Treasurer from August 1st, 1854, to August 1st, 1855, have been made and appropriated as follows, viz:

For Diocesan Missions,.....	$ 4 12
For Bibles and Prayer Books,.....	2 65

The following sum has also been collected for other objects, viz:

For the Christmas fund for Disabled Clergymen,.....	6 00

Total,..... $12 77

Services are held in this Parish but once in three weeks. The want of a suitable edifice is a considerable barrier to the growth of the Church in this place. An important object at present seems to be to maintain the position already held, till a favorable opportunity is offered for building, and securing more frequent services.

Trinity Church, Fredonia ; the Rev. ISRAEL FOOTE, Rector.

Congregation..Families 72, total number of individuals 318; baptisms..adults 21, infants 29, total 50; communicants..(admitted 4, received 2,) total added 6; died 2, removed 7, present number 81; marriages 11; burials 12; public services..on Sundays 102, on other days 14, total number of services 116; the Holy Communion publicly administered 14 times, and in private twice; children catechised..number of children 20, number of times every month; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 6, female 16,) total 22; pupils, (male 27, female 57,) total 84.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV. and actually transmitted to the Treasurer from August 1st, 1854, to August 1st, 1855, have been made and appropriated as follows, viz:

The following sum has been collected, viz:

For Diocesan Missions,..... $3 14

I regret that I cannot give more time and more numerous services to this Parish. The monthly service which I do hold, is invariably well attended.

St. Luke's Church, Jamestown.

[There is no report from this Parish.]

St. Peter's Church, Westfield ; the Rev. ALBERT WOOD, Rector and Missionary.

Congregation..families, about 40; total number of individuals, including children, about 180; baptisms..infants 5; communicants..(admitted 4, received 3,) total added 7; removed 8, present number 57, of whom 39 have actually been to the Holy Communion within the past year; marriages 5; burials 5; public services..on Sundays 85, on other days 25, total number of services 110; the Holy Communion publicly administered 12 times; children catechised..number of children from 6 to 12, number of times 9; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 1, female 4,) total 5; pupils, (male 12, female 24,) total 36. Considerable efforts have been made against the Church in this region, but without any success. There is a steady progress among the friends of the Church, which, if persevered in, will ultimately triumph over every obstacle. At the last Episcopal visitation, there was new vigor infused into the Parish. Its members and friends are doing all they can in order to repair and improve the old Church edifice. They are unable of themselves to accomplish the desirable object, but hope, through aid which will be solicited on their behalf to finish the work before winter.

The above report includes $100 raised for the painting of the Church; and the remainder, with the exception of $5 for Africa, are from the Communion Alms. The congregation has increased, and the general interest felt in the Parish has been good and encouraging. I have accepted the call of St. Thomas' Church, Hamilton, which Church I have supplied regularly of a Sunday evening, for the last eleven Sundays, after the second service here.

CORTLAND COUNTY.

Calvary Church, Homer; the Rev. H. V. GARDNER, resident Rector, and Assistant Missionary for Cortland county.

Congregation..Families 42, (adults 101, children 49,) total number of individuals 150; baptisms..adults 6, infants 18, total 23; confirmed 8; communicants..(admitted 4,) died 1, present number 32; marriage 1; burials 2; public services..on Sundays 41, on other days 8, total number of services 44; the Holy Communion publicly administered 6 times; children catechised..number of children 37, number of times every Sunday, as a general rule; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 1, female 5,) total 6; pupils, (male 18, female 24,) total 37.

Most of the services above reported have been performed since Easter last, when my services in this Parish commenced. Previous to that time, the Rev. Mr. Foote, of McLean, held occasional services, which are included in the above. Since Easter, services have been held in this Parish twice every Sunday, (a third service being held at Cortlandville,) either by Rev. Mr. Foote or myself, who now have the joint charge not only of this Parish, but also of McLean, Cortlandville and Truxton,—the one not officiating in Homer being either at McLean or Truxton. As it will be seen, the number of families have more than doubled since the last report; and there are other indications of prosperity, among which may be mentioned the fact that the Vestry are about to expend some $200 in repairing the Church edifice.

Grace Church, Cortlandville; the Rev. GEORGE L. FOOTE, Missionary and Rector, and the Rev. H. V. GARDNER, Assistant.

Congregation..Families 18, (adults 48, children 27,) total number of individuals 70; baptisms..infants 5, two of which were baptized in Calvary Church, Homer; communicants..died 1, present number 22; burial 1; public services..on Sundays 81, on other days 2, total number of services 83; children catechised..number of children 20, number of times 8.

The attendance on our services has much increased since the present arrangement commenced of evening prayer every Sunday at 5 o'clock. Previous to Easter, the services were, once in four weeks, both morning and evening prayer. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper has not been celebrated in Cortland the past year, as the communicants for the greater part attend Communion in Calvary Church, Homer. It is hoped that a building will soon be erected for this congregation, which would greatly encourage and strengthen them. The collections taken up at the time of public service have been for the most part needed to defray the expenses of room and fuel. The collection taken up at Christmas, in Calvary Church, Homer, for disabled Clergymen, was aided by this congregation.

St. Mary's Church, Truxton; the Rev. GEORGE L. FOOTE, Missionary and Rector, and the Rev. H. V. GARDNER, Assistant Missionary.

Congregation..Families 27, (adults 125, children 57,) total number of individuals 182; baptisms..children 29, two of which were performed in Calvary Church, Homer; public services..on Sunday 14, on other days 12, which were held in different parts of Truxton and vicinity; the Holy Communion administered in private twice; children catechised..number of children 14, number of times 10.

The organization of this Parish was effected on the 11th of August, 1855, being less than three months from the first visit of the Missionary among the people. These consist mostly of English people from our Mother Church, who thus show their readiness to be gathered again into the fold of the Church; many of them having been without the Ministry for over ten years.

Divine service is now held in the Academy of Truxton, on the second and fourth Sundays of the month. The communicants for the greater part attend at Calvary Church, Homer, on the first Sunday of the month, to receive the Lord's Supper.

I have also visited once, and officiated on another occasion in the town of Tully, where I baptized 7 children and preached. There are several families of English people residing in that town, consisting of about twenty persons; besides several others who have been educated in the Church. I have also visited and preached in the towns of Fabius and De Ruyter.

Our regular services for the year are, in Calvary Church, Homer, morning and evening prayer every Sunday, and evening prayer at 5 o'clock every Sunday in Cortlandville; morning and evening prayer on the first and third Sundays of each month at Zion Church, McLean, and also on the second and fourth Sundays in Truxton. The fifth Sunday of the month is devoted to missionary work in other places.

From September 1st to January 1st, the Parish was under the care of the Rev. Mr. Warren, who performed his full share of the work recorded in this report. I take great pleasure in acknowledging the very great kindness and generosity of the people of St. John's Church in bringing me and my family to Buffalo, and in fitting up my residence—as also shown in other ways. They have also added to the accommodations of the Church, and are now engaged in adding still further to both its accommodations and internal fitness and beauty, by building a recess chancel, and putting in eight more altars.

St. James' Church, Buffalo ; the Rev. J. T. EATON, Rector.

Congregation..Families 50, total number of individuals 150; baptisms.. infants 17; communicants 20; marriages 8; burials 24; public services..on Sundays 85, on other days 8, total number of services 88; the Holy Communion publicly administered 7 times; children catechised in the Sunday school; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 1, female 6,) total 7; pupils 40.

This being a new, and, substantially, a free Church, it is as yet impossible to state exactly how many families may be considered as permanently attached to it. The numbers specified above, are the lowest estimate. The attendance has thus far varied from 50 to 150 individuals. Collections have been made in the Church but once a month, and have been appropriated to parochial objects; amount $37 50. But individuals have contributed liberally for the same objects in other ways. We are a missionary Parish, indebted, under God, for its first foundation, and thus far, for a continuance of nursing care and protection, to the Christian kindness and liberality of the Churchmen of Buffalo.

Church of the Ascension, Buffalo ; the Rev. D. F. WARREN, Rector.

I commenced services in this newly organized Parish on the first Sunday in February last. We are now holding services in the Chapel which we have erected on North street, at the head of Franklin street, which we shall occupy until our Church edifice is completed. As the congregation is yet in an unsettled state, I am not able to make out the usual parochial report.

An effort has been made, with the assistance of the late census returns, to obtain an enumeration of the parishioners which should approximate toward accuracy. It embraces a few immigrant families, whose connection with the Parish is but slight, while it does not include many attendants at Church, who are not members of professed Church families. The opportunity has been taken to collect anew all the statistics of the Parish, without reference to former reports, thus avoiding the cumulative error which gradually arises from basing each annual statement on that of the preceding year. Hence, although the present may not coincide fully with previous reports, it will be found to be much more nearly correct.

The Rector is happy to state that the Parish is in a prosperous condition the attendance at public worship is gradually on the increase, and it is hoped that a deeper interest is taken in sacred things. Through the laudable effort of the members of the congregation, the Church edifice has been enlarged to nearly double its former capacity; a new recess chancel, vestry room and organ gallery have also been added, at an expense of $1,188 40 (included in the above report)—all paid for. The first founder of the Church in this place—an aged and devoted member of the congregation—has generously given two beautiful Tablets, containing the Lord's Prayer, the Apostles' Creed, and the Ten Commandments, in inch gold letters.

I have no proper charge of this Parish, being neither Rector nor Missionary, nor yet properly called as Minister of the same. The Parish of Zion Church, Pierrepont Manor, is enough to tax all my energies. But finding this feeble parish so near me, I have undertaken to give them an evening service every Sunday. It is impossible for me to do much in week day pastoral work for them, and the most that I can hope is to prevent the further decline of the Parish. There is a class waiting for confirmation. My services began November 26th, 1854.

St. Paul's Church, Brownville ; the Rev. ANDREW OLIVER, Rector.

The Missionary at this station at the date of last report, continued his connection till April 11th. Not having access to the Parish Register, the report cannot be made out in full. The station is now vacant. The low state of business has led to the removal of quite a number of families, which circumscribes the field of labor.

stance has disheartened the friends of the Church in that town. There are, however, prospects that an influx of population and capital may in course of time take place, and the Parish become prosperous.

Grace Church, Nunda ; the Rev. JAMES O. STOKES, Rector.

Congregation..Families 11, (adults 29, children 18,) total number of individuals 47; communicants..removed 4, present number 16.

The following sum has been collected, viz :

-----------------------------	--------

The Rev. G. P. Waldo, who resides in the village of Nunda, has officiated in this Church about twelve Sundays since the last report. As the distance of these Churches from each other is but 4 miles, the difficulty of a Clergyman to supply them with services is not great. Each congregation has a good Church, and both are free from debt.

MADISON COUNTY.

My services, for the past year, have been confined to this Parish and to Chittenango. I have not officiated in the Parish at Perryville, though I have held myself in readiness to do so, should its members desire it. I have the pleasure to report this Parish entirely free from debt. In matters temporal, it is in a good state; and this, notwithstanding the number of its supporters is annually diminished by removals from it.

St. Thomas' Church, Hamilton.

Total, $322 00

The tower of the Church has been completed, the Church carpeted, the Church lot inclosed, and the organ repaired.

St. George's Church, Mumford ; Vacant.

A lot in this village, eligibly situated, with a frame building thereon, till within the last two or three years the place for all religious services, and now occupied for meetings secular and religious, is deeded to Rev. G. D. Gillespie, "subject to this condition, that said land and premises are to be conveyed by said Gillespie or his legal representatives to the officers of any Protestant Episcopal Church which may hereafter be organized in the village of Mumford, on repayment to him" of part of the original purchase money, advanced to close the contract. The sum originally paid for the premises was raised chiefly in the neighboring Parishes; but few of the donors in the village are now to be found there, as the few Episcopalians once resident in this neighborhood have now either removed or are deceased. It is deemed advisable to place this statement on the Journal of the Convention. The undersigned would be happy to deed the property to the Diocesan or Standing Committee in trust, could it be effected, and would relinquish all claims for this end.

The present Rector entered upon his duties in this Parish on the last Sunday in April. The interim between the termination of the services of Bishop Lee (which took place on the first of January) and that date, was supplied by the Rev. T. A. Hopkins, now of St. Louis, Mo. The change in the rectorship will account for some incompleteness in this report.

It was my privilege, on the first Sunday after my arrival in Rochester, to hold the primary service towards the organization of a new Parish on the east side of the river, which soon after went into effect, under the title of Christ Church. This enterprise is undertaken chiefly by members of St. Luke's Church, residing in that part of the city, and commences under the most favorable auspices. May He without whom nothing is strong, nothing holy, grant it abundant success!

An unusual number of removals from this Parish has taken place during the past year. This, from a previously small congregation, renders the public services of the Church at times saddening rather than cheering. The same cause, together with my resident distance of six miles from the Parish, has had its effects also upon the Sunday school, which was composed mostly of the children of English emigrants, who needed constant attention from teachers and pastor to keep them in the school.

I have given above the amount collected in Church for Parochial objects, of which the Thanksgiving collection was $17 20. The Rector's salary was $750, raised by pew rents. The Parish this year paid $500 for its music, $300 of which is raised by a private subscription among the congregation. Our attendance is good, and the prospects of the Church encouraging. I have held but few services at Tonawanda since my last report. The strength of the Church there is diminished by removals. Have held a number of services at Suspension Bridge, where Mr. C. B. Stuart offers ground for the erection of a Church. There are several Church families there.

Of the public services performed during the conventional year, 1 was performed at Pierrepont Manor, 1 in Adams, 12 in Constantia, 11 in Cleveland, 2 in Pulaski, 2 in New York, 2 in Sackett's Harbor, 2 in Constableville, 3 in Williamstown, 2 in Rome, 2 in Morris, and the remainder in Camden. The debt on the Parsonage has been paid. The removal of several families from the village has reduced the number of attendants on the services of the Church and diminished the means of the Parish.

Our congregations at Oriskany have been good, but the stopping of the factory has thinned out the inhabitants of the village. In addition to my labors at Oriskany, I have officiated four Sundays in Grace Church, Utica, in the absence of the Rector, and one Sunday in Grace Church, Norway. I have celebrated two weddings and attended one funeral at Fairfield; I have also baptized for St. Paul's Parish, Utica, three children and attended two funerals. As almoner of the poor in the city of Utica, I have disbursed over one thousand dollars in provisions and wood, besides giving about four hundred articles of clothing. Among the five hundred families relieved were 634 children and 187 widows.

Having taken charge of this Parish on the 22d of October last, my report commences at that time, and therefore relates to only a portion of the conventional year. During this time the extraordinary severity of the winter, with some disordered health on my part, have very much hindered my efforts. both in the services of the Church and in parochial intercourse. Notwithstanding these unfavorable circumstances, there is some increase in the number of the congregation, and a very commendable promptness in the attendance at public worship, and in other operations of the Parish.

This Parish has had the services of a Missionary but little more than half of the last year, and until lately has had but one service every Sunday, and no regular administration of the Holy Communion. It has also suffered greatly by removals, and by the death of its last male communicant but one. Still the services are well attended and supported by the few Churchmen remaining

The Rector is happy to state that, through the liberality of his parishioners and others, he has been able to commence the erection of a Mission Chapel in a destitute portion of the city. The foundations are already laid, and the building is to be completed about the first of October. The Rev. William Long, the Missionary at Geddes, has charge of this enterprise. He reports that on the first of July a Sunday school was opened, and it is estimated that there are sixty families, not now attending regularly any house of worship, ready to connect themselves with the congregation as soon as the Chapel shall be opened for services.

The Sunday school of the Chapel consists of teachers, (male 4, female 7,) total 11; pupils, (male 80, female 82,) total 62.

Zion Church, East Bloomfield ; Reported by the Wardens.

The Wardens respectfully report, that they have not had a settled Clergman in this Parish the past year; lay services have been continued every Sunday, except when supplied by a Clergyman. The number of families present connected with this Church is about 20; communicants 86; confirmations within the past year, 5; the Holy Communion publicly administered twice—once by Rev. Mr. Gillespie, and once by Rev. Mr. Treadway. Sunday school; teachers, (male 2, female 8,) total 5; pupils 80.

There has been collected and expended for Parochial objects, the sum of $88 00.

This Parish is very feeble, and burthened with a debt upon the Church and Parsonage of $762. The number of families has been reduced by deaths and removals, but those that remain are very desirous to secure the services of a Clergyman, and will do all they can to sustain him.

In addition to my duties as Professor in Hobart Free College, since the first of April, I have officiated as Missionary at Vienna and Clifton Springs, having pastoral charge over St. John's Church, Vienna. I have officiated at Clifton on the afternoon of the first Sunday in each month. The services have been well attended by people from the Water Cure, and strangers visiting the Springs. There are but two resident families of Episcopalians. The Church at Vienna is not yet completed, but hopes are entertained that it may be accomplished in the next year.

In the Parish, there have been expended several thousand dollars upon the new Church lot and edifice. It is hoped and expected, with the continuance of God's blessing upon the efforts of the congregation, to have the Church inclosed this fall.

In addition to his testimony to the continued liberality of the congregation towards external objects, while vigorously prosecuting the building of the Church, the Rector feels constrained to record his sense of personal obligation for the many tokens of substantial kindness he has received during the past year; among which is gratefully mentioned a most liberal increase of salary.

The collections for objects abroad are small, owing partly to the stagnation of the times, and to the heavy interest on a debt of eight thousand dollars, in addition to the ordinary expenses of sustaining the services. The congregation continues large. The Sunday school is overflowing; the average attendance during the summer has been over two hundred. The prosperity of the Church is much owing to the zealous labors of the Superintendent, and the devotion of the teachers to their important work. The Rector meets the congregation on Wednesday evening to explain the lesson of scripture, which is the same for all the higher classes. Great attention is paid to the singing, which is very attractive to the children. They meet for this purpose on Sunday at three o'clock. The emigrant portion of the Parish are too generally ignorant of public worship and the Lord's Supper.

The present Rector accepted a call to the charge of this Parish about the first of May last. His necessary absence during a part of the interval has prevented his becoming familiar with the details requisite to a complete report. That here presented is based, as far as the particulars can be ascertained, upon the statements contained in the Parish Record. For want of more satisfactory information, the number of families is given as in the report of last year. The number of Sunday school pupils represents those who are in actual attendance. The aggregate of funds collected and appropriated is $287 91; of which the sum devoted to special and general Church objects and parochial purposes respectively, cannot be specified further than as above stated. In addition to this, the interior of the Church and of the Sunday school room have recently been thoroughly improved and neatly ornamented, at an expense of above $350, which, from present indications, may be assumed as an earnest of a cordial interest and liberal spirit highly encouraging.

In addition to the above report, 11 public services have been held at Rathbunville 2 in Cleveland, and 2 in New York city.

The Parish is in a prosperous condition, and is steadily increasing both in number and interest of its members. Through the Christian liberality of an active member of the Parish, a building has been thrown open to the use of the congregation, and by them fitted up so as to make a very neat and commodious chapel. The Sunday school is also rapidly improving.

Measures are now being taken to secure a very desirable Church site, the purchase of which will be followed by the speediest practicable steps toward the erection of a suitable Church edifice, a consummation to which all the Parish are looking with much earnestness.

The new Gothic Church, which we began to erect in 1853, was consecrated on the 21st of September last, and since that time has been used for worship. The tablet is not yet added; in other respects the Church is finished in a substantial and beautiful manner. The whole cost of the Church, including furniture, furniture, &c., is about $9,807 85. Of this, the sum of $8,000 has been collected and paid since the building was commenced. The remaining sum is provided for. The grounds around the Church have been laid out and planted with ornamental trees and shrubbery.

During the past year the Parish has received several valuable gifts, among which are a new and beautiful silver gilt Communion set, $75; two alms basins, $20; a pair of large chandeliers, $50; a well selected Parish library of about 70 volumes $40; a complete set of Books for the chancel, and linen for the altar, $50; a quantity of choice shrubbery for the Church yard, and twenty copies of "Rider's Plain Music for the Book of Common Prayer."

The services as reported above, and the collections, are only for the time elapsed since April 28th, 1855, when I took charge. Extra services, two at Danby, one at Speedsville, and one at our County Poor House. Of the above baptisms and confirmations, only two infant baptisms belong properly to my report. My people are united, and warmly attached to the Church. Rev Mr. Bayley's labors have contributed much to this blessed condition.

The balance of the debt incurred by enlarging the Parsonage has been during the past year, entirely extinguished, and we are now free from a pecuniary embarrassment. We need a new Church edifice, larger in capacity and more attractive in character. Until we have such an edifice, we can neither grow in strength nor give sufficient accommodation to those who are desirous of uniting with us.

" " for Parochial objects,

Total, $986 56

The Parish has no indebtedness beyond a small amount of floating debt. A commencement has been made of a Permanent Parish Fund by a collection on Thanksgiving day, subsequently increased by an individual donation of $100. The reliance for increasing the fund, which is for the present to accumulate, is on a collection on Thanksgiving day, donations, particularly from parishioners removing, and legacies.

The Rector has held 4 services in neighboring school houses; 2 in the vacant Parish at East Bloomfield, with the Holy Communion; 5 in St. John's Church, Sodus, administering the Holy Communion 3 times and baptizing 6 children; 1 at Sodus Point, and 8 at Pultneyville—in all, 17 services.

WYOMING COUNTY.

Trinity Church, Warsaw; the Rev. A. D. BENEDICT, Rector.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV. and actually transmitted to the Treasurer, from August 1st, 1854, to August 1st, 1855, have been made and appropriated as follows, viz:

For Diocesan Missions, about..... $ 12 00

The following sums have also been collected for other objects, viz :

For the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen,	8 68
Sunday School Offering for Rev. J. L. Breck,.....	2 89
For Foreign Missions,.....	5 00
For Parochial objects,.....	250 00
Communion Alms,.....	16 85
For Rector's expenses to and from Convention,.....	6 00

Total, $295 87

The above amount for Parochial objects has been raised in addition to $350, reported last year, for extinguishing the debt upon the Church building. I can report the Parish entirely free from pecuniary liability. A gradual but healthy growth is still manifest. The attendance upon the services has very greatly increased during the present season.

Besides the above services, I have officiated twice in each of the places of Pike and Sheldon.

St. Clement's Church, Weathersfield Springs; the Rev. A. D. BENEDICT, Missionary.

Concerning this Parish, which I visit once a month, I have only to report the administration of the Holy Communion 4 times; services on Sundays, 24; Sunday school kept up every Sunday by two female teachers, having 12 pupils. Public services are in general well attended.

The following sums have been collected, viz:

For Diocesan Missions,	$11 71
For Rector's Expenses to Convention,	2 50

Total, 14 21

YATES COUNTY.

St. Mark's Church, Penn Yan ; Reported by the Clerk of the Vestry.

Congregation..Families 48; baptisms..adult 1, infant 1; communicants (admitted 6,) died 1, removed 5, present number 64; marriage 1; burial 1 public services..on Sundays 19; the Holy Communion publicly administered twice. Sunday school disorganized.

The Parish has had no Clergyman since the first of October last, but has occasional services. No monthly collections have been taken. There has been collected for Parochial objects about two hundred dollars.

In consequence of the absence of the Wardens, I make the above report.

Other Clerical Reports.

The Bishop has received the following Reports from Clergymen not having Parochial Cures:

The Rev. WILLIAM M. CARMICHAEL, D. D., of Aurora, reports: That he was obliged, contrary to his expectations, to spend the winter in the South; that he officiated regularly, twice every Sunday, in Christ Church, Richmond, until the second Sunday after Easter, when he relinquished the charge of the Parish; that in addition to his other duties, he baptized seven children and buried two persons of St. James' Parish, the Rector being absent; that since his return to the North, he has officiated almost every Sunday, either for some weary brother or in some destitute Church as a temporary supply,—as Trinity Church and St. John's Church, Newport, R. I., and Christ Church, Bangor, Maine, where he baptized one child, and administered the Holy Communion; and that his health, which has been precarious for the last three years, is now, he is happy and thankful to say, apparently restored.

The Rev. JOHN F. ERNST, Deacon, in charge of a school at Buffalo, Erie county, reports: That during the year ending August 1st, 1855, he has at different times assisted, in St. John's Church, Buffalo, in conducting Sunday public services, and in administering the Holy Communion; and also that on two Sundays he has held morning services and read sermons.

The Rev. BENJAMIN HALE, D. D., President of Hobart Free College, Geneva, reports: That for a few months after the commencement of the last diocesan year, he was so much prostrated by illness, that he was obliged to suspend his ordinary duties; that since his recovery, the clerical duty he has performed is as follows, part of it in the course of his College duty:—He has preached thirty-three times—twenty-one in various Churches, twelve in the College Chapel—and delivered also to a voluntary class of students four lectures on Confirmation; that he has read prayers almost daily in the College Chapel, performed the full service several times in Churches on Sundays, and frequently assisted in the Sunday services at Trinity Church, Geneva; that he has administered the Holy Communion once, and assisted on various occasions; that he has buried one person, and several times taken part in the funeral service.

The Rev. GORDON HUNTINGTON, residing at Rome, N. Y., reports: That he dissolved his connection with Christ Church, Sackett's Harbor, N. Y., on the 11th of April last, since which he has officiated and preached four Sundays in Rossville, L. I.; preached twice and read a portion of the service twice in Connecticut, and preached twice or more and officiated in portions of the service at Zion Church, Rome, N. Y.; and that he has likewise preached once at Fort Hamilton.

The Rev. BEARDSLEY NORTHROP, residing at New Hartford, Oneida county, reports: That since the last Annual Convention, he has officiated seven Sundays in St. John's Church, Clayville; three Sundays in Grace, and three in Calvary Church, Utica; two Sundays in Grace Church, Waterville; eight Sundays in St. Stephen's Church, New Hartford, besides occasionally assisting the Rector in the service; that he also buried one person; and that he has administered the Holy Communion once in Calvary Church, Utica, and once in St. Stephen's Church, New Hartford.

The Rev. G. P. WALDO, Deacon, residing at Nunda, Livingston county, reports: That his health remains as heretofore; that he has been able, with few exceptions, to read the service on Sundays, either in the Church or at his own house, and that he is not able to confine himself to study; that he wishes he could do more, where so much is to be done; and that it is his prayer that the Lord would raise up and send forth more laborers into the field.

The Rev. W. D. WILSON, D. D., Professor in Hobart Free College, Geneva reports: That during the year past he has attended to his duties as Trinity Professor of Christian Ethics in Hobart Free College; and has also assisted in the services of the Church and the administration of its sacraments on several occasions.

NOTES.

1. Several changes have occurred in the list of Missionaries since the Convention.

2. This list of Stations and Missionaries is for the year beginning October 1st, 1855, and ending October 1st, 1856, if the monthly collections supply the funds to meet the payments; otherwise, to terminate at the end of any quarter

3. For the quarterly stipends, as they shall become due, the Missionaries will draw on WILLIAM V. I. MERCER, Esq., Waterloo, Seneca county, W. N. Y. and be very particular in following the form of draft given below.

4. No drafts are paid in advance.

5. No Drafts are payable except for services actually rendered on the station

6. The Missionary Parishes are considered as peculiarly under obligation to make and forward the monthly collections regularly.

7. FORM OF A DRAFT ON THE TREASURER.

To WILLIAM V. I. MERCER, Esq., Waterloo, Treasurer of the Diocese of W. N. Y.

DEAR SIR,—Please to pay to ——— the sum of ———, being the amount due me as a Missionary at ———, for the quarter ending on the — day of — 185 .

Respectfully yours,

———, Western New York, ———, 185 .

NO. V.

AN ACT to Provide for the Incorporation of Religious Societies.

PASSED APRIL 5TH, 1813.

§ 1. Be it enacted by the people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That it shall be lawful for the Protestant Episcopal Churches; how incorporated. } male persons of full age, of any Church or Congregation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in this State, who shall have belonged to such Church or Congregation for the last twelve months preceding such election, and who shall have been baptized in the Episcopal Church, or shall have been received therein, either by the right (rite) of confirmation, or by receiving the Holy Communion, or by purchasing or hiring a pew or seat in said Church, or by some joint act of the parties and of the Rector, whereby they shall have attached themselves to the Protestant Episcopal Church, and not already incorporated, at any time to meet for the purpose of incorporating themselves under this Act, and by a majority of voices, to elect two Church Wardens and eight Vestrymen, and to determine on what day of the week, called Easter week, the said offices of Church Wardens and Vestrymen, shall annually thereafter cease, and their successors in office be chosen; of which first election notice shall be given in the time of morning service, on two Sundays previous thereto, by the Rector, or if there be none, by any other person belonging to such Church or Congregation, and that said Rector, or if there be none, or he be necessarily absent, then one of the Church Wardens or Vestrymen, or any other person called to the chair, shall preside at such first election, and, together with two other persons, shall make a certificate under their hands and seals, of the Church Wardens and Vestrymen so elected, of the day of Easter week so fixed on for the annual election of their successors, and of the name or title by which such Church or Congregation shall be known in law; which certificate being duly acknowledged, or proved by one or more of the subscribing witnesses, before the Chancellor or one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, or one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of the county where such Church or place of worship of such Congregation shall be situated, shall be recorded by the Clerk of such county in a book to be by him provided for that purpose, and that the Church Wardens and Vestrymen so elected, and their successors in office of themselves, but if there be a Rector, then together with the Rector of such Church or Congregation, shall form a Vestry and be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and such Trustees and their successors shall thereupon by virtue of this Act, be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and that the persons qualified as afore-

Annual Elections of Church Wardens and Vestrymen. { said, shall, in every year thereafter, on the day in Easter week so to be fixed for that purpose, elect such Church Wardens and Vestrymen, and whenever any vacancy shall happen before the stated annual election, by death or otherwise, the said Trustees shall appoint a time for holding an election to supply such vacancy, of which notice shall be given in the time of divine service, at least ten days previous thereto; and such election, and also the stated annual elections shall be holden immediately after morning service, and at all such elections, the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Church Wardens or Vestrymen shall preside and receive the votes of the electors, and be the returning officer, and shall enter the proceedings in the book of the minutes of the Vestry, and sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many electors present as he shall think fit, to be by them also signed and certified; and the Church Wardens and Vestrymen to be chosen at any of the said elections, shall hold their offices until the expiration of the year for which they shall be chosen, and until others be chosen in their stead, and shall have power to call and induct a Rector to such Church or Congregation as often as there shall be a vacancy therein; provided, however, That no meeting or Trustees, when and how to meet. { board of such Trustees shall be held, unless at least three days notice thereof shall be given in writing, under the hand of the Rector or one of the Church Wardens; and that no such board shall be competent to transact any business unless the Rector, if there be one, and at least one of the Church Wardens and a majority of the Vestrymen be present; and such Rector, if there be one, and if not, then the Church Warden present, or if both the Church Wardens be present, then the Church Warden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of voices, shall preside at every such meeting or board, and have the casting vote.

§ 16. And be it further enacted, That whenever any religious corporation shall be dissolved by means of any non-uses or neglect to exercise any of the powers necessary for its preservation, it shall be lawful for the religious society which was connected with such corporation, to re-incorporate itself in the mode prescribed by this Act, and that thereupon all the real and personal property which did belong to such dissolved corporation at the time of its dissolution, shall rest in such new corporation for the said Society.

AN ACT to amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the Incorporation of Religious Societies," passed April 5th, 1813.

Passed April 16th, 1844, by a Two-third vote.

§ 3. Whenever there shall have been any omission or neglect of any Church or Congregation, or Religious Society, at their stated Annual Meeting, to choose any of the Trustees, Church Wardens Saving Clause. Vestrymen, or other officers, such Church, Congregation, or Religious Society, shall not be deemed or taken to have been thereby dissolved, but the Trustees, Church Wardens, Vestrymen or other officers in office at the time of such omission, shall be deemed and taken to be the legal officers of such Church, Congregation, or Society, and shall continue to hold their offices until others be chosen in their stead: Provided that elections to supply such omissions shall be made within one year after their occurrence respectively, or within one year after the passage of this act. .

No. VI.

A Pastoral Letter to the Laity.

MY BELOVED BRETHREN :

I address you in compliance with the desire of the late Convention of the Diocese, which, after considering a Report by a committee of Laymen on the inadequate support of the Clergy of the Diocese, adopted the following resolutions :

"Resolved, That hereafter, upon each day set apart by the Church, or by the civil authority of the State, as a Day of Public Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, it be recommended to each Parish in this Diocese to make a donation to their Parish Minister by a collection in Church, and by contributions in private for his benefit.

"Resolved, That the Right Reverend, the Bishop, be requested to issue a Pastoral Letter to the Diocese on the subject of the preceding Report, and that the Clergy be requested to read the same to their respective congregations on some occasion of public worship."

The subject is thus alluded to in my Address to the Convention :

"Our list of Clergy is lessened at this juncture by the temporary vacancy of some of our parishes and missionary stations, owing to the removal of the Clergy to other fields. These vacancies will, I trust, be soon more or less supplied. The prominent and controlling cause in the great majority of such removals is the inadequate support of the Clergy by the parishes. This case is referred to by very many of our Bishops, with pain, regret, and sorrow, as rendering in all the Dioceses the position of the Clergy in the rural and village parishes exceedingly fluctuating, and as affecting most injuriously both the Pastors and the Parishes, and arresting the increase of candidates for Orders and the progress of the Church. This subject was referred to a Committee at the last Convention, whose report may enable you to take such advisory measures as may tend to relieve the difficulty.

"I speak in behalf of a faithful, laborious and self-sacrificing body of men, when I most earnestly urge the Laity to consider in their respective Parishes how seriously and painfully the condition of the Clergy is affected by the increased and increasing expense of the very necessities of life. In many items it has doubled within a few years.

"In this Diocese, as you all know, there is no excess in the payment of the Clergy for their services. The money salary raised by the Parishes themselves, by pew rents or by subscription, varies from one hundred dollars in the feeble country Churches to nearly two thousand in some three or four city Parishes. The average is from $350 to $400. It is a matter of wonder how the individual expenses, the clothing and feeding of their families, and the education of their children, apart from all reference to books for their improvement, can be secured on their very limited incomes, without incurring that bane of clerical influence, a debt. It is not a matter of surprise that they should listen so readily to proposals to remove to other posts which promise (often fallaciously) enlarged means of sustenance, and the avoidance of impending debt.

"The true remedy for all this is undoubtedly AN INCREASE OF THE REGULAR STATED SALARIES OF THE CLERGY, PUNCTUALLY PAID.

"In some few cases—the Lord remember them for good!—the Parishes have increased the salaries to meet this increased expense of living. But in the great majority of cases, nothing adequate has been done or attempted in this respect.

"My Brethren of the Laity, it is easier to depict a difficulty than to provide a remedy, especially in a Diocese where in many places the congregation is weak, not wealthy, and fluctuating. But I will venture to suggest one mode of appeal to the liberality of the Parishes and people, which I trust may prove in some degree a practical relief. It is this:

"That each ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DAY be hereafter regarded by the Parishes and by the Laity generally, throughout the Diocese, as a DONATION DAY FOR THE PARISH CLERGY.

"On which day a collection shall be made in Church, and contributions be sent in private to the Clergyman, to add to the means of his support.

"This donation to be, not a substitute for, but additional to, any existing means of support, and to furnish an opportunity, desired I feel assured by many of you, for the liberal to devise and practice liberal things 'to them that are over them in the Lord.'

"The day, the season, the associations, and the devotions, all conspire to favor the measure. We make collections and contributions on Christmas Day for the Disabled Clergy—on Epiphany Day for Domestic Missionaries—in July for Foreign Missionaries—and quarterly for our Diocesan Missionaries.

"Let not the Parochial laborers be forgotten in making voluntary provision for our other brethren. There are many among you who feel and say that something should be done, not by one or two, but by all for this object. A mode is here suggested which all can adopt, according to their means. Through the public collection in the Church, or through private contributions, all can have an opportunity of aiding the Ministry effectually in the spirit of the Gospel, 'not by constraint but willingly,' and in obedience to 'the law of Christ our Saviour,' which ordains 'that they who preach the Gospel, should live of the Gospel.'"

To this voluntary provision for the better support of the ministers of God, I ask your earnest attention.

The NEED, the OBLIGATION, and the MODE of this relief to the Parochial Clergy, I now present to your minds:

They need it, because they are inadequately supported:

Because they are cut off from providing for themselves and families, by secular occupations:

Because the expense of living has nearly doubled within a few years past, without any proportionate increase of their salaries:

Because the harrassing effects of scanty provision, and actual or impending debt, are calculated to impair their efforts and intercept their usefulness:

Because they are laboring for your eternal welfare:

And because a life of study, toil, sacrifice and self-denial in your behalf, entitles them to your regard and love and liberality.

My brethren, the work of the ministry in this Diocese is not sought for its emoluments. There is but one Parish that engages to pay its Clergyman in money over two thousand dollars. I know of but one Parish that is endowed, and that but partially. About fifty Parishes have parsonages. One Parish has raised the cash salary to twenty-five hundred dollars. One pays two thousand dollars. Two pay each eighteen hundred dollars. Two pay twelve hundred dollars. Five pay one thousand dollars. Twelve pay between five hundred and one thousand dollars, and the rest raise, each, five hundred dollars, or less, down to one hundred dollars.

Of the Clergy engaged in Parochial duty, all but eleven are married men with more or less of a family, comprising in all about two hundred and fifty children. The Clergy are not an indolent, luxurious body of men, but laborious, faithful, hard-working in their vocation. They shrink not from duty. The reports to the Convention show that there have been held in the Diocese twelve thousand two hundred and fifty public services within the conventional year. The Missionaries of the Diocese, in the discharge of their duties, must of necessity travel altogether from fifteen to twenty thousand miles. At least ten thousand sermons must during the last year have been preached by the Clergy in the Diocese. About fifteen hundred persons, adults and children, have been baptized; six hundred prepared for confirmation; one thousand funerals attended; and at least from five to six thousand Sunday scholars been supervised, instructed and catechised.

Of the personal counsels, guidance, and consolations imparted in private, the hearts cheered, the minds interested, the warnings given, and the souls won to Christ from sin and Satan, I need not attempt to write.

Such labors inadequately sustained need the additional support which I ask in their behalf. It is because they need it that the Convention, your representatives, have sanctioned and requested this appeal to your judgment and liberality. The laborer in the field is worthy of his hire. The laborer for your eternal welfare, through whose instructions, guidance and prayers you and your families are led upward to heaven, is worthy of your regard, your care and your liberality.

Under the Jewish economy the Clergy were specifically and amply provided for by the Almighty by an express law—the law of tithes. To withhold the prescribed support was denounced as robbing God. Under the Gospel the Clergy are thrown upon the voluntary contributions of the Christian flock, by the law of Christ who ordains that they who preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel. To withhold this sustenance is in violation of a distinct ordinance of Christ.

Under this provision of the Gospel then, I urge upon you the obligation to provide for the due and adequate maintenance of the Ministry, as a duty binding on the Christian conscience.

Laws are of two kinds; those which can be enforced, and those which are binding on the conscience, but cannot be enforced. Of the latter kind is the Gospel law for the maintenance of the Ministry by the Christian flock. Aside from specific contracts, you cannot be compelled to give to the Ministry their needs or their deserts. The obligation lies not within the enforcement of man, but it is still an obligation. Its fulfillment is exacted by Him to whom we are all responsible. It is to be settled at the bar of God; where all neglected, evaded, or violated duties are to encounter scrutiny and retribution. To you, my brethren of the Laity, I need not adduce an argument to prove this obligation in the sight of God. With the memorial of the Saviour's dying love in the holy sacrament of the Lord's Supper, you hear his solemn annunciation in the offertory, proclaiming in accents of warning as of command—"Let him that is taught in the word, minister unto him that teacheth in all good things. Be not deceived. God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap!" With earnestness, fidelity and power, this duty is urged upon you by a Committee of Laymen, in a Report to the Convention which has been distributed in the Parishes of the Diocese, and should be read and pondered by you all.

The MODE OF RELIEF in this emergency is two-fold.

1. The first and foremost is an increase of the regular stated salaries of the Clergy, punctually paid.

Let each individual of the congregation ask the questions of his conscience—Is our Pastor adequately supported? Can he live upon his present salary? If not, can the congregation pay him more? Have the Vestry been authorized to increase his salary? Can I myself give more than I now give to that object? Has my pew rent or subscription been punctually paid? Am I now in arrears for either? Have I given the influence of my voice and means to increase the support of my Pastor? How can I excuse myself before God and my conscience for my inattention to the duty of aid ing in this object? Is any wrong motive intercepting my interest and efforts in his favor? Do my prayers, efforts and means combine in the sustaining of the Ministry according to the ordinance of Christ?

Such questions, faithfully asked and answered, will hardly fail in satisfying you of your duty, and guiding you to its rightful and effectual performance. With fearful judgments does God denounce the faithless Clergy. In similar strains does He proclaim his wrath against the people who disregard His laws. Let them be found faithfully discharging their mutual obligations; the Pastors in feeding their flocks, the people in receiving their instructions and providing adequate sustenance for them that are over them in the Lord.

2. Subsidiary to this provision, another mode of relief is suggested and has been sanctioned by the Convention.

That each annual Thanksgiving Day be hereafter regarded by the Parishes, and by the Laity generally, throughout the Diocese, as a DONATION DAY FOR THE PARISH CLERGY, on which day a collection shall be made in Church, and contributions be sent, in private, to the Clergyman, to add to the means of his support.

Here is a mode of relief which you may all adopt. In the Church at the collection, or in private by contributions, each of you, young or old, communicant or non-communicant, anonymously or in your name, in money or in provisions, in sums small or large, not by constraint but willingly, may fulfill the obligation imposed by Christ upon us all to aid in the sustenance of his appointed ministers.

Behind all action in this matter is the great principle which should regulate the consciences of Christian men in appropriating their means to religious objects. What is the amount of the claim of God upon your incomes? I have no hesitation in naming now again, as I have done, heretofore, that the Christian tenth—the tenth of your income—is the measure which, in my judgment, God prescribes upon this subject for our adoption and practice. The tithe was the rule of Abraham, of Lot, of Moses. It was the national law of the Jews. It was the law under which our Saviour lived. It was the voluntary principle of the early Christians. It has prevailed in some form among many Christian nations from the beginning. Let it be willingly adopted by us. Let each one consider himself bound to act upon it for the future. Let each one regard his past deficiency in this respect as a debt still due from him to the cause of God, and commence its payment; and at once, the Parishes, the Clergy, and the institutions of the Church will, with God's blessing, emerge from poverty, depression and want, to comfort, efficiency and usefulness.

My brethren of the Laity, let me invoke your liberality on these occasions to them who are your ministering servants in Christ. I appeal to your hearts and judgments in their behalf. The need is urgent, the obligation clear, the mode easy, the means abundant. Let all give as God has blessed them. On these days your hearts swell with gratitude—your hands open with beneficence. Let the ministers of God share of your love, and partake largely of your beneficence. “And may the God of peace that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, that great Shepherd of the sheep through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory ever and ever. Amen.”

The Rev. Dr. Proal being absent on account of sickness, on motion of John Stryker, Esq., the Rev. William A. Matson, was elected Assistant Secretary, with power to appoint an Assistant.

The Chair announced to the House that the Assistant Secretary had appointed the Rev. N. Barrows, his Assistant.

On motion, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted to regulate the proceedings of the present Convention, as follows, viz :

RULES OF ORDER:

IN CONDUCTING THE BUSINESS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WESTERN NEW YORK.

I. After the Convention has passed upon the irregular and defective certificates, if any, reported by the Committee under section 5th of Canon II, the next business in order shall be the election of a Secretary in conformity with the Canon.

II. The following Standing Committees shall then be appointed by the President :

1. On the admission into union with this Convention of Churches applying for the same, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

2. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, to consist of three Laymen.
3. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, consist of three Laymen.
4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the Fund, to consist of three Laymen.
5. On unfinished business, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

III. Immediately upon the appointment of the Standing Committees, any matter properly referable to the aforesaid Committees, may then be presented for reference.

IV. Motions, notices, and resolutions shall then be in order.

V. A Treasurer of the Convention, and a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen shall then be appointed by ballot unless dispensed with by a unanimous vote; when they may be appointed on motion.

VI. On the second, and every succeeding day during the sitting of the Convention, after the Daily Morning Prayer, the order of business, which shall not be departed from without the consent of two thirds of the members present, shall be as follows:

- i. The reading, correcting, and approving of the minutes of the preceding day.
- ii. Calling the names of the absent members, and entering in the Journal those who appear.
- iii. Reports from Standing Committees in the following order:
 1. On the admission into union with the Convention of the Diocese, of Churches applying for that purpose.
 2. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.
 3. On the Treasurer's accounts.
 4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the Fund.
 5. On unfinished business.
- iv. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer, when these officers have any business committed to them, shall then be in order; and then reports from the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, and from the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.

v. Reports from the Special Committees in the order in which they were appointed.

vi. Unfinished business shall then be in order.

vii. Motions, resolutions, and miscellaneous business.

VII. The Bishop's Address shall be in order at any time.

VIII. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair, shall vote thereon unless excused by the House.

IX. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded; and when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, when required by the President, or any member.

X. If the question in debate contain several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

XI. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived it shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

XII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIII. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and the churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journals.

XIV. Any five votes may require the ayes and noes to be taken by orders; and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XVI. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XVII. All special committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XVIII. The election of the Standing Committee, and of Deputies to the General Convention, and the election of any person to supply a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, or in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, shall be the order of the day for 12 o'clock, on the second day of every annual meeting of the Convention.

XIX. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect; unless by the votes of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XX. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected, and approved.

XXI. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from one to three o'clock in the afternoon; and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock, P. M.

On motion,

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention; Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church not belonging to this Diocese; Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and Clergymen of the Church of England, as by law established in Great Britain and its dependencies, who may be present, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

The President having announced this invitation, the following gentlemen took their seats, viz :

Rev. Andrew Mackie, Rev. James O. Stokes, Rev. Charles Edward Douglass, Rev. D. E. Barr, and Mr. Edward R. Wells.

The Chair then announced the following Standing Committees :

~~On~~ the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention :

Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D., Messrs. F. W. Hubbard and C. B. Perry.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen :

Messrs. Alfred Ely, William Buell and Isaac A. Verplanck.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention :

Messrs. George W. Cuyler, Wm. B. Douglass and A. W. Clark.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate :

Messrs. Elijah Ford, Henry W. Rogers and J. H. Chedell.

On Unfinished Business :

Rev. W. B. Ashley, Messrs. John Bradley and Wm. Van Wagenen.

The following Churches applied for admission into union with this Convention, viz :

Trinity Church, Syracuse, Onondaga county.

St. Paul's Church, Havana, Schuyler county.

On motion, the applications were referred to the Standing Committee on the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention.

The House then proceeded to the election of a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, and a Treasurer of the Convention. A vote by ballot being, in both cases, dispensed with,

DAVID S. HALL, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen ; and

WILLIAM V. I. MERCER, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Convention.

The Secretary then called for Reports from the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, the Education and Missionary Board, the Treasurer of the Convention, and the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, which having been laid on the table, were severally referred, on motion, to the respective Standing Committees.

The Bishop then, in compliance with the Canon, delivered the following

ADDRESS.

MY BRETHREN—The Clergy and Laity of the Convention :

In conformity to the requisitions of the Canon, I proceed to lay before you my Ecclesiastical acts during the past Conventional year.

The day after the adjournment of the last Convention, I proceeded to Owego, where, in St. Paul's Church, in the evening of August 17th, I preached, and confirmed twenty persons, to whom I delivered an address.

On Sunday, the 19th, I visited St. John's Church, Phelps, where I preached and confirmed three persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in the Methodist Chapel at Clifton Springs, and confirmed one person belonging to St. John's Church, Phelps.

On Sunday morning and evening, the 26th, I officiated for the congregation of Christ Church, Rochester, in Palmer's Hall.

In the afternoon, I held a special confirmation in Grace, and confirmed one person from Hartland, Niagara county, about to proceed to Wisconsin.

On the 25th, I transferred the Rev. Moses E. Wilson to the Diocese of Louisiana, and the Rev. Charles Woodward to the Diocese of New Jersey.

On the evening of the 31st, in Zion Church, Pierrepont Manor, I assisted in reading prayers, and made a brief address.

In the same Church, in the morning of Sept. 2d, I preached and administered the Holy Communion.

In the afternoon, in Emanuel Church, Adams, I preached and confirmed six persons.

In the evening, I preached again in Zion Church, Pierrepont Manor, and confirmed seven persons, to whom I delivered an address.

I read prayers, Sept. 5th, in Trinity Church, Geneva, in the morning, and officiated in the afternoon at the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Wood.

I preached in the evening of the 9th, in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 13th, in the morning, I preached in the Union House, at Irving, Chautauque county.

And in the afternoon of the same day I preached in the Methodist Chapel, at Forestville, and confirmed two persons.

I held an Ordination on the 14th, in St. John's Church, Dunkirk, and admitted the Rev. William B. Edson, Deacon, to the Priesthood, confirmed eleven persons, preached and administered the Holy Communion.

I preached on the 17th, in the Academy, at Jamestown, (their beautiful Church Edifice being unfinished,) for St. Luke's Church, and confirmed eight persons, with an address.

On Wednesday morning, the 19th, in St. Paul's Church, Buffalo, I baptized one infant, Francis Munro Rochester.

I preached in St. James' Church, Batavia, on the afternoon of the 20th, and confirmed nineteen persons, with an address.

At Stafford, on the 21st, in St. Paul's Church, I preached and confirmed nine persons, with an address.

In the evening of the same day, I preached in St. Mark's Church, Le Roy, and confirmed nine persons, to whom I delivered an address.

On the 22d, I received into this Diocese, from Michigan, the Rev. Charles E. Beardsley, who, since June last, has been officiating as a Missionary at Olean and Cuba.

I preached at St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva, in the evening of the 23d.

I attended the meeting of the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, at New York, on the 25th, for the election of a Professor of Pastoral Theology and Pulpit Eloquence, in the place of the Rev. Dr. Haight, who had resigned, but the Board did not proceed to a election, and the Rev. Dr. Haight continued to fulfil the duties of the station.

I had the gratification of attending the meeting of the Convention of the Diocese of New York, held in St. John's Church, on the 26th, 27th, and 28th, and of assisting in the opening services.

On the 30th, I preached in the evening, in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On October 3d, I officiated at the funeral of a child, George Hatley Dox, at Geneva.

On the 5th, I read prayers in Trinity Church, Geneva.

And on the 7th, I administered the Communion in the same Church, and read prayers, and preached in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening.

On the 10th, I preached in St. Clement's Church, Weathersfield Springs, and confirmed three persons, with a brief address.

In the evening of the same day, I preached in Trinity Church, Warsaw, and confirmed six persons, (including one confirmed in private,) to whom I delivered an address.

I preached at Grace Church, Nunda, on the 11th, and confirmed four persons, with an address.

In the afternoon, I preached in St. Mark's Church, Hunt's Hollow and confirmed four persons.

At Hornellsville, on the 12th, I preached, and confirmed seven persons in the afternoon, in the Church room.

On Sunday morning and afternoon, I preached in St. John's Church, Ellicottville, and confirmed six persons, at the former service, and in the afternoon confirmed one sick person in private.

I preached, and confirmed ten persons, in St. Stephen's Church, Olean, on the 15th, and delivered an address.

On the 16th, in the morning, I preached in the Presbyterian house of worship in Cuba, confirmed six persons, and gave an address.

And in the afternoon I preached in the Baptist house of worship at Philipsville.

At Angelica, on the 17th, I preached in the morning in St. Paul's Church, and confirmed fourteen persons, to whom I delivered an address.

I preached in the Methodist house of worship, at Rathbunville, in the morning of the 18th :

And in the afternoon, I preached in the Church room at Addison, and confirmed four persons, to whom I made an address.

I preached in Christ Church, Corning, in the morning of the 19th, and confirmed ten persons, delivering an address.

And in the afternoon, I officiated in the Presbyterian house of worship, at Painted Post, and confirmed seven persons, to whom I made an address.

I preached twice in Trinity Church, Elmira, on Sunday the 21st, confirming six persons in the morning, with an address, and one person in the afternoon.

In the morning of the 22d, I preached in Grace Church, Waverly.

On the 23d, in the morning, I preached in the Congregational Church, Truxton, Cortland county, for the newly organized Parish of St. Mary's Church, which is principally composed of Emigrants from England, faithfully adhering to the Church.

On the next day, the 24th, I preached at Cortlandville, in the morning, and in the afternoon, held in Calvary Church, Homer, a confirmation for the three Parishes, administering the holy rite to three persons from Grace Church, Cortland ; nineteen from St. Mary's, Truxton ; and twenty-two from Calvary Church, Homer, in all forty-four persons, to whom I delivered an address.

I preached in Zion Church, McLean, on the morning of the 25th.

And in St. Mark's Church, Jamesville, in the evening of the same day.

In the morning of the 26th, I preached in Christ Church, Manlius, and confirmed sixteen persons, to whom I delivered an address.

And in the afternoon, I preached in Trinity Church, Fayetteville, and confirmed one person from St. Matthew's Church, Moravia ; the confirmation for the Parish being postponed on account of illness in the Rector's family.

I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva, in the evening of the 28th.

I attended a meeting of the Standing Committee as the Education and Missionary Board, on the 30th, at Geneva.

On the 31st, I transferred the Rev. George H. McKnight, who has resigned St. Mark's Church, Le Roy, to the Diocese of Indiana.

In the Gospel Messenger of the 20th, I issued a brief Pastoral Letter, (hereunto appended,) to the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese,

PASTORAL LETTER.

To the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese of Western New York:

DEAR BRETHREN,—On Sunday, July the 18th, being the second Sunday in the month, will be made the usual Annual Collection in this Diocese for Foreign Missions.

The Executive Committee has made an urgent appeal to the Church for increased contributions to the funds.

in relation to the July Collection for Foreign Missions, urging a liberal and general contribution in their behalf.

I officiated in St. Peter's Chapel, at Geneva, on the evening of the 22d.

I attended in New York, on the 24th, 25th and 26th, the meeting of the Boards of the P. E. S. S. Union and Church Book Society, and of the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, and the Commencement of the latter Institution, in St. Peter's Church, on the 26th when thirteen young men, candidates for Orders, were graduated.

On the following Sunday morning, in Trinity Church, New York, I preached the Sermon, by request of Bishop Horatio Potter, at the ordination held in that Church of the graduates of the Seminary and others; and I ordained Mr. Edward Hurt Jewett, a candidate from this Diocese, to the Diaconate. He has been appointed Missionary to Boonville and Forestport, Oneida county.

You are aware that the three departments of our Foreign Missions consist of the School at Athens, in Greece, of the Mission at Shanghai, in China, and of the Mission in Western Africa.

In Greece, the Mission consists of one Missionary, his wife, and one female assistant.

The annual average cost of this department to the Board, for the last five years, is about three thousand one hundred dollars.

The China Mission, at Shanghai, comprises one Bishop, five American clergymen, one native Deacon, one American layman, (a candidate for orders,) five American ladies, and two native Catechists, who are candidates for holy orders.

The annual cost of this department, for the last five years, is about eighteen thousand dollars.

In Western Africa, the Mission consists of one Bishop, nine American clergymen, two native Deacons, six American ladies, seven Colonist teachers, and nine native teachers, male and female.

The annual cost of this Mission has been an average of about seventeen thousand dollars.

The annual expense of management of our Foreign Missions, is about thirty-eight hundred dollars.

The result of the labors of the Missionaries are detailed to you in the "Spirit of Missions," the monthly publication of the Board, and through the religious periodicals of the Church, to which I refer you for details.

However, a diversity of opinion may exist as to the comparative importance of the enterprise, the best locations for the work, the modes of management, the clearness of the call to each, no question can be raised on the abstract point of the duty to propagate the Gospel by Missionary efforts.

Christianity is itself a Mission. Christ, our Master, was a Missionary. Our Church in this land is the fruit of Missionary labor. Our Diocese is the offspring of Missions. Every Parish within it has felt the principle in its origin or its progress.

In the general estimate of Missionary work devolved upon us, our Diocesan Missions stand foremost. In these we have been greatly blessed. Your liberality has met the quarterly demands for years without a failure.

On July 4, I received into this Diocese the Rev. William White Montgomery, Presbyterian, from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and the Rev. Caleb S. Henry, D. D., Presbyterian, from the Diocese of New York. The former is missionary at Warsaw and Weathersfield, Wyoming county, and the latter is resident at Geneva.

On the 6th, I visited Christ Church, Binghamton. In the morning I preached, confirmed seventeen persons, and administered the holy communion, and preached again in the evening.

In the afternoon of the 7th, I preached in St. John's Church, Speedsville, and baptized one infant.

I preached in St. Mark's Church, Candor, on the morning of the 8th, and confirmed two persons, one being from Christ's Church, Danby.

In the evening, I preached in St. John's Church, Ithaca, and confirmed ten persons.

On the morning of the 9th, in St. Paul's Church, Aurora, I preached and confirmed seven persons. I also baptized two children.

In the evening of the same day, I preached in St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, and confirmed one person.

The order of claim, liberality and duty, in the work of sustaining and propagating the Gospel, which has vindicated itself to general approval, is the PARISH, the DIOCESE, our COUNTRY, FOREIGN LANDS.

The Foreign work was commenced under organization in 1820. It consists now, as already stated, of the several Missions in Africa, China and Greece.

In the view of many, perhaps the most of us, in this Diocese, the African Mission presents the strongest claim upon our sympathy and munificence, as the first to which national and individual duty plainly invites, I ask in its behalf a liberal and hearty gift in July. Let all the Churches contribute. Let every individual give.

Christian Brethren: Do you value the privileges which God in his providence has conferred upon you? Is the Bible esteemed a treasure, and have you derived any consolation, or joy, or peace in believing? Do you prize the ordinances of the Gospel, the services of the sanctuary, the ministry of the word, or the holy sacraments of your religion?

Then let your charity expand and your observation extend itself over the solitary places of the earth. Behold how many are without Bibles, without Churches, having none of the hopes, joys or consolations of the Gospel, no Ministry, no Sacraments. "Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive;" and that saying of the Prophet, "they that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever."

I warmly commend this subject to your sympathy, prayers and alms, and implore the blessing of God upon you all.

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY,

GENEVA, W. N. Y., June 9, 1856.

Bishop of the Diocese.

In the afternoon of the 10th, I had the pleasure of laying the corner stone of the new Church about to be erected by the congregation of Grace Church, Utica, after a plan of Mr. Upjohn, and in conformity to the liberal bequest of fifteen thousand dollars by the late Alfred Munson, of that Parish, towards the object. The address on the occasion was delivered by the Rev. George Leeda, of Massachusetts, one of the former Rectors of the Church.

On the morning of the 11th, in Grace Church, Waterville, I baptized William Howard Gibson, infant son of the Rector, preached and confirmed ten persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in the Methodist chapel, at Clifton.

And, in the evening, I preached in St. Stephen's Church, New Hartford, where the confirmation was postponed on account of the recent illness and absence of the Rector.

On Saturday morning, the 12th, I consecrated at Whitesboro, the new, neat and handsome edifice of St. John's Church, and preached on the occasion.

On the 13th, in the morning, I preached in the Dutch Reformed Church, Chittenango, and confirmed one person for St. Paul's Church, in that village.

In the afternoon, I preached in St. Stephen's Church, Perryville.

And, in the evening, in St. Peter's Church, Cazenovia, I preached and confirmed one person.

On the 17th, I attended, at Geneva, the Commencement of Hobart Free College, which continues to command the confidence and patronage of the Church, and to expand in strength and usefulness. An additional Scholarship has been instituted in the College, making now two Scholarships of $1000 each—the "Henry Laight Scholarship" and the "John Watts Scholarship"—endowed by the same lady, the nomination of the incumbent, who must be an undergraduate and communicant, to be in the Bishop of the Diocese.

On the morning of the 18th, I consecrated St. John's Church Phelps, on which occasion I confirmed two persons, preached and administered the holy communion.

And in the afternoon, I preached in the chapel of the Water Cure at Clifton.

On Sunday morning, the 20th, I preached and confirmed ten persons in Zion Church, Palmyra.

In the afternoon, I preached in St. John's chapel, Williamson, a new missionary post, where I baptized one child and confirmed one person. The chapel has been purchased of the Methodists, and appropriated to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

I preached in the Union House, at Pultneyville, on the morning of the 21st, and confirmed one person.

In the evening of the same day, I preached in Christ Church, Rochester, where I confirmed twenty persons, including six for St. Luke's Church, and one for Trinity Church, in that city; being a special confirmation for all those Parishes.

On the morning of the 22d, I instituted the Rev. Henry Adams Neely as the Rector of Christ Church, Rochester, and preached on the occasion. The holy communion was administered by the newly instituted Rector.

I preached, on the morning of the 23d, in Zion Church, Avon, and confirmed eleven persons.

And in the afternoon, I preached and confirmed eight persons in St. Michael's Church, Geneseo.

On the 24th, I preached in St. John's Church, Mount Morris, and confirmed nine persons, including one from St. Michael's Church, Geneseo. The new Church Edifice not being yet entirely completed, its consecration was deferred until September.

I preached in St. Peter's Church, Dansville, on the 25th, and confirmed ten persons.

On Sunday, the 27th, in the morning, I preached in St. John's Church, Honeoye Falls, confirmed two persons, and administered the holy communion.

In the afternoon, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Richmond, and confirmed seven persons.

And later in the same afternoon, I preached in Zion Church, East Bloomfield.

On Sunday, the 29th, I consecrated the new Church Edifice at Brockport, by the name of St. Luke's Church, on which occasion I preached, baptised three children, confirmed three persons and administered the holy communion.

On Sunday, August 3d, I held an ordination in Trinity Church Geneva, when Thomas Goldborough Meacham was admitted, under the new Canon, to the order of Deacons, and the Rev. Aaron Van Nostrand and Edward Zechariah Lewis, Deacons, were ordained to the Priesthood.

The Rev. Thomas G. Meacham is serving, without the license to preach, the Parish of St. James' Church, Batavia, under the Rector, on whose desire he was ordained.

On Sunday evening, August 10th, I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 11th, I received into this Diocese the Rev. William B. Otis, from New Jersey, and the Rev. Lloyd Windsor, from New York. The former is residing at Geneva, Ontario county, and the latter at Whitney's Valley, Allegany county.

On the 13th, I officiated at the funeral of Miss Ann Whiting, at Trinity Church, Geneva.

On the 17th, in the evening, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

And this day, in the opening services of the Convention, I have administered the holy sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

On most of the occasions of administering the rite of confirmation I have delivered appropriate addresses to the persons confirmed.

A summary of my labors during the Conventional year will be as follows:

I have officiated in 103 organized Parishes, and in 12 places where there is no organized Parish, within the Diocese, and once out of the Diocese.

I have baptized 9 children.

Married 1 couple.

Officiated at 6 funerals.

Administered the Holy Communion 23 times.

Admitted 3 new candidates for Holy Orders, and received one from another Diocese.

Ordained 4 Deacons and 3 Priests.

Instituted 2 Rectors.

Two Rectors have been instituted.

The whole number of Clergymen canonically connected with the Diocese is 120, consisting of 1 Bishop, 113 Priests and 6 Deacons with 14 candidates for Holy Orders. Four other Clergymen are awaiting transfer to the Diocese.

Of the Clergy of the Diocese, 2 are exclusively engaged as teachers in the instruction of youth; 7 are on the list of Disabled Clergymen; 8 are prevented by age or sickness from engaging in full ministerial work, but sustain themselves. The rest are engaged in Parochial, Missionary work, or are seeking to be so engaged; while 6 add to the labors of the Ministry, public or private teaching in School or College, as a means of support.

I have given my canonical consent to the organization of new Parishes at Syracuse, Onondaga county; Havana, Schuyler county and at Wolcott, Wayne county.

Five new Church edifices have been consecrated, viz: Trinity Church, Syracuse, Onondaga county; St. Luke's Church, Jamestown, Chautauque county; St. John's Church, Whitestown, Oneida county; St. John's Church, Phelps, Ontario county, and St. Luke's Church, Brockport, Monroe county.

I have laid the corner stone of Grace Church, Utica.

The following Church Edifices are in process of erection:

Christ Church,.....	Sodus Point.
Grace Church,.....	Baldwinsville.
St. Paul's Church,.....	Havana.
Christ Church,.....	Oswego.
St. John's Church,.....	Mount Morris.
Trinity Church,.....	Elmira.
Grace Church,.....	Utica.

The following Churches, regularly used, are not yet consecrated on account of impending debt:

Church of the Evangelists,.....	Oswego.
St. Peter's Chapel,.....	Geneva.
St. John's Church,.....	Dunkirk.

Christ Church,.....	Binghamton.
Grace Church,.....	Lockport.
Grace Church,.....	Waverly.
Christ Church,.....	Rochester.
St. John's Church,.....	Williamson.

I have consecrated 54 Churches in this Diocese, 7 now await consecration on the removal of debt, and 7 are in progress of erection, making, in all, 68 Churches erected or begun since the Diocese was formed. Of these, one, by removals, a local change in the population, and the incumbrance of debt, has been lost to the Church.

Of the Clergymen now laboring in Dioceses at the west of us, fifty were once connected with this Diocese. Six have removed to the west during the past year.

The Diocese has at present 46 Missionaries laboring within its limits. 60 have labored during the past year; 40 of them for nearly the whole year. The general want of laborers throughout the Church weighs heavily on the missionary operations in the Diocese, where, at present, ten Clergymen are needed to supply existing vacant stations, and more than ten to meet the demands of new openings for the Church.

The Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen continues to enjoy the favorable regard of the Diocese. The collections and donations have amounted to $1,703 68. The interest on the amount invested to $200 80—making in all, $1,904 48. Eight Clergymen have received its benefits, and seven are now upon its list. The whole sum appropriated and paid to them is $1,425. One who had received its aid since 1840, has relinquished the appropriation.

The total sum received by the Treasurer of the Convention and of the Christmas Fund (exclusive of interest on the Permanent Missionary Fund, and on part of the Christmas Fund invested, and of contributions from sources exterior to the Diocese,) is $9,845 22.

Monies are raised in the Diocese for Church objects exterior to it, which are not sent through the Diocesan Treasurer, amounting, as far as can be ascertained to $1,000.

So that the whole amount raised in the Diocese during the year, for recognized Church objects, aside from Parochial objects, since the 1st of August, 1855, will be as follows:

Christmas Fund collections and donations,.....	$1.703 68
Monthly collections and donations,.....	9.845 22
Sent by donors without going through the Diocese
Treasury,.....	1.000 00
Total,.....	$12.548 90

The Permanent Missionary Fund will be shown by the report laid before you by the Trustee, William Young, Esq., to be $11.211. The interest, $734 71, has been paid to the Diocesan Treasurer for the Diocesan Missions.

The Van Waganen Missionary Fund for Chenango county, amounts, as reported by the Trustee, Joseph Juliand, Esq., to $1.692 16, and will soon become available for the support of a Missionary.

The Report of the Education and Missionary Board will present the details in relation to these Funds.

The General Report of the De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children will be laid before you. As required by the charter, the Trustees laid before me as Bishop of the Diocese, in January last, "a full statement of the property and funds in their charge." It appears from this, that the amount of personal assets is $136.992 40, and that the estimated value of the remaining real estate, exclusive of the permanent domain (about 340 acres) on which the building are erected, is $50.143. The main edifice is now almost completed, and it is hoped that the Institution may be opened for the reception of pupils early in the next year. The capital of the fund has not only not been entrenched upon by the erection of the buildings, but has somewhat increased under the judicious management of the agent, Elijah Ford, Esq.

In October of last year, I received from the Bishop of London, through the Secretary, the Rev. Henry Caswell, D. D., a printed copy of a letter relative to an Association designed to promote the spiritual welfare of English Churchmen emigrating to this country, by encouraging and assisting them to avail themselves of the privileges afforded by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States.

The original letter has been sent to the presiding Bishop. The copy sent to me is appended.*

*See Appendix.

I do not perceive that any action is needed by our Convention in relation to it, as the General Convention and the Dioceses on the seaboard are the bodies most nearly concerned, and will doubtless take such proceedings as may be necessary to carry out the object of which we all must cordially approve.

Several amendments* to the Constitution of the General Convention have been, as required, sent for information to this body, involving these points, viz :

1. Declaring by Constitution that all Deputies to the General Convention shall be communicants.
2. Declaring, in substance, that the Dioceses shall not make laws regulating the mode of trying Presbyters and Deacons after the General Convention shall have provided a uniform mode of trial.
3. Diminishing the extent in number of Clergy and Parishes, and of square miles, requisite to the division of a large Diocese.

All of which may be left to the judgment and action of our Deputies to the General Convention.

The Commission of Bishops on the Memorial to the House of Bishops, have not presented any proposal of changes to the Church. As any proposed change in the Prayer Book must be made known to every Diocesan Convention before it can be adopted by the General Convention, the consideration of the subject may be postponed until the proposals are received. In regard to any fundamental modifications, the Church will, I think, speak in a most decided negative.

I received with thankful acknowledgments a donation of Sunday School and Library Books, to several of the feebler Parishes of the Diocese, by the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning, New York. They have been sent to me at Geneva.

The Protestant Episcopal S. S. Union and Church Book Society, originating in 1826, under the personal auspices of Bishop White and Bishop Hobart, and found eminently useful to the Church, is now urgently appealing for increased patronage through the purchase of its books and by the supply of funds to carry on its work. I commend it to your cordial and liberal support in both ways, and especially now, by the personal contributions of the wealthy; and I suggest that one of the monthly collections of the Diocese be annually appropriated to the object.

*NOTE.—See Journal of General Convention, 1853.

The fluctuation of the Parishes as to means of supporting the Clergy, arising out of the removal of Parishioners, has led me to much anxious reflection, as to the best mode of sustaining our congregations growing feeble, under such frequent changes. The only true relief appears to be ENDOWMENT, ADEQUATE AND INALIENABLE. This, indeed, cannot be fully reached. But it can be approached by partial endowment well guarded against alienation. With this view, I suggest the immediate adoption of the following plan of endowment by every Parish. It has been already commenced in Zion Church, Palmyra, on the suggestion and primary gift of the Rector.

Let the Vestry of each Parish at once adopt, and begin to act upon the following resolution :

"That a fund, to be called 'A Rector's Fund,' be established and commenced by an appropriation of ——— dollars.*

"That said fund shall be invested in the name of the Church Corporation, by two Trustees appointed by the Vestry on the nomination of the Rector from the members of the congregation; which Trustees shall have the charge and management of the said fund during the pleasure of the Rector and Vestry, and until others are appointed in their stead; any vacancy, by death or otherwise, to be supplied by nomination and appointed as before provided.

"That all monies contributed to the said fund shall be safely and profitably invested by said Trustees until they amount to $500, when the fund shall be invested by said Trustees in a bond and mortgage, on productive unincumbered real estate, worth double the amount loaned on it, exclusive of buildings. And that whenever there shall be in the hands of said Trustees a further sum of $500, that sum shall be invested in like manner.

"That said fund is constituted, bestowed and received on the following conditions, viz : That the said fund shall be increased by adding the income annually to the principal, until said fund shall amount to the sum of fifteen hundred dollars. That thereafter, one-half only of the annual income of said fund shall be used by the Vestry of said Church towards the payment of the salary of the Rector ; and no part of the said fund, or the income of said fund, shall be otherwise appropriated or applied.

"That the annual income not appropriated to the Rector's salary, together with such other monies as may from time to time be contributed or devised to said fund, which monies so contributed or devised are hereby declared to be bestowed and received upon the conditions herein stated, shall be annually added to the capital of said fund. That when the capital of said fund shall amount to five thousand dollars, the whole annual income thereof may be appropriated by the Vestry toward the salary of the Rector or Minister, and to no other purpose.

"That the Trustees shall pay the income of the fund, as herein directed, to the Rector, on the written order of the Vestry, attested by the signature of the Senior Warden and Secretary of the Vestry.

"That a collection in Church shall be annually made and contributions asked, in behalf of the said fund, on the third Sunday in April."

I think that such a fund, independent and not subject to alienation to other purposes, might be at once commenced in every Parish, and would add to its strength, stability, comfort and prosperity ; would meet a cordial and liberal approval from pious minds ; would attract the testamentary regard of wealth and piety ; would furnish to those about to remove from it a means and opportunity of kindly remembrance, which many would gladly use, to aid by a permanent gift, the Parish endeared to them by early associations, spiritual blessings and family relations, or other causes of regard.

It may be well to refer the subject to a committee, to report upon its feasibility, security and adaptedness to the object.

As the approaching meeting of the Bishops at the General Convention, will furnish an opportunity of conference in regard to the best mode of meeting the deplorable deficiency in the supply of candidates for Holy Orders, throughout the Church, it may be well that nothing but preliminary action be taken in regard to the Testing and Training School for candidates until after the meeting of that body.

Let me embrace the present opportunity to express the hope that the Clergy of the Diocese will continue to abstain, as they have hitherto so uniformly done, from intermingling themselves with the political conflicts of the day.

In cultivating independence of opinion, suffrage, action and expression, we are never to forget that we serve a kingdom that is not of this world ; that the gospel pulpit is no appointed place for partisan politics ; that as regards political rights in our country, Jews, Turks Infidels and Heretics stand on the same platform with Christians ; and that our duty is by example, precept and persuasion to allay, not to provoke, the irritations of party and the evils of such conflicts, so far as truth, duty, and the interests of Christ's kingdom will allow.

For myself, I have never even voted at an election. Having early observed the absorbing, irritating, and often unjust and injurious influence of partisan politics, on the judgments, affections and intercourse of men, I soon reached the conclusion, and have acted upon it, that the cause of Christ and his Church as committed to his ministers, is not subserved by preaching politics, enlisting in its service, or seeking its honors, or its emoluments. My brethren of the Clergy, let me repeat in your ears, the thrilling language of an exhortation addressed to us in one of the most solemn periods of our lives :

"Have always, therefore, printed in your remembrance how great a treasure is committed to your charge. For they are the sheep of Christ, which he bought with his death, and for whom he shed his blood.

"The Church and congregation whom you must serve is his spouse and his body.

"And if it shall happen that the same Church, or any member thereof, do take any hurt or hindrance by reason of your negligence, ye know the greatness of the fault, and also the horrible punishment that will ensue.

"Forasmuch, then, as your office is both of so great excellency and so great difficulty, ye see with how great care and study ye ought to apply yourselves, as well as show yourselves dutiful and thankful unto that Lord who hath placed you in so high a dignity ; as also to beware that neither you yourselves offend, nor be occasion that others offend.

"We have good hope that ye have well weighed these things long before this time ; and that ye have clearly determined, by God's grace to give yourselves wholly to this office, whereunto it has pleased God to call you, so that as much as lieth in you ye will apply yourselves wholly to this one thing, and draw all your cares and studies this way;—and that ye will continually pray to God the Father, by the mediation of our only Saviour Jesus Christ, for the heavenly assistance of the Holy Ghost; that by daily reading and weighing the Scriptures, ye may wax riper and stronger in your ministry; and that ye may so endeavor yourselves, from time to time, to sanctify the lives of you and yours, and to fashion them after the Rule and Doctrine of Christ, that ye may be wholesome and godly examples and patterns for the people to follow.*

"In the spirit of our Master, let us 'render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's.'"

My Brethren: For consultation and action in regard to the interests of the Church and Kingdom of Christ, we are now, Clergy and Laity, assembled in Convention.

Let us, in all that we say and do, seek its true welfare, cherish its holy spirit, place ourselves, spirit, soul and body, at the command of its great and glorious Head, and labor and pray that the kingdoms of this world may become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ, in the full faith that his grace will attend us in all zealous, faithful and persevering efforts to do his will on earth, and the blessing of his presence and glory will be, through Christ, our ample reward in Heaven.

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY.

August 20th, 1856.

On motion of the Rev. William B. Ashley,

Resolved, That so much of the address of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop as relates to the gradual endowment of feeble Parishes, be referred to a Committee of three Laymen.

Whereupon, the Rt. Rev. the Chair named H. W. Rogers, Washington Hunt and George W. Cuyler to constitute that Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Gregory laid upon the table, for action to-morrow, the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is earnestly recommended by this Convention, not

The Treasurer reports that the sum of $2,586 51 of the balance in his hands, is temporarily loaned on interest at 7 per cent., the security therefor being certificates for New York Central Rail Road Stock, worth, at their present value, $2,800.

In view of the rapid accumulation of the Christmas Fund, the Committee beg leave to call the attention of the Convention to the expediency of applying to the Legislature for the incorporation of the Trustees of this Fund, if not already done, in accordance with the recommendation of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, in his Annual Address of 1855.

The security of the fund, by judicious investment, can best be attained by its incorporation.

The Committee would likewise recommend, that the Treasurer having this fund in charge, in all future investments thereof, loan the same on Bond and Mortgage upon unincumbered real property, valued at double the amount of the loan, such security being more permanent and less fluctuating in its character than that of stocks upon which a greater portion of the fund has been heretofore loaned.

All which is respectfully submitted,

ALFRED ELY,
WM. BUELL,
ISAAC A. VERPLANK.

August 21st, 1856.

On motion,

Resolved, That it be referred to the Standing Committee of the Diocese, with authority, if they shall deem it expedient, to take the necessary steps to secure the passage of a law, by the next Legislature, incorporating the Trustees of the Permanent Missionary Fund, and the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy.

Mr. George W. Cuyler, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of this Convention, respectfully report, that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer and all the vouchers therein referred to, and which accompany the accounts, for the ending the first day of August, inst., and that they find them in all its correct and satisfactory.

The Committee would further state that there does not appear to be any ideal method of testing the accuracy of the Treasurer's accounts, so far as the amounts reported to be received into the Treasury, and they stfully call the attention of the Convention to the subject, and suggest the ion of the following Resolution:

Resolved, That all Rectors, Wardens, and others, transmitting money to the Treasurer, be requested to see that the usual acknowledgment through the Church Messenger is correctly made, and in case of a discrepancy that the person transmitting, immediately call the attention of the Treasurer thereto, and if correction claimed is not made by the Treasurer in his next monthly statement of acknowledgments, that then the facts be reported to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall bring the same to the notice of the next Convention and that it be the duty of the Treasurer to furnish with his annual account the printed copy of his monthly acknowledgments as published.

WM. V. I. MERCEUR, Treasurer.

The resolution recommended by the Committee was, on motion, adopted.

The Rev. W. B. Ashley, in behalf of the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Unfinished Business, report that they have examined the Journal of the last Convention, and find on page 58 that a Committee was appointed on the subject of a Diocesan Training School, to report on that subject to this Convention.

On page 65, that a Committee was appointed to report on the proper action of the Convention when the Bishop withholds his assent to the organization of any new Parish, in pursuance of the provisions of Canon IX of General Convention of 1853.

And on page 66, that the subject of procuring an act of Incorporation for the Trustees of the Permanent Missionary Fund, was referred to the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

And on the same page, a motion was presented and laid on the table, that a Committee be appointed to procure an act of the Legislature declaring that the omission of a religious corporation to elect a Board of Trustees or Vestry for three consecutive years, shall be deemed ipso facto to work a dissolution of such corporation."

All which is respectfully submitted,

WM. BLISS ASHLEY,
JOHN BRADLEY,
WM. VAN WAGANEN,

Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Gregory, in behalf of the Committee on the subject of Diocesan Training School, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee to whom the last Convention referred the subject of a Diocesan Training School for Candidates, respectfully report:

That whatever differences of opinion there may be as to the causes of the deficiency in the number of candidates for the ministry, or as to the best and speediest mode of increasing the number, there is but one opinion as to the great and pressing need of an increase of Clergy. The extension of the Church in the older Dioceses is sufficiently rapid to give employment to almost the whole number of the newly-ordained. There is an annual loss by death; and as the new States and Territories furnish few candidates of their own, here is a rapidly increasing drain from the Clergy of the older Dioceses. Within the last ten years, the Diocese of Western New York has lost forty-two of her Clergy, while she has gained by ordination fifty-eight. That is, the number transferred out of the Diocese has exceeded the number transferred into it by twenty-eight. Add to this the number lost by death, ten, and by deposition, four, and the whole loss is forty-two. The gain by ordination in the same period has been fifty-eight, so that now, the number of our Clergy having charge of parishes, is only greater by sixteen than it was ten years ago. In the mean time there has been an increase in the number of organized parishes of twenty-seven. Who can tell how many more congregations might have been organized, and how much better would be the condition of many of those already organized, if the supply of candidates for the sacred office were commensurate with the rapidly growing necessities of the Church.

Our dependence, hitherto, for a supply of candidates, has been chiefly upon those who have passed through the ordinary Schools and Colleges. Occasionally there have been individuals who, after having entered upon some secular business or profession, have given it up, and sought admission into the ministry at a mature age. But these are the exceptions and not the rule. The major number of candidates are young men, who, after having passed through their Academical education, then choose between the world and the Church; and so alluring are the fields of temporal enterprise that few resist their attractions. The young men who by their unaided efforts have qualified themselves for the successful pursuit of commercial or professional business, find the prospects of worldly wealth and comfort so alluring in the expanding and growing West, that they yield themselves at once to the attraction. Their choice has to be made between the secular and the sacred calling, just at a time when the world is most alluring, and there is little in any previous habits, plans, views or expectations to neutralize that allurements. Many of these would no doubt devote themselves to the ministry, if their earlier feelings and desires could be cherished, and if during their Academical course, they could be surrounded by such influences as would not only protect the tender plants of piety from the withering blasts of sensuality and worldly ambition, but foster and strengthen the desire to serve God in the most useful, most sacred and most honorable of all callings.

Hence, there has been suggested the mode of providing candidates for the ministry, by educating them from an early age, under a special system of training and instruction in Schools established expressly for that purpose.

A Training School for Candidates for the sacred ministry implies,

1. That this is its avowed and only purpose; that it is open to none except such as either by themselves or their friends, seek it with a view to preparation for the ministry; and that when a young man becomes unwilling to continue such preparation, or shows himself morally or intellectually unfitted for it, he is no longer to continue in the School.

2. That the system of instruction, training and oversight in such a School is intended to be eminently paternal—the School to be a Christian family—and the relation of the teacher to his scholars, that of a kind and watchful Pastor.

3. That it provides for the education of candidates in a greater separation from temptation, vice and evil influences than is found in ordinary secular Schools and Colleges; not seeking an unnatural separation from society, nor any undue restraint of youthful enjoyment, but providing a continual and fatherly oversight at that period of life which most needs it.

4. That it designs to educate the mind and body, the manners and the morals, the intellect and the heart, under the influence of a sense of religious duty—calling into active exercise, and fitting for the highest usefulness the faculties of the whole man—imparting a knowledge not only of books but of men, not only of languages and mathematics, but of manual arts and a practical life.

5. And lastly, it is the special design of such a School, by adequate endowment, to afford every possible encouragement and aid to worthy young men in their preparation for the sacred ministry.

Such, it is believed, are some of the prominent features by which a Diocesan Training School should be distinguished. But when the Committee come to consider the circumstances of the great majority of the young persons whom it is desirable to encourage and aid in their preparation for the ministry, they are persuaded that there is one class, perhaps a large class of youth, who for various reasons cannot be conveniently gathered into a School, but who nevertheless would be greatly benefited by having a definite relation to such School, and who, although living in different parts of the Diocese, might be so guided and assisted by some central Board of Education as to constitute an important department of the body of pupils which is to supply candidates for the ministry. Believing that such a department will not at all interfere with the more direct work of a Training School, and that it will very speedily contribute to an increase of candidates, it is recommended that for reasons both of efficiency, simplicity, harmony and economy of management, the Training School which is contemplated embrace both classes of young persons referred to, but in two distinct departments. Many of the details of the plan must necessarily be left to be modified by experience. The first and most important thing is to find the means by which a beginning may be made.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That a Committee of two clergymen and two laymen, together with the Bishop, be appointed with power to take measures to procure the necessary funds for commencing a Diocesan Training School for candidates, and the donors shall designate which department is to be the recipient.

Resolved, That said School shall consist of two departments, and that for all the purposes of its supervision and management, the Bishop and the Standing Committee shall be a Board of Education.

The Junior Department shall consist of youth from twelve to eighteen years of age, who shall apply to the Bishop for admission, and be received with the design of preparing to become Candidates for Orders if found worthy. It shall be opened as soon as an endowment of $20,000 shall be obtained for the purpose, and other requisite arrangements as to location, building and instruction can be made.

The Senior Department shall consist of all young men in the Diocese, communicants in the Church, of eighteen years of age and upwards, who may apply to the Bishop, with a recommendation of the minister of the parish where they are communicants, to be received as applicants for candidateship, and shall be so received; and they shall place themselves under the direction of the Bishop and Board of Education, who shall guide them in their preparatory studies, and take measures to provide for aiding such as may need pecuniary assistance.

This Department shall be located at Geneva, and shall be opened as soon as an adequate endowment shall be obtained; but the students shall prosecute their preparatory studies where the Bishop and Board shall direct, and shall if found worthy, be admitted as candidates when prepared, according to the Canons.

In both Departments, whenever in the judgment of the Bishop any student shall display character or disposition unapt to the object of the ministry, he shall cease to be connected with the department.

All endowments for either Department of the Training School shall be placed in the hands of three lay Trustees, to be chosen by the Convention, to manage and invest the same, who shall pay over the interest only of such endowment to the support of the institution, and the principal shall be kept inviolate.

During the discussion of the resolutions, the hour having arrived for the order of the day, (see Rules of Order, § XVIII,) the House proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and the Deputies to the General Convention, by one ballot, as directed by Section 2 of Canon XII, the Rev. Geo. M. Hills and Wm. B. Douglas, being appointed by the Rt. Rev. the President to receive, as tellers, the votes of the Clergy, and the Rev. W. H. A. Bissell, D. D., and Mr. George W. Cuyler, to receive the votes of the Laity.

While the tellers were absent, it was on motion,

Resolved, That the House take a recess until 3 o'clock.

Whereupon, the House took a recess until 3 o'clock.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON—3 O'CLOCK.

The Convention re-assembled.

The Tellers being called upon for their report, on counting the ballots, it appeared that the following persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and were, therefore, declared duly elected:

Resolved, That the Parishes of the Diocese are requested to make a special collection for this purpose on the third Sunday of September.

The Rt. Rev. the President presented, in behalf of the Education and Missionary Board of the Diocese, the following

REPORT:

The Education and Missionary Board present to the Convention the Annual Report.

During the last conventional year, the whole number of Missionaries employed in the Diocese has been sixty.

Of these, forty have labored the whole year, and twenty for shorter periods.

Their services have been enjoyed by sixty-seven Parishes. At present, the number of Missionaries in employment is forty-six.

The Parochial Reports present the results of their labors.

The Education Fund has aided four Beneficiaries.

The Trustee of the Permanent Missionary Fund, William Young, Esq., reports that Fund to be $11,211; the securities to be in Kentucky State bonds, $500 in bonds and mortgages, $5,211; and in a first mortgage bond of the Canandaigua and Elmira Railroad, $1000. The interest is duly paid. It has amounted to $784 71, and has been paid over to the Treasurer of the Diocese for Missions of the Diocese. At present, a small balance of principal paid $200, is in his hands, awaiting an opportunity for investment.

His Report is appended.

The Report of Joseph Juliard, Trustee of the Van Wageningen Missionary Fund amounting to $1692 16, is also appended.

The amount appropriated to the Education Fund has been $450.

The sum paid to the Diocesan Missionaries has been $5059.

Several of the Missionary stations are unsupplied. The difficulty of procuring laborers, arising from removals to other Dioceses, inadequate supplies and the general scarcity of clergy, is annually increasing, and materially frustrates the growth of the Diocese. Of the Clergy who have left the Diocese during the last year, seven had been Missionaries, and the places of two of them only are supplied.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY, Chairman

To the Rt. Rev. William H. De Lancey, Chairman of the Education and Missionary Board of the Diocese of Western New York:

Be nominated to the General Convention to be held in October ne in the city of Philadelphia, as Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for the Diocese of Western New York.

The resolution offered yesterday by the Rev. Dr. Gregory, in reference to the General Protestant Episcopal Sunday School Union and Church Book Society, was then taken from the table, when Mr. Daniel H. Marsh moved that the same be laid upon the table; when, the yeas and noes being called for, it was decided in the negative. Clergy—aye, 2; noes, 45. Laity—aye, 9; noes, 33.

On motion, the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Washington Hunt,

Resolved, That the Rev. Wm. B. Ashley be authorized to transfer to the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate the funds and securities now in his hands contributed for the increase of said fund.

On motion of Rev. W. B. Ashley,

Resolved, That it be referred to the Bishop, with the Secretary to prepare the Report to the General Convention of the state of the Church in this Diocese.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Clergy present their Parochial Reports to the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, as required by Canon XII, of the General Convention of 1853. That the reading of the same be dispensed with, and that they be printed, as usual, in the Appendix of the Journal.

On motion of Rev. A. B. Beach,

Resolved, That 2,000 copies of the Journal of the Convention and of the Constitutions and Canons, be printed and distributed, as usual, under the direction of the Secretary.

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to prepay the postage on those copies of the Journal directed by Canon to be transmitted by mail.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the congregation of Trinity Church, Watertown, for the hospitality so generously extended to its members during the present session, and that the Rev. the Rector be requested to give publicity to this resolution in such way as he may deem expedient.

The above Report is for the two years last past. The work of securing to this infant parish a Church and Parsonage, has been brought to a successful end. It has cost many sacrifices to its friends, but these have been made most cheerfully, and their record is on high. The infant congregation have done well themselves, and their well doing has been most kindly responded to by the Churches and individuals in this Diocese and the Diocese of New York. A train of providences from the beginning to the end has illustrated the mercy and goodness of God to the faithful toiling sons and daughters of the Church.

The Alms of the Offertory in the absence of the claims of the sick and needy, have been used for the Parish library, the window fund, and the furnishing of the Church.

Services have been held at different points around us, and the consolations of the holy faith have gone out to the sick and sorrowing beyond the precincts of the Parish.

St. Peter's Church, Westfield ; the Rev. ALBERT WOOD, Rector and Missionary.

the Parish is gradually growing stronger. The Missionary regrets, in the discharge of his duties as Rector of Christ Church, Butternuts, (in which he officiates every Sunday, superintends the Sunday School, and teaches a Bible Class,) prevent him from giving no more than one service every Sunday at M^r Upton. The Sunday School connected with this station is prosperous. The children are catechised by the Missionary every Lord's day, and the School superintended by him.

The services of the Church are well and regularly attended. Important improvements have been made in the Church edifice since last year. Repairs have been made on the roof and ceiling. The old pulpit and bulky attachments have been removed, lecterns and a suitable pulpit substituted, and a convenient chancel. A vestry room also has been built—all paid for by means collected by the Missionary from the Bishop and various friends of the Church, to whom the Parish desire to express their lasting obligations.

I have been here now thirteen months, and must say I have never been rested by a community generally with more regard, and have never had charge of a congregation more truly united—they have indeed been “of one heart and one soul,” desiring the prosperity of Zion. As mainly attributable to this, under God, one most encouraging result has been a very considerable increase in the attendance upon our holy services, the Church very frequently being well filled, and a large proportion being young men.

The above does not include the cost of the new Church now nearly completed, nor of all the furniture. It is expected that the consecration will take place on the 18th of September, and when completed it will be an elegant temple for the worship of God. As years pass on, it will stand as an enduring monument of the munificent liberality of its donor, John R. Murray, Esq.

The number of families is smaller than in last year's Report. This arises, in part, from a revision of the Parish Register, but still more from a great number of removals, particularly of old country people. The number of communicants, though actually much greater, is reduced by an accurate and thorough revision of the list. Some are dropped who may hereafter be restored.

constant removals from this Parish are among its greatest afflictions. these, it would probably have attained to the growth and vigor of man. Yet with no corresponding accessions from abroad, we hope the Church is sure progress in the hearts of the people. The congregations are indeed the prospects encouraging. The Rector, at different times, has given us on the Holy Land—Evidences of Divine Revelation, and Church History of which were numerously attended by the Students of the University, people of the village.

The Sunday and Lenten services were sustained as usual. A Parish School for Boys was commenced in October, and continues with some prospect of success.

St. George's Church, Mumford ; Vacant.

No services have been held in this Parish during the past year. There are two communicants resident in this village, by whom, as well as others, occasional services by the neighboring Clergy would be gratefully received.

For statement as to condition of the Church property, reference is made to the Parochial Report in the last Journal.

Trinity Church, Penfield ; the Rev. HENRY LOCKWOOD, Missionary.

I commenced holding services in this Parish on the 21st of October, last, since which time I have continued to do so, except when prevented by storms on each alternate Sunday, until June 8th. At that time, I commenced and still continue a service on each Sunday afternoon. There is quite an encouraging attendance here, and had we but a suitable Church of our own to meet in, there would seem a good prospect for the revival of this ancient Parish. The former Warden still resides here, who, with his family and two or three others, comprise all that remain of the old congregation. Others, however, are looking favorably towards the Church, and some have been added by removal. There have been baptised here three children ; four persons have been confirmed, and the Holy Communion administered once, since the commencement of my services.

The following sums have been collected and forwarded to the Treasurer:

For Diocesan Missions,.....	$3 63
For Domestic Missions,.....	1 93

The present Rector entered upon his duties on the 1st day of October, 1855, and the Report covers only the time of his Rectorship. The "Chapel," in which the congregation now worship, a substantial and commodious, as well as tasteful brick structure, accommodating about 400 persons, was erected within the space of four months, at a cost of about $5000. The seats are all free; salary raised by subscription; other expenses defrayed chiefly from the offerings.

Note.—The Parish has pledged itself to pay the interest on $500 annually to the Episcopal Fund, until the principal is paid.

*There is included in the item "Parochial objects," $2,412 27 paid on Chapel and Church at; $200 13 paid by the "Ladies' Sewing and Benevolent Society," for Church furniture; ad $400 individual gifts, viz: gas fixtures, font, chancel furniture, &c., besides sundry minor contributions.

The services reported above have not all been held by myself. In October last, I was attacked with inflammation of the eye-lids, which became chronic, and has left a weakness of the organ not yet removed. The Parish and myself have been obliged for valuable services to Mr. Jacob S. Shipman, a candidate for Orders, residing here, whom the Bishop appointed lay reader at my request. Since New Year he has read the whole service and the afternoon sermons, while I have preached, extempore, but once each Sunday when at home.

I have been one trip eastward for the benefit of my health, and am about setting off again for the upper Lakes, the Parish having generously given me leave of absence with continuance of salary, and refusing to accept my offer of resignation. I trust, by the blessing of God, to be able to resume my duties in the fall.

Since my last Report, the Parish has purchased a new Organ at a cost of $1,500 of which $400 has been paid.

The girls of the Sunday School have been formed into a Sewing Society to work for the Chippewa Indian Mission, besides the collection for the same purpose reported above.

The Thanksgiving collection was $18.54, and was devoted to the purchase of a Parish Library, to be increased each year from the same source.

During the past year, there have been but few remarkable occurrences in this parish, and none of a discouraging tendency. At the same time, the prompt attendance of the congregation upon the services of the Church, and the serious earnestness while engaged therein, decidedly indicate an increasing desire to understand the truth as it is in "Christ and His Church," and to submit themselves to its life-giving influence.

There have been a few changes by death and removals, with so nearly an equal number added anew, that there is no diminution in the congregation.

The burial ground has been enlarged, and inclosed with a neat stone wall. It has been attended with so much expense, that a portion of the Church offerings were withheld from general objects, and devoted to this very urgent and necessary service.

The present Rector assumed the charge of this Parish on the 19th of November last.

All the sittings in the Church are still free. The current expenses of the Parish, including the support of the Rector, are met by the voluntary offerings of the congregation. A collection is made upon every occasion of public worship on the Lord's day.

The debt incurred several years ago in the purchase of the organ, amounting with interest, to about the sum of $550, was paid from the proceeds of a very successful "Fair" given by the Ladies of the Parish, in the City Hall, in December last. It is included in the amount given above as for Parochial objects.

The Rector is happy to state that a valuable lot, in a convenient and eligible position, has generously been offered to the Parish by Mr. George Hopper, as a site for the erection of a new Church edifice.

The subject of erecting a new Church edifice has occupied the consideration of the congregation during the past year. By the unanimous vote of the Vestry in January last, it was resolved, in view of the necessities of the Parish, that it was the duty of the congregation to proceed to the erection of a new Church edifice as soon as possible. A committee was accordingly appointed to solicit subscriptions immediately. The sum of $5300 is already secured. A design for a handsome and effective Church, of wood, with tower and spire, in the Gothic style, affording sittings for 520 adults, which can be executed for the sum of $6000, has been furnished by Henry Dudley, Esq. Architect, of New York; and it is hoped that the Vestry will commence the erection of a Church, either after this design, or of a more permanent edifice of stone, next Spring.

The Parish has enjoyed its usual temporal prosperity, and has been also blessed with evident marks of the Divine favor in its spiritual interests. To the future it looks forward with hope and confidence. The great drawback to its growth and influence, namely, the want of a capacious and suitable Church edifice, is about to be removed by the erection of a noble building upon a site every way adapted to its purpose. The Corner Stone of the structure was laid with appropriate ceremonies, by the Bishop of the Diocese, on the 10th of July. Its completion will fulfill many prayers, and bring joy to many hearts.

The Rector has been unable to officiate, in consequence of severe illness, since the 20th of January. The services of the Church, however, have been regularly held by the Rev. Mr. Northrop, of this Diocese, and the Rev. R. Riley, of the Diocese of New York, who have been engaged by the Vestry for that purpose. His health is now improving, and he hopes, under the divine blessing, to be soon able to resume his duties.

The new Church edifice was consecrated on the 12th of July. It is hoped that the obstacles which have hitherto impeded the growth of this Parish are now for the most part removed. The expenses attending the erection of the Church, will be reported next year, as the accounts are not yet settled. The Parish is indebted to the liberality of the corporation of Trinity Church, New York, whose generous gift of $750 will relieve it from debt.

I cannot refrain from making grateful mention of the "riches of the liberality" of my Parishioners towards myself and mine. I have been the recipient of their voluntary bounty since the last Convention, to no less an amount than $1,600, over and above my regular salary. May our bountiful Lord remember them all for good when He cometh to make up His jewels.

I know of but three things essential to the further numerical increase of this Parish, which greater diligence and fidelity on my part cannot alone supply.

1st. A larger and more imposing Church edifice. 2d. A more prompt and efficient administration of its financial affairs. 3d. A greater readiness to work in this behalf, (and especially for the religious training of the young,) on the part of the male members of the congregation.

From the above statement it will be seen that $150 have been raised in the Parish for Parochial objects. It is proper to remark that this sum was expended chiefly in painting and papering the interior of the Church. It is now greatly improved.

In other respects the Parish gives cheering indications of life and vigor. During the past year, the services have been well attended, and had not the Rector been compelled by loss of voice to suspend his labors for a while, the Church doubtless would have been in a much more prosperous condition than it is.

This Church has been vacant for more than one year. The Parish has been much weakened by deaths and removals, and of course, the present congregation is somewhat discouraged. We have, however, the only house for public worship within two or three miles, a thickly settled neighborhood, and a Parsonage. We think that a self-denying devoted Clergyman might do much to build up the Church in our midst.

St. James' Church, Pulaski; Reported by the Warden.

I agreeably to request I now send you the Report of this Parish. After the resignation of the Rev. Andrew Oliver, a year ago last Easter, we were without a minister until the fall, when the Rev. Mr. Harrison was engaged for the other Sunday for services, which were well attended considering the season of the winter. Collections were made for sundry purposes twice, and the Christmas collection for disabled Clergymen, which were forwarded by Mr. Harrison to the Treasurer. Mr. Harrison was engaged for six months when the Church was organized there was only one communicant in the congregation. The number of communicants is 24. There is an encouraging prospect of increase of the Parish at present, under a faithful and efficient

The external circumstances of this Parish are exceedingly encouraging, and speak well for the liberality of its members, and their warm attachment to the principles of the Church. It is fervently hoped that the opening promise of spiritual interest and life may ere long be abundantly realized. Although, the removals to the west, several families, not communicants, have been taken from us, among them some of the most efficient members, yet have their numbers been more than supplied by numerous accessions. An organ, of 14 stop and of the well known repute of Erben, of New York, has been procured; the means are already provided, though not as yet appropriated, to the purchase of a suitable Font. The salary of the Rector has been augmented by the addition of a third more, and it is in contemplation to furnish a Rectory, which is much needed. The increase of the Parish, numerically, is checked through want of Church accommodations—the application for pews being many more than the building contains. The enlargement of the edifice, or the erection of a new one will, it is confidently expected, in due time engage the accustomed zeal and energy of the congregation.

While, for the past six years, there has been a steady increase in the number of communicants belonging to this Parish—doubling nearly twice over—the congregation hardly holds its own. Why this is so will be readily understood, when it is known that nearly all the sittings and pews are held by individuals—some not members of the Parish—as private property ; so that they can be, and in some cases are, actually rented as a means of private gain.

The present Minister took charge of this Parish about the 1st of April last, which had been vacant about 18 months. During that time, lay services were held twice each Sunday, and the congregation were thus kept together far better than could have been expected under the circumstances.

Most of the above report is dated from the first of April last, and not having access to the records of the Church, (being in possession of the former Clergyman,) it is somewhat imperfect. During this period, I have officiated twice at Materey.

No collection for "Foreign Missions," other than that of the Sunday School appears in this Report, as it extends over only a portion of the year.

A neat and beautiful Church edifice has been erected, the whole cost of which was nearly $4000. Over $1000 were raised by the Ladies of the Parish, who with untiring effort, have labored and still do labor for the welfare of the Church. The cost of the entire furnishing of the Church, amounting to $335, was paid by them. We are burdened with a debt on the building which we trust will ere long be liquidated. A plan has been proposed and will be carried out during the autumn, which will (with the blessing of God) provide for the removal of all our indebtedness.

The attendance on public worship has been steadily increasing, and we have not been without some tokens of the Divine favor. Several persons are now ready to receive the Apostolic rite of confirmation, and we have every reason to believe many more will yet be brought into the fold of Christ's Church, and "be made living members of the same."

The Parish desire to record here their grateful appreciation of pecuniary assistance rendered them by the Bishop of the Diocese, and by many other friends both in and out of the Diocese, during the erection and completion of the Church edifice.

The Parish is much weakened by removals.

At Waleott I have held, during the year, ten services. We have here apart from the above Report 18 communicants, 11 families, 45 individuals.

It is in contemplation to erect this station into a Parish, thus affording a surer foothold for the growth of the Church.

I have also held several services at Soda, apart from the Parish appointments.

The Ladies of the Parish have formed a Sewing Society, called the "Parish Union," meeting every two weeks, and bringing the members of the congregation together in pleasant social gatherings. They hope, by their industry, to repare this season a box of clothing for Namotah Mission. The former Missionary, Rev. A. D. Benedict, resigned the charge of this Parish April 21st, 1886. entered upon my Pastoral duties in the following June. The above report covers the whole year.

St. Clement's Church, Weathersfield Springs ; Reported by the Rev. N. M. WHITE MONTGOMERY.

During the past year, this Parish has continued to receive services on every fourth Sunday from the Clergyman at Warsaw. Owing to the severity of last winter, however, several of the appointments were omitted.

Eighteen Sunday services and 1 week day service have been held. The congregation embraces 12 families, with 22 adults and 11 children. At the last visitation of the Bishop, 3 were confirmed, and added to the number of communicants, making in all 12. The Holy Communion has been administered 3 times. There has also been 1 funeral and 1 wedding.

The following amounts have been collected and transmitted, viz :

For Diocesan Missions,	$4 33
For Domestic Missions,	1 50
Total,	$5 83

The attendance at the public services is generally good. There is an encouraging field of labor, and with more frequent ministrations, and some regular pastoral care, (which are at present impracticable,) the Parish might soon again be in a flourishing condition.

St. Mark's Church, Penn Yan ; the Rev. TIMOTHY F. WARDWELL, officiating temporarily.

Congregation. . Families 49, (adults 121, children 81,) total number of individuals 202 ; baptism 1 ; communicants 60 ; burials 2.

The Church has been closed about two years, except when opened for occasional services. The present officiating Minister, though not connected with the Diocese, consented to officiate temporarily, and entered upon his duties on the second Sunday in July. The report is, therefore, necessarily an imperfect one.

Of the families reported, several reside at Branchport, while others reside at Dundee and at Starkey.

Services have been held usually at Penn Yan on every Sunday morning, and at Branchport in the afternoon. At both places, they have been attended by large and attentive congregations.

Other Clerical Reports.

The Bishop has received Reports from the following Clergymen not having rochial cures :

The Rev. NATHANIEL F. BRUCE, residing at Dexter, Michigan, reports: that since his last Report, he has continued to officiate in Dexter up to the present time, with some few exceptions, every Sunday; that he has baptised three children and one adult; married six couples, administered the Eucharist six times; attended five funerals, and preached on every such occasion; but that present he is so disabled by severe attacks of the fever and ague as to be unable to officiate.

The Rev. EDWARD DE ZENG, residing at Middletown, Connecticut, reports: that his continued impaired health has prevented him from attempting the duties of a Parish, and that he has only been able on a few Sundays during the year, to assist his brethren of the ministry.

The Rev. REUBEN I. GERMAIN, residing at Black Rock Dam, Buffalo, Erie county, reports: that he removed to his present residence on the first of May; that he held services at first in his own house—that the Dutch Evangelical Society have kindly allowed the use of their building on Sunday afternoon; that in July he commenced, at the desire of the people, to hold services at Upper Black Rock, and that the prospect seems fair of reviving the work in that place.

The Rev. BENJAMIN HALE, D. D., President of Hobart Free College, Geneva, reports: that during the last Conventional year, he has preached thirty-six times, fourteen of which were at the Sunday services in the College Chapel; that besides the daily service at the College Chapel, performed in the morning, throughout the year, and for a part of the third term, in the evening, he has read the full service thirty-six times on Sundays, and taken part in the service generally on Sundays at other times; that he has administered the Holy Communion once in private, and three times in public, and assisted on various occasions; that he has baptised two adults and two infants, officiated at four funerals, and assisted in the service at several others; that he gave seventeen lectures on the Apostolic Creed to a voluntary class in the College, on Sunday evenings during the first and second terms of the last College year, and had the happiness to present seven new members of the College, two assistant professors and five students, to the Bishop for confirmation.

The Rev. BEARDSLEY NORTHRUP, residing at New Hartford, Oneida county, reports: that since the last Annual Convention, he has read prayers and preached eleven Sundays in Trinity Church, Utica, one Sunday in Grace Church, Utica, and nine Sundays in St. Stephen's Church, New Hartford, and one Sunday in Albion, Orleans county; has baptised three infants, and administered the Holy Communion four times, and attended one funeral, and has also occasionally assisted in the services of the Church.

The Rev. EPHRAIM PUNDERSON, residing at Cleveland, Ohio, reports: that he intentionally omitted to make his report last year when he officiated several times in Trinity Church, during the absence of the Rector, and administered the Holy Communion once; that he has preached also in Grace Church, and read the service twice; that he has occasionally assisted in the services in Trinity Church, where he attends; that those services, with some Parochial duty done by request, are the sum of his Ministerial services, and that his school has been more prosperous than the preceding year.

The Rev. WILLIAM D. WILSON, D. D. Geneva, reports: that during the last Conventional year, besides his duties as Trinity Professor in Hobart Free College, and assisting in the public services very generally on Sundays and other Holy days, especially during Passion Week, he has officiated at one funeral and married one couple.

No. II.

Anglo-American Church Emigrant's Aid Society.

LONDON, 1st SEPTEMBER, 1855.

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Western New York :

RIGHT REV. AND DEAR BROTHER :—You will remember that, in the year of our Lord, 1853, a Deputation was sent from England to represent the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, at the Meeting of the Board of Missions of the Episcopal Church in the United States, held in New York during the session of the General Convention.

The Deputies were commissioned "to strengthen and improve the intimate relations which already happily exist between the Mother and Daughter Church," and "to receive and communicate information and suggestions on the best mode of conducting Missionary operations."

After conferring with a Committee of the Board of Missions, the Deputies concluded that the Emigrants from this country, who annually seek your shores in multitudes, presented a field of Missionary labor in which the two branches of our common Reformed Church might co-operate with good prospect of success. It was subsequently resolved, at a meeting of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, "that the Standing Committee be requested to consider and mature a plan whereby emigrant members of the Church may be most readily and conveniently brought under the notice of the Clergy of the United States at the port of their debarkation, as well as at the settlements to which they may ultimately proceed."

I regret however to say, that, after a discussion on the subject, it was found that the constitution of the venerable Society which I have named precluded it from undertaking the execution of the plan. It therefore seemed to be necessary that, although the multiplication of societies is in general to be deprecated, some new association should be formed for the purpose of carrying into effect a design already sanctioned by high authority on both sides of the Atlantic.

It gives me pleasure to state that such an association has been duly organized, and to forward to you a copy of its constitution, embodying the principles and rules designed for its government. In appointing me its President, the Association has been influenced by a remembrance of the connection formerly subsisting between the Bishop of London and the members of your American Church.

You will perceive that the Association has engaged to alter any of its rules or regulations which may be regarded as exceptionable by your ecclesiastical authorities. I shall gladly receive any suggestions which you may be kind enough to offer; and if you deem it proper to lay the matter before your Convention, whether General or Diocesan, any resolution of such a body will meet with our most respectful attention.

The Association desires to act for the general good of the Church, and independently of all party influences. I think it right also to mention, that we should no account encourage the formation of English congregations, as such, within our limits. On the contrary, we hope that English Churchmen, on taking up their permanent residence in the United States, will become amalgamated with our own communion, in connection with the authorities of which our Association proposes to carry on its operations.

We think it simply an act of justice to your Church to offer some assistance towards supplying those who are by birth our countrymen with the means of religious worship during the early period of their sojourn in a strange land.

In apportioning such temporary assistance, we shall need your brotherly advice and guidance as to the wants of the people for whom we desire to make provision, and as to the varied circumstances of the different portions of your Church. We hope that, amidst the numerous openings presented to industry in all parts of your Continent, congregations, when once established, will soon be enabled, not only to maintain themselves, but to assist in extending the wings of pure religion to others.

With earnest prayer that this effort to advance the kingdom of our blessed Lord and Saviour, may, through the operation of the Holy Spirit, be made eternal; and in the hope that your Church and ours may continue throughout generations to maintain and advance the truth as it is in Jesus,

I beg to subscribe myself

Your affectionate Friend and Brother in Christ,

O. J. LONDON.

CONSTITUTION AND RULES

OF THE

Anglo-American Church Emigrant's Aid Society.

I. The object of this Association is the promotion of the spiritual welfare of English Churchmen emigrating to the United States.

II. The Association hopes to effect this object by encouraging and assisting English emigrants to avail themselves of the privileges afforded by the "Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States," a body identical in its principles with the Church of England.

III. The principal means by which the Association proposes to supply such encouragement and assistance are—

1st. Introductions to Clerical and Lay Churchmen in America.

2dly. Temporary and limited grants to aid in supporting Pastors and Teachers, and in erecting places of worship.

IV. The Association desires to act in connection with the ecclesiastical authorities in America, to which the American part of its organization will be subordinate. It can give no encouragement to the formation of separate English congregations within the Dioceses of the United States.

V. The Association shall consist of all members of the Church of England, who shall pay into the hands of the Treasurer One Pound annually, or Ten pounds at one time. Corresponding members in America may also be elected to the Association, who, when in England, may vote at the annual meetings, or the meetings of the Executive Committee.

VI. There shall be an Annual Meeting of the Association in London.

VII. There shall be elected, at the annual meeting, an Executive Committee for the following year, a Secretary or Secretaries, and a Treasurer.

VIII. The Secretary shall correspond with persons in England and America with reference to the objects of the Association. He shall prepare an Annual Report of the proceedings, and shall produce at the annual meeting such extracts from the correspondence as may appear calculated to interest Churchmen generally.

IX. The Executive Committee shall appoint Agents of the Association in those parts of America to which the stream of English emigration is generally directed.

X. The American Agents shall receive, through the Secretary, lists of the emigrants proceeding to America in connection with the Association. They shall give such emigrants advice on their arrival, and shall promote their spiritual welfare by placing them in connection with Parishes and Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

XI. Notice of all grants made by the Association shall be forthwith communicated by the Secretary to the President, who may within a fortnight communicate his disapproval to the Secretary, and every grant so disapproved of shall be null and void.

XII. No alteration of the Rules of this Association shall be made, excepting at an Annual Meeting.

XIII. The above rules shall be deemed to be preliminary, and subject to be modified on any general representation from the ecclesiastical authorities in the United States.

OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY.

PRESIDENT,

THE BISHOP OF LONDON.

SECRETARIES,

THE REV. HENRY CASWALL, D. D., Vicar of Figheldean, Wilts

VICARAGE, FIGHELDEAN, AMESBURY, WILTS, Sept. 7, 1855.

MY DEAR BISHOP DE LANCKY :—As Secretary of the new Society for the Spiritual aid of our Emigrants to the United States, I am instructed to send you the above letter of the Bishop of London. The original has been sent to the Presiding Bishop. We shall be happy if you can promote the objects of the Society, and shall always be rejoiced to hear from you.

I remain, Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir,

Yours, most respectfully,

HENRY CASWALL.

NOTES.

1. Several changes have occurred in the list of Missionaries since the Convention.

2. This list of Stations and Missionaries is for the year beginning October 1st, 1856, and ending October 1st, 1857, if the monthly collections supply the funds to meet the payments; otherwise, to terminate at the end of any quarter.

3. For the quarterly stipends, as they shall become due, the Missionaries will draw on WILLIAM V. I. MERCER, Esq., Waterloo, Seneca county, W. N. Y., and be very particular in following the form of draft given below.

4. No Drafts are paid in advance.

5. No Drafts are payable except for services actually rendered on the station.

6. The Missionary Parishes are considered as peculiarly under obligation to make and forward the monthly collections regularly.

7. FORM OF A DRAFT ON THE TREASURER.

To WILLIAM V. I. MERCER, ESQ., Waterloo, Treasurer of the Diocese of W. N. Y.

DEAR SIR,—Please to pay to ——— the sum of ———, being the amount due me as a Missionary at ———, for the quarter ending on the — day of —, 185 .

Respectfully yours,

———, Western New York, ———, 185 .

APPENDIX.

NO. VI.

AN ACT to Provide for the Incorporation of Religious Societies.

PASSED APRIL 5TH, 1813.

§ 1. Be it enacted by the people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That it shall be lawful for the male persons of full age, of any Church or Congregation in this State, who shall have belonged to such Church or Congregation for the last twelve months preceding such election, and who shall have been baptized in the Episcopal Church, or shall have been received therein, either by the right (rite) of confirmation, or by receiving the Holy Communion, or by purchasing or hiring a pew or seat in said Church, or by some joint act of the parties and of the Rector whereby they shall have attached themselves to the Protestant Episcopal Church, and not already incorporated, at any time to meet for the purpose of incorporating themselves under this Act, and by a majority of voices, to elect two Church Wardens and eight Vestrymen, and to determine, on what day of the week, called Easter week, the said offices of Church Wardens and Vestrymen, shall annually thereafter cease, and their successors in office be chosen; of which first election notice shall be given in the time of morning service, on two Sundays previous thereto, by the Rector, or if there be none, by any other person belonging to such Church or Congregation, and that said Rector, or if there be none, or he be necessarily absent, then one of the Church Wardens or Vestrymen, or any other person called to the chair, shall preside at such first election, and together with two other persons, shall make a certificate under their hands and seals, of the Church Wardens and Vestrymen so elected, of the day of Easter week so fixed on for the annual election of their successors, and of the name or title by which such Church or Congregation shall be known in law; which certificate being duly acknowledged, or proved by one or more of the subscribing witnesses, before the Chancellor or one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, or one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of the county where such Church or place of worship of such Congregation shall be situated, shall be recorded by the Clerk of such county in a book to be by him provided for that purpose, and that the Church Wardens and Vestrymen so elected, and their successors in office of themselves, but if there be a Rector, then together with the Rector of such Church or Congregation, shall form a Vestry and be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and such Trustees and their successors shall thereupon by virtue of this Act, be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and that the persons qualified as afore-
Annual Elections of Church Wardens and Vestrymen. } said, shall, in every year thereafter, on the day in Easter week so to be fixed for that purpose, elect such Church Wardens and Vestrymen, and whenever any vacancy shall happen before the stated annual election, by death or otherwise, the said Trustees shall appoint a time for holding an election to supply such vacancy, of which notice shall be given in the time of divine service, at least ten days previous thereto; and such election, and also the stated annual elections shall be holden immediately after morning service, and at all such elections, the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Church Wardens or Vestrymen shall preside and receive the votes of the electors, and be the returning officer, and shall enter the proceedings in the book of the minutes of the Vestry, and sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many electors present as he shall think fit, to be by them also signed and certified; and the Church Wardens and Vestrymen to be chosen at any of the said elections, shall hold their offices until the expiration of the year for which they shall be chosen, and until others be chosen in their stead, and shall have power to call and induct a Rector to such Church or Congregation as often as there shall be a vacancy therein; provided, however, That no Trustees, when and how to meet. } meeting or board of such Trustees shall be held, unless at least three days notice thereof shall be given in writing, under the hand of the Rector or one of the Church Wardens; and that no such board shall be competent to transact any business unless the Rector, if there be one, and at least one of the Church Wardens and a majority of the Vestrymen be present; and such Rector, if there be one, and if not, then the Church Warden present, or if both the Church Wardens be present, then the Church Warden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of voices, shall preside at every such meeting or board, and have the casting vote.

§ 16. And be it further enacted, That whenever any religious corporation shall be dissolved by means of any non-uses or neglect to exercise any of the powers necessary for its preservation, it shall be lawful for the religious society which was connected with such corporation, to re-incorporate itself in the mode prescribed by this Act, and that thereupon all the real and personal property which did belong to such dissolved corporation at the time of its dissolution, shall rest in such new corporation for the said Society.

AN ACT to amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the Incorporation of Religious Societies," passed April 5th, 1813.

Passed April 16th, 1844, by a Two-third vote.

§ 3. Whenever there shall have been any omission or neglect of any Church or Congregation, or Religious Society, at their stated Annual Meeting, to choose any of the Trustees, Church Wardens, Vestrymen, or other officers, such Church, Congregation, or Religious Society, shall not be deemed or taken to have been thereby dissolved, but the Trustees, Church Wardens, Vestrymen, or other officers in office at the time of such omission, shall be deemed and taken to be the legal officers of such Church, Congregation, or Society, and shall continue to hold their offices until others be chosen in their stead: Provided that elections to supply such omissions shall be made within one year after their occurrence respectively, or within one year after the passage of this act.

The election of a Secretary being next in order, the Bishop read the following letter from the Rev. Dr. Proal:

UTICA, 15th August, 1857.

Rt. Rev. Dr. DE LANCY, Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York and President of the Convention:

MY DEAR SIR,—The long continued and severe indisposition—which has now extended from the 20th January, 1856, with little prospect of recovery—admonishes me that I shall not be able to discharge the duties of Secretary of the Convention. It is even doubtful if I shall be permitted to be present at its approaching session. I beg leave, therefore, to resign the office.

I shall ever cherish a grateful sense of the honor conferred on me by the Convention in re-electing me to this office at each successive meeting since the organization of the Diocese; and while life lasts shall pray for its prosperity, and for the blessing and favor of Almighty God upon its members, collectively and individually.

To this Church, as an integral portion of the great Catholic Body of which our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is the Divine Head, and the only source of power and authority therein, I have ever given my best affections, my zeal and my energies. Admitted into its pale, by the sacrament of baptismal regeneration, in earliest infancy, and educated through youth and manhood, "at the feet of" one of its "bright and shining lights," in its "evangelical truths and Apostolic order," advancing years have but increased my love and veneration for her divine character, worship and polity, and day by day established, strengthened and settled my best judgment in her holy ways. May her Lord bless, guide and preserve her, until, according to His most true promise, she shall "cover the earth."

I trust the Convention will be pleased to accept this resignation of the office of Secretary; and my profound acknowledgments for the indulgence and forbearance extended to the short-comings which have unavoidably accompanied the fulfilment of my duty.

With sentiments of great personal regard and consideration, I remain, Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir, very sincerely and affectionately,

Your friend and presbyter in the Church of Christ,

P. A. PROAL.

Whereupon, the following Resolutions, on motion of Hon. Benjamin Pringle, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Proal be accepted, and his letter be entered in the Minutes of the Convention.

Resolved, That in accepting the resignation of the late Secretary, the Convention do also record on their Minutes the expression of their cordial sympathy in his afflictions; of their acknowledgment and thanks for his faithful, able and disinterested services as Secretary; of their high estimate of his fidelity to the doctrine, principles, discipline and worship of our Catholic Church, and their most earnest commendation of him, in time and eternity, to the grace and blessing of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate a copy of these Resolutions to the Rev. Dr. Proal.

the House then proceeded to the election of a Secretary, when, on motion, the election by ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. James A. Matson was chosen.

The Chair announced to the House that the Secretary had appointed Rev. Charles W. Hayes his Assistant.

On motion, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted to regulate the proceedings of the present Convention, as follows, viz :

RULES OF ORDER:

CONDUCTING THE BUSINESS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WESTERN NEW YORK.

After the Convention has passed upon the irregular and defective certificates, if any, reported by the Committee under section 5th of chapter II, the next business in order shall be the election of a Secretary in conformity with the Canon.

The following Standing Committees shall then be appointed by the President :

1. On the admission into union with this Convention of Churches applying for the same, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.
 2. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, to consist of three Laymen.
 3. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, to consist of three Laymen.
 4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the Fund, to consist of three Laymen.
 5. On unfinished business, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.
- II. Immediately upon the appointment of the Standing Committees, any matter properly referable to the aforesaid Committees, may be presented for reference.
- V. Motions, notices, and resolutions shall then be in order.
- VI. A Treasurer of the Convention, and a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen shall then be appointed by ballot, as dispensed with by a unanimous vote ; when they may be appointed on motion.
- L. On the second, and every succeeding day during the sitting of the Convention, after the Daily Morning Prayer, the order of business, which shall not be departed from without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, shall be as follows :

- i. The reading, correcting, and approving of the minutes of the preceding day.
- ii. Calling the names of the absent members, and entering in the Journal those who appear.
- iii. Reports from Standing Committees in the following order :
 1. On the admission into union with the Convention of this Diocese, of Churches applying for that purpose.
 2. On the accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.
 3. On the Treasurer's accounts.
 4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the Fund.
 5. On unfinished business.
- iv. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer, when these officers have any business committed to them, shall then be in order ; and then reports from the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, and from the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.
- v. Reports from the Special Committees in the order in which they were appointed.
- vi. Unfinished business shall then be in order.
- vii. Motions, resolutions, and miscellaneous business.
- viii. The Bishop's Address shall be in order at any time.
- ix. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair, shall vote thereon unless excused by the House.
- x. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded ; and, when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before debate ; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, when required by the President, or any member.
- xi. If the question in debate contain several distinct propositions any member may have the same divided.
- xii. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to lay it on the table ; to postpone it indefinitely ; to postpone it to a certain time ; to commit it, or amend it ; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate ; and if it be negatived it shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.
- xiii. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIII. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may previous to a decision count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done calling the names of the clerical members and the churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journals.

XIV. Any five votes may require the ayes and noes to be taken by lers; and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question thout leave of the House.

XVI. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during e same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the nvention, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by e of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be nsidered more than once.

XVII. All special committees shall be appointed by the Chair, less otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they all be appointed by ballot.

XVIII. The election of the Standing Committee, and of Deputies the General Convention, and the election of any person to supply a cancy in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the iscopate, or in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund for isabled Clergymen, shall be the order of the day for 12 o'clock, on e second day of every annual meeting of the Convention.

XIX. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or scinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect; less by the votes of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to te.

XX. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention, e minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected, and proved.

XXI. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at o'clock in the morning; take a recess from one to three o'clock in e afternoon; and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock, P. M.

On motion,

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled seats in this Convention; Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal urch not belonging to this Diocese; Professors and Students of eology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, be admitted to sittings this Convention.

Resolved, That Clergymen of the United Church of England and land in Great Britain and its Colonies who may be present, be mitted to sittings in this Convention.

The President having announced this invitation, the following gentlemen took their seats, viz :

The Rev. Adam Townley, D. D., of Paris, in the Diocese of Toronto; the Rev. Francis Granger, of Ohio; Rev. Peyton Gallagher, of North Carolina; Rev. Lewis L. Noble, of New York; Rev. Joseph J. Corby, of Missouri; Rev. James O. Stokes, Rev. W. M. Carmichael, D. D., Rev. Wm. Long, Rev. Daniel F. Warren, of Western New York.

The Chair then announced the following Standing Committees :

On the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention :

Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D., Messrs. F. W. Hubbard and C. B. Perry.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen :

Messrs. Alfred Ely, William Buell and Isaac A. Verplank.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention :

Messrs. George W. Cuyler, Wm. B. Douglass and A. P. Grant.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate :

Messrs. Elijah Ford, Henry W. Rogers and Trumbull Carey.

On Unfinished Business :

Rev. W. B. Ashley, Messrs. John Bradley and J. W. Glover.

The following Church applied for admission into union with this Convention, viz :

All Saints' Church, Charlotte, Monroe county.

On motion, the application was referred to the Standing Committee on the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention.

The House then proceeded to the election of a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, and a Treasurer of the Convention. A vote by ballot being, in both cases, dispensed with,

DAVID S. HALL, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen; and

WILLIAM V. I. MERCER, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Convention.

The President then called for Reports from the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, the Education and Missionary Board, the Treasurer

the Convention, and the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the diocese, which having been laid on the table, were severally referred, on motion, to the respective Standing Committees.

The Bishop then, in compliance with the Canon, delivered the following

ADDRESS.

MY BRETHREN—The Clergy and Laity of the Convention :

In conformity to the provisions of the Canon, I proceed to lay before you the record of my official acts since the close of the Convention of 1856, on the 22d of August of that year.

On the 24th of August, I read prayers in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On September 5th, I held a special confirmation in Trinity Church, Geneva, and confirmed one person, and on Sunday, the 7th, I administered the holy communion in the same church in the morning, and preached in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening.

On the 12th, I attended a meeting of the De Veaux College, at Niagara Falls.

On the 14th, in company with the venerable Bishop of Toronto, the Bishop of Michigan, the Rev. Dr. Shelton, of Buffalo, and the Rev. Dr. Fuller, and other clergymen, of Canada, I had the pleasure to attend the opening of the new Chapel of St. John's at Thorold, Canada West, and preached in the afternoon; the morning sermon was preached by Bishop McCroskry, and the evening sermon by the Rev. Dr. Shelton. We were hospitably and pleasantly entertained by the Rev. Dr. Fuller, of Thorold.

On the 18th, I consecrated St. John's Church, Mount Morris, and preached on the occasion, and confirmed four persons.

From October 1, when it opened, at 10½ A. M., till October 21, when it closed at 11½ P. M., I attended the several sessions of the General Convention of 1856.

On the 2d, I received into this Diocese the Rev. William B. Musgrave, who took charge of the Missionary station at Candor and Leedsville.

On the 5th, I preached and administered the holy communion in Christ Church, Philadelphia.

On the 12th, I preached and administered the holy communion in St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, of which Church I had been Rector.

On the 19th, I preached in the Church of Gloria Dei, Philadelphia.

During the progress of the General Convention, I attended the meetings of the several Church Societies which recognize the authority and supervision of the Church, as the Board of Missions, the General Seminary, the Church Book Society, the Church Extension Society, &c., &c.,—all which seemed to command the interest, affection and liberality of the Church.

The Church Book Society was found to command a wide approval. Its heavy embarrassments, arising from the accumulated indebtedness of several years, the removal of its place of business, change in its management, and the expense of the revision of its publications, were met by a hearty and liberal donation of $14,000 to relieve it, from individual Churchmen from 24 Dioceses extending from Maine to Oregon. The contribution was subsequently increased, and under the active and zealous agents now in its service, it is securing increased means of efficiency and usefulness. It is designed, I am glad to learn, to establish DEPOSITORIES OF BOOKS where the interests of the Church may require.

Among the gratifying proceedings at the Convention, is to be recorded the remission, by the House of Bishops, of the sentence of suspension on the venerable Bishop, Henry U. Underdonk, of Pennsylvania, which has given almost universal satisfaction throughout the Church.

The character, harmony and good temper of the General Convention, and its avoidance of outside and irritating questions disconnected with its proper business, have secured for it a general respect throughout the country.

The actual legislation on Canons passed and amended, appears to be necessary, useful and wise.

The MEMORIAL on the Prayer Book, referred by the General Convention of 1853 to a Commission of Bishops, eventuated in the mere expression of an opinion by a majority of the House of Bishops,* found on the pages of the Journal.*

*Journal of General Convention of 1856, p. 204.

The Bishops, Clergy and Laity, in Convention, having adopted in 39 the Services of the Prayer Book as they have been generally received and used in this country since that time, I held that the consent of the Bishops, Clergy and Laity, in Convention, was necessary for any modification of them in substance or use, except by the force of a necessity which knows no law and can need no sanction.

The parties interested in the Services are the people who worship, the ministers who officiate, and the Bishop in jurisdiction who superintends the Diocese.

If there be any Clergymen in the Church who would disregard the wishes of the people, never consult their Vestries, and defy a Bishop, by omitting the Services, or separating them without any necessity and without caring to ask advice as expressed in the opinion of the House of Bishops, I can only say that such Clergymen must be left to the stings of their own consciences, the estimation and action of their Parishes, the unapproving voice of the Diocese, the regrets of their brethren, and the ultimate judgment of Him who looks to the heart, and will settle all questions of duty for Bishop, Priest and People at a bar where justice, truth and mercy will preside.

On the 22d, I transferred the Rev. Almon Gregory to the Diocese of Indiana.

After attending several meetings in New York in behalf of the Church Book Society, I returned to the Diocese on the 31st.

On November 2d, I preached in the morning in Trinity Church, Geneva, and administered the holy communion; and in the evening I preached in St. Peter's Chapel.

On the 5th, I admitted L. Ward Smith a candidate for Holy Orders.

On Sunday, Nov. 9th, in the morning, I preached in Grace Church, Brooklyn, and in the afternoon in the Holy Trinity Church, Brooklyn, and in the evening attended, at the former Church, a public meeting in behalf of the Church Book Society; and on the 10th I met the Executive Committee of the said Society, in New York, as one of the Special Committee of the Parent Society, whose suggestions as to increased efficiency and economy were readily adopted.

On the 16th, in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, in the morning, I admitted Mr. Stephen S. Hayward to the Order of Deacons, preached and administered the holy communion; and in the evening I baptized, in Church, Henry De Lancey Ashley, infant son of the Rector.

I attended a meeting of the De Veaux College, at Lockport, on the 18th.

On the 20th, Thanksgiving Day, I preached in Trinity Church, Geneva, in the morning.

On the 23d, I preached in the evening in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 25th, occurred at Philipville, Allegany county, the death of the Rev. Dr. Leverett Bush, long a faithful and zealous Parochial laborer in the Diocese,—disabled from duty for the last few years of his life, and living in retirement, aided by the Christmas Fund of the Diocese, to which his days had been devoted.

On the 30th, in the evening, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 5th December, I received into this Diocese, from Massachusetts, the Rev. Robert J. Parvin, who had been elected Rector of St. Mark's Church, Le Roy.

And on the 7th, I received, from the Diocese of Vermont, the Rev. George C. V. Eastman, who has been appointed the Principal of the Caryville Collegiate Seminary, now under the supervision of a Board of Trustees, a majority of whom belong to the Church in this Diocese.

I administered the holy communion in Trinity Church, Geneva, on the 7th.

On the 10th, I received from the Diocese of Ohio, the Rev. Thomas B. Fairchild, who is the Missionary at Brockport, Monroe county.

And on the same day, I transferred the Rev. Osgood E. Herrick to the Diocese of Florida, and the Rev. D. C. Loop to the Diocese of Missouri.

On the 14th, I read prayers and preached in the morning in Trinity Church, and preached in the evening in St. Peter's Chapel.

On the 21st, I preached in the evening in St. Peter's Chapel.

On the 24th, I received into this Diocese, the Rev. Moses E. Wilson, from the Diocese of Louisiana. He is the Missionary at Pulaaki.

On Christmas Day, I administered the holy communion in Trinity Chapel, Geneva.

And on the 26th, in the same Church, I confirmed one person.

most advantageously to the interests of religion and education, must depend upon the intelligence, integrity, knowledge, and just appreciation of legal and constitutional rights of the whole State, for preservation from the inroads of injustice, rapacity and party, it may well to put on record in a note* to this Address, for information a condensed view of the groundless character of the assaults hitherto made upon her title, her Parish character, and her use of her property.

On the 15th, I preached in St. Peter's Church, Albany.

On the 22d, I preached in Trinity Church, Geneva, in the morning and in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening.

I attended a meeting of the De Veaux College, at Niagara Falls, on the 24th.

And on the 25th, Ash Wednesday, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Buffalo.

On the 1st day of March, I administered the holy communion in Trinity Church, Geneva, in the morning, and preached in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening.

I held an ordination in Trinity Church, Geneva, on the 8th, where I admitted the Rev. Edward H. Jewett, Deacon, to the Holy Order of Priests, preached and administered the holy communion; and in the evening I read prayers in St. Peter's Chapel.

On the 15th, I read prayers in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening.

And on the 22d, I read prayers and preached in the same Chapel.

On the 29th, I preached morning and afternoon in Trinity Church, Seneca Falls, and confirmed eight persons, with an address.

On the 3d of April, I received into this Diocese, from the Diocese of Illinois, the Rev. Cuthbert C. Barclay, who succeeds the Rev. I. Gregory in the charge of St. James' Church, Syracuse.

On the 5th, I preached morning and afternoon in St. Paul's Church, Havana, and confirmed, at the morning service, fourteen persons.

On the 9th, in the afternoon, in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, I preached and confirmed sixteen persons.

On the 10th, being Good Friday, I preached in the morning in Zion Church, Fulton, and confirmed ten persons.

*See Appendix.

And in the afternoon, I preached and confirmed two persons, in St. Luke's Church, Granby.

On Easter Sunday, the 12th, in the morning, I preached in Christ Church, Oswego, confirmed thirty persons and administered the holy communion; and in the afternoon visited and briefly addressed the Sunday Scholars.

In the evening of the same day, I preached and confirmed thirty-two persons in the Church of the Evangelists, Oswego.

I preached in the Methodist Chapel, at Baldwinsville, on Easter Monday morning, the 13th.

And in the evening of the same day, I preached and confirmed eleven persons in St. James' Church, Syracuse.

On Easter Tuesday morning, the 14th, I confirmed twenty persons in Zion Church, Rome, with an address.

I attended a meeting of the De Veaux College, at Niagara Falls, on the 16th.

On the 17th, in the morning, I preached in St. Peter's Church, Niagara Falls, and confirmed thirteen persons, including one sick person in private.

In St. Paul's Church, Buffalo, on the 18th, I baptized an infant, Elizabeth Cuming Rochester.

I spent Sunday, the 19th, at Batavia, where, in St. James' Church, I preached morning and afternoon, and at the former service confirmed thirteen persons.

In St. Paul's Church, Stafford, on the morning of the 20th, I preached and confirmed sixteen persons.

In the evening of the same day, I preached and confirmed eleven persons in St. Mark's Church, Le Roy.

On the morning of the 21st, in St. George's Church, Mumford, I preached and baptized two children.

And in the afternoon of the same day, I preached in the Methodist Chapel, at Caledonia, and baptized three children.

In the evening of the 22d, I made a brief address to the Sunday Scholars of Zion Church, Palmyra, preached and confirmed ten

In St. Mark's Church, Newark, on the 23d, I preached in noon and confirmed eight persons.

On Sunday morning, the 26th, in Grace Church, Lyons, I and confirmed twenty-two persons.

And in the afternoon of the same day, in St. John's Church I preached and confirmed twenty persons, including two belonging to Grace Church, Lyons.

From this time onward, my labors have been interrupted more or less, but I have been enabled, by the Divine blessing, the duties now to be enumerated.

I issued a PASTORAL LETTER TO THE LAITY, dated the 1st, which, as relating to duties and vows, must bear upon all of the Diocese, new and old, for a long time, I have had stereotyped two thousand copies of it printed, to be distributed in the Diocese.

On the 16th of May, I officiated in St. Peter's Church where I preached in the morning, and confirmed twelve persons, including one confirmed in private.

I attended the opening of the De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children, on the 20th, and delivered an introductory address on the occasion.

This valuable Institution of the Church has begun under auspices, with the Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D., President, Israel Foote, Professor, and Edward R. Welles, the Tutor, needed officers, and promises, by prudent and efficient management, to accomplish the benevolent design of its Founder.

On the 21st, Ascension Day, I instituted the Rev. Will Bissell, D. D., into the Rectorship of Trinity Church, Geneva, by a zealous and liberal act, had provided for the extinguishing of the debt which had long cramped and disheartened the Parish. On the same day, I confirmed seventeen persons in that Church and delivered an address.

On the 23d, I gave my canonical consent to the organization of a new Church, at Charlotte, Monroe county.

On the 24th, I preached, in the morning, at the Methodist Church at Watkins, and confirmed two persons.

In the afternoon, I preached in St. John's Church, Catharine, and in the evening, assisted in the services in St. Paul's Church, Hudson.

Being too unwell to proceed with my visitation, I was compelled to return home on the 25th, and recall my appointments for a time.

The Journals of the General Convention of 1856, having been sent to my care, to Geneva, I forwarded on the 29th, the several packages to their address, as published in the Gospel Messenger.

On the 7th of June, I held an ordination in Trinity Church, Geneva, and admitted the Rev. Hermon Gaylord Wood, Deacon, to the Priesthood, delivering an address and administering the holy communion on the occasion.

On the 10th, I received into this Diocese, from Pennsylvania, the Rev. Robert W. Oliver, who has taken charge of the Missionary station at Oneida and Canastota.

On the same day, I transferred the Rev. C. S. Henry, D. D., to the Diocese of New York.

I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, on the evening of June 14th.

On the 19th, in the evening, I held a special confirmation in Christ Church, Rochester, where I preached and confirmed nine persons.

On the 21st, in St. John's Church, Canandaigua, I preached morning and evening, and confirmed fourteen persons at the former service.

I visited St. Paul's Church, Owego, on the 28th, and preached morning and evening. At the evening service, I confirmed thirty persons.

On the 29th, in Grace Church, Waverly, I preached in the afternoon, and confirmed five persons.

And on the 30th, in Trinity Church, Elmira, I preached in the morning, and confirmed ten persons.

I visited Caryville on Aug. 2d, where, in the Seminary, I preached and confirmed three persons. This important Institution, endowed, located in a rich country, and well conducted, presents a most favorable opportunity of Academical education. It is placed under the control of the majority of Church Trustees in the Board, and should receive the patronage and aid of Churchmen, especially in the western part of the Diocese.

On July 5, I administered the holy communion in Trinity Church, Geneva, and preached in the evening, in St. Peter's Chapel.

On the 6th, I preached in the afternoon, in the Methodist at Ononda, Madison county.

On the same day, I transferred the Rev. Henry B. Whipple Diocese of Illinois.

On the 7th, in the afternoon, I preached in St. Thomas' Hamilton, and confirmed eleven persons.

And in the afternoon, I preached in Emanuel Church, I and confirmed fourteen persons.

On the 9th, I transferred the Rev. Charles W. Homer to the of New York; and the Rev. James Abercrombie, to the Di Pennsylvania.

On the same day, in the afternoon, in St. Andrew's Church Berlin, I preached and confirmed fourteen persons.

On the 10th, in the morning, in Grace Church, Mount I addressed the Sunday Scholars, preached and confirmed three

And in the afternoon, I read prayers, preached and confirmed persons in Christ Church, Guilford.

On Sunday morning, the 12th, preached and confirmed on in St. Peter's Church, Bainbridge.

And the afternoon, of the same day, in St. Luke's Church, ville, I baptized one adult and two children, one of them the i of the Rector, preached and confirmed twelve persons.

On the 13th, I received from the Executor of the late Ruggles, of this Parish, the sum of one thousand dollars, on be added to the Permanent Missionary Fund of this Diocese, other half to be appropriated, in my discretion, to Domestic in the United States.

I have transmitted $500 to William Young, Trustee of the nent Missionary Fund, to be added to that fund, and $500 to N. Stanford, Treasurer of the Domestic Committee, to be a payment of Missionaries in Minnesota and Kansas, and receive respective receipts for the amounts.

On the 14th, I gave my canonical consent to the organizati Luke's Church, on Niagara street, in the city of Buffalo.

On the 15th, I attended the meeting of the Trustees of Hobart Free College at Geneva.

And on the 16th, was present at the commencement of that Institution, which continues to sustain its character and to increase in numbers.

On the 16th, I admitted as candidates for Holy Orders : William Meredith Ogden, James Maxwell Hamilton, Charles Edward Cheney, Lucius Sweetland, Alexander Hamilton Rogers, Fayette Royce.

I visited Christ Church, Corning, on the 19th, preached and confirmed eleven persons, including one confirmed in private the day before.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in the Church Room at Addison, and confirmed two persons.

On the 20th, in the afternoon, I preached and confirmed six persons in the Church Room, at Hornellsville. The Rector was detained from the services by illness, which had compelled him to leave the village before my arrival.

In the morning of the 21st, I preached and confirmed one person belonging to Hornellsville Parish, in the Baptist house of worship at Wellsville.

And in the afternoon, I preached in the Presbyterian house of worship at Philippsville.

On the 22d, in the morning, I preached and confirmed six persons in St. Paul's Church, Angelica.

On the morning of the 23d, in the Presbyterian house of worship, at Cuba, I baptized one adult, preached and confirmed seven persons.

On my way to Olean, in the afternoon, I held a private confirmation at Hinsdale, and confirmed one person, unable to attend the Church at Olean, where, in St. Stephen's Church, at a late hour, I preached and confirmed twelve persons.

In St. John's Church, Ellicottville, on the 24th, I preached in the morning, and confirmed seven persons.

I preached in the Methodist Chapel at Canaseraga, Steuben county, on the afternoon of the 25th. At this place a new Church has been organized under the labors of the Rev. Lloyd Windsor, who has been acting as Missionary of that station.

On Sunday, the 26th, in the morning, I preached in Grace Church, Nunda, and confirmed two persons.

And in the afternoon, I preached in St. Mark's Church, Hum Hollow, and confirmed four persons.

I preached in St. John's Church, Mount Morris, in the morning the 29th, and confirmed eight persons, including one confirmed private.

On the 30th, in the morning, at Geneseo, I witnessed with satisfaction, the public examination of the children of the congregation the Church, before the sermon commenced, preached and confirmed ten persons, including two sick persons confirmed in private.

On the 31st, in the afternoon, I visited Zion Church, Avon, preached and confirmed seven persons, including one man, ninety years of age, confirmed in private.

On Sunday, August 2d, I read prayers and preached morning and afternoon, in Trinity Church, Geneva, and in the evening I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel in that village. I administered the holy communion at the morning service.

On the 8th, I transferred the Rev. Reuben Riley to the Diocese of Maryland.

On the 9th, I read prayers and preached, morning and afternoon, in Trinity Church, and in the evening, I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 12th, I consecrated Grace Church, Lockport. This Church had been finished in 1855, but was left with an incumbrance of debt which has been removed by the energy and liberality of the Pastor and flock, and the edifice, now unincumbered, given to God, by the formal instrument of donation.

On the 15th, in the afternoon, I officiated at the funeral of David Prentice, at Geneva.

On the 16th, I read prayers in the morning, and preached in the afternoon, in Trinity Church, and read prayers in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening, at Geneva.

I closed up the labors of the Conventional year, with the service of to-day, in the administration of the holy communion to the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese here assembled.

A summary of my labors for the Conventional year just closed, is as follows :

I have officiated, within the Diocese, in 62 organized Parishes, and in 4 places where the Church is not yet organized, and 7 times out of the Diocese.

I have baptized 9 children and 2 adults—in all, 11.

Married 1 couple.

Officiated at 1 funeral.

Administered the holy communion 15 times.

Admitted 7 new candidates for Holy Orders.

Ordained 1 Deacon and 2 Priests.

Instituted 1 Rector.

Consecrated 2 Churches.

Received 11 Clergymen into this Diocese.

Transferred 8 Clergymen to other Dioceses.

Given my canonical consent to the organization of 3 new congregations.

Read prayers 22 times.

Preached 105 times.

Delivered Addresses 60 times.

Confirmed 507 persons in 43 Churches, averaging about 11 to each Church.

And traveled 5250 miles in the discharge of my duties.

To the Ecclesiastical changes recorded in the preceding Report, I add the following :

The Rev. John E. Battin has resigned the charge of St. John's Church, Clayville, and is residing at Gainesville, Allegany county, giving occasional Services in the neighborhood. The Church at Clayville has been supplied by the Rev. W. Atwill, in conjunction with Paris Hill.

The Rev. John Bayley has become the Missionary in charge of Trinity Church, Lowville.

The Rev. O. R. Howard has taken charge of St. Thomas' Church, Bath, vacated by the removal of the Rev. Almon Gregory to Indiana. He is succeeded at Dansville by the Rev. Thomas Meacham, Deacon, who had been canonically examined, licensed to preach, and can officiate as Deacon in charge of a Parish.

The Rev. Robert Horwood has been called to the charge of St. Paul's, Angelica, vacant by the resignation, on account of ill health, the Rev. Lewis Thibou, long the faithful and able Rector of the Parish.

The Rev. N. Barrows has succeeded the Rev. H. B. Whipple in the charge of Zion Church, Rome.

The Rev. William A. Matson has removed to Utica and taken charge of Calvary Church, in that city, which was originally started and fostered by his labors. He is succeeded at New Hartford by the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, who had resigned the Missionary station at Fayetteville and Jamesville.

The Rev. William B. Ashley has become Rector of St. John's Church, Buffalo, vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Samuel Southard.

The Rev. George Morgan Hills has become the Rector of St. Paul's Church, Syracuse.

The Rev. Edward Moyses has removed from Cape Vincent, and has taken the Rectorship of Christ Church, Manlius.

The Rev. Reuben Riley has been transferred to the Diocese of Maryland.

The Rev. Dr. Carmichael having been compelled to resort to a milder climate, has resigned the Church at Albion, and has spent the winter in Florida.

The Rev. W. B. Otis has had the charge of St. Mark's Church, Penn Yan, and the station at Branchport.

The Rev. Samuel Hanson Cox has taken charge of Trinity Church, Utica.

The Rev. Andrew Mackie, not transferred to the Diocese, has ceased to officiate at Christ Church, Lockport.

The Rev. William Long has been compelled, by ill health, to relinquish his valuable labors in Trinity Church, Syracuse, and resign his post.

The Rev. J. M. Hedges has resigned the Parish at Honeoye Falls, and removed from the Diocese.

The Rev. John W. Bradin has resigned the Missionary station at Holland Patent, and removed from the Diocese.

The Rev. Peyton Gallagher, not yet transferred to the Diocese, has recently begun to officiate at Homer, Cortland county.

I have the gratification to announce to the Convention, and put on record, that Mr. William J. Bakewell, once a Presbyter of this Diocese, who having removed to Pennsylvania, and resigned the ministry of the Church, and afterwards apostatized to the Roman Catholic communion, has addressed to me, under date of the 10th of August, a letter, in which he says:

"I present to you a written declaration of my renunciation of the errors and mistakes which led me away from the Protestant Episcopal Church, of my desire to return to her communion, and of my renewed adhesion to her doctrine, discipline and worship. I need scarcely say, that I am truly sorry for my deviation from the path of Christian truth, and that I am now astonished at the delusion under which I have been for several years."

My brethren, let us thank God our Saviour for this escape of our brother from the delusions of error, and his restoration, as a layman, to the fold of truth which he had forsaken. He was admitted to the communion, at Geneseo, in the Church where he once labored as its Minister.

Since the last Convention, but one candidate for Holy Orders has been ordained Deacon, viz: Stephen Green Hayward.

One, C. L. Jones, whose studies had been suspended by temporary withdrawal, has, with my consent, resumed his candidateship, and is prosecuting his studies in the General Theological Seminary.

Seven new candidates have been admitted, viz: Levi Ward Smith, William Meredith Ogden, James Maxwell Hamilton, Charles Edward Cheney, Lucius Sweetland, Alexander Hamilton Rogers, and Fayette Royce.

The present number is twenty-one, viz:

Edward Randolph Welles,....	Admitted....	Oct. 1, 1853
James C. L. Jones,.....	"Oct. 1, 1853

Alexander Hamilton Rogers,..	"July 16, 1857
Fayette Royce,.....	"July 16, 1857

Of these, Messers. Winalow, Coffin and Percival were admitted under the Canon, 1853.

Aid has been extended to three beneficiaries.

Two Deacons, viz: the Rev. Edward Hart Jewett and the Rev. Hermon Gaylord Wood, have been admitted to the Priesthood.

One Rector has been instituted.

Three Clergymen—the Rev. Leverett Bush, D. D., the Rev. John D. Gilbert, and the Rev. Nathaniel F. Bruce—have died. They had been early and zealous laborers in the field, but long disabled from Parochial work, and aided by the Christmas Fund. They have now entered upon that rest which remaineth for the people of God.

The whole number of Clergymen canonically connected with the Diocese is 121, consisting of 1 Bishop, 114 Priests and 6 Deacons, with 21 candidates for Holy Orders.

Two Clergymen are in the Diocese awaiting a transfer to its ecclesiastical jurisdiction.

Of the Clergy of the Diocese, 5 are exclusively engaged as teachers in the instruction of youth; 7 are on the list of Disabled Clergymen; 14 are prevented by age or sickness from engaging in full ministerial duty, but sustain themselves. The residue are engaged in Parochial or Missionary work, or seeking such engagement; 7 add to the labors of the Ministry public or private teaching, in school or college, as a means of support.

I have given my canonical consent to the organization of new ishes at Charlotte, Monroe county; at Canaseraga, Allegany county; at Buffalo, Erie county.

Two Church edifices have been consecrated, viz: St. John's Church, at Morris, and Grace Church, Lockport.

The following Church edifices, in progress of erection, are not yet completed:

Christ Church,.....	Sodus Point.
Grace Church,.....	Baldwinsville.
Trinity Church,.....	Elmira.
Grace Church,.....	Utica.
St. Paul's Church,.....	Oxford.

The following Churches, regularly used, are not yet consecrated, on account of impending debt, viz:

Church of the Evangelists,.....	Oswego.
St. Peter's Chapel,.....	Geneva.
St. John's Church,.....	Dunkirk.
Christ Church,.....	Binghamton.
Grace Church,.....	Waverly.
Christ Church,.....	Rochester.
St. John's Church,.....	Williamson.
Christ Church,.....	Oswego.

In conformity to the Regulation adopted, 1842, I report the Church the Ascension, at Liverpool, Christ Church, Pompey, as not having complied with its requirements, and therefore subject to be struck from the list of Churches in connection with the Convention.

The Diocese has at present 45 Missionaries laboring within its limits; 60 have labored within the year; 36 of them for nearly the whole year.

The necessity of increased numbers in the Missionary as well as official departments of the Diocese, is most imperative. Some of our Missionary posts are now vacant, needing the services of ten gymen, beside the calls for new scenes of labor from the Church.

The Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen has received, in collections and donations, the sum of $1,637 40. The interest on the amount loaned is $212 98. Total, $1,850 38. Nine Clergymen have received its benefits, and the whole sum appropriated to them was $1,375. Three of these venerable brethren, as already mentioned have died during the past year.

The whole amount received by the Treasurer of the Convention and the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, exclusive of interest on the Permanent Missionary Fund, and on the part of the Christmas Fund loaned, and of contributions from sources exterior to the Diocese, $10,651 97.

Monies raised in the Diocese for Church objects exterior to it, as not sent through the Diocesan Treasurer, have amounted, as far as could be learned, to $1,500.

Liberal subscriptions were made by sundry Churchmen of the Diocese, among others, to aid the Church Book Society, amounting $3,040, of which, I think, $2,000 have been paid.

The whole amount raised in the Diocese during the year for the recognized Church objects, aside from those that are Parochial, since the 1st of August, 1856, will be as follows :

Christmas Fund collections and donations,.....	$1,637 40
Monthly collections and donations,.....	8,909 57
For the Church Book Society,.....	2,000 00
Sent by donors without going through the Diocesan Treasurer,.....	1,500 00
The bequest of the late Timothy Ruggles to Diocesan and Domestic Missions,.....	1,000 00
Total,.....	$15,046 97

The Permanent Missionary Fund will be shown by the annual report of the Trustee, William Young, Esq., to be $11,711. The interest has amounted to $703.40, and has been paid to the Diocesan Treasurer for Diocesan Missions. This Fund has gained $500 by the bequest of the late Timothy Ruggles. One thousand dollars had been invested temporarily by a former Trustee in a first mortgage bond on the Canandaigua and Elmira Railroad, which, I understand, has not paid the interest for the last six months, due 1st July.

The Van Wageningen Missionary Fund amounts, as reported by Joseph Juliard, Esq., the Trustee, to $1,692.16, and its interest $125.29, (not equal to the stipend of a Missionary,) can now be paid into the Treasury and be applied to aid a Missionary in the county of Chenango.

I refer you to the Report of the Education and Missionary Board for details in relation to these funds.

The De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children, has been opened. Their Report will be laid before you. The Annual Report, required by charter, was laid before me in January of this year. It shows the personal assets, including principal and interest, to amount to $159,240.53, and the real estate subject to sale to be valued at $36,213, making a total of $195,453.53. The inalienable permanent domain on which the buildings are erected, comprises about three hundred and thirty acres. The public road passing it divides it into two unequal parts. On one part, comprising about fifty acres, the College edifice is erected, with the garden, pastures and orchard attached. The other portion is under rent. For an account of the opening of this Institution, on the 20th of May, I refer you to the statement of the Trustees as published in pamphlet form. The President reports that thirty pupils have been admitted; that the Institution has been in operation three months only; that the pupils are employed on elementary studies, in regular school hours, from 9 to 12 A. M. and from 2 to 5 P. M.; that the class in Latin consists of 16; that they are instructed daily in singing, and already render valuable assistance in the musical part of the Chapel Services; that the boys have occasionally assisted the Steward by manual labor in the field; that in manner and behavior they have much improved, and generally seem to be contented and happy, having ample opportunity for healthful exercise daily, and, as a substitute for vacation, they are allowed frequent holidays, on which they often make excursions, accompanied by their teachers, to interesting places in the neighborhood of the College; and that there has been no illness among the pupils, or in the College family, since it opened.

My design to call the Committee on the Training School for Candidates together in May, to take the necessary measures to raise the funds requisite for its commencement, was providentially frustrated by my lameness, which disqualified me for such an effort. I had addressed, in September last, a circular to the Clergy of the Diocese, to ascertain if such a School could command pupils, and what number of youth from 12 to 18 years of age, and of young men from 20 to 30, might be had for such an Institution. The result was that, in September last, thirty boys from this Diocese could be had for the Junior Department, and fifteen young men for the Senior Department of such a School.

The opening of the De Voeur College, and of the Caryville Seminary under the auspices of the Church, may affect the number to some extent; but I feel bold to say, that there are now fifty persons, young and adults, in this Diocese at this time ready and willing to be put to trial for the Ministry of the Church.

And am I too bold, to say that I do not over-estimate the world zeal, liberality and devotedness of the Churchmen of the Diocese, (whom God has given his large blessing in their temporal concerns when I also express the belief that there are fifty persons in the Diocese capable of giving and ready to give, each, one thousand dollars to help on such an enterprise,—planned and executed so as not to waste its means and endanger its endowments, but to secure a faithful application of them to the object; which, by placing the capital in the hands of Lay Trustees outside of the Board, and limiting the expenditure of the income, the plan is calculated to effect? Already, almost without application, $4,500 have been offered by four gentlemen of the Diocese.

My convictions of the necessity of this movement strengthen daily; facts impress it on my mind. Since I was placed over you as Bishop of Geneva, now Hobart College, has supplied 36 Candidates on graduation, or two a year; other Colleges, 20; the Ministry and Candidacy of other religious bodies, 14; other Dioceses, 8; and the business world, 50; by all, six Candidates a year—not half enough annually, to keep the Diocese in action, and very far from enough to make it progressive and expansive.

To show the heavy draft made upon our Diocese from without, and which our plan of increase of candidates must cover, I state that of the Candidates admitted in the Diocese since 1839, one hundred and eight have been ordained; and of those ordained Clergymen, forty-five have been transferred to other Dioceses.

The loss of Clergy by death has been 21 in all, or about one a year.

The loss by transfer to other Dioceses has been 10 a year.

And the gain by transfer to this Diocese has been the same.

Our Diocese, from its very location, must long continue to be stepping-stone to the Great West, which now has Bishops, Priests and Deacons, and thousands of Laymen, on its rivers and prairies, who once labored and lived within the limits of Western New York.

Since my labors began in the Diocese, I have transferred 51 Clergy principle of exclusive educational Institutions prevails throughout the land. We have but to open our eyes to see it in operation in every way. What are Law Schools, Medical Colleges, Mercantile Academies and Normal Schools, but training schools, in those departments, exclusively devoted to their respective objects? The Government, as you know, has long sustained, with eminent success, so exclusive Academies—Military and Naval—to teach and train youth of fourteen and sixteen years of age in the art of war in land and on the ocean. What are these but testing and training schools for the world? Our proposal is to apply the principle to the Church. All Theological Seminaries are such in part,—exclusive and separate,—but open only to those who have already chosen their profession, and looking mainly to Theological knowledge, and not to the comprehensive and thorough adaptedness which we have in view.

The plan before us contemplates going beyond this, and taking youth from twelve to eighteen years of age, parentally consecrated to the ministry of the Church, or self-devoted to that holy calling, into a community where, under competent and devoted instructors, guarded from the dangers and perils of promiscuous association, under a holy influence, imbued with the self-sacrificing spirit of Apostles and Martyrs, they may, by God's grace and blessing, in mind and habit, be trained for God; and by adaptedness in character, ability, zeal and calling for His holy service. They will be fully and fairly tested by Teachers who have in view not their own personal, family, or secular interests or objects, but the high and holy interests of the souls of men and the Church of the living God.

Is this any new thing. Mosheim declares in his Commentaries: "It is as highly credible, I may say, indeed, it is more than credible, that Paul alone, but all the other Apostles of our Lord applied themselves to the properly instructing of certain select persons, so as to render them fit to be entrusted with the care and government of churches, and consequently that the first Christian teachers were trained and formed in schools and seminaries immediately under their superintendence. Besides other references which might be given, it appears from his Adversus Hereses, (Lib. ii., cap. xxii., p. 148, ed. Massuet,) that John employed himself at Ephesus, where he spent the latter part of his life, in qualifying youth for the sacred Ministry. And the author, as quoted by Eusebius Histor. Eccles., lib. v., cap. xx., p.

188, represents Polycarp, the celebrated Bishop of Smyrna, as labored in (year 132) the same way. That the example of the illustrious characters was in this respect followed by the Bishop general, will scarcely admit of a doubt. To this origin, in my opinion are to be referred those seminaries termed 'Episcopal Schools,' we find attached to the principal Churches, and in which you signed for the Ministry went through a proper course of preparatory instruction and discipline, under the Bishop himself or some Prebendary of his appointment."

I would suggest, therefore, that in compliance with the request in their Report, this Committee be continued, and that a new member be nominated by your Chairman and appointed by the Convention to the place of the Rev. Henry B. Whipple, removed to Illinois, and that Lay Trustees be appointed to invest the funds as received.

If a fund for the support of the necessary teachers, a fund to purchase buildings by rent or purchase, and a fund to aid the needy youth may apply, can be raised and placed in the hands of Lay Trustees to invest in bond and mortgage, applying the interest only to the respective objects, the Standing Committee may proceed to act on nomination of the Bishop, the requisite instructors, and commence an Institution, humble and limited in character and form, but hitherto its object, and, if it shall succeed or even help in the supply of trained Ministers to the Church, glorious in its results.

Subscription papers will be submitted to the members of the Convention, and the test be made, in faith and hope, under God, of the disposition and ability of the Diocese to adopt and sanction this mode of supply, which I ask you to unite with me in fervently commending to Him.

I have thus presented to you a detail of my proceedings, with several suggestions.

Let us betake ourselves to the work for which we are assembled with the conviction that the eye of God our Savior is upon us, with the humble and earnest desire to discharge our duty faithfully with the fervent supplication that the Holy Spirit may guide and direct us in all our deliberations and proceedings, and fill us all with the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost.

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY

August 19th, 1857.

The Secretary having read an invitation of the Oswego City Library Association to the members of this Convention, to visit their Library and to make such use of the books as may be agreeable to them, on motion, the invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the Convention were returned for the same,—and the hour designated by the XXIst Rule of Order, for that purpose, having arrived, the House adjourned to nine o'clock on Thursday morning.

THURSDAY MORNING, August 20th, 1857.

The Convention met. Morning Prayer was read by the Rev. Malcolm Douglass, assisted by the Rev. O. R. Howard, who read the Lessons, the remainder of the Services being read by the Rev. Wm. A. Matson; after which the Rt. Rev. the President took the Chair.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read, and, on motion, approved.

On calling the absent members, the following Clergy, not present yesterday, appeared and took their seats:

Rev. Thomas Applegate,	Rev. Wm. D. Wilson, D. D.,
“ Oran R. Howard,	“ Lloyd Windsor.
“ Albert C. Patterson,

Also, the following Lay Deputies:

COUNTIES.	CHURCHES.	DEPUTIES.
Broome,.....	St. Luke's, Harpersville,.....	Lewis Northrop.
Jefferson,.....	Emmanuel, Adams,.....	E. J. Ingersoll.
“	Zion, Pierrepont Manor,.....	H. A. Hatch.
Oneida,.....	Zion, Rome,.....	Nehemiah Ingersoll.
Onondaga,.....	Trinity, Fayetteville,.....	A. T. Gilmer.
Seneca,.....	St. Paul's, Waterloo,.....	D. S. Kendig.

The certificate of the Lay Deputies of St. John's Church, Phelps, being defective, on motion, the Deputies from that Church were admitted; whereupon, Mr. Isaac Pinckney answered to his name and took his seat.

On motion, Mr. C. F. Denton, Deputy from Christ Church, Corning, and Mr. D. H. Marsh, a Deputy from the Church of the Evangelists, Oswego, were admitted to seats in this Convention, without the regular certificates.

The following Churches applied for admission into union with the Convention: Trinity Church, Canaseraga; St. Luke's Church, Buffalo, and All Saints' Church, Charlotta, Monroe county,—which actions were, on motion, referred to the Standing Committee on mission of Churches into Union with the Convention.

Reports from Standing Committees were then called for in order named in the VIth Rule of Order.

Mr. Alfred Ely, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the counts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy presented the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, beg leave to report, that they have examined the accounts of the said Treasurer for the year ending August 1st, 1856, compared them with the vouchers produced, and find them correct.

The Receipts of the Treasurer have been as follows :

Balance on hand August 1st, 1856,.....	$3,37
Contributions from 91 Parishes,.....	1,63
Amount received for interest on loans to August 1, 1857,.....	21
	$5,22

Disbursements.

Amount paid eight Clergymen, as follows:

Six received $200 each,.....	$1,200
One " 100.....	100
One " 75.....	75

Leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of.....$3,85

The Committee submit herewith the Report of Edgar H. Hurd, Esq., by a Resolution of the last Annual Convention of the Diocese, was appointed by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop a Committee "to examine into the character of Securities upon which the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen loaned." By it, and likewise by the Treasurer's Report, it appears that the of $3,086 51 of the balance in his hands is temporarily loaned upon Promissory Notes, on interest at 7 per cent; the Security, therefore, being Certificate of New York Central Railroad Stock, worth, at their present value, $2,70

Also, a Bond of one Isaac Nichols to Nathan Monroe for $500, secured by his Mortgage upon 36 acres of land in the county of Yates, both assigned to the said Treasurer; but that assignment, though legally sufficient, perhaps not regarded by the Committee as altogether perfect.

The Committee beg leave to remind the Treasurer having this Fund in charge of their former recommendation, that all future investments of this Fund be loaned on Bond and Mortgage upon unincumbered real property, value double the amount of the loan; such security, in their judgment, being more permanent and less fluctuating in its character than that of Stocks, upon which a greater portion of the Fund has been heretofore loaned.

The Standing Committee upon this subject, in their last Annual Report, in view of the rapid accumulation of the Christmas Fund, drew the attention of the Convention to the expediency of applying to the Legislature for the Incorporation of the Trustees of this Fund, in accordance with the recommendaof the Bishop in his Annual Address of 1855. A Resolution to that end was subsequently introduced into the Convention, but no action, to the knowledge of the Committee, has thus far been taken under it. That it may not be longer omitted, the Committee offer the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Rt. Rev. the Bishop appoint a Special Committee, consisting of three Lay Delegates, with authority to take the necessary steps to secure the passage of a law by the next Legislature, incorporating the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy.

On motion, the Resolution was laid upon the table for consideration at another time.

The Rev. Dr. Gregory, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the admission of Churches into union with the Convention, presented the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on the Admission of Churches into union with this Convention, respectfully report, that they have had before them applications from three Churches, viz: Trinity Church, Canaseraga, Allegany county; St. Luke's Church, Buffalo, Erie county; All Saints' Church, Charlotte, Monroe county;—that they have examined the papers and found them correct. They therefore recommend that said Churches be received into union with this Convention.

HENRY GREGORY,
CHAS. B. PERRY,
F. W. HUBBARD.

The question in the case of these Churches, recommended by the Committee, being taken separately,

On motion,

Resolved, That Trinity Church, Canaseraga, Allegany county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Resolved, That St. Luke's Church, Buffalo, Erie county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Resolved, That All Saints' Church, Charlotte, Monroe county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Whereupon, Mr. A. Wood, a Lay Deputy from All Saints' Church, Charlotte, presented his certificate and took his seat.

Mr. George W. Cuyler, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of this Convention, respectfully report, that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer for the year ending on the 1st instant, and the vouchers belonging thereto, and that they find them correct.

The Rev. W. B. Ashley, in behalf of the Standing Committee Unfinished Business, presented the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on Unfinished Business report—

That they have examined the Journal of the last Convention, and find page 47, that the subject of the gradual endowment of feeble Parishes, (mentioned in the Bishop's Address to the last Convention,) was referred to a committee of three Laymen.

On page 57, that a Committee was appointed to act with the Bishop in curing the necessary funds for commencing a Diocesan Training School candidates for the ministry.

on page 59, that a Committee was appointed to examine into the character of the securities upon which the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen is based.

All which is respectfully submitted,

WM. BLISS ASHLEY,
JOHN BRADLEY,
JAMES W. GLOVER,

Committee.

Bishop, in behalf of the Committee on the subject of a Diocesan Training School, made the following

REPORT:

Committee appointed to take measures to procure the necessary funds for commencing a Diocesan Training School for candidates for Holy Orders, fully report—in September last, the Chairman addressed a Circular Letter to the heads of the several Parishes of the Diocese, of which the following is a copy:

“GENEVA, Sept. 1st, 1856.

AND DEAR BROTHER:

In order that the Committee appointed at the late Convention may make a more effective appeal to the liberality of the Diocese to promote the contemplated measures to increase the number of candidates for Holy Orders, I am desirous of ascertaining for them what number of pious YOUTH and ADULTS in the congregation may have their minds and hearts inclining towards the service of the Church.

In this view, I address these lines of inquiry to you. I beg the favor of you to send me, by the 20th instant, a statement of the number, and names, if practicable, of persons known to you, in your Parish or elsewhere, who may have their minds inclined towards the sacred calling of the Ministry.

There are two classes contemplated are,

YOUTH from twelve to eighteen years of age, who, of themselves, or through their parents or guardians, are willing to acquire a thorough and liberal education under pious and favorable influences, and to test their talents, capacity and adaptedness to become candidates for Holy Orders.

ADULTS from twenty to thirty years of age, who may feel the desire to devote themselves to the service of God in the Ministry, and are willing to acquire a proper disposition, ability and adaptedness, by a course of preparation for the Ministry, under the guidance and instruction of a competent clergyman, and to be exclusively to the work, and in association with other young men who are similarly engaged, including such as may need assistance while prosecuting their studies.

I am communicating to me before the 20th instant, the number and names of the persons, youth and adults known to you, who would be likely to take advantage of such an institution, as is proposed, you will greatly oblige me, and will greatly aid an enterprise designed to promote the glory of God, the enlargement of the Ministry, the growth of the Church, and the salvation of men.

I commend you to the grace and blessing of Christ our Master,

“I remain faithfully,

“Your friend and brother,

“W. H. DE LANOEY.”

From answers to this Letter, it was ascertained that there were in thirty Parishes in the Diocese, thirty pupils that might be had for the Junior Department, and fourteen for Senior Department, authorizing the belief and the action, that there are now fifty persons in the Diocese, youth and adults, ready and willing to be put on test and in train for the ministry of the Church.

On this basis it was contemplated to make, in the Spring, an appeal to the wealth, liberality and zeal of the Diocese, to raise the prescribed funds that should enable us to commence the School; but sundry causes having prevented the Committee from assembling, and the Chairman being Providentially hindered from engaging in the work, in addition to the necessary visitation of the Diocese, it was deferred until after the present Convention.

The Report and proceedings of the last Convention, thus exhibit the nature of the proposed school:

"A Training School for Candidates for the sacred ministry implies,

"1. That this is its avowed and only purpose; that it is open to none except such as either by themselves or their friends, seek it with a view to preparation for the ministry; and that when a young man becomes unwilling to continue such preparation, or shows himself morally or intellectually unfitted for it, he is no longer to continue in the School.

"2. That the system of instruction, training and oversight in such a School is intended to be eminently paternal—the School to be a Christian family—and the relation of the teacher to his scholars, that of a kind and watchful Pastor.

"3. That it provides for the education of candidates in a greater separation from temptation, vice and evil influences than is found in ordinary secular Schools and Colleges; not seeking an unnatural separation from society, no any undue restraint of youthful enjoyment, but providing a continual and fatherly oversight at that period of life which most needs it.

"4. That it designs to educate the mind and body, the manners and the morals, the intellect and the heart, under the influence of a sense of religious duty—calling into active exercise, and fitting for the highest usefulness the faculties of the whole man—imparting a knowledge not only of books but of men—not only of languages and mathematics, but of manual arts and a practical life.

"5. And lastly, it is the special design of such a School, by adequate endowments, to afford every possible encouragement and aid to worthy young men in their preparation for the sacred ministry.

Resolved, That said School shall consist of two departments, and that for all the purposes of its supervision and management, the Bishop and the Standing Committee shall be a Board of Education.

"The Junior Department shall consist of youth from twelve to eighteen years of age, who shall apply to the Bishop for admission, and be received with the design of preparing to become Candidates for Orders if found worthy. It shall be opened as soon as an endowment of $20,000 shall be obtained for the purpose, and other requisite arrangements as to location, building and instruction can be made.

"The Senior Department shall consist of all young men in the Diocese, communicants in the Church, of eighteen years of age and upwards, who may apply to the Bishop, with a recommendation of the Minister of the Parish where they are communicants, to be received as applicants for Candidateship, and shall be so received; and they shall place themselves under the direction of the Bishop and Board of Education, who shall guide them in their preparatory studies and take measures to provide for aiding such as may need pecuniary assistance.

Department shall be located at Geneva, and shall be opened as soon as the endowment shall be obtained; but the students shall prosecute arduous studies where the Bishop and Board shall direct, and shall, if worthy, be admitted as Candidates when prepared, according to the the Departments, whenever in the judgment of the Bishop any student of lay character or disposition unsuited to the object of the Ministry, he is to be connected with the Department.

Endowments for either Department of the Training School shall be in the hands of three Lay Trustees, to be chosen by the Convention, to manage and invest the same, who shall pay over the interest only of such endowment to the support of the Institution, and the principal shall be kept

The Committee, the Rev. Henry B. Whipple, having removed from the State of Illinois, the Committee ask that the Convention appoint, on nomination, a Clergyman to supply his place.

The Committee submit the following Resolutions:

1. That the Committee on procuring the necessary funds for the Diocesan Training School be continued.

2. That three Lay Trustees be chosen to manage and invest such moneys as may be collected for the Training School.

3. That A. P. Grant, Horace White and J. J. Peck be appointed Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. DE LANCEY, Chm.

and the resolutions were adopted.

W. Rogers, as Chairman of the Committee appointed at the Convention in reference to the gradual endowment of feeble churches, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Address of the Rt. Rev. Bishop, at the last Annual Convention, as recommends the gradual endowment of feeble Parishes, beg leave respectfully to report:

We have considered the subject with reference to the legal questions involved, and find it settled by the highest judicial authority, that the law of fees, as it existed in England at the time of the Revolution, became obsolete in this State upon the adoption of the Constitution of 1777, and has since been repealed.

Religious corporations formed under the general Statute can receive no more than an amount the annual income of which shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars.

The provisions of the Revised Statutes "of accumulation of personal and of expectant estates in such property," do not affect property bequeathed to religious or charitable institutions; and that where a bequest is given to a religious corporation for a purpose authorized by law, and the direction that it accumulate until it reaches a certain sum before its principal shall be expended, the legacy will be upheld, and the direction will be obeyed.

The law, as thus stated, is ruled in the case of Williams vs. Williams, in the New York Court of Appeals, and will be found in the 4th of Selden's Reports, at page 525.

The Committee, upon mature reflection, perceive no practical difficulty in carrying out the plan of Parish endowment substantially as proposed in the Address. But it will be necessary, in the judgment of your Committee, for the purpose of avoiding merely technical difficulties, that the fund should not be established for the declared purpose of accumulation for a given period of time before its income may be expended.

With this modification, your Committee recommend the adoption of the Bishop's plan for Parish endowment.

And they further recommend, that the Parishes where such funds may be established, be severally required to report annually to the Convention the state and condition thereof.

All which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY W. BOGGS,
GEO. W. OUYER,

Resolved, That the recommendation of the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, as to the gradual endowment of feeble Parishes, with such modification as is suggested in the foregoing report of the Committee to whom it was referred, be adopted.

On motion, the resolution was adopted.

The Bishop in behalf of the Trustees of De Veaux College, made the following

REPORT:

The Trustees of the DeVeaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children, in pursuance of the provisions of the Act of Incorporation, respectfully report:

That since their last Annual Report, the College edifice has been completed and furnished, and they have adopted regulations for the organization of the College and the admission of pupils; and appointed the Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D., President, the Rev. Israel Foote, Professor, and Edward R. Welles, Tutor.

The College was formally opened for the reception of pupils on the twentieth day of May last, and thirty pupils admitted; twenty-six of whom are now enjoying its privileges.

In constructing and furnishing the building, and supporting the institution thus far, income only has been used; and it is the intention of the Trustees to use income only in maintaining the institution.

The funds, as reported to the Bishop and Standing Committee, on the first day of January last, consist of $154,432, of principal, yielding income; and real estate estimated at about $36,213, exclusive of the domain of the institution, which consists of 330 acres, on which the edifice has been erected. The domain is divided into two parts by the road, which runs north and south. The west side, on which the buildings stand, is appropriated to the use of the College, and the portion on the east side is rented.

The institution opens with fair prospects of usefulness and success.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Board.

WM. H. DE LANCEY, President.

ELIJAH FORD, Secretary.

The Bishop, as Chairman of the Education and Missionary Board, made the following

REPORT:

The Education and Missionary Board present this their Annual Report to the Convention.

The whole number of Missionaries employed during the last Conventional year is 60. Of these about 36 have labored nearly the whole year, and the rest for longer or shorter periods; 68 Parishes have enjoyed their services. The present number of Missionaries is 45. We refer, as usual, to the Parochial reports for the results of their labors.

Three Beneficiaries have been aided by the Education Fund.

The Trustee of the Permanent Missionary Fund, William Young, Esq., reports that fund to be $11,711. The Sureties are in Kentucky Bonds, $5,000; in Bonds and Mortgages, $5,011; $1,000 in Canandaigua and Elmira Railroad Bonds, and cash on hand awaiting investment $700. His Report is appended.

The Report of Joseph Juliand, Esq., Trustee of the Van Wagonen Missionary Fund, exhibits that fund as amounting to $1,804.16, yielding an annual interest of $126.29-100, which being equal to a Missionary stipend, ($125,) may hereafter, according to the will, be applied to the support of a Missionary in Chenango county. The Report is appended.

The sum appropriated to Education purposes has been $350.

The sum applied to our Diocesan Missionaries has been $5,573.04.

The sum of $500 has been added to the Permanent Missionary Fund by a bequest of the late Timothy Ruggles, of Harpersville.

We have to report sundry Missionary stations still unsupplied for want of Clergy in the Diocese, and again to record the expression of regret at that deficiency, and our prayers that a supply may be soon granted to our suffering Diocese. Three of our Missionaries have removed to other Dioceses.

The Missionaries have been paid punctually, as usual; but the balances in the hand of the Treasurer are small, and evince the need of enlarged liberality at the approaching monthly collection for our Diocesan Missions in September.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

W. H. DE LANOEY, Chairman.

GREENE, August 1, 1857.

Mr. Elijah Ford, in behalf of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the fund, respectfully report:

That it appears from the report of the Trustees, that the fund now in their charge nominally amounts to $49,958.91, of which $41,550 is invested in bonds and mortgages, and $2,536.66 is waiting permanent investment; the residue is represented by personal and corporate securities.

A statement of the condition of the fund is contained in the report of the Trustees and the Schedules annexed. The Committee have no other means of forming an opinion of the security of the funds, than what is contained in the report of the Trustees. They therefore refer to that report.

The report of Ward Hunt, Esq., the Committee appointed under the resolution of the last Convention, to examine the Securities in the hands of the Trustees, has been presented to the Committee, and from that report it appears that the securities contained in the report of the Trustees are now in their possession in proper form, with the exception of a few mortgages, which are yet with the County Clerks for record, or in the hands of Mr. Yost, and some notes forwarded for collection.

The Committee confidently hope that the Trustees will, at their earliest convenience, convert the various personal and corporate securities held by them into cash, and invest the proceeds in bonds secured by mortgages on unincumbered real estate, as the most safe, secure and reliable investments that can be made.

All which is respectfully submitted,

ELIJAH FORD,
HENRY W. ROGERS,
TRUMBULL CARY.

To the President of the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Trustees for the management and care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York, report:

That since the date of their last report, they have invested in two good securities, upon real estate, the sum of $2,100, being the principal part of the balance then reported to be in their hands not permanently invested.

They have received on account of principal of notes "to increase the fund," then reported to be uncollected, the sum of $177.75, leaving a balance uncollected of the principal of said notes, as then reported, of $1,191.78.

They have also received from the Rev. W. Bliss Ashley, the agent appointed by the Convention to solicit additional subscriptions to the Permanent Fund the sum, in cash, of (principal) $2,358.91, and in notes, railroad bonds, scrip and corporate pledges, (as per Schedule A,* annexed,) $4,500.

*The Schedules referred to in this Report are on file with the Report, among the papers of the Standing Committee of this Diocese.

They have also received for income of the fund, from all sources, the sum of $3,173.92, which has been paid to the Bishop, whose receipt therefor is annexed. Schedule B, appended to this report, is a statement of receipts and payments on account of the income of the fund.

The interest in arrear, up to the first day of May last, on the Securities of the Permanent Fund, amounts to $154, on three bonds and mortgages. No difficulty is apprehended in collecting it.

Schedule C, appended to this report, is a list of the bonds and mortgages constituting the present Permanent Fund, amounting to $41,550.

The present state of the whole fund in charge of the Trustees, is as follows :

Bonds and mortgages,.....	$41,550 00
Uncollected notes, railroad bonds, and other personal and corporate securities to increase the fund, (being on account of subscriptions obtained by the Rev. Dr. Bolles and the Rev. Mr. Ashley,).....	5,691 78
Money not permanently invested, being uninvested balance of last year,.....	180 47
And collections on notes, bonds and pledges, "to increase the fund," lately received and not yet permanently invested,.....	2,536 66
Total,.....	$49,958 91

Allowing for the necessary expenses of collection, and for the usual failures to collect, the clear value of the fund may now be fairly estimated at about forty-nine thousand five hundred dollars, exclusive of pledges promised but not yet perfected.

Since the date of the last report of the Trustees, a much esteemed associate, Thomas H. Hubbard, is deceased, leaving a vacancy for the Convention to supply. The convenience of having a quorum of the Trustees in one locality has been heretofore suggested to the Convention, and it is still to be regarded.

W. H. DE LANCEY,
J. WATSON WILLIAMS,
JNO. E. HINMAN,

Dated Utica, August 3d, 1857.

Trustees, &c.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York :

The undersigned, appointed by the Bishop a Committee to examine the books and securities held by the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, respectfully reports :

That he has made an examination with J. Watson Williams, Esq., who holds such securities on behalf of the Trustees.

The fund invested in bond and mortgage amounts, in the aggregate, to $41,550, and a list detailing the names of the mortgagors to the number of twenty-eight, and the amount of their securities, accompanies the report of the Trustees. These securities have been examined, and the same are all in the hands of the Trustees, and all in due form, with the following exceptions :

1. The mortgages accompanying the bonds of Daniel J. Cook, $350; Lorenzo Aryl, $2,500; George Ladieu, $400; Richard Hewitt, $1,500; Adam Voorhis, 500; Robert Uker, $1,000; J. J. Smith, $500—are not among the papers. These investments were made by Mr. Yost, of Fort Plain, upon sale of the Nathan Brown property, and he has never sent the mortgages to Mr. Williams; they are believed to be now in Mr. Yost's hands, or at the Clerk's office.

2. The mortgages accompanying the bonds of Wm. L. Williams, $1,500, and Griffiths R. Jones, $600, are not among the papers. These are recent investments, and the County clerk has not returned the mortgages since they were left for record. The undersigned has ascertained by examination that they are now in the Clerk's office for that purpose.

In addition to the above mortgage fund, there is what may be styled, by way of distinction, the Ashley Fund, being notes and other securities, and pledges, collected through the Rev. Mr. Ashley, to the amount of $4,500.

Of this fund, the notes and securities, in the report of the Trustees describe amounting to $2,750, and being all of the said notes and securities, except eleven notes forwarded by Mr. Williams to Mr. Gansen, of Buffalo, for collection, were exhibited to the undersigned, and are as set forth in the report of the Trustees.

As a part of the same are pledges of certain Churches for future contributions, which the undersigned does not consider as coming within the legitimate scope of his inquiry.

Another fund, called the Böles Fund, forms a portion of the Episcopal Fund, of which the principal is said to be, at this time, $1,191.78; and which notes are said to be in the hands of various persons for collection, and in reference to which the undersigned can communicate no further information than will be found in the report of the Trustees.

In addition to the above sources, there is said to be a balance of cash in hand of $180.47, and of moneys received by the Rev. Mr. Ashley, in the hands of the Trustees, not permanently invested, and which the undersigned understands to be cash in the hands of the Trustees, $2,536.66,—making an aggregate of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, $49,958.91.

WARD HUNT.

Utica, August 18, 1857.

On motion, the Rev. Anthony Schuyler was, upon the nomination of the Bishop, appointed a member of the Committee on the subject of the Diocesan Training School, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal from the Diocese of the Rev. Henry B. Whipple.

The resolution appended to the Report of the Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, was then taken up, and, on motion, the following was adopted as a substitute:

Resolved, That it be referred to a Special Committee, with authority, if they shall deem it expedient, to take the necessary steps to secure the passage of a law, by the next Legislature, incorporating the Trustees of the Permanent Missionary Fund, and the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergy.

Thereupon, the Bishop named Messrs. Alfred Ely, H. W. Rogers and J. C. Smith to constitute that Committee.

On motion, Mr. Thomas Hopper was appointed a Trustee of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, in the place of Thomas H. Hubbard, deceased.

The hour having arrived for the order of the day, (see Rules of Order, § XVIII,) the House proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and the Deputies to the General Convention, by one ballot, as directed by Section 2 of Canon XII, the Rev. Geo. M. Hills and Wm. B. Douglas being appointed by the Rt. Rev. the President to receive, as tellers, the votes of the Clergy, and the Rev. W. Ayrault and Mr. Geo. W. Cuyler, to receive the votes of the Laity.

The Tellers being called upon for their report, on counting the ballots, it appeared that the following persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and were therefore declared duly elected :

STANDING COMMITTEE.

Rev. Benjamin Hale, D. D.,	Mr. David S. Hall,
" William Shelton, D. D.,	" William C. Pierrepont,
" W. H. A. Bissell, D. D.,	" T. D. Burrall,
" William B. Ashley,	" William B. Douglas.

DEPUTIES TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

Rev. Pierre A. Proal, D. D.,	Mr. William C. Pierrepont,
" Henry Gregory, D. D.,	" Horatio Seymour,
" William D. Wilson, D. D.,	" Washington Hunt,
" Edward Ingersoll, D. D.,	" Benjamin Pringle.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Clergy present their Parochial Reports to the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, as required by Canon XII of the General Convention of 1853. That the reading of the same be dispensed with, and that they be printed, as usual, in the Appendix of the Journal.

On motion,

Resolved, That 2,000 copies of the Journal of the Convention and of the Bishop's Pastoral Letter on Parochial Duties, be printed and distributed, as usual, under the direction of the Secretary.

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to prepay the postage on those copies of the Journal directed by Canon to be transmitted by mail.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the congregations of Christ Church, and the Church of the Evangelists, Oswego, for the hospitality so generously extended to its members during the present session, and that the Rev. the Rectors be requested to give publicity to this resolution in such way as they may deem expedient.

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be presented to the Rev Wm. A. Matson, the Secretary, and his Assistant, the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, for their services at this session of the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Van Rensselaer,

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to send to the Clerical and Lay Secretaries of the Synod of Toronto, and of the other British Colonial Dioceses where Synods have been held, copies of the Journal of this Convention, and to request an exchange of like documents.

The House then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the usual exercises.

Whereupon, after the reading of the minutes and an address from the Rt. Rev. the President, the Convention united in appropriate prayers from the Liturgy, by the Bishop, and after his blessing, adjourned sine die.

Signed by order of the Convention,

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,

President of the Convention.

WILLIAM A. MATSON, Secretary.

CHARLES W. HAYES, Assistant Secretary.

the Holy Communion publicly administered 8 times.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV, and actually transmitted the Treasurer, from August 1st, 1856, to August 1st, 1857, have been made appropriated as follows, viz:

For Diocesan Missions,.....	$ 25 00
following sums have also been collected for other objects, viz:
For the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen,.....	26 00
For the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in United States, viz:
For Domestic Missions,.....	20 00
For Foreign Missions,.....	24 00
For Parochial objects,.....	115 00
Total,.....	$210 00

The Rev. Lewis Thibou, who took charge of the Parish in 1831, resigned at ster. The present Rector came to the Parish in June.

Unity Church, Canaseraga ; Rev. LLOYD WINDSOR, Minister.

I have officiated at Whitney's Valley, (now Canaseraga,) in the county of legany, stately every Sunday afternoon for the past year. From necessity, use the Methodist house; and that is open to us only in the latter part of day.

Recently I have organized a regular Parish, with Wardens and Vestrymen,
I intend to apply at the present Convention for admission into union with same.

Number of Families cannot be accurately stated; but the number of the gregation is quite large for a new one. Baptisms..infants 3; marriage 1; rials 6.

I have also officiated several times, (administering the Holy Communion,) at nda. Besides, I have held service and preached in school-houses in the rn, as occasion offered.

Christ Church, Cuba ; the Rev. CHARLES E. BEARDSLEY, Missionary

Congregation..Families 18, (adults 35, children 25,) total number of individuals 60; baptisms..adults 2, infants 6, total 8; confirmed 7; communicants..received 3, withdrawn 2, present number 20; burial 1; public services..on Sundays 36; the Holy Communion publicly administered 7 times; Sunday school..teachers, (male 2, female 2,) total 4; pupils, (male 6, female 8,) total 14,—part year only.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV, and actually transmitted to the Treasurer, from August 1st, 1856, to August 1st, 1857, have been made and appropriated as follows, viz:

For Diocesan Missions,.....	$ 3 00
For Bibles and Prayer Books,.....	2 00

The following sums have also been collected for other objects, viz:

For the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, viz:

For Domestic Missions,.....	3 52
For Protestant Episcopal Sunday School Union,.....	3 00
For Parochial objects, offertory (left in hands of Warden,) about	3 00

Total,.....$14 52

The Sunday School has not been regularly kept up in this Parish. There will be a speedy amendment in this respect.

Owing to the efforts of a lady of the flock, liberally met by members of the congregation and other citizens of Cuba, a sum sufficient to fit up a room and to purchase a melodeon for our services, has been lately procured.

This Parish has been steadily advancing for the last year, and evidently promises more for the future than could have been reasonably anticipated by the most sanguine who knew its condition eighteen months ago.

BROOME COUNTY.

Christ Church, Binghamton ; the Rev. AMOS B. BEACH, Rector.

Baptisms..infants 11; communicants..(admitted 4, received 3,) total added 7, died 3, removed 10, present number about 175; marriages 8; burials 15; public services..on Sundays 104, on other days 52, total number of services 156; the Holy Communion publicly administered 15 times, and in private 3 times; children catechised..number of children 117; number of times 10; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 6, female 20,) total 26; pupils, (male 39, female 78,) total 117.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV, and actually transmitted to the Treasurer, from August 1st, 1856, to August 1st, 1857, have been made and appropriated as follows, viz:

For Diocesan Missions,.....	$ 25 42
For Bibles and Prayer Books,.....	11 00
For Tracts,.....	11 00

The following sums have also been collected for other objects, viz:

For the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen,.....	13 24
---	-------

For the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, viz:

For Domestic Missions,.....	16 00
For Foreign Missions,.....	10 00
For Parochial objects,.....	1,388 00
Total,	$1,424 66

Of the amount collected for Parochial objects, the greater part has been applied to the liquidation of a floating debt. One hundred and thirty dollars were contributed by the children of the Sunday School. The ladies, within the last year, have completed the payment of fifteen hundred dollars for the organ; thus making the amount raised by their efforts and applied to the enriching of the Church and other objects, above three thousand dollars.

Within the year an elegant iron fence has been erected, inclosing the Church and grounds on the front, at an expense of $1,000,—the gift of Mr. Joshua Waterman, of Detroit. The congregations are large. A small debt prevents the consecration of the Church. It is hoped this hindrance may be soon removed, and so the last and only obstacle to prosperity shall cease to exist.

St. Luke's Church, Harpersville ; the Rev. NOBLE PALMER, Missionary.

Congregation.. Families 50, (adults 145, children 60,) total number of individuals 205; baptisms.. adults 9, infants 4, total 13; confirmed 12; communicants..(admitted 10,) died 4, present number 75; marriages 3; burials 7; public services..on Sundays 104, on other days 25, total number of services 29; the Holy Communion publicly administered 13 times, and in private once; children catechised..number of children 20, number of times 6; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 2, female 4,) total 6; pupils, (male 12, female 20,) total 32.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV, and actually transmitted to the Treasurer, from August 1st, 1856, to August 1st, 1857, have been made and appropriated as follows, viz:

For Diocesan Missions,.....	$ 15 29
The following sums have also been collected for other objects, viz:
For the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen,.....	4 00
For the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, viz:
For Domestic Missions,.....	3 21
For Foreign Missions,.....	3 00
For Parochial objects,.....	1,200 00
Total,.....	$1,225 50

Besides the above amount, a bequest by the late Hon. Timothy Ruggles of $1,000, for Diocesan and Domestic Missions, should be mentioned; also, $2,000 contributed by Mr. Chauncey Blakeslee for the support of a Parish School. It is expected that this school will commence as soon as the building is completed, which will be sometime in October.

For Parochial objects,	4 06

Total, $50 66

I will remark, that there are in the list of names of communicants in one Parish register, a number who are not included in this report.

Our Sunday school has suffered much by interruptions. This impediment, however, has been overcome within a few days. A gentleman has kindly and readily acquiesced in my desire to become the Superintendent of the school: and I trust, when another year shall have rolled away, the Rector of this Parish will be enabled to report more cheerfully on this subject.

I took charge of St. Matthew's Church about the first of October last, and from that time to the beginning of April of the present year occupied myself with the duties of the Parish only; but since then I have had charge of the Academy in this place, in connection with the Parish. This latter charge was deemed necessary in order to secure a competent support.

Since my last report, the Church edifice has been enlarged, so as to furnish room for twenty-four additional sips, which have been taken and occupied. The chancel arrangements have also been altered and improved, and a beautiful Bishop's chair, the purchase of the ladies of the Reading Society of the Parish, has been placed in the chancel.

During the present year, in consequence of the old ground being filled, a new Cemetery ground has been purchased for some $700, mainly by members of the Parish,—one communicant giving to this object $200. This burial site, like the old one, is placed under the control of the Wardens and Vestrymen of the Parish.

It may be proper to remark, that since the first Sunday in Advent, as the beginning of the ecclesiastical year, this Parish has become fully, and in all respects a free Parish. For nearly ten years the seats in the Parish Church have been entirely free, and neither sales nor rents been allowed in connection with them. The support of the Pastor, however, has been raised by subscription, the Parish being pledged to the amount of $600. Convinced that the stertory system in full is the true and right way of the Church, and believing that, if ever that desirable system is to be introduced anew, it must be by the older and more fixed Parishes taking such stand; the Rector at the beginning of the ecclesiastical year relinquished his subscription and pledge,—relying at the meeting of his support upon the voluntary offerings of the people at the altar. All the expenditures are in this way to be met. So far, there is reason to believe that it can be sustained, and most assuredly there is no reason that it should not.

The Rector is also glad to report the establishment of a Parochial School, which at present numbers some thirty-five scholars, with the prospect of an increase, and employing two teachers. The building permanently obtained is a large and commodious Academy building of the village, which has been turned up for the purpose of the Parochial use and its unreserved control.

For Nashotah..... 11 20

Sunday School, penny collection, for Nashotah..... 2 54

For Parochial objects, generally..... 48 00

For Rectory, including $20 for alterations.....$1,212 00

Total.....$1,800 96

The Rectory was valued at $1,800. We had on hand from last year, as Rectory Fund, through the efforts of the ladies, $208; received from kind friends, about $100, and borrowed $800,—for which a mortgage was given on the property. This debt the zealous ladies of the Parish, I am persuaded, will not permit to remain long.

Besides the purchasing of the Rectory, 20 feet have been obtained, by exchange of property, in the rear of the Church lot,—thus making room for a Recess Chancel.

I must add, I shall ever look back with greatest pleasure to my having been Rector of Emmanuel Church, Norwich.

My resignation of this Parish took effect on the first of April last, and this report, which is somewhat imperfect, is intended for the eight months preceding. It does not contain the collections for "Parochial objects."

Grace Church, Cortlandville; the Rev. H. V. GARDNER, late Missionary

During the time above mentioned, I held frequent services at Cortlandville. The statistics about the same as last year. Families 18, number of individual 71; communicants about 20. Could there be services in this Parish one-half of the time, with a suitable place to meet, a large congregation could soon be gathered.

St. Mary's Church, Truxton; the Rev. EDWARD PINSLEY, Missionary

Congregation..Families 34, (adults 95, children 70,) total number of individuals 165; baptisms..infants 4; communicants..admitted 1, removed 1; present number 28; marriage 1; burials 2; public services..on Sundays 6; on other days 3, total number of services 36; the Holy Communion publicly administered 6 times, and in private once; children catechised..number of children 44, number of times 6; Sunday school 1; teachers, (male 2, female 2, total 5; pupils, (male 22, female 22,) total 44—besides a class of six young persons, who have been already confirmed, and whom I instruct in person.

The monthly collections required by Canon XIV, and actually transmitted to the Treasurer, from August 1st, 1856, to August 1st, 1857, have been used and appropriated as follows, viz:

For Diocesan Missions,	$11 70
The following sums have also been collected for other objects, viz:
For the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen,	2 48
For the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, viz:
For Domestic Missions,	1 93
For Parochial objects,	3 25
Total,	$19 36

In addition to the above, I have officiated eleven times in "parts adjacent." Since Easter my ministerial labors have been divided equally between this Parish and Zion Church, McLean, Tompkins county.

The main obstacle to the extension of Church principles in this Parish, is the want of a Church edifice.. Mr. J. Coleman Hart, of New York city, has liberally presented the Parish with a pretty and chaste design for a Church, the building which will cost about $1,200. An eligible site has been secured, but there is still a deficiency of about $300. The Parish earnestly appeals for aid in this good work to the friends of the Church, either by individual subscription, or by collections taken up for this purpose in wealthy and more favored Parishes.

I commenced my ministrations as Rector of this Parish on the Sunday after Easter. Since then I have called on nearly every family who can be said, in any sense, to belong to the Parish. I find its condition less prosperous than from the report in the last Journal I was led to anticipate. There is no list of communicants to be found except that left by the Rev. Mr. Schuyler in 1854. I have carefully reviewed that list many times, and by the aid of the oldest officers and members of the Parish, and others, have been able to make up a list of 200, which I think is nearly correct.

The services above reported have all been performed since April last,—at which time I entered upon my duties as Rector of the Parish. It is worthy of remark that, while this Parish has clerical services but half of the time, the Church is never closed on Sunday. Even if they have no settled Minister for a year, it is always open either for Clerical or Lay services.

The interior of the Church very much needs repairing, and it will probably be done this fall.

A number of the families attending services at this Church are from the neighboring towns. A few families, and some seven or eight communicants, live in Hume, some ten miles distant. Here I visited a sick person, and administered the Holy Communion to five individuals. It is my intention to spend the last Sunday of this month in Hume, and so collect together what persons I can for religious services.

entered upon my duties in this Parish on the first of April last; and since that time, by the assistance of Rev. G. P. Waldo, resident Deacon, the Church has been open for service twice every Sunday, and once every holy day.

Since Easter, a beautiful Font of Italian marble has been placed in the church, and a commodious Vestry room has been added.

I cannot close this report without adding, what is the general sentiment of the people, that to the Rev. Mr. Waldo is due a very large debt of gratitude, for his constant and unwearied exertions in sustaining and building up this feeble yet growing Parish.

The present Rector entered upon his duties in November last, the Parish having been vacant for some time before. He found no Parish Record, and had to make up his report from what he could learn by inquiry. The amount contributed for general Church objects has necessarily been small, because of many small amounts to be paid upon the Church, and providing for its greater completeness. The attendance is good and still increasing, and we hope, with the blessing of Almighty God, to be able after another year to do something for the Church abroad, besides sustaining ourselves at home.

St. John's Church, Honeoye Falls; the Rev. J. M. HEDGES, late Missionary.

The Missionary closed his fourth year of residence in this Parish on the last Sunday in July, having accepted an invitation to take charge of the Wainwright Institute, at Middleburg, Schoharie county, N. Y., and also to perform Missionary duty at that place. There has been little change in the Parish during the year past. Services have been kept up, and a competent support, with the Missionary stipend, has been given by the people to their Clergyman.

St. George's Church, Mumford.

[There is no report from this Parish.]

Missionary Station at Penfield; the Rev. HENRY LOCKWOOD, Missionary.

It has not been thought advisable, as yet, to take any steps for re-organizing this Parish. It is hoped, however, that the time for doing this may not be far distant, and for its consequent re-union with the Diocesan Convention.

Services have been regularly kept up on the afternoon of each Sunday, with a few exceptions, during the year, by the Missionary, who has been gratified and encouraged, especially by the growing interest of the young persons in the congregation. The receipt of five dollars, through the Bishop of the Diocese, for the benefit of the children of the Parish, understood to be from the Sunday school of St. Luke's Church, Rochester, is thankfully acknowledged. The sum has accordingly been expended in books, chiefly of a devotional character, as gifts to be kept and used by the children. There has been one marriage celebrated by the Missionary. A collection of two dollars for Diocesan Missions has also been made and forwarded to the Treasurer.

The services reported here are not all my own. During the first three months of the conventional year my place was supplied by the Rev. D. F. Warren, who took charge of the Parish while I was absent for my health. And during the month of June last, I left the Parish in charge of Mr. J. S. Shipman, a candidate for orders here, while absent on a similar errand.

Beside the collections reported above, a thousand dollars have been raised in the Parish in payment for the organ mentioned last year; and thirty dollars were collected in my absence for a destitute family.

The Parish received at Christmas a handsome font, costing upwards of $100, a gift from Mrs. Sarah De Veaux.

The DeVeaux College for Orphans, founded by her late husband's bequest, has gone into operation this spring, and numbers about thirty beneficiaries.

A thriving village has grown up at Suspension Bridge, where are a number of Church families, but I have not been able, during the year, to hold evening service either there or at Tonawanda, on account of weak eyes. This Parish has lost somewhat by removals during the last year.

The Rev. Henry B. Whipple resigned the charge of this Parish at Easter; and the present Rector entered upon his duties on the fourth Sunday after Easter. The Parish is in a prosperous and harmonious condition, and bears witness to the laborious zeal and fidelity of its late Pastor. The following remarks by the Rev. Mr. Whipple, were appended to the report of his official acts, sent to me, and I insert them appropriately in this report:

"I resigned the Parish of Zion Church, Rome, at Easter, to take charge of the Free Church of the Holy Communion, Chicago. It was a step taken with fear and trembling, and as I hope and pray for the good of the Church and the glory of God. On my part it was the surrender of a pleasant Parish, where I had commenced my ministry, endeared to me by many ties of affection, to go out to a new and untried field. It is due to those I leave to say, that in all these years of pastoral labor the Parish has been united, and not a word or deed of theirs to me other than such as a Christian minister might expect from disciples of his Lord and Master. May God reward them for all their love."

The Parish may be reported as in a prosperous and promising condition. The Sunday School has materially increased in strength and efficiency. More than the usual number have been removed from our midst by death, among whom we lament the loss of some of our most devoted members and communicants. The departure of Simon V. Oley, Esq., early connected with this Parish, and always its warm and liberal friend, deserves particular mention. Good progress has been made in the erection of our new Church edifice, and we have reason to rejoice in the many manifestations of the Divine favor we are permitted to enjoy.

Trinity Church, Utica; the Rev. PIERRE ALEXIS PROAL, D. D., late Rector.

Baptisms... infants 28; marriages 7; burials 8.

Owing to the long continued disabilities of the late Rector, no record has been kept of the usual statistics, beyond those noted above. The few and occasional collections for Church purposes have been reported to the Treasurer of the Diocese. The remainder have been for the Parish or its Sunday School expenses.

The late Rector has been disabled by severe illness from public duty for the largest part of the time since January 20, 1856; the pulpit has been supplied, however, with the exception of one Sunday. A sense of duty from this protracted sickness, with no certain prospect of recovery, constrained him to resign his charge of the Parish on the 1st of May last. The people of his late charge have manifested every sympathy in the affliction with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit their former Pastor; and the Wardens and Vestry have generously and kindly provided for his support during the remainder of his life. He desires here to express his great gratitude for this unwonted liberality, and pray to God to reward and bless their bounty in abundant returns of spiritual gifts to themselves.

The Vestry have elected the Rev. S. Hanson Cox to the Rectory, and he has entered upon his duties with encouraging prospects of great success since the first of August.

Contributions have begun to be made toward securing a Lecture and School Room for the Parish. In addition to the above, I have held services several times in the village of Clinton, once in Bridgewater, and once in Hanover. The bad roads and weather during the past winter and spring prevented the fulfillment of several other appointments. Missionary efforts are more and more needed throughout the rural districts on account of the continual decline of the various religious organizations. In this section, hundreds get rid of all claims on their time and money for religious purposes by simply setting themselves down as Universalists. One of the best instrumentalities I have found to extend the influence and knowledge of the Church among the people, are the Sunday School publications of the Church Book Society, especially the larger library, and it were to be wished that by some means our rural Parishes might be more extensively supplied with them. Destitute of a controversial form, they give a most attractive and practical, and therefore most effective exhibition of Church principles.

I entered on the duties of this Parish Oct. 1, 1886, but the number of services reported is for the entire year, there having been no suspension of service during the vacancy in the Rectorship. In addition to the above, I have held a 5 o'clock service and preached in the vacant Parish at Fayetteville each Lord's day, since June 28, (2d Sunday after Trinity.) I also administered the Holy Communion in private once, and attended one funeral at the request of the late Missionary.

The Rev. Dr. Gregory held the Rectorship of this Parish until the first of May last, at which time the present incumbent entered upon its duties.

During the past winter a successful effort was made to provide an organ for the Church, and to liquidate the remaining indebtedness on the Church and parsonage. A subscription of over four thousand dollars was obtained for this purpose, the late Rector giving one fourth of that amount. The parsonage is now free, and the Vestry has an unincumbered title. An organ of fine tone, and costing about $1,200, is now set up and in use in the Church; and the balance of the debt on the Church edifice is provided for.

In addition to my duties in the College, and to those above reported, I have administered the Holy Communion on two occasions during the year in the commodious chapel of the Water Cure at Clifton Springs; on the latter occasion to more than 60 communicants, the greater part of whom were invalids.

There has been but little actual increase of the congregation at Phelps during the last year; although a gratifying interest and an earnest desire to sustain Divine worship has been manifested by the members of that small but zealous Parish. I hope ere long to see a Church at Clifton Springs, and a pastor resident in full charge of the two congregations.

In addition to these sums, a large amount was raised to complete the Church edifice. It was opened on the first Sunday in January for public worship. It cost together with the lot on which it stands, over $30,000. Something over $20,000 was realized by the public sale of pews. More have since been sold and enough remain to pay for the Church, aside from those reserved as free seats. Little doubt is entertained of the sale of the remaining pews within a reasonable time, nearly all of them being already occupied by attendants upon the services of the Church. Freedom from debt and the consecration of our Church edifice are looked forward to with hope and a strong desire. Within the last five years the number of communicants in this parish has been more than doubled, as also its congregation. It is matter of devout thanksgiving to God, that we have been thus prospered in temporal and spiritual things. We need a Sunday School and Lecture Room, the lot for which lies adjoining the Church edifice. The Rector needs lay assistance in the superintendence and instruction of the Sunday School.

The Rector has held during the year five Sunday evening services in the village of Minette, four miles south of this city, with good congregations, and baptized one child there.

The blessing of God has been mercifully displayed to this Parish during the past year, for which our humble thanks are due. There has been a greater apparent increase spiritually, than in many previous years. The Sunday School is only limited in its growth by the want of accommodations. We have been presented, through the liberality of the county officers, with the venerable Court House in which all the Protestant Churches of the place have held their first services. This we expect to use as a Sunday School Room, when it is moved to the Church lot. A fence and other improvements are in progress. Our Sunday School is a wide missionary field, and demands much labor and expense. In this and other benevolent efforts, the congregation manifest a warm interest. Of the communicants reported a large number are immigrants, and are irregular in their attendance upon public worship and the Lord's Supper.

The Church here is steadily gaining in numbers and influence. The building itself is not yet quite ready for consecration. The ladies have procured a handsome gown for the Church, and are now accumulating funds for purchasing carpets. Lamps have been procured so that we hold service regularly on Sunday evenings. Mr. Charles Cook has still further manifested his liberality by purchasing for the Church a very handsome Desk Bible and Prayer Book, and also books for a Vestry and a Parochial Record. The communicants have already contributed money for purchasing a Communion sett.

In the last year's report there was an omission, as printed, from not stating the number confirmed in this Parish. It was twelve.

Our Sunday School is organized into a Missionary Society. It contributed at its anniversary on Christmas day, the sum of $15 95 for Mr. Breck's Mission.

Besides twice here, on each Sunday, I also preach in the morning at Catharine, and in the afternoon at Watkins, except on the second Sunday when I preach only three times. My week-day services and all, amount to 225.

The sum given to charities without the Parish is $314.62. The permanent Parish Fund now amounts to $750.00, having increased during the year by collection and donations $232.94. Of this amount, $70.00 has been given by a parishioner, and $100.00 by a former resident of the village.

The Rector has held 8 services in neighboring school houses; at Macedon Locks 1, at Williamson 1, at Pultneyville 2, at Sodus village 5, with Holy Communion on one occasion; at Marion 1, at Mumford 1; in all 14 services.

This Parish is in as prosperous a condition as can be expected in the circumstances of the village. In two years we have not gained a single communicant by removal, yet the number of communicants is larger than at any previous period, and the size of the congregation not materially less.

OTHER CLERICAL REPORTS.

From Clergymen not having Parochial cures, the Bishop has received the following Reports, viz:

The Rev. JOHN E. BATTIN, residing at Swainville, Allegany county, reports: that he has officiated in public services on Sundays fifteen times, and in private three times; married one couple; and administered the Holy Communion twice.

The Rev. NATHANIEL F. BRUCE, residing at Dexter, Michigan, transmitted the following report but a short time before his death: "The duty once more devolves on me of acquainting you with the ministerial acts I have performed, and the position I have occupied, since the meeting of the last Convention of the Diocese over which you preside. I have officiated the year past in St. James' Church, Dexter, as frequently as circumstances demanded and my health permitted. I have uniformly, when here, officiated and preached once every Lord's day, and though not constantly, but very often, on the morning and afternoon of the same. I have baptized, infants two. One adult was confirmed by Bishop McCoskry, at his visitation in April. I have united in wedlock one couple; and attended three funerals, holding divine service and preaching on each of these occasions. To relieve the embarrassments of the little society for whom I have officiated, more or less, for three years past, I journeyed to Connecticut and New York in May and June, in the hope of collecting sufficient money to liquidate the indebtedness of our Church edifice. I have to regret the almost entire failure of the effort, and am in daily expectation of seeing all our endeavors to preserve our Church fail, and the neat building in which the worship of God has been solemnized in the beauty of holiness, pass ere long into hands better able to keep it than we are. With this sad event, if not sooner, my personal labors will terminate, and I shall in all probability retire from the active duties of the ministry. My dear and respected Bishop, I cannot close this communication without expressing to you my thankfulness for all your kindness, so uniformly and so long continued to most respectfully, your obliged friend and brother in the bonds of Christian love."

The Rev. W. M. CARMICHAEL, D. D., residing in New York, reports as follows: "During the summer and autumn of last year, my health was such that I was compelled to seek a milder climate at the south. Accordingly, about the 1st of November, I went to Florida, and became the Missionary and Rector of St. Mark's Church, Palatka, on the St. John's river, where I have been able to perform one service and preach almost every Sunday regularly, without intermission, from that time until the middle of June, when in consequence of loss of voice from over exertion and other causes, I was forced to desist. Whether I shall return to my post again, is a matter in regard to which I am not as yet able to speak with certainty."

The Rev. GEORGE C. V. EASTMAN, Principal of the Caryville Collegiate Seminary, officiating as missionary at Caryville, Genesee county, reports, that he commenced religious services at Caryville in October last, when he entered on his duties as Principal of the Seminary; that he held morning and afternoon services on Sundays in the Seminary Chapel, preaching in the afternoon only; that under such arrangement the services are well attended and more useful; that he has baptized five adults and two infants; that three persons have been confirmed; that Colonel Cary has offered one thousand dollars towards the erection of a Church when four thousand dollars more shall be raised; that the formation of a Parish and the erection of a Church edifice would strengthen the Seminary; that the mission of the Church being to educate and train her children in holiness, the Seminary cannot but be, with the blessing of God, a most important instrument of usefulness to the Diocese.

The Rev. HENRY GREGORY, D. D., President of De Vaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children, at Suspension Bridge, reports: that from the beginning of the Conventional year to the first of May last—a period of nine months—he officiated as Rector of St. James' Church, Syracuse, and the official acts and statistics of that period are embraced in the report from that Parish. Immediately after the first of May he entered upon his duties as President and Chaplain of the College. The College family, including officers, teachers, servants and their families, and the pupils, is forty-six. Besides these, some fifteen or twenty persons from the neighborhood, come to the Sunday services in the College Chapel, making usually a congregation of sixty or seventy souls. Baptisms 16; of these, 13 were of pupils in the College, and 3 were of children brought from the neighborhood. Communicants, of persons connected with the College 8, of others residing in the neighborhood, unconnected with any Parish 9—total 17. Besides two public services every Sunday, there is a daily service, morning and evening, in the College Chapel, attended by the pupils and others connected with the College. The Holy Communion is publicly administered once a month, and on the Chief Festivals. Communion of the sick in private once. The pupils of the College, as a family of baptized children, are diligently instructed in "the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health." The President has been assisted in the Sunday and daily services and in the religious instruction of the boys, by Professor FOOTE, Tutor WELLS, and Assistant Tutor GREGORY. From the Communion offerings, four dollars has been remitted to the Diocesan Treasurer for Diocesan Missions, and four dollars appropriated towards furnishing the College Chapel, total eight dollars.

The Rev. BENJAMIN HALE, D. D., President of Hobart Free College, Geneva, reports, that during the last Conventional year he has preached twenty-five times in various Churches; read service in whole or part nearly every Sunday; baptized four children, three in Waterloo and one in Geneva, which baptisms are reported by the Rectors; and administered the Holy Communion once. That he read, as usual, daily morning Prayer in the College Chapel throughout the year, during term, and delivered six lectures on Sunday evening to a voluntary class of students; and that circumstances, which need not here be mentioned, prevented him holding regular Sunday services in the College Chapel, and his own health made it necessary for him to omit, for the most part his Sunday evening lectures.

The Rev. BEARDSLEY NORTHRUP, residing in New Hartford, Oneida county, reports: that since the last Annual Convention, he has read prayers and preached six Sundays in Grace Church, Utica, seven Sundays in Trinity Church, Utica, two Sundays in Calvary Church, Utica, six Sundays in St. Stephen's Church, New Hartford, two Sundays in Zion Church, Rome, and two Sundays on Christmas day in St. Stephen's Church, Perryville; has baptized five persons, and administered the Holy Communion four times, and that at other times occasionally he has assisted in the services of the Church, and preached.

The Rev. MARCUS A. PERRY, residing in Utica, reports as follows: During the current ecclesiastical year, I have embraced every seasonable opportunity of commending the cause of Christ and his Church to the favorable notice and acceptance of all with whom I have been in the interchange of friendly offices. In addition to attending the services of Grace Church on Sundays and Holy days, with the exception of a few in which I was confined by sickness, I have assisted in reading Prayers—at the Communion—in baptism—and preaching nine Sundays, alternately at Trinity, Grace and Calvary Churches, and one Sunday I officiated at Herkimer for the Rev. Mr. THACKARA. Marriages 3; burials 2; baptism, 1 infant.

The Rev. EPHRAIM PUNDERSON, residing at Cleveland, Ohio, reports: that his services have been chiefly rendered in Trinity Church in that city, assisting in prayers, and in the Rector's absence occasionally preaching, and that he depends upon his school for a limited support.

The Rev. LEWIS THIBOU, residing at Angelica, Allegany county, reports as follows: I have to report that my engagement as Minister of St. Paul's Church, Angelica, ended on Easter day last. My official acts to that time, and during the vacancy of the Parish, will appear in the report of the present Rector. I have since officiated and assisted on one or two occasions, and am at present without a charge.

The Rev. TIMOTHY F. WARDWELL, residing at Wardwell, reports: that during the last Conventional year he has preached forty-one times; that he has read the full service thirty-six times on Sundays, and assisted in the service at various times; that he has administered the Holy Communion in public three times, and has baptized two adults.

The Rev. WILLIAM D. WILSON, D. D., Geneva, reports, that since the Convention of 1856, besides his duties as Trinity Professor in Hobart College, he has assisted in the services of the Church nearly every Sunday; that he attended, as a delegate, the General Convention at Philadelphia, in October of last year, and that by an arrangement with the other members of the Faculty, this was done without omitting the lectures or instructions belonging to his usual Course in College.

APPENDIX.

No. II.

TRINITY CHURCH, NEW YORK.

This venerable Corporation has been assailed on three grounds:

- I. Her title;
- II. The Act of 1814;
- III. The value and distribution of her funds.

I. HER TITLE.

Her TITLE has been assailed—

1. By the heirs of Anneke Jans;
2. By the alleged claim of the State.

ANNEKE JANS.

1. Against the heirs of Anneke Jans there have been decisions, by successive Courts, both before and since the Revolution of 1776, and always in favor of Trinity Church.

Anneke Jans was the alleged original Dutch Patentee, under the States of Holland, of part of this property. She married one Bogardus, a Dutch Clergyman, hence called Domine Bogardus. Under her, the claim was set up: and her heirs, innumerable, have since prosecuted it. This Anneke Jans' claim to the property of Trinity Church was founded on these allegations:

1. That the title was not in the Queen when, in 1705, she gave the lands to Trinity Church, but in a private person.

2. That the lands had been granted in the time of the Dutch to Anneke Jans, the original Patentee.

3. That all titles granted by the Dutch were confirmed to the grantees by the Articles of Capitulation, when the Colony surrendered to the English.

4. That Cornelius Brouwer, a descendant of the original grantee, was one of the true heirs and owners of the property.

FIRST SUIT.

1. This Cornelius Brouwer commenced an ejectment suit against Trinity Church in 1750, after she had possessed the property about forty-five years; and was non-suited for not bringing cause to trial. He subsequently commenced another suit, which, in 1760, was tried before a special jury, struck for the purpose, in the presence of the parties and their counsel, before one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, David Jones, Esq., of Fort Neck, Queens county, who was commissioned for the trial of this very cause—all the other Judges being members of Trinity Church and interested in the result of the suit. The jury consisted of persons of credit, principally belonging to the Church of Holland. The attorney and counsel for Cornelius Brouwer against Trinity Church were the leading Presbyterian members of the bar, viz: William Smith, Sen., William Smith, Jr., William Livingston and John Morine Scott.

The trial lasted two days and almost two nights. The titles on both sides were fully canvassed; and the jury, after a charge by the Judge, and a recess of half an hour, returned with a verdict in favor of Trinity Church.

Such was the result of the first trial.

2. Col. Malcolm commenced a suit by writ of right in the Supreme Court, to recover the property of Trinity Church, or some of it. The premises, the title to which was not immediately in question, were located in or near Chambers street. The grounds of his claim are not exactly known to me, but it is believed to have been in some way connected with the Bogardus pretensions, probably as an assign of one or more of the soi-disant heirs. The cause was tried in the year 1807, in the old City Hall, in New York, by grand assize,* (an ancient and solemn mode of jury trial now disused in this State,) and a verdict was found and judgment entered for Trinity Church.

3. Previous to 1830, one Bogardus, claiming to be an heir of Anneke Jans, commenced proceedings in the Court of Chancery against Trinity Church, to recover a part of the Queen's Farm.

The case was elaborately argued, and decided in favor of Trinity Church, by the late Chancellor, R. H. Walworth. (See 4th Paige's Reports, 178.) It was carried, by appeal, to the Court for the Correction of Errors, where the decision of the Chancellor was affirmed.

4. Another suit was commenced in 1834, by one Jonas Humbert, also claiming as an heir of Anneke Jans. The complainant's bill was demurred to, and the demurrer was sustained by the Chancellor, and the bill was dismissed. (See 7th Paige's Reports, page 195.) This, also, was carried, by appeal, to the Court for the Correction of Errors, and the decision of the Chancellor was sustained by the unanimous vote of the members of the Court. (See 24th Wendell's Reports, p. 587.)

* Black. Com. Vol. 2, pp. 190, 341, and Appendix p. vi., Ed. by Christian

An issue of fact was afterwards made, in the Bogardus suit above mentioned, which was decided against the complainant by the late Vice Chancellor Sanford, upon full and complete testimony on the part of Trinity Church, and no appeal was taken from the decision. (See 4th Sanford's Chancery Reports, p. 633 ; Id. p. 369.)

5. Nine other suits were brought in the Supreme Court by another Cornelius Brouwer, in 1847, claiming as an heir of Anneke Jans ; and, after the causes were at issue, the plaintiff submitted to a non-suit.

6. In July, 1851, an action was commenced against Trinity Church by the same counsel in the name of one Kiersted, in the Court of Common Pleas, in the city of New York.

7. And in April, 1852, another action was brought by the same counsel, in the name of the same Kiersted, in the Supreme Court, while the action in Common Pleas was pending.

The plaintiff, Kiersted, was compelled to elect between his actions, and he abandoned that in the Court of Common Pleas.

The case was heard in November, 1854, and decided on the 9th of April, 1855. The bill was dismissed with costs.

All these suits, except those of Brouwer and Humbert, were commenced and conducted by the same counsel, George Sullivan, Esq., who, for twenty-two years, had maintained the litigation against Trinity Church, in the name of Mr. Kiersted or others.

Vice Chancellor Sandford, in deciding in favor of Trinity Church, thus expresses his views :

" And now that I have been enabled to examine it (the case) carefully and with due reflection, I feel bound to say, that a plainer case has never been presented to me as Judge. Were it not for the uncommon magnitude of the claim, the apparent sincerity and zeal of the counsel who supported it, and the fact (of which I have been often admonished by personal application in their behalf,) that the descendants of Anneke Jans at this day are hundreds, if not thousands, in number, I should not have deemed it necessary to deliver a written judgment on deciding the cause."*

THE STATE CLAIM.

2. In 1854, Mr. Rutger B. Miller memorialized the Commissioners of the Land Office, alleging that he and his associates were in possession of evidence, showing that the title to the property called the King's Farm, or Queen's Farm, in the city of New York, held by Trinity Church, having been Crown lands, and never legally alienated to Trinity Church, was vested in the people of the State of New York, and offering to carry on a suit of ejectment against Trinity Church at his own expense, and recover the property escheated to the State, provided that one-quarter of the estate so recovered be given to him.

An agreement was made with Mr. Miller, by the Commissioners of the Land Office, by resolutions, passed June 10, 1854, and August 31,

* Opinion, p. 40.

1854, directing the Attorney General to commence such a suit, on the conditions—

1. That the State should be indemnified against incurring any expense by the suit, by a bond of indemnity of $5000, with surety to be approved by the Comptroller.

2. Provided that proper evidence, showing the title of the State to such farm, should be first shown, and lodged with the Attorney General of the State.

On the 22d January, 1855, the Attorney General reports to the Senate, that Mr. Miller had not fulfilled the conditions, and that no suit had been commenced.

Subsequently, it appears that Mr. Miller did comply with some or one of the conditions, gave the bond with securities, and submitted his evidence of the title of the State to this property to the Attorney General, and through him to the Commissioners of the Land Office, who adopted, March 2, 1855, the following preamble and resolution, viz:

"Whereas, The Attorney General having submitted to this Board the testimony in regard to the title of Trinity Church to the King's Farm, which was furnished to him by Rutger B. Miller, and the same being unsatisfactory,

"Resolved, That the Resolution of June 10, 1854, directing the commencement of a suit, and that of August 31, 1854, in relation to the Board, be, and the same are hereby rescinded."

Sometime afterwards, in 1855, the Commissioners of the Land Office, on the urgent application of Mr. Rutger B. Miller, renewed the authority and instructions to the Attorney General, to commence a suit to test the title of Trinity Church, on the terms proposed by Mr. Miller. In January, 1856, Trinity Church presented a memorial to the New Commissioners of the Land Office, declaring that they do not, in any way, object to a suit against them to test their title, but praying that the bargain to give Mr. Miller a portion of the land, if recovered to the State, may be annulled, as being, amongst other things, contrary to the Constitution, which appropriates all escheated lands to the Common School Fund, and thus prohibits such payment to Mr. Miller.

The bargain, being deemed unconstitutional, was abandoned.

But the Attorney General was directed to bring a suit before the Supreme Court, to test the title of Trinity Church to her property. Accordingly an action has been brought in the name of the People, and is now at issue and will soon be decided.

On the point of the claim of the State to the property of Trinity Church, the Commissioners of the Land Office, in 1836, consisting of Messrs. Samuel Beardsley, John A. Dix, A. C. Flagg, A. Keyser and William Campbell, put their names to the following OPINION, and establish the following facts:

OPINION.

1. That the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of Trinity Church in the city of New York, are a valid corporation, with full power to hold the real estate which has been referred to.

2. That it has a valid, subsisting, and absolute title to the lands referred to.

3. That it is entitled to the rents and profits of said lands, without any regard to the amount of income which they may yield.

FACTS.

They establish the following facts:

1. That in 1705, Lord Cornbury, Governor of the Province of New York, in the name, and as the act and deed of Queen Anne, made a lease, by which the lands called the Queen's Farm and the Queen's Garden were granted and confirmed to the corporation of Trinity Church, and their successors forever, to be holden in free and common socage paying the yearly-rent of three shillings.

2. That the power of the Provincial Governor to make leases of the Crown Lands, was unlimited in 1705, when the lease in question was made.

3. That the lease was valid and effectual in its inception, and was so regarded during the continuance of the Provincial Government.

4. That the lease of 1705, had been regarded as a subsisting and valid grant, not only by the Provincial Government, to as late a period as 1750, when quit rent was paid upon it, but by the Government of this State in 1786, when the quit rent reserved was finally commuted and satisfied.

5. That the corporation of Trinity Church has held these lands, claiming an absolute and indefeasible title to them from the time of the commutation and payment of said quit rent in 1786, (then, in 1886, fifty years, and now, in 1857, seventy-one years.)

6. That if the people of the State had then, in 1786, a right to these lands, that right has been lost by lapse of time, the right of suing for the recovery of lands being limited to forty years in this State, and in England and Provinces to sixty years.

7. And that the Legislature of the State have repeatedly recognized the corporation of Trinity Church, as a legal, valid and subsisting corporation.*

It is understood that the question of the title of the State to this property, will be settled at an early date, the cause in which it is involved having a preference over others.

II. THE ACT OF 1814.

Another ground of assault upon Trinity Church is the Act of 1814.

Certain persons, who are members of the various incorporated Episcopal Churches in the city of New York, about fifty in number, claim also to be corporators of Trinity Church in that city, and to be entitled not only to choose officers and control the affairs of their own Churches, but to manage the affairs of Trinity Church, by participating in the election of its Church Wardens and Vestrymen. And they complain that by an Act of the Legislature, passed in 1814, their rights, as corporators of Trinity Church, have been impaired, and they ask and urge a repeal of the Act of 1814, as being in violation of their rights, after having submitted to it, without ever appealing to the courts of law to test its constitutionality, for forty-three years.

* Chief Justice Bronson, who had just vacated the office of Attorney General, and as such had officially and fully considered the subject, is known to have been of the same opinion as his successor, Mr. Beardsley.

The claim is that members of other incorporated Episcopal Churches in the city of New York are also corporators of Trinity Church, and as such are entitled to vote at its elections.

The following facts and views present the subject :

In 1790, Trinity Church, with her two Chapels of St. Paul's and St. George's was the only Protestant Episcopal Church in the city, and comprehended within her limits all the Episcopalians. There was but one Parish—the Parish of Trinity Church.

In 1793, Christ Church was organized by persons who were formerly members of Trinity Church, but who separated voluntarily from it, erected a house of public worship, and applied to have their delegates admitted to a seat in the Convention of the Diocese in October of that year. They were incorporated by a special act. They were admitted into the Convention in 1802.

In 1801, St. Mark's Church was organized and incorporated by a special act.

In 1804, the French Church, Du St. Esprit, became connected with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

In 1806, St. Stephen's Church was organized and incorporated by a special act.

In 1807, St. Michael's Church, Bloomingdale, was organized and incorporated by a special act.

In 1809, Grace Church was organized and incorporated under a special act.

In 1810, Zion Church and St. James' Church were organized and incorporated under special acts.

The above dates are derived from the Journals of Convention, and are thought to be correct.

In 1813, St. George's Chapel was separated from Trinity Church, and became a separate, independent Parish.

In this year, 1813, the General Law for the incorporation of Religious Societies was passed by the Legislature, covering the case of Church organizations in the Protestant Episcopal Church.

To this date, 1813, none of the corporators of these nine distinct, separate, independent, incorporated Parishes, extending through a period of twenty years, had ever exercised, or legally claimed the right of voting at the elections of Wardens and Vestry of Trinity Church. Nor had the corporators of Trinity Church, as such, claimed the right of voting for Wardens and Vestrymen in these newly organized and independent congregations.

At the period when what is called the Jones and Hobart controversy prevailed, and divided the Churchmen in all the Churches in the city into parties, it was, that the pretension was urged that the corporators of these several new Parishes were also still corporators of Trinity Church, and as such, had a right to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of Trinity Church, of which both Hobart and Jones were ministers.

In this year, 1813, the corporation of Trinity Church applied to the Legislature for the law which was passed by the Legislature in that year, and submitted to the Council of Revision, who were divided on the point, and after satisfaction given to Chancellor Lansing, who doubted on some of its provisions, there was no majority against it, the Council being equally divided, and it became a law in 1814; and hence called the Act of 1814; rendered necessary by the organization of the new Parishes above named, the separation of St. George's from Trinity, and the pretension of some individuals of the new Churches to a right to vote at the Vestry elections in Trinity Parish. The Act was passed on the application of Trinity Church, with full notice and knowledge of all parties concerned, as appears from cotemporary documents and pamphlets. The assent of both parties, the Legislature and Trinity Church, to the modification of the contract, or charter, having been given, there is no foundation for the allegation that that Act impaired the obligation of a contract or was unconstitutional.

The then Attorney General* of the State gave a formal opinion at the time that the Act was not unconstitutional. The constitutionality of the Act of 1814 has been admitted, theoretically and practically, by such Lawyers as Richard Harrison, Peter Augustus Jay, Thomas L. Ogden, William Johnson, John T. Irving, David B. Ogden, Alexander Macdonald, Gulian C. Verplanck and John A. Dix and others, who have, since that date, served in the Vestry of the Church.

The Act has been vindicated as constitutional by the late John C. Spencer.

No appeal to a legal tribunal, always easily accessible, has ever been made by any party, individual or congregation, supposed to be aggrieved, to test the constitutionality of the Act, which has been in operation forty-three years.

The following propositions are believed to be sustained by all the facts in the case, and to embody the whole truth on this subject:

1. That the qualifications for voters for officers of Trinity Church, prior to the Act of 1814, were prescribed by, and are to be found in, the original Charter of 1697, and the Act of 1784.

2. That those qualifications are not varied by the Act of 1814, any farther than they had already become modified by our Independence, and the adoption of our State Constitution, which abolished the legal establishment of any religious denomination in connection with the

* Abram Van Vechten.

State, and all laws, claims and qualifications growing out of such establishment.

3. That for the purpose of declaring the consequence of this change of circumstances, and for providing for carrying into effect the original intent of the Charter, the Legislature, acting with the consent of the corporation of Trinity Church, had unquestionable authority to pass the Act of 1814.

4. If that Act had never passed, the members of other incorporated Episcopal Churches in the city of New York, could not vote for officers of Trinity Church, because 1st. They do not possess the qualifications required by the Charter of 1697, and the Act of 1784; and 2d. Because if they ever had any rights as corporators of Trinity Church, they have renounced all claims to them, and have disfranchised themselves. They could derive, therefore, no benefit from the modification or repeal of the second section of the Act of 1814.

5. The Act of 1814, having been acquiesced in for more than forty three years, by those, if there were any, whose rights were affected, such fact affords a just presumption that they concurred in its provisions.

6. That it would be highly injurious to repeal or alter the third section of the Act of 1814, as it would open sources of dispute, which have been happily and properly closed, and would stimulate litigation by the appearance of a legislative decision upon the validity of the law in question.

7. That if the Act of 1814 was constitutionally passed, it is not competent to the Legislature to repeal or alter it, without the consent of the corporation of Trinity Church.

8. That if applicants for its repeal have any wrongs to redress, the same Courts are open to them to which all other citizens are required to appeal, and there are no obstructions or difficulties in their access to those Courts.

9. And that the merits of the whole matter may be summed up in these few words:

If the Act of 1814 is unconstitutional and void, the Courts will so declare, upon the question being presented to them, and there is, therefore, no occasion for the Legislature to interfere in what are peculiarly matters of judicial cognizance.

If the Act of 1814 is constitutional and valid, then there cannot be any legislative action upon it, unsolicited by Trinity Church and contrary to her will, without an infraction of her Charter, and an obvious violation of the supreme law of the land.

III. THE PROPERTY.

The corporation of Trinity Church has been assailed in regard to the reported value and the use of her property.

In reporting to the Senate, as directed by a resolution of that body, the Vestry declare,

"That they furnish the information requested by the Senate, not as acknowledging the power of the Senate to exact such information, but in order that they may not be deemed to be wanting in respect for your honorable body, or unwilling to display to the public the state of this corporation, its financial condition, and the management, by this Vestry, of its property. They feel satisfied that the facts presented in this paper will remove any unfavorable impressions detrimental to the interests of Trinity Church, which may have been occasioned by representations which, it is conjectured, have induced your honorable body to pass the resolutions above contained. But being charged with the care and guardianship of a large property and important rights, they leave, respectfully, to represent that the requiring of such reports as that ordered for, by the resolutions of the honorable Senate, is not justified by any moral principle, and is oppressive of this corporation. If there should, at any time, be any just cause of complaint against this corporation, the courts are competent and are adequate to afford a remedy; and the entering, by the Legislature, upon an investigation into the affairs of any single corporation, which investigation, if it has any materiality, properly belongs to such courts, is an assumption of their powers, and is burdensome upon the corporation affected, calling upon it to justify itself, by laborious statements, or production of evidence to a tribunal which has no power to decide. This corporation has, within a few years past, made answer to two similar calls for information from the houses of the Legislature, the one contained in the resolutions of your honorable body, of the 9th day of March, 1846, and the other contained in the resolutions of the honorable the House of Assembly, of March 4th, 1854. There is no provision in the charter of this corporation, and no general statute requiring it to report to the Legislature, and because this Vestry have found answer to these repeated requirements expensive and onerous, and believe them to be an infringement of the chartered rights of Trinity Church, they nobly protest against the right of the Legislature, or either branch of it, to demand reports from this Vestry relative to the condition or affairs of this corporation."

In reporting, however, to the Senate the estimated value of her property, the corporation of Trinity Church presented its assessed value assessed by sworn assessors for taxation, and so declared in their report. The property thus assessed being under lease, Trinity Church has only a reversionary interest in it.

"In reference to the inquiry as to the estimated value of each lot and parcel of land, owned by this corporation in the city of New York, the Vestry annex hereto a schedule, showing as to each lot its situation; its value with the buildings thereon (the property of the tenants) as assessed in 1855, by the officers of the city for the purpose of taxation, (except such as are exempt from taxation, which are particularly noted;) the estimated portion of such value for the buildings; the net value of the lot deducting the buildings, irrespective of the taxes; the annual ground rent reserved to the Church; the expiration of the term, and the present value of the reversion and of the ground rents to the Church. From this schedule it will appear, that the total value of the property embraced therein, irrespective of the leases and of the buildings, is $2,668,710."

On the value of the property and the mode of valuation, in its report to the Senate, the following is the statement, under oath, of William C. Verplanck, Esq., one of the Vestry:

"I had no hand in making out the report made to the Senate of the value of their property, but I think that no other mode of estimation than that of the sworn assessors could have been made and agreed upon. This arises, in my judgment, from the Church interest being a reversionary property, falling in at different periods, with comparatively a small income. As to the most valuable and saleable property in the lower part of the city, which has recently risen, even since the making of the report, the high prices chiefly for commercial purposes, my own experience and observation convince me, that it is impossible to calculate, with any reasonable ground of reliance, as to its reversionary value for six, eight and ten years, and longer periods ahead. I speak both from observation and experience on this subject. I have been a member of monied institutions, which lend on mortgage, in the city of New York; such as the Life and Trust Company. I have observed the great fluctuations and fall of value in parts of the city, such as Pearl street, Hanover Square. I have examined many bonds and mortgages of this character, while inquiring into the value of property. I have myself had the management and control of property in Stone street, Pine street, &c., which in 1835-36, was of great value, but has now fallen one-half, or nearly one-half its value at that time, owing to the transition of certain branches of commercial business from that locality to Broadway, and the streets adjoining it. I could not, therefore, myself, as the same occurrence may take place, estimate a high reversionary value ten or fifteen years hence, from present prices. The Astor lease, forming a large portion of the property of the Church, falling in in ten years, is a mere reversionary property, producing, at present, only $269 per annum. Such property, when offered in large amounts at a time, would not, probably, command the bids or offers of any but capitalists expecting to purchase at a low rate, and except under very favorable circumstances, would hardly bring its reversionary value, calculated on the assessed value, and perhaps not so much. I form that judgment with the full knowledge, that where the property is not encumbered with a lease, it might sell for more than the assessed value. For these reasons, I think the assessed value, the only one that the Church could properly give, or the Vestry have probably agreed upon."

The Vestry of Trinity Church have given and appropriated from the year 1750 to 1855,—

	LOTS.	IN MONEY.
To Churches in the city of New York,.....	122	$493,125
To Churches in fifty counties in the State,.....	24	228,294
To the advancement of religion, public purposes, Institutions of learning, support of the Episcopate, Church Societies, infirm clergymen, widows of families of deceased clergymen, since 1748,.....	172	286,111

"Thus has this corporation administered its estate, freely granting it for the spread of religion in all parts of the State for the support of ministers of the gospel, and the succor of their families, and for the aid and endowment of institutions of learning. It has, for these purposes, paid and appropriated in money $1,287,392 75, and given a large number of lots of land; by these means diminishing its property to one-third its original extent."

* The astounding revulsion in Banks, Stocks, Rail Road Securities, City Lots, and Farms, now (in October, 1857,) affecting the City and State of New York and the whole country, supplies striking and lamentable evidence of the uncertainty of the value of all city property, and should silence the tongue of exaggeration in regard to that of Trinity Church, while it must vindicate the declaration of Mr. Verplanck that the assessed value is the proper value for Trinity Church to report. Divine Providence, by a mere panic, has almost prostrated the value of city property, sunk wealth to want, rebuked pride, luxury and self-elation, and invoked us all, by a voice that is felt, to trust not in uncertain riches, but in the Living God. "It is the Lord's doings, and is marvelous in our eyes."

The Hon. DANIEL D. BARNARD has thus declared his opinion under his name :

"I venture to say that no man of common understanding, before wholly uninformed on the subject, could go through the testimony in the case, taking the whole of it together, and passing by the Reports, without coming to the conclusion, after allowing for all errors of judgment, and feeling, perhaps, grave doubts about the wisdom in all instances of the measures and methods of administration, and of charitable distribution, which had been adopted, that it is doubtful if another religious foundation, as amply endowed as this, could be found in the world, where for a full century and a half together, and coming down to the present hour, there had been manifested so much of absolute purity, of entire disinterestedness, of unswerving integrity, of generous and humane consideration, and of uniform action, performed under a high and noble sense of moral and religious obligation, as have characterized the Vestry of Trinity Church in the conduct of the affairs of that corporation."

Against the charge that the Vestry, in granting aid to Churches, have acted under the influence of party feeling, the Hon. JOHN A. DIX, one of the Vestry, thus testifies :

"I feel it to be my solemn duty to repel this imputation, by stating my own experience. I have been more than seven years a member of the Vestry, and have been on terms of the most unreserved and confidential communication with my associates. I have discussed with them the propriety of granting and declining applications for aid, not only at nearly all the meetings of the Vestry, but in many cases in private interviews; and no reference has ever been made by me or by any one of them, at any meeting, official or private, to the party views of any of the Rectors, or religious societies presenting such applications. The party divisions, which have existed for several years in the Episcopal Church, and which have not only impaired its capacity for doing good, but dishonored those on both sides who have been active in keeping them alive, have never been a subject of discussion at any meeting of the Vestry which I have attended; nor have they been alluded to in connection with applications for aid. I have taken a deep interest in several applications myself, and have, perhaps, had some influence in securing grants of money to the applicants, and in no instance have I inquired what were the particular views of the Rector of the Parish to which they belonged. I do not even know to this day whether they are High Church or Low Church. The only inquiries ever made were in regard to their pecuniary and social condition and their need of assistance; and these considerations, together with the ability of Trinity Church at the time to make the grants asked for, and the probability that the grants would be effective for the objects in view, have been the only ones which have guided me in my votes. I believe the other members of the Vestry have been equally free from the influence of party motives. My belief is founded upon my knowledge of them as enlightened, conscientious and liberal men, and upon all they have said and done in my presence through a familiar association of seven years. I cannot be supposed to have been deceived in regard to their principles of action, but upon the hypothesis of a depth of dissimulation on their part, and an obtuseness of perception on my own, too gross for the largest credulity."

The charge that Trinity Church takes mortgages on the Churches to which her aid is extended, was met by testimony—

That she took such mortgages to prevent the property from being alienated from the Church.

That she never foreclosed any mortgage thus taken.

That she never required interest to be paid on them.

That she never received any thing on their account, except when the property was sold by others, and she received back her advances to be applied to other feeble Churches.

WILLIAM MOORE, Esq., one of the Vestry, testified thus to the mortgages:

"They were taken with a view to prevent that property being lost to the Church at large. In case of a foreclosure of a previous mortgage, or some embarrassment to the Church, that this money advanced by Trinity should return to that Church to be distributed again, or returned to the same Church. I never knew of any case of a foreclosure of a mortgage while I was in the Vestry, nor do I believe there ever was one."

Mr. SAMUEL F. SKIDMORE, one of the Vestry, testified thus in answer to the question, what is the object in taking mortgages when a grant is made?

"These Church mortgages are taken and held by Trinity Church, not for their own private benefit, but (and in good faith) for the benefit of other Churches. They never have demanded, nor do they expect to demand, either the principal or interest of those loans, except in occasional isolated cases; such for instance, as the foreclosure of a prior mortgage, or to save the Church properties from being disposed of improperly, or for other than Church objects and purposes. The parties obtaining these loans, (which they look upon virtually as gifts,) do not object to giving such mortgages on their Churches, but generally view the requirement of them as a wise and conservative measure for perpetuating the original object and intention of the grant. The character of these mortgages is so well and so generally understood, that an attempt to foreclose any one of them, on the part of Trinity Church, for the purpose of restoring the amount again to their own coffers, would be regarded as little short of absolute dishonesty. If the same objects aimed at in these loans, could be equally well secured in some other way, I confidently believe that no desire on the part of Trinity Church to keep alive a sense of obligation to her on the part of the recipients of her favors would, for one moment, stand in the way of the change. For the foregoing reasons, I think that the principal and interest of those mortgages, (amounting to $571,952,) ought not to be considered as part of the wealth of Trinity Church, nor be made to show a seeming intention, on her part, to withhold from the honorable the Senate, essential and important facts respecting her property.

"Q. Has the Church ever foreclosed any of these mortgages? A. None to my knowledge."

In answer to the same question, BISHOP DE LANCEY testified in regard to his Diocese,—

"Q. Has Trinity Church ever foreclosed any of the mortgages on Churches, or ever required the annual interest on them to be paid to her? A. I have never heard or known of any such case in Western New York or elsewhere. I do not usually consecrate a new church edifice, until the Vestry certify that its debts are paid or reasonably provided for. A mortgage to Trinity Church, on which neither principal nor interest are demanded, I do not consider as an obstacle to the consecration of a new Church, but as additional security against its alienation from its holy objects.

"Q. Has any Church in your diocese, to which Trinity has made a grant of money without taking a mortgage on Church edifice, ever been lost to the congregation or diocese? A. Yes; a Church on which Trinity Church took no mortgage for a grant of $500, was sold for debt, and the congregation dispersed. A mortgage to Trinity Church would have saved it, or at least saved the $500 for the use of the diocese elsewhere."

views of BISHOP H. POTTER, of New York, on the subject of mortgages taken by Trinity Church, for her appropriations to the Churches, were thus presented :

What is your opinion of the effect of the course of Trinity Church, in her aid to Churches in the form of loans upon mortgages, rather than in the form of absolute grants? A. Those loans were absolute grants in reality ; never supposed that the interest or the principal would be called for by Trinity Church. They never have been, in a single instance, although there have been very numerous, in which land mortgages have been given. To consecrate a Church, I always wish to know whether there be any person who will never regard a mortgage given to Trinity Church, in the light of a loan. I have never perceived, I do not believe, that such mortgages, in any way, affect the independence of ministers or laymen. It is very common, to see the minister and laymen of a Church, subject to a mortgage, voting measures favored by Trinity Church. In convention, I doubt whether they ever remember or reflect whether mortgages exist in particular quarters. The effect of these mortgages has, I have no doubt, been important in preserving the property of Churches from being sold and alienated from their owners. And this, I have always understood, was the sole object of Trinity Church in requiring them."

Vestry of Trinity Church have always maintained, that they hold the property granted by Queen Anne, not as a trust estate, but by independent, bona fide, untrammelled ownership, and that they are not obliged by any trust to confine the application of it exclusively to their own Parish, or to the city of New York, but may extend it to other Trinity Churches and objects.

There are no terms implying trusteeship in the lease of the Queen's lands made by Lord Cornbury, November 23, 1705, in the name and on behalf of the act and deed of Queen Anne, but the lands "were granted and confirmed to said corporation, to the use of the Rector and inhabitants of the said city of New York, in common with the Church lands, as by law established, and their successors forever, to be held in free and common socage, and paying the yearly rent of three pounds." The power of the Provincial Governor to make leases of Crown Lands was unlimited, in 1705, when the lease in question was made. This lease, therefore, seems to have been valid and effectual from its inception, and to have been so regarded during the continuance of the Provincial Government. And not only by the Provincial Government, but by the Government of this State, in 1786, when the rent was finally commuted and satisfied.

Trinity Church holds this property in trust, she must abide by the terms and limitations of the trust. But if she holds it as her own, under the Charter, she may use it as her own, under the terms of her Charter; and in this view she has acted with the property from the beginning, taking care of her own Parish, and aiding other Churches and objects, both in the city and country.

On the subject of the number of the corporators of Trinity Church, A. D. D. BARNARD states his views in these terms :

Another point made in the reports relates to the comparatively small, and as the committee seem to think, gradually diminishing number and character of the corporators of Trinity Church. This is specially referred to in the second Report, and urged as a reason for increasing the number of corporators, and of course, by inference, as a reason why the Senate should declare that the members of other Parishes in New York, legal corporators or not, shall be corporators of the Parish of Trinity. I do not think, in my life, I ever heard a more daring proposition. When the corporators of Trinity Church, fail, it will be time enough for the State, but not through the Legislature, to look after the estate of that corporation; and when the question, and the only question submitted by the committee itself, in the bill they have brought in, on the disputed point under consideration is, whether certain persons are or are not legal corporators of Trinity Church, to urge the Senate to declare them to be so—to bring in, in truth, an army and mob of corporators to seize upon Trinity Church and her possessions—not on the ground that such is their legal right, but upon the consideration that it would be well, for economical and prudential reasons, to increase the number of corporators, surpasses anything I have yet heard of, in any official quarter in this country, in the spirit of bold agrarianism.

“Trinity Church is a religious corporation. She possesses a large estate devoted to pious uses. She is a Parish in which the work of the Christian ministry is carried on as in other Parishes, only on a much larger scale than in any other Parish in this country. She has four Church edifices instead of one, in which religious services are performed by nine ministers. The legal custody, care and management of all her property, and all her affairs, both temporal and spiritual, rest with certain legally constituted and elected officers: these are the Rector, two Wardens and twenty Vestrymen. The Wardens and Vestrymen are elected annually; they call and induct the Rector, and choose the assistant ministers. Up to the present time, the Parishioners of Trinity Church have elected the Wardens and Vestrymen, just as the Wardens and Vestrymen of every other Episcopal Church in the State are elected by its own Parishioners. The Parishioners of Trinity Church entitled to vote, are a little over three hundred. There are fifty other legally constituted Parishes in New York, and the Parishioners of all these entitled to vote for Parish Officers taken together, are probably not less than eight thousand. If these, or any number at all like it, are to be brought in to vote for the Parish Officers of Trinity Church, the consequence is apparent. The control and government of the Parish of Trinity will be taken out of the hands of the Parishioners of Trinity; the Parishioners of other Churches will elect her officers; the government of Trinity Church, the property, the sacred edifices and the ministered Trinity Church, will all be in the hands and under the control of officers whose constituency will be, not the Parishioners of Trinity, but the Parishioners of other Churches. The outside constituency thus proposed to be brought in is a constituency antagonist to that of Trinity Church. It is so designed. Its object is to take possession and control of the property of Trinity Church, and this is to be done by taking possession of the government of the corporation, involving of necessity the control, direction and management of all her affairs, internal and external, religious and charitable, spiritual and temporal.”

The policy of endowing Churches with land, as prevalent before 1814, is contrasted with the policy of making gifts in money, pursued since that time, by Mr. G. M. OGDEN, one of the Vestry, in these terms:

“Prior to 1814, there were grants of 318 lots, by means of which were endowed three charitable and educational institutions—Columbia College, City School, and the Society for promoting religion and learning; three undowered Churches—St. Mark's, Grace, and St. George's; and twelve other Churches to which were given lots of land in much smaller proportion than to the three Churches last named,—thus making eighteen Churches and institutions benefited by the gift of 318 lots.

"One thousand and fifty-nine lots have been sold by Trinity Church, and out of the proceeds derived from the sale, she has given away, for the benefit of other Churches and institutions, $1,287,392.75. Suppose these lots had been given for endowments—if these were as liberal as those made before 1814, the 1059 lots would have served to endow, at the most, forty-four Churches and institutions, and indeed it may be doubted, whether they would have sufficed for that purpose; for the three Churches above mentioned to have been simply endowed, were not only given land, but were built by Trinity Church, and the twelve other Churches were only assisted, by the lots granted, to a very limited extent. If, on the other hand, lots to the value of $50,000, a small allowance for an endowment, had been given to so many Churches as the last mentioned sum would have sufficed for the endowment of, on Mr. Bradish's principle, not more than twenty-five Churches could have been made independent through these 1059 lots.

"But what has Trinity Church accomplished by the sale of these lots, and by granting to other Churches and institutions the moneys received from the sale? By this policy, deemed so unwise, St. George's, Grace and St. Mark's Churches have been built; more than two hundred other Churches have been aided, upwards of one hundred and fifty of them in the country; Hobart Free College, at Geneva, has received an endowment of $3,000 a year, on the condition that it shall be free to all; the Theological Seminary and Missionary Boards have been assisted; an Episcopal residence has been purchased; infirm clergymen and families of deceased clergymen have received annuities and other assistance: and these are only some of the results of the change of policy which has been complained of.

"The object of this change of policy is manifest. It was to distribute the fund, to be derived from the gradual disposition of the real estate, amongst many Churches and institutions, doing for each only what it could not do for itself, and looking to the probable beneficial results in each case, rather than to make a few favorites rich and independent; to encourage individual effort by timely and judicious aid in every quarter, in city and country. If the other policy had been followed, the property would have been distributed long ago, without provision for the future, and Churches coming into existence afterwards could have had no help."

The great and good work in which Trinity Church is now earnestly engaged, is thus developed by the Hon. JOHN A. DIX, in whose suggestions to the Vestry, it is understood to have originated:

"It is well known that the greater part of the city below Chambers street, is devoted to purposes of business, and that private dwellings have given place to stores and warehouses. The wealthy portion of the population has gone to the upper districts, and most of the Churches of all denominations have followed them. The North Dutch, which is still engaged in useful spiritual labors in the neighborhood of St. Paul's, the Methodist Church in John street, unhappily rent by internal strife, and St. Peter's, a Roman Catholic Church in Barclay street, still maintain their ground. With these exceptions, Trinity Church, St. Paul's, and the Church in Beekman street, formerly St. George's, purchased and now entirely supported by Trinity, stand alone in this great deserted field of labor. The same process is going on above Chambers street, and in a few years, there will, in all probability, be no Churches below Canal street, but one of Trinity Parish. Notwithstanding this exodus of wealth, a vast population, the inhabitants, in great part, of alleys, garrets, and cellars, estimated to exceed one hundred and twenty thousand souls, occupy the field it has abandoned; and if Trinity Church had followed the same instincts, which have drawn off the other religious societies of the city to its more attractive districts, if she also had abandoned to their fate the poor and necessitous, whom wealth and fashion have bequeathed to her, the lower part of the city would have presented an example of religious destitution, unparalleled in the history of Christian civilization.

"The design of the Vestry of Trinity Church in this movement was to rescue the lower part of the city—that portion which has not only an immense body of resident poor, but which receives into its bosom the greater part of the destitute who seek a refuge here from hardship in other countries—to rescue this combined mass of permanent and temporary indigence from the utter spiritual abandonment with which it was threatened by the removal of those, to whose wealth and liberality it had been accustomed to look for sympathy and pecuniary aid, to more congenial districts. The plan comprehended not only the spiritual instruction of the adult inhabitants of this deserted district—once the seat of nearly all the wealth of the city—but the education of their children, and, to the extent of the means of the corporation, a ministrations to their temporal wants. Trinity Church, with its endowments, fortunately growing more valuable with the progress of the city, was to stand in the place of the individual opulence, which has fled from a district where its tastes could no longer find suitable fields for indulgence, and established itself in others, where it has rivalled Genoa in its streets of palaces, and where in all its appointments and manifestations of in-door and out-door life, there is a concentration of refinement, luxury and splendor unequalled, excepting by a few of the great capitals of Europe.

"It seemed to me to have been among the designs of Providence, that Trinity Church should have been planted in this great district, ready, with her ample endowments, to make provision, when the emergency should arrive, for those whom individual wealth has left upon her own hands. I hold this to be the great mission of Trinity Church; and I have pressed on the Vestry, on all proper occasions, the duty of preparing for it, and of commencing the work with the utmost diligence. Though the plan has not been formally adopted, it has been practically acted on; and it is due to my associates in the Vestry to say, that they have responded to all appeals in behalf of the destitute districts below Canal street, by as liberal an expenditure as the income of the corporation, crippled by a heavy debt and burdend by large annual contributions to other Churches, has admitted. The Clerical force of the Parish has been nearly doubled; the Sunday Schools have been greatly enlarged; Parish Schools for the gratuitous education of children have been established; by far the greater part of the pews in Trinity Church, one hundred and four out of one hundred and forty-four in St. Paul's, and a large number in St. John's, are free; efforts have been put forth to bring into the Church those who have not been accustomed to attend any religious worship; Trinity Church is opened twice a day throughout the year for divine service; a mission office has been established to receive applications for aid; lay visitors are employed to seek out want and relieve it; missionary agencies have been instituted in connection with the Commissioners of Emigration; the whole lower part of the city has been virtually made a field of missionary labor; and a degree of energy has been infused into the ministrations of the Church, temporal and spiritual, which compensates in a great degree for the lost support of the religious societies removed to other districts. In the midst of all this earnest effort, with five of her Clergy residing within this neglected field of labor, conversant with little else than its destitution, and devoting themselves to the relief of its wants, Trinity Church finds herself assailed as faithless to her trust by those, for the most part, whose lives are passed amid the social amenities of the upper districts and in an atmosphere redolent with indulgence and luxurious ease".

Of the aid extended by Trinity Church to feeble Churches and Educational objects in Western New York, BISHOP DE LANCEY testified as follows :

"Q. Has Trinity Church, New-York, aided any of the churches in your diocese! A. Yes, I learn from the publications of the rector of Trinity Church that she has aided altogether, since 1807, in Western New York, about 77 churches, being 6 before the year 1814, and 71 churches since that year. Some were aided twice. Of those 71 aided since 1814, about twenty have been aided since I became bishop."

"Q. Has Trinity Church made any grants for educational purposes in your diocese! A. Yes, a most important and liberal one to the value of $50,000, to Geneva college in 1851. The grant was made when Geneva college was in a disastrous and critical condition, occasioned by the State withdrawing unexpectedly, under the two year provision of the new constitution of 1846, in regard to appropriations, her annual grant of $6,000 to the college, leaving nearly $3,000 unpaid, (and still unpaid)* a debt upon the college trustees, who were without means to pay the professors, all of whom but the president sought other posts, and the students diminished in number from eighty (the highest number under the State grant) to thirty-seven. When the prospect of private endowment to maintain new professors was dim and gloomy, and the very continuance of the college, dubious, in this emergency Trinity Church was asked to endow the college, which she did in 1851, by a grant of $50,000, the interest at six per cent. to be paid annually until the principal is paid on the termination of the Astor lease, as I understand, on the condition that the college be made in its literary department a free college forever, to all students that come to it, and that it take the name of Hobart Free College, by act of the Legislature. Since which time the faculty have been sustained, and the students have increased from thirty-seven to ninety-six, a larger number than it ever had under the State grant. And $22,000 additional endowment, viz: a professorship of $15,000, a fellowship of $5,000, and two scholarships of $1,000 each, and several benefactions have been received from private sources, not one of which endowments, I am convinced, would have been made without this grant from Trinity Church.

The Charter of Trinity Church was granted in 1693, but owing to political and sectarian opposition, it was not carried into effect until 1697, when it went into operation, and the following persons constituted the first Wardens and Vestrymen:

Wardens.—William Wenham, Col. Robert Lurting.

Vestrymen.—Col. Caleb Heathcote, William Merret, John Tudor, James Emott, William Morris, Thomas Clarke, Ebenezer Wilson, Samuel Burt, James Evets, Nathaniel Marston, Michael Howden, John Crooke, William Sharpas, Lawrence Read, David Jamison, William Huddleston, Gabriel Ludlow, Thomas Burroughs, William Janeway, John Merret.

The list of names of those who have since served the Church in the office of Wardens and Vestrymen comprises six Mayors, seven Recorders, nine Aldermen of the city; three Chief Justices of the State, five Judges of the Supreme Court, three Secretaries of State, three Attorney Generals, six Members of Congress, two Governors of the State, several distinguished officers of the Army, sundry eminent Lawyers, Physicians and Merchants, and many prominent men in other lines of life.

The affairs of Trinity Church have been in the hands of such gentlemen as these for a period of one hundred and sixty years, amid every kind of fluctuation—political, civil and religious—and they, and their descendants, may safely challenge the City, the State, and the whole land, and the entire body of the Church in this country, to present to our view a wiser, safer, more judicious, more useful, and more unsullied management of a religious corporation of similar magnitude and relations.

*The Legislature has since voted this sum to the college.

The Clergy of Trinity Church have not been pampered with extravagant salaries.

The Wardens and Vestrymen have not enriched themselves by the management of her property.

There has been no unrighteous speculations in the use of her means.

There has been no application of her property to objects alien to her Charter or her character.

No political intrigues or schemings, whether in the State or Nation, have ever been essayed by her means.

No Court of law and no Legislature has ever sanctioned any of the alleged claims to her property or her franchises when they were brought to the calm, cold test of law, truth and fact.

Whatever good others claim they would have done with her property, she can look upon the magnificent Churches, with which her wealth has adorned the city; the large congregations sustained by property whose origin came from her hands; the two Colleges endowed by her munificence; the youth she has aided in their education for the Ministry; the many Churches throughout the State that would not have existed without her timely gifts; the fifty Churches in the city more or less aided by her, and the two Dioceses, adorned by two hundred Churches, who have, untrammelled, tasted of her munificence; and she may, in self-defense, and without boasting, proclaim:

These are witnesses that, not for myself, but in the name of God, for his Church, and for the moral, spiritual and eternal good of man, I have endeavored, honestly, faithfully and usefully, to employ the means committed to my charge.

I am, myself, under no personal obligations to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Trinity Church, for honor, office or emolument. I once served, when a Deacon, for three months, as a temporary assistant in the Parish. My own official applications, as Bishop, for aid to feeble Parishes, in my Diocese, have not always met with success.

My great-grandfather, Colonel Caleb Heathcote, heads the list of the first Vestry of Trinity Church, in 1697. My grandfather, Lieutenant Governor De Lancey, lies interred beneath her walls. My father, and other relatives, have been the friends and supporters of the corporation. I put on record the declaration, that I have seen and heard nothing to destroy my confidence in the purity, integrity, fidelity and wisdom of the management of her estate, enlarged not by the wit or contrivance of man, but by the Providence of God, pre-eminently blessing the Government, State, and city to which she belongs.

I have made this compilation of facts and views, that the case of Trinity Church corporation, might be understood in Western New York and elsewhere. When this Church asks the shelter of law, justice and truth against aggression, a fair statement of her means, and a just and righteous judgment on her proceedings, responsibilities, gifts and labors, I am constrained to say, in view of her past history, present means and opening opportunities of usefulness, that I adopt not the language of distrust, denunciation or assault, but the cordial prayer of the Psalmist,—“Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces; for my brethren and companions’ sake I will wish thee prosperity; yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.”

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,

Bishop of Western New York.

NOTES.

1. Several changes have occurred in the list of Missionaries since the Convention.

2. This list of Stations and Missionaries is for the year beginning October 1st, 1857, and ending October 1st, 1858, if the monthly collections supply the funds to meet the payments; otherwise, to terminate at the end of any quarter.

3. For the quarterly stipends, as they shall become due, the Missionaries will draw on WILLIAM V. I. MERCKE, Esq., Waterloo, Seneca county, W. N. Y., and be very particular in following the form of draft given below.

4. No Drafts are paid in advance.

5. No Drafts are payable except for services actually rendered on the station.

6. The Missionary Parishes are considered as peculiarly under obligation to make and forward the monthly collections regularly.

7. FORM OF A DRAFT ON THE TREASURER.

APPENDIX.

No. VI.

ORGANIZATION OF A NEW CONGREGATION.

Instructions and forms for the organization of an Episcopal congregation in the Diocese of Western New York will be found in the Appendix to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Western New York. The following detail of proceedings drawn up from those instructions may be of service:

PRELIMINARY.

1. Let services be held by a clergyman of the Church, at the place, to form a congregation in which divine service shall be celebrated according to the rites of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Such congregation, not already incorporated, may at any time thereafter meet to incorporate.

2. Let application be made to the Bishop for a certificate of his approval of the proposed incorporation, and let this certificate be preserved on file.

3. Let a written notice be given on the two Sundays next preceding the meeting, at the morning service, a minister officiating, after the Gospel is read, that the persons belonging to the congregation will meet at a time and place specified for the purpose of incorporating themselves, choosing Wardens and Vestrymen, adopting a name for the Church, and fixing the day of future elections.

4. Let the persons who thus meet to incorporate be males of twenty-one years of age, and actually belonging to the congregation at the time; it matters not how long they may have belonged to it.

5. Let the written notice be given by the Rector, or if there be no Rector, by some one belonging to the congregation, and let an affidavit of such notice having been given be indorsed on it and signed by the person giving it, and let the paper be preserved and put on file.

AT THE MEETING.

6. Let the Rector, if there be one, preside. If not, let one belonging to the congregation preside.

7. Let a Secretary be appointed, and provided with a book of minutes to record the proceedings.

8. Let the Secretary enter in this book the names of persons attending and qualified to vote.

9. Let the meeting then choose by ballot, or viva voce, on open nomination, two Wardens and eight Vestrymen, neither more nor less. Let two of the meeting unite with the Chairman and Secretary in counting the votes.

10. Let the names of the persons elected Wardens and Vestrymen be entered on the book of minutes.

11. Let the meeting then determine on what day in Easter week the annual election of Wardens and Vestrymen shall be held, and the day be entered on the minutes.

12. Let the meeting then determine on the name by which the Church shall be called, and let it be entered on the book of minutes.

13. Let the book of minutes of the proceedings be signed by the presiding officer, and by the Secretary and the two persons who aided in counting the vote.

14. Let this book of minutes be preserved as the book of minutes to be used for the proceedings of the Vestry.

15. Let a certificate of incorporation, according to the form given, be then made out, signed, and sealed,

1st. By the presiding officer;

2d. By the two persons who counted the votes with the presiding officer and Secretary.

Let it be witnessed by the Secretary and by two others of the congregation as subscribing witnesses.

16. Let this certificate be proved by one of the subscribing witnesses before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments or proof of conveyances of real estate and in the same manner, or it must be acknowledged by all the persons who signed it before one of those officers.

17. Let the certificate thus executed and proved, or acknowledged, be presented to the County Clerk, and recorded by him, from which recording the corporation dates its existence.

18. Let a certified copy, under the seal of the County Clerk, of the certificate of incorporation, or the original certificate indorsed by the Clerk as recorded, be presented to the Bishop for his certificate of approval to be indorsed on it.

19. Let it then be presented to the Diocesan Convention, at its next meeting, that the Church may be admitted into union with the same.

20. Let all the papers connected with the organization and incorporation of the new Church be carefully preserved, and brought by the Lay delegates to the Convention to be laid before the Standing Committee on the Admission of new Churches, who after such use of them as may be necessary will return them to the parties to be put on file by the Vestry.

ERRATA.

In the List of Missionary Appointments, page 150, the name of the Missionary in Guilford and Bainbridge, Chenango county, is W. A. Johnson, instead of M. A. Johnson.

Same page, in Missionary Station of Homer and Cortlandville, for R. Gallagher, read P. Gallagher.

Page 151, in Missionary Station of Whitestown and Oriskany, Oneida county read Jacob S. Shipman, instead of James S. Shipman.

Rochester, August 4. 1858.

and Dear Sir:

I shall be happy to entertain you at my residence during the Session of the Diocesan Convention. You will kindly send me with an answer at your earliest convenience, stating whether you can accept this invitation, and when we may have pleasure of expecting your arrival.

Very Respectfully and Truly Yours,

Geo. Arnold

Rev. H. T. B. Coates

At a meeting of the Standing Committee of Diocese of Western New York, held at Geneva, Sept. 3, 1858, the following resolution was passed :—

WHEREAS, The late Convention of the Diocese adopted a resolution as follows :

“RESOLVED, That if agreeable to the Bishop of the Diocese, he be requested to take a vacation of three months, for a visit to Europe, or elsewhere, as he may prefer ; and that fifteen hundred dollars be appropriated to defray his expenses, to be raised by assessment on the several parishes of the Diocese, in the ratio of twenty-five cents for each communicant.” And

WHEREAS, The Convention adjourned without appointing any time or manner in which this sum shall be raised ; therefore,

RESOLVED, That the Standing Committee recommmend to the several parishes of the Diocese, that collections for this purpose be made on the 3d Sunday in September, and immediately transmitted to the Treasurer of the Diocese, subject to the order of the Bishop.

The certificate from Trinity Church, Lowville, being wanting, on motion, the Deputy from the said parish was admitted by courtesy; whereupon, John Conover answered to his name and took his seat.

A larger number both of the Clergy and of the Lay Deputies, than the Canons require to constitute a quorum, being present,

The House then proceeded to the election of a Secretary, when, on motion, the election by ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. William A. Matson was chosen.

The Chair announced to the House that the Secretary had appointed the Rev. Charles W. Hayes his Assistant.

On motion, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted to regulate the proceedings of the present Convention, as follows, viz :

RULES OF ORDER:

IN CONDUCTING THE BUSINESS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WESTERN NEW YORK.

I. After the Convention has passed upon the irregular and defective certificates, if any, reported by the Committee under section 5th of Canon II, the next business in order shall be the election of a Secretary in conformity with the Canon.

II. The following Standing Committees shall then be appointed by the President :

1. On the Admission into Union with this Convention of Churches applying for the same, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.
2. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, to consist of three Laymen.
3. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, to consist of three Laymen.
4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the Fund, to consist of three Laymen.
5. On Unfinished Business, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

III. Immediately upon the appointment of the Standing Committees, any matter properly referable to the aforesaid Committees, may then be presented for reference.

IV. Motions, notices, and resolutions shall then be in order.

V. A Treasurer of the Convention, and a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen shall then be appointed by ballot, unless dispensed with by a unanimous vote; when they may be appointed on motion.

VI. On the second, and every succeeding day during the sitting of the Convention, after the Daily Morning Prayer, the order of business, which shall not be departed from without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, shall be as follows :

i. The reading, correcting, and approving of the minutes of the preceding day.

ii. Calling the names of the absent members, and entering in the Journal those who appear.

iii. Reports from Standing Committees in the following order :

1. On the Admission into Union with the Convention of this Diocese, of Churches applying for that purpose.

2. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.

3. On the Treasurer's Accounts.

4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the fund.

5. On Unfinished Business.

iv. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer, when these officers have any business committed to them, shall then be in order: and then Reports from the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and from the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.

v. Reports from the Special Committees in the order in which they were appointed.

vi. Unfinished Business shall then be in order.

vii. Motions, resolutions, and miscellaneous business.

VII. The Bishop's Address shall be in order at any time.

VIII. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair, shall vote thereon unless excused by the House.

IX. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded ; and, when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before debate ; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, when required by the President, or any member.

X. If the question in debate contain several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

XI. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to lay it on the table ; to postpone it indefinitely ; to postpone it to a certain time ; to commit it, or amend it ; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate ; and if it be negatived it shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

XII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIII. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it ; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and the churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journals.

XIV. Any five votes may require the ayes and noes to be taken by orders ; and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XVI. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision ; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XVII. All special committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House ; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XVIII. The election of the Standing Committee, and of Deputies to the General Convention, and the election of any person to supply a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, or in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, shall be the order of the day for 12 o'clock, on the second day of every annual meeting of the Convention.

XIX. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect; unless by the votes of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XX. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected, and approved.

XXI. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon; and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock, P. M.

On motion,

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention; Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, not belonging to this Diocese; Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, be admitted to sittings in this Convention.

Resolved, That Clergymen of the United Church of England and Ireland in Great Britain and its Colonies who may be present, be admitted to sittings in this Convention.

The President having announced this invitation, the following gentlemen took their seats, viz :

The Chair then announced the following Standing Committees :

the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention :

Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D., Messrs. F. W. Hubbard and Washington Hunt.

the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen :

Messrs. Alfred Ely, William Buell and Isaac A. Verplanck.

the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention :

Messrs. Geo. W. Cuyler, Wm. B. Douglas and Fletcher Williams.

the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate :

Messrs. Trumbull Cary, Henry W. Rogers and G. R. Perkins.

Unfinished Business :

Rev. W. B. Ashley, Messrs. H. C. Van Shaack and William Van Wagenen.

The following Churches applied for admission into union with this convention, viz :

St. Michael's Church, Oakfield, Genesee county ; Church of the Epiphany, Niagara City, Niagara county.

On motion, the application was referred to the Standing Committee the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention.

The President then called for Reports from the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, the Education and Missionary Board, the Treasurer of the Convention, and the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, which having been laid on the table, were severally referred, on motion, to the respective Standing Committees.

The House then proceeded to the election of a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, and a Treasurer of the Convention. A vote by ballot being, in both cases, dispensed with,

DAVID S. HALL, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen ; and

WILLIAM V. I. MERCER, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Convention.

The Bishop then, in compliance with the Canon, delivered the following

ADDRESS.

MY BRETHREN—The Clergy and Laity of the Convention:

The Canons of the Church require me to lay before you, a detailed account of my official proceedings during the Conventional year just past.

I proceed to fulfill the duty:

My labors for the year commenced on the day on which the Convention adjourned.

In the evening of that day, August 20th, I held a confirmation in the Church of the Evangelists at Oswego, where I confirmed thirteen persons, including two belonging to Christ Church in that city.

On Friday evening, the 21st, I preached in Christ Church, Sacketts Harbor, and confirmed twenty-two persons.

On the evening of the 23d, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 25th, I held an ordination in St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, where, after confirming eight persons, I admitted Mr. Addis Emmett Bishop to the order of Deacons, and administered the holy communion. The sermon was preached by the Rev. John M. Guion, of Seneca Falls.

On the 25th, I received the Rev. Peyton Gallagher into this Diocese from North Carolina. He has labored as Missionary at Homer and Cortlandville, Cortland county.

On the 27th, I received the Rev. Louis S. Noble into this Diocese from the Diocese of New York. He is Rector of Trinity Church, Fredonia.

On the 30th, I visited, in the morning, St. James' Church, Skaneateles, preached and confirmed five persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. John's Church, Marcellus.

On September 1st, I transferred Rev. James W. Bradin and the Rev. Josiah M. Hedges to the Diocese of New York.

On the 6th, I preached in St. Mark's Church, Penn Yan, confirmed three persons, and administered the holy communion.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in the Universalist House of worship, at Branchport.

On the 8th, I preached in Christ Church, Jordan, and confirmed eight persons.

On Sunday, the 13th, I preached, morning and evening, in St. John's Church, Thorold, Canada West, and also again on Monday morning, the 14th, being a season to commemorate the opening of the new Church in the preceding year. I enjoyed the hospitality of the Rector, the Rev. Dr. Fuller, and met many friends.

On the 17th, I attended at Trinity Church, Utica, the funeral of the Rev. Pierre Alexis Proal, D. D., took part in the services, and preached on the occasion. The character, talents, and services of this deceased brother, had given him a most prominent position in this Diocese, which he had served faithfully and usefully as the Secretary of its Convention, and its wise and able representative in the General Convention, and in the general institutions of the Church. I deplore his death as that of a loving brother, and a faithful friend. But our loss on earth is his gain in glory.

I met with the Standing Committee as the Education and Missionary Board, on the 18th, at Geneva.

On the 20th, I read Prayers in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 21st, I received into this Diocese, from New York, the Rev. William Allen Johnson, Deacon, who, as Missionary, is in charge of St. Peter's Church, Bainbridge, and Christ Church, Guilford.

On the 23d, I held an ordination at St. Peter's Church, Auburn, when I admitted Messrs. William O. Gorham, Aaron Reed Van Antwerp, and Jacob Shaw Shipman, to the order of Deacons, and administered the holy communion. The Rev. Malcolm Douglas preached the sermon.

On the morning of the 24th, I preached in St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, and confirmed one aged person.

On Sunday, the 27th, I preached in the morning in St. Clements, Weathersfield Springs.

And in the evening, I preached in Trinity Church, Warsaw, and confirmed six persons.

I preached in St. Luke's Church, Jamestown, in the morning of the 29th, and confirmed one person.

On the 30th, in the morning, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Mayville, and confirmed six persons.

And in the afternoon, in St. Peter's Church, Westfield, I preached and confirmed three persons.

On the 1st of October, in the morning, I preached in Trinity Church, Fredonia, and confirmed eight persons.

And in the afternoon, in St. John's Church, Dunkirk, I preached and confirmed four persons.

I preached in the Methodist Chapel at Forestville, on the 2d, in the morning, and confirmed three persons, but a storm prevented my reaching Irving in time for my appointment, which was omitted.

On Sunday morning, the 4th, I preached in St. John's Church, Buffalo, confirmed twenty-six persons, (including one in private on the 6th,) and administered the holy communion.

In the afternoon, I confirmed twenty-six persons in St. James' Church, and delivered an address.

In the evening, I preached in Trinity Church, and confirmed thirty-two persons.

I preached in the Church of the Ascension, in the afternoon of the 5th, and confirmed twelve persons.

I preached in the Church Room for St. Luke's Church, in the morning of the 6th, and confirmed three persons.

And in the afternoon, I preached in the Church Room of Grace Church, Black Rock, and confirmed six persons.

I attended a meeting of the Trustees of De Veaux College, on the 7th, when six new pupils were admitted, making the whole number thirty-two.

On the 9th, I received into this Diocese the Rev. David H. Macurdy.

who, as Rector, takes charge of St. Paul's Church, Oxford, on the consecration of the new church edifice on the 14th.

On Sunday morning, the 11th, I preached and confirmed fifteen persons in Christ Church, Binghamton.

In the evening of the same day, I preached in Zion Church, Greene, and confirmed seventeen persons.

On the 14th, in the presence of fifteen clergymen and a very large congregation, I consecrated the new and beautiful Church edifice at Oxford, by the name of St. Paul's Church, preached, and confirmed ten persons, (including four from St. Peter's Church, Bainbridge,) and administered the holy communion.

I preached and confirmed seven persons in St. Andrew's Church, New Berlin, on the morning of the 15th.

On the 16th, in the morning, I preached in St. John's Church, Clayville, and confirmed two persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Paris Hill, and confirmed three persons.

In Grace Church, Waterville, in the morning of the 17th, I preached and confirmed twelve persons, including one in private.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. Stephen's Church, New Hartford, and confirmed ten persons. Handsome painted windows, and an increase of the library, mark the improvement of this Church.

In Trinity Church, Utica, on the morning of Sunday the 18th, I preached and confirmed four persons.

In the afternoon, in Grace Church, I preached and confirmed eleven persons.

On the morning of the 19th, I preached in St. John's Church, Whitestown, and confirmed one person.

And in the afternoon, in St. Peter's Church, Oriskany, I preached and confirmed two persons.

On the 21st, I received into this Diocese, the Rev. David E. Barr, from the Diocese of New York, he having been invited to the charge of Trinity Church, Syracuse.

On the 22d, I transferred the Rev. William M. Carmichael, D. D., to Georgia, and the Rev. Albert Wood to Minnesota.

On the 25th, I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On November 1st, I administered the holy communion in Trinity Church in the morning, and read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva, in the evening.

On the 3d, I confirmed in Trinity Church, Geneva, at a special confirmation, one person, Mr. J. H. Miller, of Jonesville, Michigan, on his way southward on account of ill health.

On the 4th, I transferred the Rev. Edward De Zeng, of this Diocese, but long resident, in ill health, in Connecticut, to the Diocese of New York.

On the 10th, I received into this Diocese the Rev. Theodore Babcock, from the Diocese of New York. He has accepted the rectorship of Trinity Church, Watertown, and entered on his duties in that Parish.

On the 16th, I addressed a brief Pastoral Letter* to the clergy and congregations, in relation to the several collections at Advent, Thanksgiving, Christmas and Epiphany, which is appended to this address.

*PASTORAL LETTER.

To the Clergy and Congregations of Western New York :

DEAR BRETHREN :—The claims of the several objects for which collections are made at this season of the year, are such as impel me to call your devout attention to them in a brief Pastoral Letter.

On Thanksgiving Day, the 26th day of November, will occur the donation to the clergy in their respective parishes; and for them, as a laborious and faithful body of ministers, I affectionately and earnestly solicit your sympathy, prayers and liberality.

On the second Sunday in December, which will be December 13th, the quarterly collection is to be made for our Diocesan Missionaries, numbering now about forty-eight clergymen, whose labors are essentially connected with the prosperity of the Diocese. We shall need about fifteen hundred dollars, as I understand, to meet our engagements to them on the 1st of January next. For this sum, the interest of the Permanent Missionary Fund will yield about three hundred dollars; and for the residue, twelve hundred dollars, we can only look to the munificence and zeal of the several congregations of the Diocese at this quarterly collection. We derive no aid from the general missionary fund of the Church; but, on the contrary, cheerfully and regularly contribute of our means to the general missions. We have had sixty missionaries in the field during the past year, nearly half as many as are employed in the Domestic field throughout the Church. We have never failed to pay our missionaries their quarterly stipends. I have never had to appeal to you to pay a debt to our missionaries. But, my brethren, the times, as you all know, are severe

On the 17th, I transferred to the Diocese of Ohio, the Rev. Thomas Fairchild, who had resigned the charge of St. Luke's Church, Rockport.

On the same day, I transferred the Rev. Daniel F. Warren to the Diocese of New York.

On the 22d, in the evening, I read prayers, and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 25th, I transferred the Rev. Robert W. Oliver to the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

and alarming; and I most earnestly beseech that all the congregations, strong or feeble, make the quarterly collection on that day, and that all the members of the respective flocks may meet this claim of their brethren, the ministers of God, with affectionate sympathy and open-hearted liberality. None of us are exempt from this duty. Let none withhold their gifts. In the present state of our Diocesan treasury, it is a most urgent call. We have recently met the extra call for our Domestic and Foreign Missionaries. Let us not shut our ears and hands to our brethren at home.

There will also occur on Christmas Day the usual Christmas Collection for our aged and disabled brethren, whose appeal, I feel assured, will meet with warm-hearted sympathy and ample gifts.

On the second Sunday in January will be made the Epiphany Collection, which in this Diocese is appropriated to the Domestic Missions of the Church—the July monthly collection being applicable to Foreign Missions.

In addition to these missionary claims on our liberality, we are not to forget the demands of that Charity to the poor, which the opening season of winter, and the peculiar circumstances of the times, so forcibly impress upon our minds. Poverty without work, poverty without fuel, poverty without food, poverty without clothing, poverty in tears, in gloom, in despair, in crime, is the sad object we must prepare to contemplate; and its relief according to our means, is the solemn obligation we are to meet. It is no time to retrench our gifts to God, and to our brethren. Let us all aim to keep up that side in our accounts with heaven. God has, in solemn admonition, swept from us thousands in lands, produce, merchandize and lands, that now we would rejoice to have laid up in that treasury where rust doth not corrupt, nor thieves enter, nor fluctuations and calamities disturb.

My brethren, what we have given to God in faith, sincerity and love, we still have, laid up with Him. It is an everlasting investment, subject to no fluctuation or decay. Through the infinite merits of Christ our Saviour, it will abide forever. Let us, then, enlarge our deposits there, by prompt, liberal, undiminished gifts. And while a self-sacrificing economy shall signalise us at home and abroad, in dress, food, furniture, and otherwise, let our hearts warm, and our hands open, to the cause of God, and to the wants and sufferings of the poor, who, by God's appointment, are our brethren, to share our sympathy, love and aid.

Affectionately and solemnly, I urge these touching duties on your thoughts and hearts, and fervently commend you all to the grace, guidance and blessing of God our Saviour.

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY,

Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York.

GENEVA, W. N. Y., November 16, 1857.

On the 27th, I preached in the afternoon in Christ Church, Pittsford, and confirmed eleven persons.

I preached, on the afternoon of the 28th, in the Presbyterian House of worship, at Charlotte, Monroe county, and confirmed five persons.

On Sunday morning, the 29th, I preached, and confirmed twenty-one persons, in St. Luke's Church, Rochester, and addressed the Sunday School.

In the afternoon of the same day, I briefly addressed the Sunday School of Grace Church, Rochester, and preached and confirmed twenty persons.

In the evening of that day, I confirmed twenty persons, (including one from St. Luke's Church,) in Trinity Church, Rochester, and delivered an address.

On Monday afternoon, the 30th, I preached in Christ Church, Rochester, publicly catechised the children, and confirmed sixteen persons, including one from Trinity Church.

On the 1st of December, I preached, in the morning, in St. Luke's Church, Brockport, and confirmed four persons. The Rector had recently resigned.

On the afternoon of the same day, I preached in Christ Church, Albion, and confirmed nine persons.

On the 2d, in St. John's Church, Medina, I preached in the morning and confirmed six persons.

And in the evening of the same day, I preached in Grace Church, Lockport, and confirmed eleven persons.

On the morning of the 3d, I preached in Christ Church, Lockport, then vacant.

I preached and confirmed four persons, in the afternoon of the same day, at St. Peter's Church, Niagara Falls.

I preached at the Suspension Bridge, in the Presbyterian House of worship, on the morning of the 4th, where the services were attended and enlivened by the Faculty and Pupils of the De Veaux College for orphans, who chanted the appropriate parts of the Liturgy.

In the afternoon, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Lewiston, and confirmed two persons.

On Sunday morning, the 6th, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Buffalo, and confirmed twenty-six persons, (including two from Trinity and one from St. John's Church,) and administered the holy communion.

In the evening, in St. James' Church, in the same city, I preached and confirmed twenty-one persons, being the second confirmation in that Parish.

On the 7th, I admitted Mr. Henry Willis Alexander, a candidate for Holy Orders.

On the 8th, I transferred the Rev. Andrew Oliver to the Diocese of Vermont.

On the 13th, I preached, in the evening, at St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 19th, I certified my approval of the organization of a Protestant Episcopal Congregation at Niagara City, Suspension Bridge, Niagara county.

On the 20th, I held an ordination in Trinity Church, Geneva, when Edward Randolph Welles and Jedediah Winslow, candidates, were admitted to the holy order of Deacons—the latter under the Canon of 1853. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Bissell. The former is Tutor in De Veaux College, and will act as Missionary at Lewiston and Suspension Bridge; and the latter having charge of a School at Camden, I have directed to serve the Church in that village.

In the evening, I read prayers at St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 25th, I administered the holy communion at Trinity Church, and addressed the Sunday Schools.

On Sunday, the 27th, I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 1st of January, I published a Prayer for the State authorities, and appointed that it may be used in the public services of the Church, among the occasional prayers. A copy of it is appended.*

On Sunday, January 3d, 1858, I preached, in the morning, in the Chapel of the Water Cure at Clifton, where I confirmed three persons and administered the holy communion—the prayers being read by the Rev. Dr. Metcalf, of Hobart College.

* See Appendix.

In the afternoon, in St. John's Church, Phelps, I preached and confirmed one person.

On the 7th, I received into this Diocese from Ohio, the Rev. Edward Kennedy, who has been for some time in charge of St. John's Church, Cape Vincent.

On the 9th, I received into this Diocese from Indiana, the Rev. John F. Ernst, who has taken charge of a School in Buffalo.

On the 10th, in the morning, I preached in Trinity Church, Geneva; and in the evening, I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel in the same village.

On the 17th, I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 19th, I attended a meeting of the Trustees of Hobart Free College, when the Rev. Benjamin Hale, D. D., on account of infirm health, tendered his resignation of the Presidency of the College, which he had held for more than twenty years. I place in a note* a copy of the resolutions, adopted unanimously by the Board on the occasion, in testimony of the persevering ability, fidelity, and success of his administration of the Institution.

On the invitation of my Rt. Reverend friend and brother, the Bishop of Michigan, I visited Detroit for the first time, and spent several days enjoying the cordial and cheering hospitality of his flock and friends, many of whom, clerical and lay, in times past, I had numbered among my own personal friends in Western New York and elsewhere. In

* HOBART FREE COLLEGE, GENEVA, JANUARY 19, 1858.

Resolved, That in accepting the resignation of the Reverend BENJAMIN HALE, D. D., on account of the infirm state of his health, the Board record on their minutes the unanimous expression of their regret at its necessity, and their warm and cordial recognition of the fidelity, ability, and self-devotion with which he has administered the College, of the sacrifices he has made in its behalf; of his persevering adherence to its interests and welfare in its darkest hours, of his success in elevating it to its present prosperity, and of the talent, suavity, zeal and usefulness that have characterized his Presidency in its bearing upon the interests of Education and the Church, and with their cordial thanks for his able and successful labors in the College, they tender their hearty wishes and prayers for his restoration, welfare and happiness, and cherish the hope still to enjoy the benefit of his counsels and co-operation as a member of the Board, in the future management of the institution which has been so highly favored by his services.

VIII. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair, shall vote thereon unless excused by the House.

IX. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded ; and, when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before debate ; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, when required by the President, or any member.

X. If the question in debate contain several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

XI. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to lay it on the table ; to postpone it indefinitely ; to postpone it to a certain time ; to commit it, or amend it ; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate ; and if it be negatived it shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

XII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIII. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it ; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and the churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journals.

XIV. Any five votes may require the ayes and noes to be taken by orders ; and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XVI. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision ; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XVII. All special committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House ; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XVIII. The election of the Standing Committee, and of Deputies to the General Convention, and the election of any person to supply a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, or in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund for

On the 7th March, I administered the holy communion in Trinity Church, Geneva.

On the 14th, I preached in St. Peter's Church, Albany.

On the 15th, I transferred the Rev. A. E. Bishop, Deacon, to the Diocese of New York.

On the 20th, I received into this Diocese the Rev. James W. Capen, from the Diocese of New York. He is in charge of Emmanuel Church, Norwich.

On the 21st, I preached in the morning in Trinity Church, Seneca Falls, and confirmed four persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, and confirmed seven persons.

On the 25th, I preached, morning and evening, in St. Peter's Church, Auburn, and confirmed at the latter some twenty-three persons, including one from St. James' Church, Skaneateles.

On the 30th, in the evening of Tuesday, in Passion week, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, and confirmed thirty-four persons, including one from Christ Church, Manlius.

On Wednesday evening, the 31st, I preached in St. James' Church, Syracuse, and confirmed thirteen persons.

On Thursday evening, April 1st, I preached in Trinity Church, Syracuse, and confirmed thirty-three persons.

They have only sought to maintain their existing missionary force. During the period of the moneyed depression, they have employed only seven new missionaries in the place of seven who had relinquished their stations for other fields in or out of the Diocese. Several stations are at this moment unsupplied. The amount needed on the first of April, is about fourteen hundred dollars. Thus far our Divine Master has vouchsafed the means to fulfill our engagements in His work. Let us not despair, however dark the hour may be. There is ability in the Diocese if every one who hears this appeal shall give something to meet the present demand. We opened our hands to the appeal of our Foreign and Domestic Brethren in an extra collection in December last. Let us not falter in our liberality, when our brethren at home apply to us for aid; but with sympathizing hearts and open hands, let us meet their calls, under the solemn convictions of duty, and with the knowledge that the eye of God is upon us in our alms as well as in our prayers. May His Holy Spirit open every heart, and shower his blessings on you all! The collection will be made on Sunday, the fourteenth of March.

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,

GENEVA, March 1st, 1858.

Bishop.

On the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention :

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen :

Messrs. Alfred Ely, William Buell and Isaac A. Verplanck.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention :

Messrs. Geo. W. Cuyler, Wm. B. Douglas and Fletcher Williams.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate :

Messrs. Trumbull Cary, Henry W. Rogers and G. R. Perkins.

On Unfinished Business :

Rev. W. B. Ashley, Messrs. H. C. Van Shaack and William Van Wagenen.

The following Churches applied for admission into union with this Convention, viz :

St. Michael's Church, Oakfield, Genesee county ; Church of the Epiphany, Niagara City, Niagara county.

On motion, the application was referred to the Standing Committee on the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention.

The President then called for Reports from the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, the Education and Missionary Board, the Treasurer of the Convention, and the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, which having been laid on the table, were severally referred, on motion, to the respective Standing Committees.

The House then proceeded to the election of a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, and a Treasurer of the Convention. A vote by ballot being, in both cases, dispensed with,

DAVID S. HALL, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen ; and

WILLIAM V. I. MERCER, Esq.,

was unanimously elected Treasurer of the Convention.

On Monday evening, the 3d, I preached and confirmed two persons in St. James' Church, Pulaski.

On the 4th, in the afternoon, I preached and confirmed fifteen persons in Zion Church, Pierrepont Manor.

And in the afternoon of the same day, in Grace Church, Lyons, I preached and confirmed fifteen persons.

On the 28th, in the morning, I preached in St. John's Church, Clyde, and confirmed twenty persons, including one from Grace Church, Lyons.

I held an ordination in Trinity Church, Geneva, on Trinity Sunday, the 30th, when the Rev. Messrs. Milton Brewster Benton and Stephen Green Hayward, Deacons, were ordained to the Priesthood, and the holy communion was administered. The Rev. Malcolm Douglas, of Waterloo, preached the sermon.

I preached in the evening at St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

I read prayers in Trinity Church, Geneva, on Saturday, May 29th, Tuesday, June 1st, and Wednesday, June 2d.

On the 30th May, I received into this Diocese the Rev. Francis Granger from Ohio. He has been appointed Missionary at Westfield and Mayville, Chautauque county.

On June 1st, I gave my canonical consent to the organization of St. Michael's Church at Caryville, in the town of Oakfield, Genesee county.

On the 3d, I preached and confirmed four persons, at the Chapel of the Clifton Springs Water Cure, one being from Detroit, one from Philadelphia, and two from Grace Church, Waterville.

On the 5th, I preached, in the evening, at St. Paul's Church, Aurora, Cayuga county.

On the 6th, in the same Church, I preached in the morning, confirmed ten persons, and administered the holy communion; and again in the evening, I preached and confirmed two persons, making twelve in all for this Parish.

I preached in St. Mark's Church, Candor, in the afternoon of the 8th, and confirmed three persons.

In St. John's Church, Speedsville, in the morning of the 9th, I baptized two adults and two infants, preached and confirmed two persons.

In the evening of the same day, in St. Paul's Church, Owego, I

I preached in Trinity Church, Geneva, on the morning of Sunday, the 20th, and in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening.

I preached in Trinity Church, Utica, in the evening of the 21st, and confirmed twenty-nine persons.

On the 21st, I admitted Robert Dobyns and Ammi Merchant Lewis, candidates for Holy Orders.

On the 23d, I attended the meeting of the Church Book Society, and of the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, in the city of New York.

The latter body declined, on legal and moral grounds, most ably and convincingly presented in a Report by Gulian C. Verplanck, Esq., to concur in either of the propositions of the last General Convention, to allow of a vote in the Board by proxy, and of a meeting of the Corporation out of the State of New York.

I attended also the Commencement of the Seminary, on the 24th, when eleven candidates for Orders, one from this Diocese, received their Diplomas, or Testimonials.

On the 27th, I administered the holy rite of confirmation to three of the students of Hobart Free College, in the Chapel of the same, the sermon being preached by the Rev. Dr. Jackson, the President of the College.

In the evening, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 29th, at an extra confirmation, held in Trinity Church, Geneva, I confirmed one person, belonging to St. Paul's Church, Havana.

On the 30th, I admitted as candidates for Holy Orders, Lorenzo David Ferguson, (formerly a Methodist Minister,) William Cornelius Lane and William Henry Van Antwerp.

On July 1st, I attended the Commencement of Hobart Free College, under its new President, on which occasion eighteen students were graduated; and the talent, aptitude and acceptableness of the new incumbent of this important post were evinced to the general satisfaction of the friends of the College.

In connection with the College, I might state that, in the winter, I brought before the Board of Regents and the Legislature, a plan of Public Examination,* at Albany, of Students from the same classes of the several Colleges in the State.

A bill was reported, late in the Session, but failed to pass on grounds disconnected with the merits of the project.

I am so convinced of the need and efficiency of the plan proposed, with a view to the advancement of education by testing and stimulating its progress, that I shall renew the application, to receive, I trust, the support of all the Colleges, the approval of the Regents, and adoption by the Legislature.

On July 4th, in the morning, I preached, confirmed fifteen persons, and administered the holy communion, in St. John's Church, Canan-aigua.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached and confirmed two persons in Zion Church, East Bloomfield, in which Church, in the morning of the 5th, I baptized the infant son of the Rector.

In the afternoon of the 5th, I preached in St. Paul's Church, Richmond, and confirmed nine persons, including one previously confirmed in private.

In Zion Church, Avon, in the afternoon of the 6th, I preached and confirmed six persons.

On the 7th, in the afternoon, I preached and confirmed ten persons in St. Michael's Church, Geneseo.

In St. John's Church, Mount Morris, I preached in the afternoon of the 8th, and confirmed nine persons.

I held an ordination on Friday morning, the 9th, in St. Peter's Church, Dansville, and admitted the Rev. Thomas Goldsborough Leachem, Deacon, to the order of Priests, and administered the holy communion. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Franklin, of Mount Morris.

In the afternoon of the same day, in the same Church, I preached and confirmed eleven persons.

On Saturday, the 10th, in the afternoon, I preached and confirmed two persons in Trinity Church, Howard.

* See Appendix.

Sunday morning, the 11th, I officiated in St. Thomas' Church, Bath, when I preached and confirmed seventeen persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. James' Church, Hammondsport, and confirmed nine persons, two of whom were of St. Thomas' Church, Bath.

I preached in the Church Room at Bradford, for St. Andrew's Church, in the afternoon of the 12th, and confirmed one person.

In St. Mark's Church, Penn Yan, on the 13th, in the afternoon, I preached and confirmed sixteen persons.

And I preached, in the evening, in the Universalist House of worship at Branchport.

I preached in the Methodist Chapel, Watkins, in the afternoon of the 15th.

And in the evening of the same day, I preached and confirmed seventeen persons, in St. Paul's Church, Havana.

In the morning of the 16th, I preached in the Methodist Chapel at Horseheads.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. John's Church, Catharine, and confirmed two persons.

On Sunday morning, the 18th, I visited Trinity Church, Elmira, where services were held in the new and beautiful Church edifice recently completed. I preached and confirmed fourteen persons.

In the afternoon, I preached again and baptized the infant son of the Rector, and another child.

On the 23d, I preached and confirmed thirteen persons in Grace Church, Waterville.

On Sunday morning, the 25th, I preached in St. Mark's Church, Le Roy, and confirmed nineteen persons.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached in St. John's Church, Stafford, and confirmed fourteen persons, including one sick person confirmed in private.

In the morning of the 26th, I officiated for St. Michael's Church, at the Chapel of the Caryville Collegiate Seminary, and preached and confirmed thirteen persons. The buildings of the Institution have been beautified both within and without. During the past year, the average number of pupils have been about 100, and the next year will probably witness a great increase of its number. It is eminently entitled to the approval and patronage of the Diocese, and the countenance and visits of the neighboring Clergy and Laity.

I proceeded from Caryville to Rochester the same day, and in the evening of the 26th, I preached in Christ Church, and confirmed twelve persons.

On the morning of the 27th, I visited Christ Church, Pittsford, where I preached and confirmed four persons.

And in the evening of the same day, in St. Luke's Church, Rochester, I preached and confirmed nine persons.

This service closed my visitation of the Diocese for the Conventional year.

On the 30th, I attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Martha C. Bissell, at Trinity Church, Geneva, and officiated in the services at the grave.

And I read prayers in the same Church on the 31st.

On Sunday morning, August 1st, I preached and administered the holy communion in Trinity Church, Geneva,

And, in the evening, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, in that village.

On the 8th, in the evening, I preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

And also on the 15th, in the same place.

This day I have administered the holy communion in your presence, and thus terminated my official duties for the year.

Since the last Convention, I have officiated in the Diocese in 121 organized Parishes, and in 9 places where the Church is not organized.

I have held confirmations in 106 Churches—in 14 twice and in 1 thrice.

I have officiated out of the Diocese 9 times, viz: in Canada 3 times, in Detroit 3 times, in Albany twice, and in New York once.

I have baptized 10 infants and 2 adults, total 12.

I have officiated at 2 funerals.

I have administered the holy communion 20 times.

I have admitted 11 new candidates for Holy Orders.

Ordained 6 Deacons and 3 Priests.

Consecrated 1 new Church.

Received into the Diocese 18 Clergymen.

Transferred to other Dioceses 12 Clergymen.

Given my canonical consent to the organization of 2 new congregations.

I have read prayers 20 times.

Preached 162 times.

Made Addresses on 106 occasions.

Confirmed 1503 in 106 Churches, averaging about 14 to each Parish.

And in the discharge of my various duties, I have traveled about 7616 miles.

In addition to the Ecclesiastical changes on record in the preceding report, I have to state the following :

The Rev. Thomas Applegate, having resigned St. Thomas' Church, Hamilton, has taken charge of Trinity Church, Warsaw, and St. Clement's Church, Weathersfield.

The Rev. William Atwill has been invited to the charge of Zion Church, Fulton, and is succeeded at Paris Hill by the Rev. William I. Alger, from the Diocese of New York.

The Rev. Milton B. Benton has taken charge of the Missionary station, comprising St. James' Church, Theresa, and St. Peter's Church, Redwood, Jefferson county.

The Rev. Joseph M. Clarke has resigned St. Peter's Church, Niagara, and is now in temporary charge of Grace Church, Utica, for the Rector, the Rev. John J. Brandigee, absent on account of ill health.

The Rev. George L. Foote has resigned Christ Church, Sherburne, and become Associate Rector of St. Andrew's Church, and assistant to the Rev. Richard Whittingham, in a Female School at New Berlin.

The Rev. Reuben I. Germain has resigned Grace Church, Black Rock, Buffalo.

The Rev. Horatio Gray has, on account of ill health, resigned Grace Church, Waverly, Tioga county, and is residing at Owego.

The Rev. Stephen Green Hayward has ceased to officiate in St.

Luke's Church, Granby, and since his ordination as Priest, taken charge of St. John's Church, Catharine, resigned by the Rev. Peter S. Ruth, who remains in charge of Havana and Watkins, Schuyler county.

I record the death of the Rev. Bethel Judd, D. D., which occurred at Wilmington, Delaware, on the 8th day of April, 1858, at the age of eighty-two years, having been in the ministry sixty years. I append the interesting letter of his son presenting the touching details of the event which has called this able, laborious, widely known and highly esteemed minister of God from his labors on earth to his reward in Heaven.*

The Rev. William W. Montgomery is now in charge of St. Luke's Church, Buffalo, a newly organized congregation, which has erected a Chapel, and is gathering strength and stability in an important portion of the city.

The Rev. John H. Rowling, Deacon, who has officiated under the direction of the Bishop, for the past year, at Williamson, Pultney-

*WILMINGTON, Del., April 12.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—You will be pained to learn that my aged and beloved father has closed his earthly labors, and has gone to his rest. Calmly, serenely, and full of hope, his spirit passed to the mansion prepared for it in the kingdom of his Heavenly Father.

After an illness of three weeks, during which his reason was unclouded, his intellect clear, his mind tranquil, and his bodily suffering not agonizing, he obeyed His Master's call, "having the testimony of a good conscience, in the communion of the Catholic Church, in the confidence of a certain faith, in favor with God, and in perfect charity with the world." He spoke freely of his state, and loved to dwell upon the certainty of his hope "that he had kept the faith." He had truly "finished his course," and had outstripped all, who had started with him, in the duration of his ministry.

He was born in the spring of 1776, ordained Deacon by Bishop Benjamin Moore, of New York, in 1798, having graduated at Yale College, under Dr. Dwight, 1797. He was, therefore, 82 years of age, and had been in the ministry 60 years.

He was attended, during his illness and at his death, by those near and dear to him, and we feel that God has been very good and merciful to permit us thus to have ministered to our dear parent when the shades of his long and peaceful evening of life were darkening around him.

To you, our reverend father in God, we would wish to express our sincere and fervent thanks for the kindness and delicate attentions you have so tenderly shown him under circumstances we can fully appreciate. I feel that I cannot be too grateful for all the mercies which have followed him during his long and varied pathway through life.

Accept, my dear sir, the assurances of my sincere respect, esteem and friendship,

H. B. JUDD, Captain U. S. Army.

THE RT. REV. W. H. DELANCEY, Bishop of Western New York.

ville, Sodus Point and Sodus Ridge, is now at Geneva, prosecuting his studies preparatory to taking Priest's Orders.

The Rev. Timothy Wardwell is in charge, as Missionary, of Emmanuel Church, Adams.

The Rev. Peyton Gallagher has been compelled, by ill health, to relinquish the charge at Homer and Cortland, and is residing at Geneva.

The Rev. Edward R. Welles, Deacon, has, since his ordination, acted as tutor in Deveau College, but has resigned, and is about to remove to the west.

The Rev. Addis E. Bishop, ordained August 28, 1857, was, on March 18, 1858, transferred to the Diocese of New York.

The Rev. William O. Gorham, Deacon, has, since his ordination, in September, 1857, been serving St. Mark's Church, Newark.

The Rev. Aaron R. Van Antwerp, Deacon, was, from the time of his ordination in September, 1857, until the 1st of April, in charge of St. John's Church, Honeoye Falls. He is now Missionary at the Church of the Redeemer, Addison.

Since the last Convention, seven of our candidates have been admitted to the Diaconate, viz: Addis Emmett Bishop, William Orman Gorham, Aaron Reed Van Antwerp, Jacob Shaw Shipman, Edward Randolph Welles, Jedediah Winslow, James C. L. Jones.

Eleven new candidates have been admitted, viz: Henry Willis Alexander, William Henry Moffett, Thomas Dunn Sleeper, William Roberts, Robert Dobyns, Ammi Merchant Lewis, Lorenzo David Ferguson, William Cornelius Lane, William Henry Van Antwerp, Jules Frederic Billard, Albert Crittenden Lewis.

Messrs. George Moore, Robert B. Coffin and Chester Smith Percival, have been withdrawn from candidateship.

Mr. Henry Willis Alexander has died.

Aid has been extended by the Education and Missionary Board to nine beneficiaries. Six are now on the list.

Three Deacons, viz: the Rev. Milton B. Benton, Stephen G. Hayward and Thomas G. Meachem, have been admitted to the Priesthood.

Two Clergymen, the Rev. Pierre A. Proal, D. D., and the Rev. Bethel Judd, D. D., have died.

The whole number of Clergymen canonically connected with the Diocese is 129, consisting of 1 Bishop, 119 Priests and 9 Deacons, with 21 candidates for Holy Orders.

Two Clergymen also are in the Diocese awaiting a transfer to its ecclesiastical jurisdiction.

Of the Clergy of the Diocese, 6 are exclusively engaged as teachers of youth; 5 are on the list of Disabled Clergy, aided by the Christmas Fund; 10 are prevented by age or sickness from engaging in full ministerial duty, but sustain themselves. The rest are engaged, or seeking engagement, in Parochial or Missionary work.

Several add to the labors of the ministry, public or private teaching, in school or Colleges, as a means of support.

I have given my canonical consent to the organization of new Parishes at Suspension Bridge, Niagara city, Niagara county; and at Caryville, Oakland, Genesee county.

One Church Edifice, St. Paul's, Oxford, has been consecrated, and a parsonage by the side of it commenced.

The following Church Edifices, in progress of erection, are not yet completed :

Christ Church,.....	Sodus Point.
Grace Church,.....	Baldwinsville.
Grace Church,.....	Utica.
Gethsemane Church,.....	Westmoreland.
St. Mary's Church,.....	Truxton.

The following Churches, regularly used, are not yet consecrated, on account of impending debt, viz :

St. John's Church,.....	Dunkirk.
St. Peter's Chapel,.....	Geneva.
Church of the Evangelists,.....	Oswego.
Christ Church,.....	Binghamton.
Grace Church,.....	Waverly.
Christ Church,.....	Rochester.
St. John's Church,.....	Williamson.
Ohrist Church,.....	Oswego.
Trinity Church,.....	Elmira.

In conformity to the resolution adopted in 1842, I report the following named Church organizations as not having complied with its requirements, and therefore subject to be struck from the list of Churches in connection with the Convention. They were reported last year, but no action was had by the Convention :

Church of the Ascension,.....	Liverpool.
Christ Church,.....	Pompey.

The Diocese has had, during the past year, the advantage of the labors of 59 Missionaries, of whom 35 have labored for the whole year, and the rest for longer or shorter periods. The present number is 46. I rejoice with great thankfulness to say that our Missionaries have been punctually paid every quarter, and that our monthly collections, as reported by the Treasurer, for objects within the Diocese, have exceeded by $955 the amount reported last year, while the collections for objects out of the Diocese, have nearly equalled (within $170) the amount contributed last year.

I fervently thank our Divine Master for this blessing; and in behalf of our Missionaries, as of myself, express most cordial acknowledgments to the Clergy and congregations for this liberality under the burdens, alarms and retrenchments of a year of financial panic and pressure. May God's blessing be showered, according to his promise, from the opened windows of Heaven, upon you all!

Several of our Missionary Stations are vacant, and two of our independent Parishes are unsupplied at this time. In many places where the Church might be advantageously commenced, the want of men and means averts our efforts and silences our mouth, as to encouragement.

The Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen has received, in donations and collections,.....$1.571 21

The interest on the amount loaned is..... 216 06

Total received,.....$1.787 27

Six Clergymen have received the benefit of this Fund, and the whole sum paid to them is $900.

Two of those brethren have been called to their reward.

I estimate the amount received in the Diocese, during the past year, for recognized Church objects, aside from what are Parochial, as follows:

The whole amount received by the Treasurer of the Convention, and the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, exclusive of interest on Permanent Funds and loans, and of contributions from sources exterior to the Diocese, is $11.202 61.

Moneys received in the Diocese, for objects exterior to it, and which do not pass through the hands of our Diocesan Treasurers, amount, as nearly as can be ascertained, to $1.200.

Contributions to the Church Book Society have amounted to $650.

So that the whole amount raised in the Diocese, during the year, for the recognized Church objects, aside from what are Parochial, since the 1st of August, 1857, will stand as follows:

Christmas Fund Collections and Donations,.....$ 1.571 21

Monthly Collections and Donations,..... 9.631 40

For the Church Book Society,..... 650 00

Sent by donors without going through Diocesan

Treasurers' hands,..... 1.200 00

$13.052 61

The Permanent Missionary Fund amounts, as by Report of William Young, Esq., Trustee, to $11,700 00. The interest, $697 40, has been paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese for Diocesan Missions. On $1000 of the fund invested by a former Trustee, in a First Mortgage Bond of the Canandaigua & Corning Rail Road, some loss is likely to accrue; the extent of it, dependent on some negotiations of the first bondholders, now in progress.

The Van Wagenen Missionary Fund amounts, as reported by the Trustee, Joseph Juliand, Esq., to $1,926 16.

A plan of Missionary work in the county of Chenango, by the Clergy of the same, has been arranged to commence on the 1st of October next, the income of the fund to be applied to this purpose, and in this way the county to be explored, and we trust, the best interests of the Church to be promoted.

The Report of the Education and Missionary Board will present the details in regard to these funds.

The Report of the DeVeaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children will be laid before you. The Institution is in successful operation. The Annual Report, as required by the Charter, was laid before me in January of this year. The personal assets, including principal without interest, amount to $166,886 89, and the real estate, subject to sale, to $23,500—a total of $190,386 89. The Inalienable Domain comprises about 330 acres. On the western side of the Domain, separated into two parts by the public road, stand the buildings, on about fifty acres of land.

On the buildings, furniture and improvements, $25,869 88 have been expended.

There are thirty-two pupils clothed, fed and educated in the College, under as favorable circumstances as Christian Benevolence could desire. No case of dangerous sickness has occurred among the pupils since the College was opened, and their studies and exercises have progressed with gratifying proficiency in all respects.

All attempts to raise funds for the Training School were arrested by the panic and pressure which silenced every appeal for Church objects not essential to the fulfillment of existing obligations.

My convictions of the need of such an institution are strengthened by the facts—

That, in CONNECTICUT, a General Institution for increasing the Ministers of the Church, has been inaugurated.

That, in VIRGINIA, the Bishops of the Diocese have appealed to their Clergy and flocks for the establishment of a School corresponding, if I understand it, to the senior branch of the proposed Training School.

That, in VERMONT, the establishment of a School for the Ministry, has been commenced by the Bishop.

And That, in PENNSYLVANIA, an Establishment under the Rev. Dr. Hare, has been constituted by the Bishop, as a kind of Training School for the Ministry.

The continuance of the Committee, and the vigorous prosecution of the enterprise, especially as to the Senior Department, by an appeal to the wealth, zeal and piety of the Diocese in its behalf, is an obvious duty.

I attended the meeting of the Board of Trustees of the General Theological Seminary in June, and voted against the proposed amendments of its Constitution, one of which authorized voting by proxy in the Board, and the other required a meeting of the Board at the time and place of the meeting of the General Convention.

Aside from the looseness and incongruousness of the proposed form of voting by proxy, which would have allowed a Bishop to appear in the Board with the proxies of the Clergy and Laity in his pocket, and thus vote in all the Orders, first as a Bishop, then as a Clergyman, and then as a Layman, it was found that the proxy voting in the Board, was contrary both to law and morals, and that no legal meeting of the Board could, under the charter, be held out of the limits of the State which had incorporated the institution. After hearing the able Report of Gulian C. Verplanck, Esq., both propositions were non-concurred in by a unanimous vote of the Board.

There are two amendments* of the Constitution of the General Convention, sent down to the Dioceses for consideration, which may be safely left to the judgment of the Deputies, who represent the Dioceses, and do not appear to require action on the part of this body.

Our Diocese, we humbly trust, is advancing in zeal, piety and good works, and for its steady progress through the pecuniary and property panic on one side, and the religious excitement on the other, which have marked the last Conventional year, we have ample reason to bless God and take courage.

The number confirmed, 1503, when the average annual number for my whole Episcopate is less than 600, and the largest number ever before reported in one year, is 1006—the great number of aged persons confirmed, varying from 60 to 80 years of age—the enlarged attendance on the service of the Church, and the increased number of the services—the discontinuance of objection to the Wednesday and Friday prayers, and to the daily services, all bespeak an external reverence and devotion which we trust is founded on the higher principle within—a heart quickened and sanctified by the Spirit of God. The Providential rebuke administered so suddenly, powerfully and extensively to the mammon of unrighteousness in the panic and pressure, was met by the Church not wholly asleep and unprepared. For a dozen years, at the head of Wall street, the bells of Trinity Church had sent forth almost the only Protestant summons to the daily worship of God, while some nine or ten other Episcopal Churches in the city, were treading in the same almost derided steps.

The excitement met the Church in the humiliation of Lent, humbled before God, in the appointed services of the season. Nothing extra to the usual services, provided for in the Book of Prayer, was required. The rebuke was blessed to her spiritual good, while her solemn devotions were found appropriate to the exigency, and she has come forth from the awakening, we humbly trust, thus far, enlarged, invigorated and spiritualized, without sacrificing a principle or diminishing confidence in her system of training men for Heaven, not by artificial and spasmodic excitements, but by a steady course of instruction, worship, guidance, care and nurture, in full accordance with the word and will of God, the admonitions of experience and the nature of man, vindicating the rise and progress of religion in the soul.

While blessing God for whatever spiritual good has accrued from this Divine rebuke, to other religious bodies, let us thankfully adore Him for the spiritual blessings which, falling on the Church through her appointed services, have vindicated, now, as heretofore, the wisdom, piety and suitableness of her arrangements for worship, instruction and devotion.

The Providential blessing on human science, skill and energy, whereby two continents have been connected by a chain of rapid intelligence, through which the Heads of two mighty nations have just now exchanged mutual felicitations; not only lifts our hearts in thankfulness to God, but authorizes the brightest anticipations of moral and spiritual, as well as secular benefit to ourselves and to our race, and invokes from us all, a hearty Amen, to the primary message of the conductors of the enterprise, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men."

The record of some suitable resolutions will not be inappropriate on the part of this body, to mark to future times our relation to the time of this event, and our estimate of its magnificence and value.*

In conclusion, the usual duties of the Annual Convention lie before us. With thankful hearts for mercies enjoyed—with renewed devotion of soul to the work of Christ—with warmer zeal, love and liberality, let us enter on the discharge of these duties. And may God so direct us in all our doings, with his most gracious favor, and further us with his continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Him, we may glorify his holy name, and by his mercy obtain everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY,

Bishop.

ROCHESTER, W. N. Y., August 18th, 1858.

On motion of Rev. Wm. B. Otis,

Resolved, That so much of the Bishop's Address as refers to the Atlantic Telegraph Cable, be referred to a committee of five, to report upon at this Convention.

Whereupon, the Chair appointed the Rev. Wm. B. Otis, the Rev. Dr. Shelton, the Rev. Thomas L. Franklin, and Messrs. Horatio Seymour and Washington Hunt, to constitute that committee.

Mr. G. W. Cuyler, in behalf of the Trustees of the "Gillespie" (or Rector's) Fund, of Zion Church, Palmyra, made the following

R E P O R T :

The undersigned, the Trustees of the "Gillespie" (or Rector's) Fund of Zion Church, Palmyra, in conformity to the resolution adopted at the last Diocesan Convention, respectfully report:

* See Appendix.

That the said fund amounts, at this time, to.....$820 76

Derived as follows :

From Thanksgiving Collections,.....$185 91

From Individual Donations,..... 560 00

(Of this amount, $200 has been received from two former Parishioners.)

From Interest, 74 85

$820 76

The fund was commenced Thanksgiving day, 1854. The individual donations have been without solicitation.

The fund is invested as follows :

On Jeddiah S. Pound's Bond and Mortgage,.....$627 00

Deposited in Cuyler's Bank on interest,..... 193 76

$820 76

All of which is respectfully submitted,
Dated August 1, 1858.

GEO. W. CUYLER,
JOS. C. LOOSTE,
WH. H. SOUTHWICK,
Trustees

The hour designated by the XXIst Rule of Order having arrived, the House adjourned to 9 o'clock, on Thursday morning.

THURSDAY MORNING, August 19th, 1858.

The Convention met. Morning Prayer was read by the Rev. W. I. Gibson, assisted by the Rev. W. B. Ashley, who read the Lessons, the remainder of the Services being read by the Bishop ; after which the Rt. Rev. the President took the Chair.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read, and, on motion, approved.

On calling the absent members, the following Clergy, not present yesterday, appeared and took their seats :

Rev. Thomas Applegate,

Rev. Louis S. Noble.

Also, the following Lay Deputies :

COUNTIES.

CHURCHES.

DEPUTIES.

Monroe,.....St. Luke's, Brockport,.....Daniel Holmes.

Oneida,.....Trinity, Camden,.....George Abbott.

The Rev. Mr. Parvin moved to suspend the Rules of the House, for the purpose of referring so much of the Bishop's Address as refers to the increase of religious interest in the Diocese during the past year, to a committee. The motion was lost.

Reports from Standing Committees were then called for in the order named in the VIth Rule of Order.

The Rev. Dr. Gregory, in behalf of the Standing Committee, on the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention, presented the following

R E P O R T :

The Committee on the application of New Churches, respectfully report : That two applications have been referred to them, viz: from St. Michael's Church, Oakfield, Genesee county; and the Church of the Epiphany, Niagara city, Niagara county. The proceedings in both cases appear to have been according to the requisite forms, and the papers are legally correct. The Committee, therefore, recommend that these two Churches be received into union with this Convention.

HENRY GREGORY,
F. W. HUBBARD,
W. HUNT.

August 19, 1858.

The question in the case of these Churches, recommended by the Committee, being taken separately,

On motion,

Resolved, That St. Michael's Church, Oakfield, Genesee county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Resolved, That the Church of the Epiphany, Niagara city, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Whereupon, Mr. A. C. Dodge, Lay Deputy from St. Michael's Church Oakfield, Genesee county, presented his certificate, and took his seat.

Mr. Alfred Ely, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, presented a Report, which, on motion, was referred back to the Committee for amendment.

Mr. George W. Cuyler, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, presented the following

R E P O R T :

The Committee appointed to examine the Accounts and Vouchers of the Treasurer of the Convention, respectfully report : That they have made such examination, comparing the moneys reported as received during the Conventional year, with the amounts monthly acknowledged as received, published by the Treasurer in the Gospel Messenger, and comparing also the Vouchers with the payments charged as made, and that they find the same correct.

GEO. W. CUYLER,
F. WILLIAMS,
WM. B. DOUGLAS.

Dated August 19, 1858.

To the Rt. Rev. William H. De Lancey, President of the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York :

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I submit herewith to the Convention my Annual Account, up to August 1st, 1858, as Treasurer of the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York, together with the Vouchers accompanying the same, and remain,

Mr. Trumbull Cary, in behalf of the Standing Committee, on the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the fund, respectfully report:

The fund nominally amounts to the sum of $50,008 91, of which $41,635 is invested in bonds and mortgages upon real estate, deemed by the Trustees, and by Mr. Hunt, a Committee appointed by the Bishop to examine the same, to be amply secured. Three thousand two hundred thirty-two dollars and thirteen cents is in cash, not yet permanently invested, and the residue consists of Rail Road Bonds, pledges of Vestries and unpaid notes, the ultimate availability of which seems doubtful. The committee, however, for particular information in relation thereto, respectfully refer the Convention to the Reports of the Trustees and of Mr. Hunt, the Committee.

The income of the fund, during the year, is $3,286 23, of which amount the Diocesan has received the sum of $3,227 05, and the residue, $59 18, has been paid for necessary annual expenses. There remains due and unpaid of interest accrued during the year upon real estate securities, and which the Trustees deem to be good, the sum of $154.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

August 19, 1858,

TRUMBULL CARY,
HENRY W. ROGERS,
GEO. R. PERKINS.

To the President of the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Trustees for the care and management of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York, respectfully report:

That during the last year they have received for payments on account of the principal of the Fund, the sum of $2,700, as shown by Schedule A,* hereto annexed.

They have invested in bonds and mortgages on real estate, according to the regulations of the trust, the sum of $2,185. And have on hand not permanently invested the sum of $3,232 13.

Applications for a considerable part of this amount, to be loaned on real securities, are now pending.

The amount of principal of notes given, to increase the Fund, collected since the last report, is $550; and there is yet uncollected $1,741 78, a part of which, owing to great changes in pecuniary matters during the past year, is likely to be unavailable at least for the present. There has also been received from the Rev. W. B. Ashley, the sum of $50, collected by him to increase the Fund.

The same changes alluded to, have prevented the Trustees from disposing, advantageously, of the Rail Road and other corporate securities in their hands, as recommended by the Committee of the Convention last year; but most of the Securities are likely to be worth their par value investments, although their present market value is fluctuating and greatly depreciated.

A statement (B,) of the receipts and disbursements on account of the income of the Fund during the year, is appended to this report, from which it appears that there has been received, from all sources, the sum of $3,286 23, and deducting some necessary casual expenses, there has been paid to the Diocesan, the sum of $3,227 05, as the net income of the Fund since the last report.

The arrears of interest upon the real estate securities, amount to the sum of $154, being the semi-annual interest due last May, on two bonds and mortgages, which are deemed to be good securities.

The principal of the Fund consists of the following items:

Bonds and mortgages,.....	$41,635 00
Rail Road bonds, &c.,.....	2,400 00
Pledges of Vestries,.....	1,000 00
Notes unpaid,.....	1,741 78
Not permanently invested,.....	3,232 13

Total,.....$50,008 91

* The Schedules referred to in this Report, are on file with the Report, among the papers of the Standing Committee of this Diocese.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York :

The undersigned, appointed by the Bishop, a Committee to examine the Securities held by the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, respectfully reports :

That he has made an examination of the said securities now in the hands of J. Watson Williams, Esq., on behalf of the Trustees, and he finds that the fund invested in bond and mortgage, amounts in the aggregate to $41,635.

Of these bonds and mortgages a list is annexed to the report of the Trustees, and the same were all exhibited to the undersigned, and all appear to be valid and available securities. The mortgage of Wm. Guile of $1,000, was not shown to the undersigned, but Mr. Williams has the County Clerk's certificate that the mortgage is now in his office for record, and when completed the same will be delivered to Mr. Williams. The mortgage of George J. Smith, $500, was not exhibited, and the same is understood to be a part of the Nathan Brown mortgage, and yet in the hands of Mr. Yost. By a reference to my report of last year, it will be seen that there were then in Mr. Yost's hands, seven of the Nathan Brown securities, and of these the Smith security is the only one now remaining in his hands. There is no reason to doubt that these securities are all worth the money represented by them.

The other bonds and personal securities to the amount of $5,141 78, are in Mr. Williams' hands, of which a statement is given in the report of the Trustees.

Of the item of "sundry notes to increase the Fund," $1,741 78, making a part of the $5,141 78, the undersigned can give no further information than is contained in the report of the Trustees.

The above items, with $3,232 13 in cash, now ready for investment, make an aggregate of $50,008 91, belonging to the Fund, and which pays an interest of seven per cent. as understood by the undersigned, except the above item of $1,741 78.

Utica, August 17, 1858.

The Rev. W. B. Ashley, in behalf of the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, presented the following

REPORT :

The Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, respectfully report : That, on examination of the Journal of the last Convention, they find on page 53, the Committee on procuring the necessary funds for the opening of the proposed Diocesan Training School was continued.

On page 60, that a Special Committee was appointed to procure the passage of an Act of Incorporation for the Trustees of the Permanent Missionary Fund, and for the Trustees of the Christmas Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. BLISS ASHLEY,
H. C. VAN SCHAACK,
WM. VAN WAGENEN,

Committee.

Mr. Alfred Ely, in behalf of the Special Committee, appointed at the last Convention, in reference to the incorporation of the Trustees of the Permanent Missionary Fund, and of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, presented the following

REPORT:

The Special Committee, appointed by resolution at the last Annual Convention, with authority, if they should deem it expedient, to take the necessary steps to secure the passage of a law, by the Legislature, to incorporate the Trustees of the Permanent Missionary Fund, and the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, beg leave to report: That they have had this subject under consideration, and upon mature deliberation, have deemed it inexpedient, as well as unnecessary, to incur the expense of procuring the passage of the law contemplated by the resolution in question.

It is the opinion of your Committee, that the chief safeguard for the Funds of both these Institutions rests mainly in the character of the securities upon which the Funds are loaned, and that if bonds and mortgages upon unencumbered real estate, are adopted as the exclusive means of security, they will be free from the peril of loss, and be equally secure as if surrounded by legislative act.

ALFRED ELY,
HENRY W. ROGERS.

The Rev. William B. Otis, in behalf of the Special Committee, to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Address, as relates to the Atlantic Telegraph Cable, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Address, as relates to the Atlantic Cable, beg leave to report the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, An event of extraordinary character has been just announced, to wit: the successful laying of a telegraphic cable across the Atlantic Ocean, an event affecting not only the social, political, and commercial interests of the world, but bearing also upon the progress of education, morals, religion, and the extension of the kingdom of Christ on earth;

And whereas, The successful achievement of this stupendous enterprise has sent a thrill of electric joy, throughout two hemispheres, filling nations with new hopes, and individuals with a brighter view of the future;

Therefore, be it resolved,

1st. That this Convention, as a body, participates in the general rejoicings inspired by the accomplishment of this great event, and sends its congratulations to the men who have been the instruments in bringing it to its hoped for issue.

2d. That while honor is due to those whose time, and energies, and means, have overcome the mighty obstacles before them; yet, inasmuch as an overruling Providence permits and orders all things, the glory belongs to God.

3d. That we see in this achievement, a bond drawing still closer the sympathies between a daughter and a mother Church, and that nothing on our part, which desires and prayers can accomplish, shall be wanting to give force and perpetuity to the invocation, "what God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."

4th. That in this leading event of the age, we recognize another and more effectual link than heretofore vouchsafed to us, in that chain of agencies which are to help on the Church of God in its mission to the world; and that while we look at it with profound thankfulness, we hear in it the voice of God, calling us to renewed action and a more self-consecrated zeal, in doing our humble part in the performance of the duty with which His Church stands charged, of diffusing the saving truths of the Gospel throughout the world.

5th. That we accept this blessing as a boon from God, and hail it as we would every achievement of science and triumph of human enterprise, as a powerful auxiliary in extending the knowledge and kingdom of Christ, promoting unity and concord among nations, peace and good will to men.

WILLIAM B. OTIS,
WILLIAM SHELTON,
THOMAS L. FRANKLIN,
HORATIO SKYMOUR,
WASHINGTON HUNT,
Committee.

The preamble and resolutions were, on motion, adopted by the House.

On motion of the Rev. T. L. Franklin,

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese be requested, in behalf of himself, and of the Convention now assembled, to send a message of congratulation to the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The Bishop, in behalf of the Committee on the subject of a Diocesan Training School, made the following

R E P O R T :

The Committee on the Training School for Candidates, respectfully report: That in consequence of the pecuniary revulsion and panic, which signalized the past year, they abstained from making any application for endowment.

And believing that the times will now justify an appeal to the liberality of the Diocese, in behalf of this important object, the Committee ask to be continued.

W. H. DE LANCEY, Chairman.

August 18, 1858.

Whereupon, on motion,

Resolved, That the Committee on the Training School be continued, and that they report to the next Convention.

The Bishop having read an invitation to the members of this Convention, from Messrs. Ellwanger & Barry, to visit their Nursery, on motion, the invitation was accepted, with the thanks of the Convention.

The vote by ballot being dispensed with, Mr. George W. Cuyler was, on motion, elected a Trustee of the Christmas Fund, in place of Thomas H. Hubbard, deceased.

The Bishop, in behalf of the Education and Missionary Board, made the following

R E P O R T :

In compliance with the requirements of the Canon, the Education and Missionary Board present their annual report:

The whole number of Missionaries employed during the last year, for the whole, or for portions of the year is 59. Thirty-six have labored during the whole year, and the rest for longer or shorter periods. These labors have extended to 72 Parishes. The present number is 45. The Parochial Reports present the results of their labors.

Seven Beneficiaries have been aided by the Education Fund.

The Permanent Missionary Fund is reported by the Trustees to consist of $5,000 in Kentucky Bonds; $5,711 in Bonds and Mortgages; and $1,000 in a Canandaigua & Corning first mortgage Rail Road Bonds, on which no interest has been paid since 1st January, 1857. The Road has lately been sold by the first bondholders, among whom, as we understand, is the bond held by our Trustee.

The securities have been examined by the Committee, appointed by the Bishop, and the proper certificate is attached. The Report is appended.

The whole amount of the Fund is $11,711. It has yielded an interest of $697 40, which has been paid to the Diocesan Treasurer, and expended on the Missions of the Diocese.

The Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, Joseph Juliard, Esq., reports the fund to consist of $1,928 16. His report is appended.

As the Fund does not afford a sum sufficient for the exclusive support of a Missionary, the Board have, for the present, adopted a plan of Missionary action for the whole county, by the Clergy of the same, to commence on the 1st of October next.

The whole sum appropriated to our Diocesan Missions, has been $5,605 04. The sum applied to Education purposes is $512 50.

Seven of our Missionaries have removed to other Dioceses, but their places have been supplied; several Missionary stations are vacant, the supply of Clergy not being adequate to the current claims for labor.

All our Missionaries have been paid with the customary punctuality, notwithstanding the severity of the pecuniary pressure.

All this we thankfully acknowledge, and pray God to incite us all to increased labor and liberality in the cause of His Holy Church.

By order of the Board,

GENEVA, August 14, 1858.

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY, Chairman.

WILLIAM YOUNG, Trustee of the Permanent Education and Missionary Fund, is account current with the Diocese of Western New York.

GREENE, August 2, 1858.

The Bishop in behalf of the Trustees of De Veaux College, made the following

REPORT:

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York :

The Trustees of the De Veaux College, for orphan and destitute children, in pursuance of the terms of their Act of Incorporation, respectfully submit their annual report:

The fiscal year of the Institution ends on the last day of December in each year, and in January thereafter, the accounts for the year are examined by the Trustees.

The income received during the last year, was $11,944 04, which was expended in completing and furnishing the buildings, improving and stocking the farm, and supporting the Institution.

The funds, at the close of the fiscal year, consisted of $166,886 89 of principal, yielding income and real estate, estimated at $23,500, exclusive of the domain.

Thirty-two boys are now in the Institution, and wholly supported by it.

The following course of training and instruction is pursued in the College:

First. Their School instruction, since the opening of the College, has been in reading, spelling, writing, geography, arithmetic, and the first rudiments of the Latin language.

Second. Their religious instruction embraces every thing which is enjoined by the terms of their Christian baptism, not only moral duties, but the whole of a Christian's faith and duty. The Bible is a daily text-book, and the Book of Common Prayer is in daily use.

Third. In manners it is endeavored to train them as a Christian family, and the rules of Christian courtesy and gentlemanly behavior are continually inculcated.

Fourth. As far as there is opportunity and means, it is also sought to train the boys in useful knowledge generally, and the common arts of life.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

W. H. DE LANCEY, President.

ELIJAH FORD, Secretary.

August 18, 1858.

The Rev. Mr. Parvin offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the record of the unusually large number of accessions to our communion during the past Conventional year,—

Bishop reporting as confirmed by him, during the year, some nine hundred more candidates than the average number during his episcopate, and some five hundred more than during any other one year of said episcopate,—presents a fact calling for the devout gratitude of this Convention to Almighty God, for his gift of grace so fully bestowed upon us.

The Rev. Mr. Gibson proposed the following amendment, which was accepted :

And that it also furnishes cause for continued confidence and renewed zeal in the faithful use of the means of grace which the Great Head of the Church has bestowed upon her, and preserved in their integrity for our beloved Zion.

The Rev. Dr. Beach offered the following as a substitute, which was accepted as an amendment :

Resolved, That this Convention most sincerely and cordially unites with the Right Reverend Bishop, in his Address to this Convention, in the expression of his grateful acknowledgements of the blessing of Almighty God upon the Church in this Diocese for the past year.

The hour having arrived for the order of the day, (see Rules of Order, § XVIII,) the House proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and the Deputies to the General Convention, by one ballot, as directed by Section 2 of Canon XII, the Rev. Walter Ayrault and G. W. Cuyler being appointed by the Rt. Rev. the President to receive, as tellers, the votes of the Clergy, and the Rev. G. M. Hills and W. B. Douglas, to receive the votes of the Laity.

During the absence of the Tellers, Mr. Alfred Ely, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, presented the following amended

R E P O R T :

The Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, beg leave to report: That they have examined the Accounts of the Treasurer for the year ending August 1st, 1858, compared them with the vouchers produced, and find them correct.

The receipts of the Treasurer have been as follows :

Balance on hand, August 1, 1857,	$3,853 54
Received from collection at Convention,	96 11
Received on loans to date,	216 06
Contributions from 98 Parishes,	1,475 10
Total,	$5,640 81

. Disbursements.

Amount paid five Clergymen as follows:

Four received $200 each,.....	$800 00
One received 100	100 00
	<hr/> 900 00

Leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer on Aug. 1, 1858, of $4,740 81

The Committee submit herewith the report of Edgar H. Hurd, Esq., who, by a resolution of a previous Convention of the Diocese, was appointed by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, a Committee "to examine into the character of the securities upon which the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen was loaned." By it, and likewise by the Treasurer's Report, it appears that $3,086 51 of this Fund still continues to be temporarily loaned, (mostly to a single individual,) upon promissory notes, on interest at 7 per cent.; that the only security therefor, is a certificate for 38 shares of New York Central Rail Road stock, and the bond of one Isaac Nichols to Nathan Munroe, for $500, secured by his mortgage upon 38 acres of land, in the county of Yates, and purporting to be assigned to the said Treasurer.

That $1,654 30 of the balance of the said Fund, remains in the hands of said Treasurer, uninvested, so far as your Committee are able to ascertain from the report in question.

The collateral securities above mentioned, consisting of Rail Road stocks, are depreciated, and are now insufficient to cover the loan. The bond and mortgage referred to, if in fact of any real value, of which the Committee entertain some doubt, has too many imperfections in its transfer to make it available in the hands of the Treasurer to enforce.

Your Committee, in closing their report, beg leave to state, that this is the fourth year of their humble service upon this Committee, and that in every instance in which they have had the honor to report, they have taken occasion to remind the Treasurer, and earnestly to recommend to him, that all future investments of this Fund, be loaned on bond and mortgage upon unincumbered real property, valued in double the amount loaned.

Your Committee are gratified to be informed, that the Treasurer has recently taken steps to loan this Fund in the manner indicated by the Committee, and that so soon as the papers can be completed, $4,000 of this Fund will be invested upon bond and mortgage.

That this Fund, however, may be protected in the future, and to relieve the Treasurer from the exercise of any discretion in the disposition of the Fund hereafter, the Committee beg leave to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, proceed as early as practicable with the best interest of said Fund, to collect all the moneys loaned upon pledge of Rail Road stocks: and that no investment of said Fund shall hereafter be made, except by the Trustees of the Fund, upon unincumbered real property, valued, (exclusive of all buildings) in at least double the sum sought to be loaned thereon.

D. S. HALL, Treasurer.

To the Rt. Rev. WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY, Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York:

In pursuance of your appointment, the undersigned respectfully reports: That he has examined the securities in the hands of David S. Hall, Esq., Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, and finds in the hands of the Treasurer, in

All of which is respectfully submitted,

EDGAR H. HURD, Committee.

Dated Geneva, Aug. 16, 1858.

The resolution recommended by the Standing Committee was thereupon, on motion adopted.

Mr. George W. Cuyler, having declined the office of Trustee of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, the vote by ballot was, on motion, dispensed with, and Mr. William B. Douglas was elected in place of Mr. Cuyler.

On motion of the Rev. M. Van Rensselaer,

Resolved, That the Treasurer be directed to pay out of the General Fund any expenses connected with the Telegram to the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Several ballots being had, and the Tellers having reported that there was a failure to elect all the members of the Standing Committee and Deputies to the General Convention, on motion, the House took a recess until 3 o'clock.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Convention reassembled.

Another ballot being had, during the absence of the Tellers, on motion of the Rev. H. A. Neely,

Resolved, That a Committee of six be appointed, of which the Bishop shall be the Chairman, with whom may be deposited such Sermons of the deceased Clergy of this Diocese, as their friends may be willing to put at the service of the Convention, for such use as it may deem proper; and that the friends of such deceased Clergy be requested to deposit such manuscripts with this Committee.

The following were appointed to act with the Bishop as such Committee :

Rev. H. A. Neely, Rev. T. P. Tyler, D. D., Rev. W. B. Ashley, Rev. W. A. Matson, and Rev. George D. Gillespie.

On motion,

Resolved, That Ascension Church, Liverpool, and Christ Church, Pompey, be erased from the list of Churches in this Diocese, in accordance with the Canon of 1842.

The Rev. T. L. Franklin offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That, if agreeable to the Bishop of the Diocese, he be requested to take a vacation of three months, for a visit to Europe, or elsewhere, as he may prefer, and that $1,500 be appropriated to defray his expenses, to be raised by assessment on the several Parishes of the Diocese, in the ratio of twenty-five cents for each communicant.

The resolution having been seconded by the Rev. S. H. Coxe, was put by the Secretary, and unanimously adopted.

The Bishop, in a brief and appropriate address, returned his thanks to the Convention, and accepted the invitation.

The Tellers being called upon for their report, on counting the ballots, it appeared that the following persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and were therefore declared duly elected :

" Amos B. Beach, D. D.,	" Benjamin Pringle,
" W. D. Wilson, D. D.,	" J. Juliand.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Clergy present their Parochial Reports to the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, as required by Canon XII. of the General Convention of 1853. That the reading of the same be dispensed with, and that they be printed, as usual, in the Appendix of the Journal.

On motion,

Resolved, That 2,000 copies of the Journal of the Convention be printed and distributed, as usual, under the direction of the Secretary.

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to prepay the postage on those copies of the Journal directed by Canon to be transmitted by mail.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the congregations of St. Luke's, Grace, Trinity and Christ Churches, Rochester, for the hospitality so generously extended to its members during the present session, and that the Rev. the Rectors be requested to give publicity to this resolution in such a way as they may deem expedient.

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be presented to the Rev. Wm. A. Matson, the Secretary, and his Assistant, the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, for their services at this session of the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Van Rensselaer,

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to send to the Clerical and Lay Secretaries of the Synod of Toronto, and of the other British Colonial Dioceses where Synods have been held, copies of the Journal of this Convention, and to request an exchange of like documents.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Shelton,

Resolved, That an opportunity be now given to the Reverend Clergy from Canada to respond to the sentiments of affection for the Church of England, expressed by this Convention.

The resolution was responded to in terms of respect, gratitude and affection by the Rev. Drs. Bethune, Fuller and Townley.

The House, then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the usual exercises.

Whereupon, after the reading of the minutes and an address from the Rt. Rev. the President, the Convention united in singing the Gloria in Excelsis, appropriate prayers from the Liturgy, by the Bishop, and after his blessing, adjourned sine die.

Signed by order of the Convention,

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,

President of the Convention.

WILLIAM A. MATSON, Secretary.

CHARLES W. HAYES, Assistant Secretary.

During the year, I have held twelve services (Holy Communion publicly administered twice), in the vacant Parish of Philipville.

Trinity Church, Canaseraga; the Rev. LLOYD WINDSOR, Missionary.

Families about 25; baptisms...infants 3; marriages 2; burials 4; communicants...not yet ascertained.

After confirmation (the first) the ensuing fall, the list will be correctly recorded. Public services every Sunday, and on Christmas and Thanksgiving-day; also a Church Lecture on Thursday every week.

This Parish is new, and distant from all others in every direction, at least 10 miles—in some directions much greater. We are slowly but certainly laying the foundations of the Church of Christ in this district, where a Prayer Book or Church Minister were unknown when I took up my residence here, scarcely two years since.

Christ Church, Cuba; the Rev. CHAS. E. BEARDSLEY, Missionary.

Congregation...Families 20, (adults 38, children 37,) total number of individuals 75; baptisms...infants 5; communicants...(admitted 5, received 2) total added 7, removed 1, present number 26; burials 2; public services...on Sundays 36; the Holy Communion publicly administered 8 times; Sunday school 1, teachers, (male 2, female 2,) total 4; pupils, (male 8, female 6,) total 14.

Of the number of services mentioned above, four have been held on two Sundays in East Randolph, where, together with the West Village, there is at this time a spirited effort made to secure regular spiritual services for the coming year. It is not improbable that steps will be taken to organize a Church in one or the other of these villages.

Two of the collections made for Diocesan Missions were, probably by mistake, sent to the Treasurer as collections for Domestic Missions.

The resignation of the Rev. Albert Wood as Missionary of this Parish, took effect the 20th Sunday after Trinity, 1857; since which time it has had no public services, except occasionally, until Whitsunday, when the present Missionary entered upon his public duties, to divide each Lord's Day between this Parish and the one at Mayville. The items in the above Report have reference mainly to the period between Whitsunday and the present time. The congregation and Sunday school, I am thankful to say, have thus far been steadily increasing. June 15th, we commenced saying Daily Morning Prayers in the Church, (Monday morning only excepted,) which have ever since been said by at least twenty worshippers on an average.

The Parish still proceeds upon the system of Weekly Offerings, this Report shows the entire amount of money raised for every object, and all of which is a voluntary offering at the altar; no subscription of any kind having been made in the Parish, for the last two years.

The Parochial School, established above a year ago, is now doing its good work under the able direction of the Rev. G. L. Foota, who was called by the Vestry, last Easter, to assist in the charge of the Parish, and become the head of the School.

Regular services have also been held, (since Spring,) at a point some nine miles from New Berlin, called Babcock's Mills, where a Sunday school has been established, and somewhat of a congregation gathered.

I entered upon the duties of Rector on the 21st of February, the Parish having been destitute and without any services, except on two or three occasions since the 1st of July preceding. Not knowing of Canon XIV, I did not make the collections designated. The Parish has made a vigorous effort to add to the Church a recess Chancel and Vestry room, which have been completed and add much to the convenience and effect of public worship.

The above Report dates from the 14th of October last, at which time the present Rector entered upon his duties. On that day the new Church edifice was consecrated. The cost of Church and site was $13,887 71. Of the sum reported as collected for Parochial objects—$2,530 00 was subscribed for a Parsonage, which is being erected. Of this amount, $500 00 was a contribution from a Churchman, residing in another part of the Diocese, whose name is a synonym for liberality,—$100 00 was a gift from Mrs. Newberry, of Chicago, for the purchase of an handsome Font of Caen stone, and a folio Bible for the Lectern,—$59 30 was expended upon the removal and fitting up of a building for the use of the Sunday School, and $27 59 for the increase of its library. A portion of the same sum was expended in procuring a fine toned bell, weighing 1027 pounds.

Of the amount appropriated to Diocesan Missions, $19 00 was a contribution from the Female Missionary Association of the Parish.

In addition to the above services, I have read service and preached twice at Oswego, preached twice at Geneva, twice at Staunton, Va., and read service and preached once at Harrisonburgh, Va.

The prospects of the Church in Cortland are encouraging. About eleven hundred dollars have been subscribed for the erection of a church, and with proper care, and prompt and efficient aid from abroad, much might be done toward showing forth the glory of God, and setting forward the salvation of all men. Thanks are due to our brethren of the Presbyterian church in this place, for the use of their session room during the past year.

My health, which has been but feeble since the beginning of my labors here, in the middle of February failed. For six weeks I was confined to my house. Since then I have been obliged to limit myself to a single service on Sunday. Still, under these discouragements, it is but just to the Parish to say that its present condition is very hopeful. With the blessing of God, a clergyman residing in the Parish, taking hold of the work before him, cannot fail of success.

The Sunday School is addressed or examined nearly every Sunday by the Rector.

above report dates from May 17th, 1857, when the first service was held. Parish was not fully organized until the following July. A suitable room rented and fitted up for public worship and for the Sunday School, at the corner of Niagara and Virginia streets. In this place services were held every evening, by the different clergymen of the city, besides several Sunday morning services, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Ernst. I entered upon my duties as Rector on Easter last. In last March, the Vestry began the erection of a new church building, on Maryland street, near Niagara, which was dedicated for service on the first Sunday in May. It is of wood, battened, 56 by 24, exclusive of porch, and accommodates 250 people. The building is plain, neat and commodious, well fitted and furnished, free of debt, and insured for its full value. The services are attended every Sunday by large and increasing congregations. The Sunday School is under the efficient superintendence of the Junior Warden, with the general direction and supervision of the Rector. The Bishop's visitation took place before a clergyman had been called; the small number of candidates for confirmation, as reported above.

Sittings in the Church are free; and the offertory is relied on for the support of the Rector, and for the payment of the contingent expenses of the Church.

Most of the above report dates July 1, 1858, being the time when the present minister took charge of this Parish. Though the Parish had then been vacant about one year, and the congregation somewhat scattered, yet it was in a much better condition than could have been expected under the circumstances. The condition of this Parish may be considered encouraging.

The present Rector entered upon his duties the first of November last. The above Report, however, includes the whole year. At the time of his coming a Rectory was procured, at a cost of $3,500, and partly paid for. He hopes to report next year that it is the unencumbered property of the Vestry. Since January 1st, the system of the Weekly Offertory has been adopted with marked success. The Parish School (opened in March of this year) has received 117 pupils. In other respects the prospects of the Parish are encouraging.

In addition to the services reported above, I have officiated at one burial in Brownville, (the Rector being absent,) and one in Theresa; held three services at Sterlingville, and one at Champion: and also assisted in the services at Sterlingville and Carthage, at the Bishop's visitation.

The Rectory reported last year as in progress, is completed. To fence and range the grounds, and the necessary fixtures about the Rectory, also in constructing and erecting the furnace for the Church edifice, I have been aided by the Ladies' Benevolent Society, the Revs. the Rectors of St. Paul's and St. John's Churches, Buffalo, and Grace Church, Rochester, each five dollars. To light the Church edifice suitably for evening service, the Rector of Trinity Church, Watertown, kindly forwarded 6 Side Lamps.

I gratefully acknowledge the blessings of unity and peace with which we are favored—bestowed of Him from whom all our mercies flow. I wish, thankfully, to acknowledge the continued aid and kind interest of the first and well-beloved Rector of this Parish.

The Parish is in a very wholesome state; its pecuniary affairs are kept straight and square; it is prompt in the payment of its salary, remarkably so; it is entirely free from debt, and its treasury is not empty.

I have officiated occasionally at Chittenango Falls, some four miles north of here, to a very promiscuous audience of listeners who are in great need of light in respect to the principles of Christ and his Gospel.

In addition to my services in this Parish, I have, some seven or eight times, officiated at Canastota, where the Church has some dozen or more warm friends, who would like to have more frequent services. I trust the time is not far distant when they shall have them. The Ladies of the place, who are friendly disposed towards the Church, have what they call a "Mite Society," which yields them quite a revenue, out of which they meet all their incidental expenses.

The proceeds of collections and sums otherwise raised, have hitherto been expended, from necessity, for Parochial and Sunday School objects. Service is held in a hired room; the rent of which, is a heavy tax upon so new and feeble a Parish. A large and valuable lot of land, for the erection of a church, has been presented by a friend of the Parish; and a full and handsome Communion Service, by another. We hope, with God's blessing, to be able to build a good, substantial church, during the coming year.

The services above reported have been performed since November 27th, at which time, by direction of the Bishop, I began my clerical services in the Parish, having previously officiated as Lay Reader a short time.

Since May I have officiated the last Sunday of each month in Trinity Church, Constantia, Oswego county. I have officiated twice at Empeyville, town of Florence, Oneida county, and six times in other places.

There is a small debt yet resting upon the parsonage. The interior of the church very much needs repairing. The Parish was without services for two years.

St. John's Church, Clayville; the Rev. WM. J. ALGER, Missionary; reported by the Rev. WILLIAM ATWILL, late Missionary.

Confirmed 2; burial 1; public services...on Sundays 12; the Holy Communion publicly administered once; children catechised...number of children 16, number of times 6.

Owing to the continued prostration of the extensive factories, upon the operations of which the Church chiefly depends for its congregation, the Parish is very much reduced, but not altogether hopeless. A faithful few continue a manly struggle for the cause of Christ and His Church.

A large and valuable lot of land, containing between three and four acres, has been presented to the Parish for the erection of a church and parsonage, and for a cemetery. A handsome and full Communion Service also, has been presented by a friend of the Parish.

Besides the above stated services in my Parish, I have officiated and preached, on Sundays, at Constableville three times, and at Lyon'sdale once. I have read the burial service and preached a funeral sermon at Constableville once, at Alder Creek twice, and at Bellingertown twice. I have also preached nine times in other places.

The Rector is happy to be able to report a gratifying increase in the collections for Church objects, over those of last year, notwithstanding the late financial troubles and disasters. A well selected Library of Church books has been purchased for the use of the congregation.

The number of communicants has been diminished more than usual, by removals in the past year; but the number added, during the same time, will more than supply this deficiency.

The Parish may be reported to be in a prosperous condition.

Owing to the illness and absence of the Rector, this Report is not submitted as being perfectly accurate in all its details. The Parish has been much afflicted, during the past year, in the death of valued members and communicants, as also now in the serious illness of the Rector.

The past year has been to the Parish, on the whole, one of much encouragement. The new Church has made good progress, and additional funds are now being raised, which it is hoped will carry it on to completion. Aided by a generous legacy from the late Mr. Munson, the Ladies of the Parish have also taken in hand the erection of a Chapel and Sunday School room, with every prospect of success. There have not been wanting also, tokens of the presence and blessing of the Holy Spirit in our midst.

The Rector would do injustice to his own feelings, not to acknowledge here the substantial evidences of the good will which is borne towards him, by the beloved people of his charge. May they receive of the Lord an abundant reward.

The Parish, in the absence of the Rector, is under the pastoral care of the Rev. Joseph M. Clarke.

The number of families—adults and children—composing the congregation, is for the first time given. It is only an approximation towards the truth, as any result must be which is based upon the occupancy of seats.

The past year has been unusually fruitful of results such as are most desired in a Parish, and which it must be our daily prayer to God that He would bring to pass.

Over fifty persons have been added to the communion since the last Convention, most of them original accessions to the Church. The congregation, by means of liberal contributions, notwithstanding the financial disasters of the past year, and in addition to the usual collections for other objects, have erected and nearly paid for a Chapel and Sunday School room. The first collection for this purpose was made on Easter day, and amounted to $340.

The attendance during the week day services of Lent was unusually large, and is still maintained at a regular weekly service.

As an additional token of the spirit of the Parish, it should be mentioned that a Ladies' Relief Association was formed within it at the beginning of last winter, to meet the necessities of those whom the pressure of the times had deprived of employment, and cast, more or less, upon the christian liberality of the city. This Society was untiring through the winter in furnishing supplies of clothing to the worthy who sought them, and in exploring the localities of want and privation, in connection with other organizations for general relief.

The Rector cannot do justice to his feelings without leaving on record these encouraging results of the year, together with the avowal of his conviction that they are, with God's blessing, due to the simple working out of the Church system.

The large amounts to be expended in conducting so large a Missionary school, prevents the Parish from contributing as extensively to objects abroad as it would desire.

The debt has been reduced during the year through the efforts of the ladies of the congregation.

Two of the persons confirmed belonged to Christ Church. Two of the adult baptisms were administered at Clifton Water Cure. One marriage was solemnized in Geneva, and one in Cazenovia.

The Rector would acknowledge, with deep gratitude, the extensive outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the city of Oswego, which has so greatly strengthened this Parish.

The old Court House, which, by the liberality of the county, has been presented to the Parish, has been moved on to the Church lot, and will soon be refitted and prepared for the use of the Sunday School, by which it is much needed.

St. James' Church, Pulaski.

[There is no report from this Parish.]

St. Luke's Church, West Granby; Vacant; reported by the Warden.

The Rev. Mr. Hayward withdrew from the Parish last spring, and since then there have been no services in the Church until the Bishop's visit in June last. Now, there are occasional services by the Rev. Wm. Atwill of Fulton. Though in a low condition as a Parish, we still continue our efforts, hoping that the promise may be realized by us, that "where two or three are met together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Since April I have not officiated in Catharine. Since the last report, up to the closing of my labors in that Parish, I preached there thirty-four times, and administered the Communion monthly. I have also held regular services in St. James' Church, Watkin, part of the time weekly, part of the time monthly only. I have preached there about twenty times—making my services in the three Parishes altogether, 228.

Two of the class for confirmation were confirmed out of the Parish, one at Geneva, and the other at Penn Yan.

I have included in the amount for Domestic Mission, the Sunday School contribution to Mr. Breck's Mission, which amounted to $60 78.

Since my last report a Communion Set has been purchased by the communicants, and the Church has been carpeted by the ladies.

Our Church enlargement is complete. It is our happiness to find the improvement to far more than equal our most sanguine expectations. We have now a beautiful temple, and offer it, a faint token of our gratitude to Him, whose house we proclaim it to be.

The sum given to charities without the Parish is $255.12. During the year gas has been introduced into the Parsonage and Church. The Permanent Parish Fund now amounts to $820.76, having increased during the year $80.82.

The Rector has held one service at Marion, two at Clifton Water Cure, one at Mumford, and five in neighboring school houses.

More than usual religious interest prevailed in the Parish during the Lenten season, the result of which is seen in the number confirmed.

During the seven years of the present incumbency, 40 more names have been added to the Communicants' List, including deaths, than have been gained by removals. The number of communicants has, however, increased by admissions from 85 to 120. In the same period, the contributions have amounted to $7,272.77—of this sum $1,466.38 has been devoted to objects exterior to the Parish.

OTHER CLERICAL REPORTS.

From Clergymen not having Parochial cures, the Bishop has received the following Reports, viz:

The Rev. WILLIAM BAKER, residing in Utica, reports: that he officiated at St. Peter's Church, Oriskany, from the 1st of August, till the end of November. At that time he has baptized two infants; officiated one Sunday at Waterville; four Sundays at Oriskany, and on one funeral occasion; four Sundays in Grace Church, besides reading prayers, and assisting in administering the Communion frequently; preached once and read prayers three times in Calvary Church, and read prayers once in Trinity Church, Utica; every other Sunday has officiated in Grace Church, Norway, two Sundays at Newport, both of which places are in the Diocese of New York; has performed the marriage service six times, and attended four funerals. During the past year, as well as the preceding, he has been employed among the poor and destitute in the city of Utica; has held communication with St. Paul's Mission among the emigrants of New York; has disbursed about fifteen hundred dollars annually; during the year has visited hundreds of poor families, administering to the welfare of soul and body.

The Rev. J. E. BATTIN, residing at Swainville, Allegany county, reports: that in Whitney's Valley, (Trinity Church,) he has preached eight times; in Allegany county, has collected together about fifty adults and children; that at this place there is a Sunday School and a Bible Class, which has had his attendance since April last; that at the same place he has preached several times, and made arrangements to preach there regularly every other day.

The Rev. JOHN F. ERNST, residing at Buffalo, reports: that since the first day of September, 1857, he has performed in this Diocese the following clerical duties: attended one funeral, baptized two infants, assisted in celebrating the Lord's Supper eight times, in conducting morning and evening services ten times, has held twenty full morning and evening services, and preached twenty-times.

The Rev. GEORGE L. FOOT, associate Rector of St. Andrew's Church, New Berlin, and having charge of the Parochial School, reports: that from the time of the last Convention, to last Easter, he continued in charge of Christ Church, Burnsville, as Rector, the report of which is presented in the annual report of the Parish; that at Easter, he removed to New Berlin, having accepted an invitation of the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of St. Andrew's Church, to the associate Rectorship of the Parish, and to the charge of the Parochial school; at which time he has been engaged chiefly in the duties of the school. The sessions of this school have been extended to forty-nine pupils, in the several departments. The exercises of the school have been opened and closed daily morning and evening prayer in the school room, except when morning and evening prayers have been attended in the Church, as on all the Festi-

The collections of this school have been extended to forty-nine pupils, in the several departments. The exercises of the school have been opened and closed daily morning and evening prayer in the school room, except when morning and evening prayers have been attended in the Church, as on all the Festivals and Holy Days, and on Wednesdays and Fridays. That gratuitous instructions in Church Music has also been given to twenty-two pupils, besides those connected with the Parochial school. In addition to the labors connected with the school, he has supplied the Parish of Zion Church, Morrisa, Otsego county, with services, one half the Sundays since the first of May, and otherwise assisted the Rector of St. Andrew's Church in the regular services of the Church, the Sunday School and Bible Class.

The Rev. HENRY GREGORY, D. D., President and Chaplain of De Veaux College, at Suspension Bridge, Niagara county, reports: that during the past year, except when hindered by a few brief and necessary absences and by sickness, he has been engaged in the duties of that station. The College family numbers forty-eight. Besides the daily morning and evening prayers, there are full services on Sundays and Holy Days. The Holy Communion has been administered once a month, and on the chief Festivals, and to the sick twice. Since the organization of a Parish at the village of Niagara City, within half a mile of the College, few persons from the neighborhood have come to the services in the College Chapel.

Communicants eight; baptisms (children) two.

The Rev. BENJAMIN HALE, D. D., residing at Geneva, Ontario county, reports: that since the last annual Convention of the Diocese, in consequence of the state of his health, he has been able to do no ecclesiastical duty, except that a few times he has assisted in the administration of the Holy Communion.

The Rev. ABNER JACKSON, D. D., President of Hobart Free College, Geneva, reports: that he entered on his duties, as President of Hobart Free College, on the 8th of April, 1858. Besides taking the general oversight of the College, he has preached four times in the College Chapel, and assisted there and elsewhere in the services on various occasions. But he has been obliged, on account of an affection of the throat, to rely on the Rev. Dr. Metcalf for far the greater part of the Sunday, and almost the whole of the week day, chapel duty. He has read the burial service once at Sharon Springs.

That he finds Hobart Free College in a sound and healthy condition, and promising great future usefulness to the Church and the country. Of the students present during the last academic year, he finds, as nearly as he can ascertain, that seven-twelfths were communicants—a state of things probably without a parallel in any of our Colleges. And although the education given here is strictly academic, and fits the student for all the learned professions alike, yet has the College, during the last two years, furnished twelve candidates for Holy Orders. That from all that he has been able to learn, Hobart College well deserves the confidence with which she is regarded both by the Church and the public, and it is not to be doubted that she will strive always to win a still higher title to this confidence.

The Rev. WILLIAM LONG, residing at Claremont, New Hampshire, reports: that, during the past year, he has been unable to officiate, except occasionally.

on account of ill health. In St. James' Church, Syracuse, he has performed divine service and preached on two Sunday mornings; has also attended one marriage and one funeral for that Parish: in Trinity Church he officiated several Sundays, with the assistance of a lay reader, previous to the election of the present Rector, and also attended two marriages and three funerals; that his health has been much improved by a journey to Europe this summer, and that he hopes to be able soon to resume official duties.

The Rev. KENDRICK MITCALF, D. D., Hobart Professor of the Greek and Latin Languages and Literature in Hobart Free College, Geneva, reports, that in addition to the duties belonging to his Professorship, he has read prayers daily, both morning and evening, in the College Chapel, throughout the whole of the academical year, and has preached in the Chapel eighteen times; that he resigned the post of Missionary at Phelps and Clifton Springs on the 1st of September last, but has since performed occasional services at both places; has administered the Holy Communion five times in St. John's Church, Phelps, and four times at Clifton Springs, and at the latter place has presented eight persons for confirmation on two occasions; has also baptized one person at Clifton Springs, one at Phelps, and one—a student—at Geneva; has buried one person, a communicant, at Clifton Springs; and that he has performed divine service and preached on nearly every Sunday since the last Convention.

The Rev. THOMAS MORRIS, residing at Ellicottville, Cattaraugus county, reports, that an attempt to preach, brought on a recurrence of his disease, loss of voice, and convinced him that the hope of attempting ministerial duty for the future was slight indeed, and that his present office of Clerk fully occupied his time.

The Rev. BEARDSLEY NORTROP, residing at New Hartford, reports that, since the last Annual Convention, he has read prayers and preached six Sundays in Calvary Church, Utica, five Sundays in Grace Church, Utica, one Sunday in Trinity Church, Utica, one Sunday in St. Stephen's Church, New Hartford, one Sunday in St. Paul's Church, Paris Hill, three Sundays in St. Stephen's Church, Perryville, and one Sunday in Christ Church, Jordan; has administered the Holy Communion twice, and officiated at one funeral; and has at other times assisted in the services of the Church, and preached.

The Rev. MARCUS A. PERRY, residing in Utica, reports that he has attended Divine service at Grace Church from the 1st of August to the 25th of October, and also all the services of the Lenten Fast; that, in addition, he has assisted in reading Prayers at Grace Church one Sunday, and attended several funerals, by request; that, on the 24th of October, he was requested by the Vestry of Christ Church, Herkimer, to assist them for a few Sundays, until they could procure the services of a Clergyman, to which he assented, and as they have not as yet succeeded in their wishes, he has officiated there until the present. Marriage 1; funerals 5.

The Rev. EPHRAIM PUNDERSON, residing in Cleveland, Ohio, reports that he has preached rather more than usual—probably five or six times—and has worn his Surplice, with a few exceptions, every Sunday, rendering the part of an assistant by reading a portion or the whole of the service; that his School continues about the same, and has thus far furnished him a living, and nothing besides.

The Rev. GERSHOM P. WALDO, Deacon, residing at Nunda, reports that, during the Conventional year now past, he has officiated in Grace Church of that place twenty-eight Sundays, morning and evening; one Sunday at Hume, Allegany county; two Sundays at Mount Morris, for the Rev. Mr. Franklin, and read prayers for him once on a week day ; that the difficulty with his throat has so far recovered that, by God's blessing, he hopes to be free from further interruptions from that source, and will endeavor to make himself useful to Christ and his Church according to his ability.

The Rev. EDWARD R. WELLES, Deacon, residing at Waterloo, reports that, since his ordination, December 20th, 1857, in addition to his duties as Tutor at the DeVeaux College, he has assisted in the daily services of the College Chapel, and preached there three times ; has officiated regularly in the Parishes of Christ Church, Lockport, St. Paul's, Lewiston, and the Epiphany, Suspension Bridge, and three times in other Parishes ; has preached 39 times ; administered Holy Baptism seven times, and attended two funerals.

The Rev. WM. D. WILSON, D. D., Professor of Moral and Intellectual Philosophy and History, in Hobart Free College, Geneva, reports that, during the year since the last Convention, besides the performance of his duties as Professor in Hobart Free College, he has baptized one infant, and taken some part generally in the services of the Church on Sundays and other Holy Days.

PRAYER FOR THE STATE AUTHORITIES.

To the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese of Western New York :

DEAR BRETHREN: I appoint, under the Canon, the following special prayer for the State authorities, which may be used in the public services of the Church before the two final prayers of the morning and evening service.

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DELANCEY,
Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York.

PRAYER

For the State Authorities.

Almighty and everlasting God, Ruler of Nations and Judge of all men, we commend to thy grace and guidance thy servants, the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Judges, with all other officers, of this Commonwealth ; [and especially the Senate and Assembly now in session,] that they may be endowed with wisdom, fidelity and diligence in their official duties. Save them from all error, ignorance, pride and prejudice, that in all their deliberations, proceedings and acts, they may ever promote thy honor and glory, the good of thy Church, and the true welfare of this State and Nation.

Finally, we pray that they all may so faithfully serve thee in this life, that, in the world to come, they may obtain everlasting life, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

NO. III.

PUBLIC EXAMINATION AT ALBANY FOR THE COLLEGES OF THE STATE.

On the 1st of August, 1857, I addressed the following Letter to the Board of Regents:

GENEVA, August 1st, 1857.

To the Honorable the Regents of the University:

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor of addressing to you the following communication in relation to the subject of education in the Colleges of this State. There are nine Colleges in operation within its limits. The general plan of education in regard to Classes, Subjects, Books, Examinations, Degrees, Vacations, Prizes and Honors, may be called almost the same in all, and presents ample opportunity, of education to the youth of the State. To all these Colleges, the State has appropriated, at different times, funds for endowment, assistance and relief. But the State has hitherto failed to advance the interests of the Colleges in two particulars. 1. She has adopted no plan to ascertain whether the education given in the respective Colleges is thorough by testing its efficiency. 2. And she has presented to neither Students, nor Faculties, any stimulus to exertion by competition. Both of these are measures which fall within the powers and duties of the Regents of the University—1st, to test the efficiency of the education in the Colleges: 2d, to present a stimulus to exertion to Faculties and Students by competition. The mode of accomplishing both I beg leave to present to your honorable body. Let a law be passed by the Legislature, on the recommendation of the Board of Regents, requiring—

I. A public examination of College Students, (one or two from each class in each College,) to be held at Albany on the first Tuesday in February of each year, and for eight successive days, giving two days to each class on its studies. Let each College send, under the care of a Professor, at the expense of the College, one or two Students from each class to be thus examined. Let the Regents appoint a Board of Professors to examine the classes. Let the Examiners be such as either are not connected with the Colleges, or from out of the State; or if the Professors of the Colleges form part of the Board of Examiners let it be arranged so that no Professor shall examine Students of his own College. Let the examination be public, before the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Regents, the Senate and the Assembly, and whomsoever may attend. Let the Examiners then test the proficiency of the several Students and, at the close of the examination, arrange them in AN ORDER OF MERIT

II. Let the Legislature appropriate the sum of $——, to be given in a Medal, Books or Money, to the best scholar in each class, as decided by the Board of Examiners.

III. Let the Regents report to the Legislature the result of the examination, with the order of merit, and the name of the College to which the Students belong.

Such a plan, amended as the wisdom of the Regents may suggest, would have a powerful effect, at a small expense, in testing and stimulating the College Education of the State.

I most respectfully and earnestly commend it to the favorable consideration of your Honorable Board.

With great respect, I have the honor to subscribe myself,

Your obedient servant,

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DELANCEY.

On the 22d of February, 1858, I addressed the following Letter to the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Colleges :

GENEVA, February 22, 1858.

HON. JAMES S. WADSWORTH,

Chairman of the Senate Committee on Colleges :

MY DEAR SIR: Will you let me intrude upon your attention, as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Colleges, a measure which I deem very important, which falls within the functions of your Committee, and which I think will commend itself to your judgment as a practical mode of aiding our Colleges in the precise way in which they most need Legislative action and support.

In August last, I addressed the Board of Regents on the subject. My letter, I understand, was referred to a Committee consisting of Mr. J. V. L. Pruyn and Mr. G. Hawley, both of whom, having been under affliction or illness, no report was made on it; and as the plan involves the action of the Legislature, it was thought the consideration of it might properly come before your Committee as the primary step. I understand from Mr. Pruyn that all the papers will be placed in your hands; and my object now is to call your immediate and particular attention to them, and to the whole subject. The great object is to test and stimulate College Education in a way that shall touch Students, Professors and Trustees, and bring the Colleges, as to their character and efficiency, under the direct eye of the Legislature and the Regents.

By reading over the following paper, you will see the plan as proposed in a rough form :

Be it enacted, &c., That on the first Monday in January of each year, the President of each of the following named Colleges in the State, which have received Legislative aid, and are subject to the visitation of the Board of Regents, viz: Columbia College, New York; Union College, Schenectady; Hamilton College, Clinton; Hobart Free College, Geneva; University of New York, New York; Madison University, Hamilton; St. John's College, Fordham; Senesee College, Lima; University of Rochester, Rochester, shall transmit to the Chancellor of the Board of Regents at Albany, the names of the best ten scholars in each Class in the College, Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior, selected by the Faculty, to be laid before the Board, giving with their names, their ages, and the studies they have respectively pursued. That the Board of Regents shall select by lot, or in such way as they may adopt, of the Scholars thus reported to them, one Scholar from each Class in each College, (the age of the Freshman not to exceed 17 years, of the Sophomore 18, of the Junior 19, and of the Senior 20, and the same Scholar not to be selected twice;) and inform the President of each College of the name of the Scholar thus selected.

That such four Scholars from each College, thus selected, shall appear with one of the College Professors at Albany, at the expense of the College, on the first Monday in February in each year, and be reported to the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, as ready to be subjected to a public examination in the presence of the Board of Regents, the officers of the State, and the Senate and Assembly, on the subjects of study which each Class has prosecuted.

That such examination shall be conducted by Examiners, five in number, previously appointed by the Board of Regents, and not connected with the Colleges, whose expenses at Albany shall be defrayed by the Board of Regents.

That two days shall be appropriated to the examination of each Class, beginning with the Freshmen.

That at the end of the examination, each Class shall be arranged by the Examiners in an order of merit founded on the examination, and shall be reported to the Chancellor, and by him to the Senate and Assembly.

That to the Scholar who shall stand first on this merit roll, in each Class, shall be awarded a prize, to be given in public by the Governor of the State, or the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

To the Freshman of One Hundred Dollars, in Money, Medal or Books
To the Sophomore of Two Hundred Dollars,	"	"	"
To the Junior of Three Hundred Dollars,	"	"	"
To the Senior of Four Hundred Dollars,	"	"	"

And that to carry out this act the sum of $1,500 be annually appropriated to the Board of Regents.

The cost of such a measure to the State will be a trifle—$1,500 a year. Its influence upon education will be powerful. It will move alike Professors and Pupils. It brings the work of the Professors before the whole State. It places all the Colleges, great and small, on an equality, to be judged, not by numbers or endowments, but by their work. It holds out high honors to the Students of each class in every College.

1. The honor of being among the best ten Students in the Class, thus securing at least forty good Scholars in each College, and stimulating all in their studies.
2. The honor of being so reported to the Regents.
3. The honor of being possibly selected to go to Albany for such an examination.
4. The possible honor of attaining the highest prize at Albany.
5. The honor of being reported to the Legislature high in the order of merit.

It creates a distinction for the Colleges and the Students which reaches the knowledge of the whole State—a distinction involving actual attainments and real merit. The annual expense to each College will be small, not over $100. The subjection of the Students to public examination is what the College faculties desire, for their own and for the student's sakes. The competition it will excite among the Colleges will be most useful and most honorable. It will bring the work of the Colleges into direct contact with the Regents and the Senate and Assembly. The examination will occupy but little time and form an agreeable relaxation from the labors of the legislative halls, without interfering with the progress of legislation. It will evince to the youth of the State the interest taken in their education by the wise, honorable, aged and exalted among their seniors in knowledge, virtue and distinction. It will give to this State and this Legislature the honor of having first begun a plan of testing, stimulating and securing a thorough education in its Colleges.

Mr. Pruyn says, "the Board of Regents, I have no doubt, will cheerfully do anything they can to aid in carrying it out." The examination will be restricted to College Studies, aside from religion. I can see no solid objection to it from any quarter. It will, I think, ultimately open the way for the adoption of a plan, on similar principles, for our Academies and Common Schools.

I am so strongly impressed with the importance and benefits of this measure to the best interests of College Education, that I must ask you to excuse my pressing it most earnestly on the attention of yourself and the Committee, in order that it may be considered and adopted by the present Legislature.

Commending you in all things to the Divine guidance and blessing, I remain,

Most respectfully,

Your friend and servant,

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DeLANCEY.

On the 15th of March, a Petition, signed by myself and others, was presented to the Assembly, and referred to Mr. John W. Chanler, Chairman of the Committee on Colleges in the Assembly, who reported the following bill:

AN ACT TO PROMOTE PUBLIC EDUCATION.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. On the first Monday in January in each year, the President of each of the following named Colleges in the State, which have received legislative aid, and are subject to the visitation of the Board of Regents, viz: Columbia College, New York; Union College, Schenectady; Hamilton College, Clinton; Hobart Free College, Geneva; University of New York, New York; Madison University, Hamilton; St. John's College, Fordham; Genesee College, Lima; University of Rochester, Rochester; shall transmit to the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, at Albany, the names of the best ten scholars in each class in the College, Freshmen, Sophomore, Junior and Senior, selected by the Faculty, to be laid before the Board, together with their ages and the studies they have respectively pursued.

§ 2. The Board of Regents shall select in such a way as they may see fit, of the scholars thus reported to them, one scholar from each class in each College, the age of the Freshman not to exceed eighteen years, of the Sophomore nineteen, of the Junior twenty, and of the Senior twenty-one, and inform the President of each College of the Scholar thus selected; that such four scholars from each College, thus selected, shall appear with one of the College professors at Albany, at the expense of the College, on the first Monday in February in each year, and be reported to the Chancellor of the Board of Regents, as ready to be subjected to a public examination.

§ 3. Such public examination shall be in the presence of the Board of Regents, of the officers of the State, and the Senate and Assembly, on the subject of study each class has prosecuted; such examination shall be conducted by examiners, five in number, previously appointed by the regents, and not connected with the Colleges, whose expenses at Albany shall be defrayed by the Board of Regents; two days shall be appropriated to the examination of each class beginning with the Freshmen.

§ 4. At the close of the examination, the members of each class shall be arranged by the examiners in an order of merit, founded on the examination, and shall be reported to the Chancellor, and by him to the Senate and Assembly; to the scholar who shall stand first on this merit roll, in each class, shall be awarded a prize, to be given in public by the Governor of the State, or the Chancellor of the Board of Regents.

§ 5. The prizes shall be as follows:

For the Freshman, of one hundred dollars in money, medal or books.

For the Sophomore, of two hundred dollars in money, medal or books.

For the Junior, of three hundred dollars in money, medal or books.

For the Senior, of four hundred dollars in money, medal or books.

That for the purposes of this act, the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars be annually appropriated to the Board of Regents, which shall be paid out of the United States Deposit Fund.

No. IV.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30th, 1858.

RIGHT REV. AND DEAR SIR :

It is made my duty by the 50th Canon of 1832, to give you, as "the Ecclesiastical Authority in the Diocese" of Western New York, "particular notice," that the following Amendments of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church, were "proposed" at the General Convention of the same, held in the city of Philadelphia, in October of 1856. To wit: instead of "Article III." as now in force, the following :

ARTICLE III.

Whenever General Conventions are held, the Bishops of this Church shall form a separate House, with the right to originate and propose acts for the concurrence of the House of Deputies, and all acts must pass both Houses.

And instead of "Article VI." the following :

ARTICLE VI.

The mode of trying Bishops shall be provided by the General Convention. The Court appointed for that purpose, shall be composed of Bishops only. In every Diocese the mode of trying Presbyters and Deacons may be instituted by the Convention of the Diocese, but the General Convention may establish a Court of Appeals, for the revision of the decision of Diocesan Courts. None but a Bishop shall pronounce sentence of admonition, suspension or degradation from the Ministry, on any Clergyman, whether Bishop, Presbyter or Deacon. Such Court of Appeals not to revise the determination of any question of fact.

I remain, Right Rev. and Dear Sir,

Very Respectfully, your Obed't Servant,

M. A. DE WOLFE HOWE,

Sec'y of House of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

The Right Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese of Western New York.

ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.

The Atlantic Telegraph Cable was laid successfully on the fourth attempt, in July and August of eighteen hundred and fifty-eight.

The steamships engaged in the work, were

The Niagara, (American,) Captain WILLIAM L. HUDSON.

The Agamemnon, (English,) Captain GEORGE W. PREEDY.

The Gorgon, (English,) Captain DAYMAN.

The Valorous, (English,) Captain ALDHAM.

On the fourth attempt to lay the Cable, the ships sailed from Queenstown, Ireland, July 17, 1858. They met in mid ocean, latitude 52 59, N., longitude 32 27, W., on Wednesday, July 28th, the ocean being calm.

They spliced or joined the two ends of the Cable, on July 29th, at ONE o'clock, P. M., and separated, the Agamemnon and Valorous for Valentia, Ireland, and the Niagara and Gorgon for Trinity Bay, Newfoundland.

The Niagara and Gorgon reached Trinity Bay, Newfoundland, on Wednesday, August 4th, and landed the Cable on Thursday morning, at 5.15, having payed out 1016 miles, and 600 fathoms of Cable, and run 882 miles in distance.

The Agamemnon and Valorous reached Valentia Bay, Ireland, on the night between the 4th and 5th of August, and landed the Cable on the 5th of August, at 3 P. M., having payed out 1010 miles of Cable, and run 816 miles. Signals passed from steamer Niagara to steamer Agamemnon, backward and forward at intervals, during the whole time of laying the Cable, and on the 6th of August, 1858, signals passed from Valentia Bay to Trinity Bay, through the Cable.

"It is 1696 nautical, or 1950 statute miles from the Telegraph House, at the head of Valentia Harbor, to the Telegraph House, at the Bay of Bulls, Trinity Bay, Newfoundland, and for more than two-thirds of the distance the water is over two miles deep."

The cost of laying the Cable, is stated to have been £381,000, or $1,905,000.

MONDAY, August 10.

The following message was dispatched this evening, from the Directors in England to the Directors in America :

"Europe and America are united by telegraph. 'Glory to God in the high-st ; on earth, peace : good will towards men.'"

This message, including the addresses of senders and receivers, occupied thirty-five minutes in transmission, and consisted of thirty-one words.

Immediately afterwards, a message from her Majesty to the President of the United States, consisting of ninety-nine words, was received at Newfoundland in sixty-seven minutes.

The message sent over by the Queen on the 16th of August, was this :

QUEEN'S MESSAGE:

To the President of the United States :

The Queen desires to congratulate the President upon the successful completion of the Great International Work, in which the Queen has taken the deepest interest.

The Queen is convinced that the President will join with her in fervently hoping, that the Electric Cable, which now connects Great Britain with the United States, will prove an additional link between the Nations whose friendship is founded upon their common interest and reciprocal esteem.

The Queen has much pleasure in thus communicating with the President, and renewing to him her wishes for the prosperity of the United States.

The message in answer, sent by the President, on the 16th of August, was this :

PRESIDENT'S REPLY:

WASHINGTON CITY, August 17, 1858.

Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain :

The President cordially reciprocates the congratulations of her Majesty the Queen, on the success of the Great International Enterprise accomplished by the science, skill, and indomitable energy of the two countries. It is a triumph more glorious, because far more useful to mankind, than was ever won by conqueror on the field of battle. May the Atlantic Telegraph, under the blessing of Heaven, prove to be a bond of perpetual Peace and Friendship between the kindred nations; and an instrument, destined by Divine Providence, to diffuse Religion, Civilization, Liberty and Love throughout the world. In this view will not all nations of Christendom spontaneously unite in the declaration, that it shall be forever neutral, and that its communications shall be held sacred in passing to their places of destination—even in the midst of Hostilities

JAMES BUCHANAN.

Appended are the Letters of Captain Hudson and Cyrus W. Field, Esq., announcing the success of the enterprise, and the Prayer of Captain Hudson, on landing the Cable at Trinity Bay :

TRINITY BAY, August 5, 1858.

God has been with us. The Telegraph Cable is laid without accident, and to him be all the glory. We are all well.

Yours affectionately,

WM. L. HUDSON.

TRINITY BAY, August 5.

The Atlantic Telegraph Fleet sailed from Queenstown July 17th, Saturday. Met at mid-ocean, Wednesday, 28th. Made the splice at 1 P. M. on Thursday, the 29th, and then separated—the Agamemnon and Valorous bound to Valencia, Ireland, and the Niagara and Gorgon for this place, where they arrived yesterday, and this morning the end of the Cable will be landed. It is 1696 nautical, or 1950 statute miles from the Telegraph House, at the head of Valencia Harbor, to the Telegraph House at the Bay of Bulls, Trinity Bay, and for more than two-thirds of this distance, the water is over two miles in depth. The Cable had been paid out from the Agamemnon at about the same speed as from the Niagara. The electrical signals sent and received through the whole Cable, are perfect. The machinery for paying out worked in the most satisfactory manner, and was not stopped for a single minute from the time the splice was made, till we arrived here.

Captain Hudson, Messrs. Everett and Woodhouse, the engineers, the electricians and officers of the ships, and in fact every man on board the fleet has exerted himself to the utmost to make the expedition successful, and by the blessing of Divine Providence it has succeeded.

After the end of the Cable is landed and connected with the land line of telegraph, and the Niagara has discharged some cargo belonging to the Telegraph Company, she will go to St. Johns for coal, and then proceed to New York.

CYRUS W. FIELD.

O, Eternal Lord God, who alone spreadest out the heavens and rulest the raging of the sea, who hast compassed the waters with bounds till day and night come to an end, and whom the winds and the sea obey—look down in mercy, we beseech Thee, upon us, Thy servants, who now approach the throne of grace, and let our prayer ascend before Thee with acceptance. Thou hast commanded and encouraged us in all our ways to acknowledge Thee, and to commit our works to Thee; and Thou hast graciously promised to direct our paths and to prosper our handiwork. We desire now to thank Thee, believing that without Thy help and blessing nothing can prosper or succeed, and we desire humbly to commit all who have been engaged in this undertaking to Thy care, protection and guidance. It has pleased Thee to enable us to complete what we have been led by Thy providence to undertake, that being begun and carried on in the spirit of prayer and in dependence upon Thee, it may tend to Thy glory, and to the good of all nations, by promoting the increase of unity, peace, and concord. May Thy hand of power and mercy be so acknowledged by all, that the language of every heart may be "Not unto us, O Lord; not unto us, but unto Thy name, give glory;" that so Thy name may be hallowed and magnified in us and by us. Thou hast controlled the winds and the sea by Thy almighty power, and granted us such favorable weather that we were enabled to lay the cable safely and effectually. Finally, we beseech Thee to implant within us a spirit of humility and childlike dependence upon Thee; and teach us to feel, as well as to say, "If the Lord will, we shall do this or that." Hear us, O Lord, and hear us in these our petitions according to Thy previous promise, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

A larger number both of the Clergy and of the Lay Deputies, than the Canons require to constitute a quorum, (viz. 20 Clergymen and Deputies from 20 Churches,) being present,

The House then proceeded to the election of a Secretary, when, on motion, the election by ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. William A. Matson was chosen.

The Chair announced to the House that the Secretary had appointed the Rev. Charles W. Hayes his Assistant.

On motion, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted to regulate the proceedings of the present Convention, as follows, viz:

RULES OF ORDER:

IN CONDUCTING THE BUSINESS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF WESTERN NEW YORK.

I. After the Convention has passed upon the irregular and defective certificates, if any, reported by the Committee under section 5th of Canon II, the next business in order shall be the election of a Secretary in conformity with the Canon.

The following Standing Committees shall then be appointed by President:

1. On the Admission into Union with this Convention of Churches applying for the same, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.
2. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, to consist of three Laymen.
3. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, to consist of three Laymen.
4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the Fund, to consist of three Laymen.
5. On Unfinished Business, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

I. Immediately upon the appointment of the Standing Committees, any matter properly referable to the aforesaid Committees, may be presented for reference.

V. Motions, notices, and resolutions shall then be in order.

A Treasurer of the Convention, and a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen shall then be appointed by ballot, as dispensed with by a unanimous vote; when they may be appointed on motion.

I. On the second, and every succeeding day during the sitting of Convention, after the Daily Morning Prayer, the order of business, shall not be departed from without the consent of two-thirds of members present, shall be as follows:

- I. The reading, correcting, and approving of the minutes of the preceding day.
- II. Calling the names of the absent members, and entering in the Journal those who appear.
- III. Reports from Standing Committees in the following order:
 1. On the Admission into Union with the Convention of this Diocese, of Churches applying for that purpose.
 2. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.
 3. On the Treasurer's Accounts.
 4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and the condition of the fund.
 5. On Unfinished Business.

iv. Reports from the Secretary and Treasurer, when these officers have any business committed to them, shall then be in order; and then Reports from the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and from the Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.

v. Reports from the Special Committees in the order in which they were appointed.

vi. Unfinished Business shall then be in order.

vii. Motions, resolutions, and miscellaneous business.

VII. The Bishop's Address shall be in order at any time.

VIII. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair, shall vote thereon unless excused by the House.

IX. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded; and, when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, when required by the President, or any member.

X. If the question in debate contain several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

XI. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived it shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

XII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIII. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and the churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journals.

XIV. Any five votes may require the ayes and noes to be taken by orders; and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XV. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XVI. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XVII. All special committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XVIII. The election of the Standing Committee, and of Deputies to the General Convention, and the election of any person to supply a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, or in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, shall be the order of the day for 12 o'clock, on the second day of every annual meeting of the Convention.

XIX. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect; unless by the votes of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XX. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected, and approved.

XXI. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon; and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock, P. M.

On motion,

Resolved, That Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention; Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, not belonging to this Diocese; Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, be admitted to sittings in this Convention.

Resolved, That Clergymen of the United Church of England and Ireland in Great Britain and its Colonies who may be present, be admitted to sittings in this Convention.

The President having announced this invitation, the following gentlemen took their seats, viz :

The Rev. R. B. Van Kleeck, D. D., Rev. J. D. Philip, Rev. Edward K. Fowler, of the Diocese of New York; the Rev. A. A. Marple, the Rev. Richard Smith, of the Diocese of Pennsylvania; the Rev. George A. Leakin, of the Diocese of Maryland; the Rev. George R. Davis, of the Diocese of Connecticut; the Rev. James A. Bolles, D. D., of the Diocese of Massachusetts; the Rev. William A. Rich, of the Diocese of Ohio; the Rev. Martin Moody, the Rev. Robert Campbell, and the Rev. Charles E. Cheney, of the Diocese of Western New York; and Mr. Edgar T. Chapman, a Candidate for Orders in the Diocese of New York.

The Chair then announced the following Standing Committees:

On the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention :

Rev. W. B. Ashley, D. D., Messrs. C. H. Carroll and Washington Hunt.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen :

Messrs. Alfred Ely, James W. Glover and W. H. Walker.

On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention :

Messrs. Wm. B. Douglas, A. P. Granger and Truman Heminway.

On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate :

Messrs. Henry W. Rogers, W. C. Pierrepont and Maurice Birdsall.

On Unfinished Business :

Rev. Ferdinand Rogers, Messrs. D. C. Calvin and W. H. Bull.

The following Churches applied for admission into union with this Convention, viz :

Christ Church, Belvidere, Allegany county ; Grace Church, Dundee, Yates county ; St. Philip's Church, Philipsville, Allegany county ; St. John's Church, Wellsville, Allegany county ; Grace Church, Randolph, Cattaraugus county.

On motion, the application was referred to the Standing Committee on the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention.

The President then called for Reports from the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund, the Education and Missionary Board, the Treasurer of the Convention, and the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, which having been laid on the table, were severally referred, on motion, to the respective Standing Committees.

The Bishop read the following communication from the Standing Committee :

The Standing Committee of the Diocese would respectfully report : That on the 15th day of Dec. 1858, Wm. V. I. Mercer, Treasurer of the Convention resigned his office on account of extreme ill health. William B. Douglas was requested to take temporary charge of the funds and books belonging to the Treasurer. Fletcher Williams, of Newark, was appointed to fill the office of Treasurer, till the next Convention. And his bond, as required by Canon VI of the Diocese, was received and deposited in the custody of the Standing Committee.

All of which is submitted,

K. METCALF, Pres. of Stand. Com.

W. H. A. BISSELL, Sec'y.

The House then proceeded to the election of a Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, and a Treasurer of the Convention. A vote by ballot being, in both cases, dispensed with, unanimously elected Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen ; and unanimously elected Treasurer of the Convention.

S. H. VERPLANCK, Esq.,

FLETCHER WILLIAMS, Esq.,

On the motion of the Rev. C. H. Platt,

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to recommend to the next Convention, the names of twenty-one persons to be nominated to the Convention, as Trustees of the General Theological Seminary.

The Chair appointed the Rev. Charles H. Platt, the Rev. P. P. Pier, and the Rev. W. B. Ashley, D. D.

The Bishop then, in compliance with the Canon, delivered the following address.

ADDRESS.

BROTHEREN—The Clergy and Laity of the Convention :

I am very glad to present to you, as required by the Canon, the annual record of my official acts.

Immediately after the adjournment of the last Convention, I returned to Geneva, where, on the 22d, I read prayers in St. Peter's Chapel.*

On the 23d, I left Geneva, and went to Philadelphia, to attend the consecration of the Rev. Dr. Samuel Bowman, the newly elected Assistant Bishop of Pennsylvania, which took place in Christ Church of Philadelphia, on Wednesday morning, the 25th August, Bishop Kemper acting as consecrator, assisted by Bishops De Lancey, of Western New York, Lee, of Delaware, Williams, of Connecticut, and Potter, of New York. I preached on the occasion.

On the 26th, I attended, with Bishop Bowman, the laying of the corner stone of a new Church—John the Baptist's—at Germantown, and made a brief address.

On the 29th, I preached morning and afternoon in Trinity Church, Philadelphia, and in the evening, I read prayers, and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On Sunday, September 5th, I administered the holy communion in Christ Church, Geneva, and also in private to a sick person.

And in the evening, I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 12th, I held an ordination in St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, where, after confirming two persons, I admitted the Rev. Edward R. Welles, Deacon, to the order of Priests, and administered the communion.

On the 19th, I preached in the morning in Hobart College Chapel, and in the evening in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 22d, I attended a meeting of the Trustees of De Veaux College at Niagara Falls.

On the 23d, I transferred the Rev. Edward R. Welles to Minnesota, and received the Rev. Gemont Graves into this Diocese from Vermont. He has taken charge of St. Thomas' Church, Hamilton.

On the 26th, I read prayers in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva.

On the 3d of October, I administered the holy communion in Trinity Church, in the morning, and read prayers in St. Peter's Chapel in the evening.

On the 7th, I transferred the Rev. Cuthbert C. Barclay to the Diocese of Connecticut.

On the 10th, I read prayers and preached in St. Peter's Chapel, Geneva, in the evening.

On the 14th, in Christ Church, Baltimore, I preached, on the urgent invitation of the Secretary of the Domestic Committee, in the absence of the appointed preacher, before the Board of Missions, and attended the meeting of the Board.

On the 17th, in the morning, I attended Christ Church, Philadelphia, where I took part in the services, reading the Collects, the Litany and the Epistle, and heard an admirable sermon, from Mark xii, 37-39, on Christ's prayer in the Garden, from the venerable Bishop Henry Ustick Onderdonk—the first and last sermon I had heard from his lips since his restoration. In the afternoon I preached in St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia.

On the 23d, I transferred the Rev. James A. Robinson to the Diocese of New York.

I preached in St. John's Church, Buffalo, in the morning of the 24th, and in the evening, in St. Luke's Church, in the same city.

On the 29th, I pronounced and recorded, in the presence of two Presbyters, the deposition of Daniel Murphy from the ministry, as prescribed by the Canon of the Church, he having connected himself with a religious body not in union with this Church.

On Sunday, the 31st, I held a special ordination in St. John's Church, Whitestown, where I confirmed four persons, preached, and ordained the Rev. William Allen Johnson, Deacon, to the Priesthood, and administered the holy communion.

In the afternoon of the same day, I preached and confirmed fifteen persons in St. Peter's Church, Oriskany.

On Monday morning, November 1st, I consecrated the new Church at Hampton village, Westmoreland, Oneida county, by the name of Gethsemane Church; confirmed one person from St. John's Church, Whitestown, and preached on the occasion.

On November 1st, I received into this Diocese the Rev. William J. Alger from the Diocese of New York, and transferred the Rev. Louis L. Noble to that Diocese.

On the 5th, I transferred Mr. Henry W. Spalding, Candidate for Orders, to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Wisconsin.

On the 7th, I administered the holy communion in Trinity Church, Geneva.

On the 13th, I read prayers in the same Church.

On the 15th, I attended a meeting of the Standing Committee, and received the recommendation of the Rev. Messrs. Shipman, Gorham and Van Antwerp for Priest's Orders, and of Messrs. Sleeper, Roberts, Cheney and Ferguson for Deacon's Orders.

On Sunday, November 21st, I held an ordination in Trinity Church, Utica, when the Rev. William O. Gorham, Aaron R. Van Antwerp and Jacob Shaw Shipman, Deacons, were admitted to the Priesthood, and Messrs. Charles Edward Cheney, Thomas Dunn Sleeper and William Roberts, were ordained Deacons. I preached and administered the holy communion on the occasion.

I preached also in Calvary Church in the evening, and confirmed six persons. These were my final services in the Diocese before leaving the country for England, in pursuance of the resolution of the Convention. In taking leave I addressed to my Brethren, the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese, on the 22d, the following Farewell Letter inserted as a note.*

FAREWELL LETTER.

To the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese of Western New York :

MY BRETHREN:—Of the gratifying and liberal proceedings of the late Convention, in inviting and authorizing a brief relaxation of my labors by going to England or elsewhere, and in promptly providing the means, (as received,) I have hitherto, from illness in my family, been unable to take benefit; but Providence having now opened the way, I design, God willing, to be absent from the Diocese during the winter months, and to return as early in the spring as Providence, and a propitious season shall allow; in time to commence my usual Easter visitation.

I have just held an ordination for such as were canonically prepared to receive orders; and my Right Reverend Brother, the Bishop of Michigan, has consented to hold an ordination in St. Paul's Church, Buffalo, on the 1st of January. All the Parishes requiring Episcopal services have been duly visited within about eighteen months. There is no Church Edifice that will be ready for consecration until Easter. The regular season for holding confirmations will not occur until that time, when I trust to be again in the field of my pastoral authority during my absence, and whatever Episcopal duties and circumstances may exact, the Bishop of Michigan will readily perform, whose example I confide in the Parish in which he shall officiate, to make a collection to defray the expenses of my journey.

And now, my brethren, in taking leave of you for a short season, to encounter the perils of the deep and the exposures of travel, let me solicit your prayers for the welfare of me and mine, and for the protection and blessing of God our Saviour in our behalf. I humbly and affectionately ask and entreat the use of the short collect hereto appended, before the two final prayers of the morning and evening service, as often as may be deemed appropriate.

It is approaching a period of twenty years since I was placed in charge of the Diocese in the Lord. During that period my duties have called me away from home more than ten years in time and over one hundred thousand miles in travel. For personal relaxation, aside from official duty, I have scarcely been absent from my Diocese a month. In my imperfect labors I have been enabled by the love and confidence of my brethren, both of the Clergy and Laity, to maintain peace and harmony of the Diocese have hardly been ruffled by distraction or storms. But two clergymen of the Diocese have been perverted to the service of Rome, and one of these has returned to the embrace of truth; two have deserted to other religious bodies. Notwithstanding the heavy and exhausting drafts made upon us both of Clergy and Laity, the communion have increased from 8,218 in the year 1839, to 10,551 in 1858. I have added for the Diocese 125 Candidates for Orders, ordained seventy Deacons, and a hundred and nine Priests, consecrated sixty Churches, and transferred to the Diocese more clergymen than all I have ordained to the Diaconate and Priesthood.

The principles and views in which I was trained in the Church, founded on Holy Scripture, and conforming to her Creeds, Articles and Liturgy, I have no reason to change, compromise, deny, or suppress:—

God, a Creator, self-existent, supreme, eternal.

Man, his creature, seduced, fallen, a sinner without claim or merit.

Christ, the Son of God, divine, incarnate, a Saviour.

The Holy Ghost, divine, the Regenerator, Strengthenener, Sanctifier.

The Earth, the scene of conflict between the Son of God and Satan.

Redemption, free.

he embarked in the steamer Asia, Captain Lott, on Wednesday, the 11th of November, 1858, at eleven o'clock, A. M., and were soon upon the broad ocean.

vation for all who accept its offers; exclusion from heaven, self earned, decreed.

Christ, triumphant with His disciples in Heaven.

Satan, vanquished with his followers in Hell.

In this great conflict, the Ministry, as Christ's Ministry, its succession in the Church He appointed it, guaranteed by Him.

The Church, as Christ's Church, its worship sanctioned, its existence perpetuated, its powers authorized by Him.

The Bible, as God's Word, its doctrines inspired, its sacraments instituted, and its precepts and morals enforced and exemplified by Him—all existing for the call, for conversion, instruction, edification and salvation of sinners by an appointment with no earthly authority, or wisdom, or presumption can impugn, arrest or defeat, without sinful resistance of His authority and will.

The Church, presenting, in the very midst of error, ignorance, schism, and heresy, of independence, however spurned and scorned, or decried, or disregarded, able and incompetent by the world, the power and influence of a visible Church in a night of storm—of an anchor against the force of winds and waves, an ark, (it is an inspired emblem,) an ark of safety riding on the deluge of confusion and darkness, (a darkness that may be felt,) which is spreading all around us on this subject; alluring men from sin to holiness, from error to truth, from Satan to God; and offering, in virtue of Christ's atonement, pardon, grace and life to all men, from that great Being who created men, and redeemed and regenerated them when seduced from their allegiance, and now in mercy through the Church imparts the power of repentance and calls us to repent, imparts the power of faith and calls us to believe, imparts the power of obedience and calls us to obey, imparts the knowledge of God and calls us to recognize and serve him, and thus, by its moral responsibility and then holds us responsible to Him by an eternal retribution of bliss or woe.

On these views, founded on Scripture and upheld by the Church in her Creeds, Catechisms and Liturgy, I have endeavored to adhere and to guide you. To these I exhort you to adhere, not in pride, or arrogance, or outside denunciations, but temperately, firmly, and steadily, unshaken, unterrified, unseduced, by the world, the flesh, the devil, the fear, the love, and the service of God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, clearly knowing, fearlessly avowing, and intensely feeling, that the Church, in her doctrine, ministry, worship, sacraments and grace, is on no foundation of sand, but on a rock, the rock of truth, duty and holiness.

Beloved brethren of the Clergy, I exhort you to fidelity; "reprove, rebuke, exhort, all long suffering and patience."

Indifferent, careless and heedless, I call you to repentance.

Beloved brethren, I urge you to growth in grace and knowledge.

Beloved brethren, "the day is far spent, the night is at hand," "be ye also ready."

Valiant soldiers of Christ, "put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil, and having done all to stand." Children of the Church, open your hearts to Him who out of the mouths of babes and infants has ordained strength, and proclaims of you "let them come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Beloved brethren, all, believe, obey, and live. I carry you in my heart and on my throne to the Throne of Grace. I commend you all to God and the word of His promise, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all them who are sanctified.

On Sunday, the 28th, in latitude 45 degrees 4 minutes, and longitude 52 degrees 14 minutes, I read prayers and preached in the cabin of the steamer, on the invitation of the Captain, who, with his officers and crew, attended the services, and whose practice is to read the service himself, if no Clergyman of the Church be present.

The following Sunday, the 5th of December, we landed at Liverpool.*

I was in time to attend the evening service at St. Mark's Church, and was delighted to be again in the temple of God, and under the hallowed influences of its worship, in which, I trust, I united, on the occasion, with a thankful heart.

We remained in Liverpool several days, to recruit from the effects of the voyage, and to prepare for our journey to London.

I was cordially welcomed by the brethren, whom I met, several of them acquaintances, made at my former visit in 1852.

While in Liverpool, I attended, in my robes, the consecration of St. Columba's Church by the Bishop of Chester, who preached on the occasion. The Bishops proceeded from the vestry room to the chancel,

May His love warm, His grace enrich, His power protect, His wisdom guide, and His infinite mercy, through Christ, embrace you all in the arms of everlasting life. Farewell.

Your friend and Bishop,

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY.

GENEVA, W. N. Y. November 22d, 1858.

PRAYER.

Almighty God, the Protector of all that trust in Thee, we commend to thy Fatherly protection and blessing, thy servant, the Bishop of the Diocese, with his companions, now absent from our country; and we implore thee to grant that they may be preserved from all perils by land and by water, comforted and succoured in every danger, necessity and tribulation, carried in safety to the haven where they would be, and be refreshed and edified by the intercourse, sympathy and kindness, of our brethren in distant lands; so that, filled with thy grace and benediction, they may, in thy good Providence, return in health and safety, and with thankful hearts, to their homes and duties, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

the legal documents were read ; after which, the procession, by the Bishop, went through the aisles, and returned to the

The consecrating service was completed, and morning prayer I did not partake in the service, but, as one of the witnesses of the transaction, at the Bishop's request, I appended my name to the certificate of consecration. My presence was thus alluded to by the Bishop in his sermon, as stated in the newspaper report :*

Lordship concluded by saying that he had the unexpected grat- and deep pleasure of meeting there, besides the clergy of his diocese, ministers of the Church of England, no less a distinguished man than the Bishop of Western New York, in the United States of America. That prelate showed his sympathy with them that day. He was among them with the feelings of a brother, and showing his sympathy and brotherly affection for England's Church. He hoped the Bishop of Western New York would allow him to say that he had met him there as a brother, and as one of themselves, and that he trusted God that there might ever be the same friendship and sympathy, the same union between the churches of England and America, and that God in his blessing might also forever maintain between them peace, concord and good-will between these, the two great-tries of the world."

He proceeded to London on the 10th.

On Monday, the 12th, I attended service at the Foundling Hospital in the morning, and at St. Pancras Church, in the afternoon.

On the 19th, I attended at St. George's, Bloomsbury Square, in the morning, and in the evening was, with an immense concourse of more than three thousand people, an attendant at the imposing and

St. Columba's Church was for the working classes, to whom the Bishop thus described a man in whose heart was the true spirit of religion, was a friend of order ; he was obedient to the laws, loyal to the throne, a promoter of peace and concord and good-will among mankind, and such a man must be seen. The man who was not so happy as to have religion in his heart, alas ! the reverse of the picture he had just drawn. But the working classes in Liverpool showed that they had a respect for their religion, and that they loved its truths propounded, for they had subscribed nearly £40, in small aid according to their scanty means, towards the purchase of St. Columba's Church, which formerly belonged to the Wesleyans. The Working Man's Aid Society had given also £30 a year, towards the maintenance of the church, whilst no less than £20 had been contributed by the working men for the case of the beautiful baptismal font. He was grateful to the working men of Liverpool for this testimony to their love of the Established Church ; and hoped their exertions would not cease, for it was necessary that, owing to the small endowments of St. Columba's Church, something should be done for the maintenance of the minister, who, to great extent, had to rely upon the offerings and collections in the Church."

impressive services at St. Paul's Cathedral, and listened to an eloquent extemporaneous sermon from the lips of Dr. Hook, now the Dean of Winchester.

On the 23d, we proceeded to Hursley Park, where we spent the Christmas Season, with its pleasant festivities, holy services and sacred joys.

On Christmas day, which was Saturday, were two services, and the communion at the morning service. At the afternoon service, the Rev. Mr. Keble preached. On Sunday morning he also preached and administered the holy communion. On this day also were two services.

Prayers and the holy communion were held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, being the Festival of Stephen, St. John and the Holy Innocents. It was a season of festivity and joy.*

I was invited to preach in several of these services, but the previous consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, as exacted by the law,† though impliedly, had not been formally given, and I declined. It was promptly and cordially granted by the Bishop of Winchester as soon as asked; and as readily and cheerfully by other Prelates in whose Dioceses I officiated.

On the 28th, the Bishop of Ohio and his daughter, being at Winchester with the Rev. Mr. Carus, a Canon of the Cathedral, joined us at Hursley Park, at lunch, and two Bishops of the American Church, descendants of Col. Caleb Heathcote, of America, were entertained by Sir William Heathcote, Bart., a descendant of his brother in England. The brothers had separated, in the course of Providence, more than 150 years before.

On Sunday, the 2d of January, I preached in All Saints' Church, Hursley, for the Rev. John Keble, and aided in the holy communion, and in the same Church, I attended prayers and the holy communion on the Festival of the Epiphany, January 6th.

On Sunday, the 9th, on invitation of the Rev. Richard Wood, I preached in behalf of the Society for the propagation of the Gospel,

*The Baron of beef of 120 lbs. weight, the Christmas pie of game, the mince pie of broad dimensions, the Boar's head, the Christmas gifts, the exhibition of the mummers in the Hall, the supper of the tenants with the Squire, the concert of the Parish Choir, all these occurred in the usual places in the course of the joyous season, and were to us novel and pleasing specimens of an English Christmas.

st Church, Paddington, London. In the evening, I attended impressive services in Westminster Abbey, and listened with more than two thousand auditors, to an able sermon by the Rev. Anthony Archdeacon of St. Albans.

On the 12th, in pursuit of a milder climate for Mrs. De Lancey, I sailed for Torquay, in Devonshire, which we reached the next day, where we remained until the 18th of February, enjoying the hospitality and attention of many friends, and improving in health and strength, notwithstanding the soft, relaxing and unexpectedly rainy character of the climate. While at Torquay, I had the gratification of listening to an interesting and impressive discourse from the lips of the Venerable Bishop of Exeter, and of witnessing also, an extra confirmation, held by that Prelate, of some forty-two persons in St. Matthias' Church. The communion service only was used, followed by the confirmation without sermon or address, the Bishop not being well.

On the 19th, I preached in Torquay, on the 16th, in St. Mark's Church; in the evening, in the morning, and in the evening, in a private room to the navvies or workmen, on the 23d, in St. Matthias' Church, on the 30th, in Torquay, on February 13, in St. John's Church, in the morning, and at Exeter, in the afternoon.

On the 21st, I attended the opening of Parliament by the Queen, on the 22d, of February, with a royal speech, and attended the House of Commons, in the evening, to hear the reply discussed.

On the 16th, I visited the Training School for male teachers, at Exeter, under the charge of the Rector, in a convenient and well arranged edifice, which cost about £10,000, ($50,000.) The school has 120 scholars, and is sustained at an annual cost of £2,000, of which the Government supplies one-half. There are 20 such Church Training Schools in England, for males, and more for females, to provide teachers for the Parochial Schools.

On the 20th, I preached in the Chapel of the Training School for teachers, at Fishponds, near Bristol, for the Rev. William Smith, who is in charge of a neat and handsome establishment, with 70 pupils.

On the 24th, on the invitation of the Archbishop, I attended in Westminster Abbey, the consecration of the Rev. George Hills, as Bishop of British Columbia, and united with the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Bishops of London, Oxford, Norwich and New Foundation, in the imposition of hands on the new Bishop.

On the 2d of March, myself and my son were presented to her Majesty the Queen, by his Excellency, George M. Dallas, the United States Minister, and a personal friend of my early ministry in Philadelphia.

I attended, on the 10th, the daily afternoon service at St. James' Church, Davenport, where, on invitation and under the guidance of the Rev. Æneas B. Hutchinson, I visited and inspected the shipping and the Dock Yards there and at Plymouth, and did not fail to behold with an eye of interest, the spot whence the Puritan emigrants, in the May Flower, took leave of their mother, the Church of England.

At the time I was contemplating arrangements for an early return to America, I received a letter, signed by several of the Clergy and others of the Diocese, suggesting a longer delay in England, to which I was glad to accede, on account of the exposure to which a return in March, would have subjected Mrs. De Lancey's health.

On the 12th, we proceeded to the continent, reaching Paris from London, via. Folkestone and Bologne, in less than fifteen hours.

On the 20th, in Paris, in an upper room of the Oratoire Church, I held a confirmation for the Rev. William O. Lamson, preached and confirmed the five following persons, viz :

Frederick Rhinelanders Jones, of New York,
Henry White Lansing, of Western New York,
Elizabeth Stuyvesant Fish, of New York,
Sarah Morris Fish, of New York,
Henrietta Reubell, of New York.

Prayers and the preface were read by the Rev. William O. Lamson and the ante-communion service by the Rev. Charles Mason, of Massachusetts.

In the afternoon, I preached to the English congregation, under the pastoral charge of the Rev. Arthur Gurney, who had kindly invited me to assist him, and under whose care several of the American Churchmen had placed themselves.

I had the pleasure of intercourse with many of our American brethren in Paris, and the number of Churchmen attracted to that city, by business, amusement, curiosity or study impressed me with the necessity of distinct provision of our Church services there, and of the sustantation of the effort to provide them, already begun by the Rev. Mr. Lamson.*

I left PARIS on the 25th, and spent Sunday, the 27th, at LYONS, where on the morning of that day, I preached for the English congregation, worshipping in the Lutheran Church of that city.

I spent the first Sunday in April in Geneva, Switzerland, where in the morning, on the invitation of the Chaplain, the Rev. Henry Downton, in the Holy Trinity Church, I preached and administered the holy communion to forty-two persons; and preached again in the evening. The church, the pulpit, and the grave of Calvin could not but attract the attention of a Protestant. They have been too often described to need detail. However discordant in theology and polity, I visited them with veneration. The only mark upon the grave, is a stone six inches by eight in dimensions, and a foot high, inserted at the head of the grave, with the letters J. C. cut on the top of it; the whole arranged according to his own directions. His pulpit, preserved in its original simplicity, it is said, no longer proclaims the doctrines which he taught, and thousands visit Geneva and the cemetery, without noticing or knowing of his grave. I was shown a list of the names of the English and Scottish refugees, from the persecution of Queen Mary, who fled to Geneva, and copies of the proceedings and correspondence of the Church of which John Knox was the Pastor, the publication of which is in contemplation, and I bespoke a copy for the Library of Hobart College.

On our return to Paris, on the 6th, I had the pleasure to meet in the car, Monsieur Gustave J. Beaumont, a grandson of General La Fayette, just returning from a visit to his friend, Monsieur De Tocqueville, lying ill at Cannes, under the disease which soon after carried him to the grave. I could not but be gratified by his kind expressions of regard for our country and our institutions.

I visited Caen, in Normandy, from which my Huguenot ancestor fled from the fires of persecution, and also Verberie, in Picardy, where in remoter ages, the family had resided.

At the Oratoire, in Paris, on the 10th, I preached for the Rev. Mr. Lamson, and again in the same place on the 17th, in the afternoon of which day, I preached in the Marboeuf Chapel, for the Rt. Rev. Dr. Spencer, who visited New York in 1853, and with Archdeacon Sinclair attended the General Convention in that year, as a deputation from the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

* See Appendix.

I left Paris, on the 19th, on my way to Scotland, to attend the consecration of the Rev. William Scot Wilson, as the new Bishop of Glasgow and Galloway, to which I was invited by the Primus, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Terrott, of Edinburgh.

On my way, I spent Good Friday, the 22d, at Brighton, England, where I preached in St. Peter's Church, for the Rev. Mr. Cook, and on Sunday, the 24th, Easter Day, I preached in St. John's Church, Edinburgh, for my friend, the Dean of Edinburgh, the Rev. E. B. Ramsay.

The consecration took place on Tuesday, in Easter Week, the 26th, in St. Paul's Church, Edinburgh. I read one of the lessons in the service, and united in the imposition of hands, with the Primus, Bishop Terrott, and Bishops Wordsworth, Forbes and Trower. I had already united in the consecration of an English Colonial Bishop, with the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Bishops of Oxford, Norwich and New Foundland, and now with our Scottish brethren, in the consecration of a Scottish Bishop.

As this is the first time, but one, that such an union of the Episcopal successions has occurred, and I was so cordially welcomed to the act, I deemed it proper to put it on record, as an historical fact, by a formal letter to the Presiding Bishop of our Church, a copy of which I here insert in a note.*

*LETTER TO BISHOP BROWNELL

LONDON, ENGLAND, May 30th, 1859.

To the Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Brownell, D. D., Presiding Bishop of the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:

I deem it to be matter both of interest and propriety that I should, before leaving England, communicate to you, as Presiding Bishop, in such form that it may be put on record in connection with the history of our American Protestant Episcopal Church, the fact that a Bishop of our branch of the Church has, in my person, for the first time been a participant in the act of consecration of a colonial Bishop of the Church of England and Ireland,* and also of a Bishop of the Scottish Episcopal Church. I therefore address you this brief letter to be laid before the House of Bishops at the approaching General Convention.

As Bishop of Western New York I was present, by invitation, at the service in Westminster Abbey on the 24th day of February, of this current year, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, at the consecration of the Rev. George Eliot as Bishop of British Columbia, and I united by request of the Archbishop of

*The Rt. Rev. Charles P. McEvaine, Bishop of Ohio, united in the imposition of hands at the consecration of the Bishop of Lincoln in 1853.

I retraced my steps on the 27th, and reached Southwell, Nottinghamshire, in the evening of that day, where, on the 28th, I attended the Collegiate Church, the Choral Festival Service, to which I had been invited. I preached on the occasion, in the morning, to a dense congregation, comprising, including myself, 3 Bishops, 2 Archdeacons, 5 Clergymen, 300 Choristers, and 1000 of the people.

In the afternoon, the sermon was by the Bishop of Lincoln, in the nave of the Church, to even a larger body of people.

I append an account of these services, at which I was received so cordially and treated with so much hospitality and kindness.*

I returned to my family at Brighton, on Saturday, the 30th, at night, having been absent eight days—preached three times, administerbury, the Consecrator, with the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishops of London, Oxford, Norwich and Newfoundland, in the imposition of hands on the Reverend George Hills, thus consecrated as Bishop of British Columbia.

The Bishop designate was presented for consecration by the Bishops of Oxford and Norwich, and the sermon was preached by the Bishop of London. I assisted with the other Bishops in the administration of the Lord's Supper by the distribution of the elements. The following are the names of the Bishops present, viz:

John Bird Sumner, Archbishop and Consecrator, and Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, Samuel Wilberforce, Bishop of Oxford, John Thomas Ham, Bishop of Norwich, Edward Field, Bishop of Newfoundland, William Heathcote DeLancey, Bishop of Western New York.

was present also by invitation at the services in St. Paul's Church, Edinburgh, Scotland, on the twenty-sixth day of April, of this current year, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, at the consecration of the Rev. William Scot Wilson as Bishop of Glasgow and Galloway, and by invitation of the Primus of the Scottish Episcopal Church, the Rt. Rev. Charles Hughes Terrott, Bishop of Edinburgh, I united with the Primus, the Consecrator, the Bishop of St. Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane, the Bishop of Brechin, and Bishop Walter John Trower, Assistants, in the imposition of hands.

The Bishop elect was presented by the Bishop of St. Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane, and the Bishop of Brechin, and the sermon was preached by Bishop Walter John Trower.

The names of the Bishops uniting in the consecration are as follows: Charles Hughes Terrott, Primus and Consecrator, Charles Wordsworth, Bishop of St. Andrews, Dunkeld and Dunblane, Alexander Penrose Forbes, Bishop of Brechin, Walter John Trower, late Bishop of Glasgow and Galloway, William Heathcote DeLancey, Bishop of Western New York, Assistants. I was cordially welcomed to these solemn services as a Bishop of the American Protestant Episcopal Church with warm expressions of sympathy and affection.

I earnestly commend you to the grace of God, and imploring the divine blessing on his Church here and at home,

I remain most sincerely and faithfully,

Your friend and brother,

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY,

Bishop of Western New York.

istered the communion three times, united in the consecration of a Bishop, attended the Choral Festival, and traveled one thousand miles.

On the 1st of May, I attended a confirmation by the Bishop of Chichester, in St. Peter's Church, Brighton, when seven hundred and eighty two persons were confirmed, to whom the Bishop, prior to the act, made an interesting and practical address; morning prayer having been read by the Rector, and the Confirmation Preface read by the Bishop's Chaplain. In administering the rite, he laid his hands upon each candidate in silence, to the number of fifteen, and then pronounced the words in the plural number for all.

I stopped at Chichester, on the 6th, and had a brief interview with the new Dean, the Rev. Dr. Hook, by whom I was desired to remain, and preach in the Cathedral, on Sunday, but a previous engagement prevented. We attended the Cathedral service in the afternoon; I partook of the hospitality of Canon Pilkington, and I had the pleasure of meeting the Venerable Dean Garnier, of Winchester, at his table.

Sunday, the 8th, I spent at Mortimer, West End, and preached for the Rev. Adolphus L. White, both morning and evening, to a plain congregation, and visited and addressed the Sunday School, held in a cottage.

I visited the Bradfield School, on the 9th. It is under the care of its founder, the Rev. Thomas Stevens, who explained to me its origin, plan and arrangements, and whose hospitality I enjoyed. It being vacation, I did not see the youth, for whose moral, physical and spiritual condition such ample and effective provision is made.

We spent the afternoon and night of the 10th at Oxford, and the morning of the 11th, visited the Bishop of Oxford, at Cuddesdon, where with the Bishop and the Archdeacons, Bickersteth and Randall. I witnessed the signatures of the new Principal, Vice Principal and Chaplain of the College, to the promise of Fidelity, and afterwards visited the College itself. We reached London the same night.

On the 12th, we attended the baptism of a relative, Maudie Mary, infant daughter of Col. Henry D. White, in Trinity Church, Sloane street, by the Rev. W. S. Moncrief. The baptismal service only was performed, and sprinkling, not pouring, was the mode.

On Sunday morning, the 15th, I preached for the Rev. Henry Howarth, in St. George's Church, Hanover Square, and administered the holy communion.

On the 18th, I attended the Festival of the Sons of the Clergy, in St. Paul's Cathedral, where the sermon was preached by the Rev. Daniel Moore.

On invitation of the Steward, I dined with the Lord Mayor, the Archbishop and Bishops, clergy and others, at the Merchant Tailor's Hall, in Threadneedle street, where a collection was made, amounting with donations, to £2,000, ($10,000;) the object of the institution being aid to the families of Clergymen in need.

I preached at Curzon Chapel, Curzon street, for the Rev. Ernest Hawkins, in the morning of the 22d, and in the afternoon, again, in St. George's, Hanover Square, for the Rev. Mr. Howarth, in behalf of his Parish Day Schools.

On Monday, the 23d, I attended the visitation of Archdeacon Sinclair, in St. Paul's Church, Covent Garden. The Clergy appeared in black gowns, except the officiating minister, who read prayers. The charge was delivered from the Chancel. The names of the Clergy, who assembled round the Chancel, were first called. Excuses for absentees were stated.

The subject of the charge was the PAROCHIAL SYSTEM, beginning with a quotation in its favor, from Daniel Webster, founded on his own observation and reflection, and urging very ably its benefits, as well as pointing out its defects.

I went to Richmond Hill, on the 24th, to pay my respects to Mrs. Blomfield, the widow of the late Bishop of London, and by her I was deputed to present, in her behalf, to the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, a bust of her late husband, which she is about to forward to New York.

In the evening of the same day, I attended a meeting at Kensington Hall, presided over by Archdeacon Sinclair, in behalf of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and spake in its behalf.

I attended also, on the 25th, in St. James' Hall, the Annual Meeting of the same society, at which the Archbishop of Canterbury presided, and the Bishops of Durham, Oxford, Carlisle, Grahamstown, Capetown, St. Asaph, Litchfield, St. Helena, (designate,) a large body of Clergy, and a full audience attended.

Sundry speeches were made, and among the speakers were the Rev. Mr. Mason, of Boston, and myself. It was on this occasion that I ventured to suggest a plan for enlarging the Library of Hobart College, simple and easy of application, and in no way interfering with the appeals of the Colonial Bishops for men and money, and which I afterwards had printed and distributed—that each clergyman and layman so disposed, should send to my agent in London or at Liverpool, a volume for the Library. It was favorably received, and the Venerable Archbishop, the Bishop of St. Asaph, and others, immediately tendered their kind assistance in this way. I place a copy in a note.*

On Saturday, the 28th, I attended the consecration of All Saints' Church, Margaret street, by the Bishop of London. This is a most highly decorated edifice, erected at a cost of £60,000, of which one individual gave £30,000, ($150,000.)

The consecration service commenced at the altar, from whence the Bishop and Clergy proceeded down the main aisle, and up a side aisle to the altar again, repeating the prescribed Psalm, after which the service proceeded as usual amongst ourselves. The sermon was by the Bishop of London, who declared that while their highly ornamented Church was not to his taste, yet that he was not authorized to make his taste in architecture a standard for others, who might prefer a more ornate and elaborate style.

I listened to a very able and masterly sermon in the same Church on Sunday, the 29th, by the Rev. J. R. Woodford.

* NOTICE—BOOKS—HOBART COLLEGE.

Bishop De Lancey, of Western New York, most respectfully requests every Clergyman, and every Layman, disposed on reading this application in behalf of "Hobart College," at Geneva, Western New York, to aid in supplying its Library with much needed books on Theology, History, and other subjects, to transmit at once, a volume or volumes, either new or second hand, to John Miller, 26 Henrietta street, Covent Garden, London, W. C., or to Stephen B. Guion, Merchant, Liverpool, by whom all books thus sent, will be duly forwarded to Bishop De Lancey for the College.

In this way, at but little expense or trouble, a very great blessing may be conferred on the College and the Church, out of the vast treasures of Theology and Christian Literature, now lying dormant and unused in English libraries.

Great is the power of books over youthful minds. As great is the need of an ample supply of sound instruction in theology, morals and literature for our American youth, who are, in their generation, to guide and control the destinies of an Empire, and the integrity and expansion of the Church of Christ.

You will confer a benefit, Mr. Editor, by inserting this in your journal, and saying a word in its behalf. The Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Bishop of St. Asaph, have promptly and kindly tendered valuable assistance in the way. If each Clergyman will but send a single volume, it would add more than fifteen thousand volumes to the Library. If each Layman would spare a volume, the books could hardly be counted for multitude.

Let the name of the donor and of "Hobart College," be inserted in the gift. Very simple is the plan of supply—very magnificent, if carried out, will be the result. LIVERPOOL, 11 June, 1859.

On Wednesday, June 1st, I attended the opening services of Convocation in St. Paul's Cathedral.

I joined the Bishops as they entered the Cathedral from the Chapter House, and took my seat in a stall next to the Bishop of Salisbury, who, as Junior Bishop, began the Litany in Latin, the Archbishop occupying the seat of the Dean of the Cathedral, who sat next to him, and the Bishop of London being on his throne. After the Litany, the Anthem, "If I forget thee, O Jerusalem," was sung. The Rev. Samuel Waldegrave then preached a Latin sermon, after which, the Gloria in Excelsis was sung, and the Benediction was pronounced by the Archbishop.

The Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy, then withdrew to the Chapter House, where the Bishops took their seats, (myself among them,) at a table, and the others stood; certain papers and documents were read by the officials, relating to the meeting and its prorogation—when the lower house withdrew to a Chapel in the north side of the Cathedral, to elect a Prolocutor, and the Bishops were prorogued, to meet in the Jerusalem Chamber, at Westminster Abbey, on the 22d of June. I immediately proceeded to the Chapel in St. Paul's, and being invited to enter, I took a seat. The Dean of St. Paul's was in the chair. A motion to elect Dean Elliott, of Bristol, Prolocutor, offered by the Dean of Norwich, was under discussion by the author, and was seconded and enforced by the Rev. H. A. Woodgate and the Rev. Canon T. H. Randolph. The Rev. Canon Wordsworth, of Westminster, was also put in nomination by Canon Selwyn, and seconded by the Rev. J. Webb; when after a few remarks by Canon Wordsworth, who declined the competition, his name was withdrawn, and the Dean of Bristol was unanimously elected, and the House adjourned to the 22d June, as prorogued. All the Bishops present at the Convocation, were the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Bishops of London, St. Asaph, and Salisbury, and myself. In the lower house, there were about forty present.

In the evening of the same day, I accompanied our Ambassador, Mr. Dallas, with Mrs. Dallas, and Senator William H. Seward, of Auburn, to the Queen's Concert, at Buckingham Palace, to which I had been invited. Mr. Seward was on this occasion, presented to her Majesty, by special courtesy, contrary to the usual rule, which required a presentation on some previous day.

I estimated the number present at three hundred visitors, and one hundred and fifty singers in the orchestra.

In the intervals of the music, and also in the supper room, her Majesty engaged in brief converse and cordial recognition with many of her subjects. The same was done by the Prince Consort and the Princess Frederick William of Prussia, also present, and other members of the Royal family.

On Ascension Day, June 2d, I attended service at St. James' Church, where the Rev. Mr. Buck read the service, and preached an extempore sermon. On this day also, I visited Emmanuel Hospital, James street, near Buckingham Palace, on the invitation of the Principal, the Rev. Arthur Mozley. It contains a department analogous to De Veaux College, for the education of destitute boys and girls, in which at present, thirty boys and thirty-eight girls are maintained and educated. I examined the buildings, and addressed the boys and girls, and inquired into the control, instruction, expense and management. It has been in operation three hundred years, and was founded by the munificence of an individual. I was favored with a copy of its charter, and with written answers to sundry questions, for the benefit of our own institution.

On the evening of this day, I attended evening prayers in the Chapel at Lambeth Palace, and dined with the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and 18 other Bishops. The service at the Chapel was read by the Domestic Chaplain, the Rev. John Thomas, B. C. L.

The Convention will bear in mind, that in August last, I was instructed to transmit a brief congratulatory salutation to the Archbishop of Canterbury, through the Atlantic Cable. The Message was prepared, but waited in vain for an opportunity to pass along the profound depths of the ocean, which the severance of the Cable, after the transmission of the Royal and Presidential Messages, prevented. I embraced this occasion to state the fact, and at the desire of his Grace to present the Message.*

*The Bishops present were the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the Bishops of London, Durham, Winchester, Litchfield, St. Asaph, Worcester, Gloucester, Ripon, Bath and Wells, Lincoln, Landaff, Oxford, St. David's, Sodor and Man, Carlisle, Cape Town, Grahamstown, Cashel, Bishop designate of St. Helena, and the Rev. John Thomas, Domestic Chaplain of the Archbishop.

I made a short speech explaining how it was designed to be sent by the Atlantic Cable, communication over which ceased after the Royal and Presidential messages had passed—how I had brought it with me,—how its brevity was exacted by the nature of telegraphic communications, and how much pleasure it gave me, in behalf of my Convention, to present it in person to his Grace, in the presence of my Rt. Rev. Brethren, whom I cordially rejoiced to see, but whom I should probably never meet again, but upon whom, and upon the whole Church of England, Bishops, Priests and Deacons, and Laity, I was, and would continue to be my earnest prayer that God would shower down his choicest blessings of grace and mercy.

On the 5th, I attended services at All Soul's Church, Regent street, in the morning; and at the Westminster Abbey in the afternoon, I listened to an admirable sermon from the Dean of the Cathedral, Dr. Trench, on being partakers of other men's sins.

On the 6th, we left London on our way to Liverpool, to embark for home.

On the 7th, in the morning, I attended prayers in the Gloucester Cathedral, and we reached Liverpool in the afternoon, having passed through a most beautiful section of the country.

On the 9th, I visited St. Aidan's College, at Birkenhead, and had an interview with the President, Dr. Baylee, and his Chaplains, and visited the establishment.

I found it conformed, most accurately, to what would be the Senior Department of our proposed Training School for Candidates. Nominally it covers both grounds.

"The College consists of two departments, a Senior and a Junior. The Senior are all Divinity Students: the Junior receive a general education. In the Senior department there are three Lecturers in Divinity, and in the Junior are a Head Master and two Assistants." The Institution has supplied fifty Clergymen to the Church. "One result of

THE MESSAGE.

'To the Archbishop of Canterbury:

"The Bishop and Convention of Western New York, salute the Archbishop of Canterbury through the Atlantic Cable, with the prayer that the spark of grace and truth may penetrate the hearts of both nations and both Churches to the glory of God, the good of the Church, and the salvation of all—'Christ is risen.'—

WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY,
Bishop of Western New York.

September 6th 1858."

The Archbishop replied, "That however much they regretted the failure of the Atlantic Cable, they could not but rejoice that the failure had secured them the pleasure of receiving the message of the Bishop and Convention of Western New York, from the lips of the Bishop himself, in the happy manner and language in which it had been conveyed to him, and though telegraphic conciseness would not be used in his reply, he trusted that the substance of it might be carried back to express the gratification with which the message was received, and how much he rejoiced in the success and expansion of the American Protestant Episcopal Church: that although the Bishop of Western New York might never again providentially be permitted to visit them, as he had suggested, yet that other Bishops of the American Episcopal Church would be cordially welcomed to England: that he reciprocated the kind feelings of the Convention, and that he tendered his blessing on the Synod and assured them of his prayers for the stability, enlargement and success of the Church in both its temporal and spiritual relations.

the increasing zeal for religion is the large number of persons who, from motives of piety, desire to give up their worldly callings and devote themselves to the ministry of the Gospel. They are not persons who, having failed in secular professions, seek the ministry of the Church as a refuge."

"I speak from personal experience in saying that the pecuniary sacrifices made by gentlemen who have given up their secular professions to enter St. Aidan's College have been so great, and the instances so numerous that we cannot be too thankful for the grace which called forth such devotedness."

"The chief sources from which students come to St. Aidan's College are—Officers in the Army and Navy, Medical men, Dissenting Ministers, young men, who, having served their time in Merchant's offices, have deliberately preferred the Christian ministry to any commercial pursuit."

The Institution has all the arrangements of a Seminary—a building, with Recitation rooms, Dormitories, Library, Refectory and Chapel. The students pay their own expenses. The annual expense for rent, taxes and salaries amounts to $6,750.

The students are employed for a portion of their time in visitation of the poor—the practical duties of the Diaconate in which they are to serve.

Being located opposite Liverpool, a wide field is opened for such training. "Its students obtain two years' practice in actual visitation before they are presented to the Bishop for orders."

Each student visits nine hours in each week. He must visit at least 150 families every six weeks. All this is under a system, which prohibits interference with the Parish rights of any Clergyman.

Now to secure this practical ecclesiastical and theological education our plan in this Diocese needs in this department, a capital of from twenty to thirty thousand dollars, yielding an income to provide rent of a house and compensate the Professor; and according to the investigation made two years ago, there are twenty persons in the Diocese ready to embrace the opportunity of thus preparing for the ministry.

I feel every day more and more the need of this provision; and I shall devote myself more earnestly to the commencement of this branch of the school.

On the 10th, I had the pleasure of meeting the Bishop of Chester at Childwold Church, and witnessing the confirmation by him of a large number of persons. The body of the Church was filled with nearly four hundred candidates, the females with small white caps, and the boys generally in dark clothes. They were from seven contiguous congregations, and attended by their respective Clergymen in gown and bands. The Bishop having taken his seat within the chancel, the Rector, who attended him in his surplice and hood, rose and read the Confirmation Preface. The candidates then approached two by two and knelt before the Bishop, who laid one hand on each, and pronounced the blessing, at the end of which, in each case, the choir, with the organ, chanted forth a solemn "Amen." It was exceedingly appropriate and impressive, the "Amen" of the flock to the act and blessing of the Bishop.

When all had been confirmed a hymn was sung. The Bishop then proceeded to the pulpit and made an extemporary address to the candidates, earnest, practical, and impressive, urging the faithful use of the means of grace, to secure the hopes of glory. In the course of his remarks he alluded to my presence from a sister Church in a far-off land, and the gratification it must afford to witness the consecration of these youthful soldiers to the Great Captain of their salvation.

On my arrival in England I had been welcomed by his Lordship at the consecration of a Church in Liverpool. And now on my return I enjoy, on this occasion a parting grasp of affection and sympathy, which may never be renewed on earth, and we separate with mutual emotions, and a reciprocating benediction.

We left Liverpool in the afternoon of the 11th, about four o'clock, and reached New York* about nine o'clock in the evening of the 21st.

During the voyage, I officiated twice. On Sunday, the 12th, being Whit-Sunday, and on Trinity Sunday, the 19th.

I entered the Diocese with joy and gratitude on the 25th, meeting a few friends, clerical and lay, as I passed through Utica.

* I present the following record of the return voyage.

Saturday, June 11, left Liverpool at 5, P. M.
Sunday, June 12, at noon, "Old Mall's Head" bearing S. 5 miles, run 240 miles.
Monday, June 13, at noon, latitude 51° 05', longitude 15° 39', run 271 miles.
Tuesday, June 14, at noon, latitude 53° 56', longitude 23° 10', run 281 miles.
Wednesday, June 15, at noon, latitude 52° 30', longitude 31° 50', run 314 miles.
Thursday, June 16, at noon, latitude 50° 37', longitude 38° 30', run 307 miles.
Friday, June 17, at noon, latitude 48° 53', longitude 45° 01', run 289 miles.
Saturday, June 18, at noon, latitude 47°, longitude 52° 08', run 312 miles.
Sunday, June 19, at noon, latitude 44° 30', longitude 58° 10', run 306 miles.
Monday, June 20, at noon, latitude 42°, longitude 61°, run 302 miles.
Tuesday, June 21, in New York Bay, dropped anchor at 9, P. M. run 446 miles. Landed at Cunard wharf, Jersey City, at 11, P. M.

Sunday, the 26th, I spent at Geneva, and in Trinity Church, in afternoon, I confirmed three young men, members of Hobart Co presented by the President. The sermon was preached by the B of Kentucky.

On the 29th, I had the unspeakable gratification of being welcomed back to the Diocese, by a large body of my Brethren of the C and Laity, of again uniting with them in the services of the Ch and meeting them at the holy altar. To the affectionate, cordial gratifying address of welcome, I could hardly make a suitable and adequately expressive of my emotions and sentiments at again receiving the charge of a zealous, devoted, attached, peaceful and united Diocese, of the fervency of my supplication for the divine blessing on them all, and of my grateful feelings for the kind consideration and regard expressed and evinced for one dearer to me than life, who forty years had been to me the prop of existence, and was now committed, under a gracious providence, to return with invigorated health to cheer and smooth my remaining days.

On the first Sunday in July, the 3d, the whole Diocese, at my request, united in humble thanksgiving to God for the safe return of myself and my companions to our home.*

* I append in a note, the account of the Welcome, on the 29th, and also Pastoral.

WELCOME TO THE BISHOP.

On Wednesday morning, at 8 o'clock, assembled in Trinity Church a large congregation of Clergy and Laity. The services were commenced by the Mr. Gibson, the First Lesson being read by the Rev. Mr. Schuyler, and Second by the Rev. G. N. Cheney. The Rev. Dr. Jackson read the Trinity. The Rev. Mr. Hull read the Creed, the Collects, and the Litany, introduced the following prayer:

Most gracious God, whose mercies are over all thy works, we praise Thy name that Thou hast been pleased to conduct in safety, through the exertions of travel and perils of the great deep, thy servant, the Bishop of the Diocese, and his companions, who now desire to return their thanks unto thee, O holy Church. May they be duly sensible of thy merciful providence for them, and ever express their thankfulness by a holy trust in thee, by obedience to thy laws, and by more earnest devotion to thy holy service. Grant, O Father, by the operation of the Holy Ghost, all Christians may be so joined together in unity of Spirit, and in the bond of peace, that they may be a holy and acceptable unto thee. Especially to the Clergy and Congregations of this Diocese, give the abundance of thy grace, that with one heart they may desire the prosperity of thy Holy Apostolic Church, and with one mouth may profess faith once delivered to the saints. Visit them, we pray thee, with thy love and favor, enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Everlasting Gospel, graft in their hearts a love of the truth, increase in them true faith, nourish them with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep them in this O Blessed Spirit, whom with the Father and Son together, we worship and glorify, as one God world without end. Amen.

On the 30th, I attended the Exercises of the Commencement of Hobart College, Geneva, which is constantly increasing its claims to the regard and patronage of the Diocese, and of the Church at large.

On the 10th of July, I held an ordination in Trinity Church, Geneva, and admitted the Rev. William H. Lord, a graduate of the General Theological Seminary, to the Diaconate. He has been appointed Missionary at Olean.

On the 14th, I assisted at Trinity Church, Geneva, in the marriage, by the Rev. Dr. Reed, of Thomas Davies Reed to Anne Eliza Hall.

On the 31st, I held a confirmation in Trinity Church, Geneva, preached and confirmed twenty-three persons.

The few have services I performed since my return, were performed under an attack of lameness, which came upon me suddenly, on the 1st of July, and continued, with more or less severity, during the whole month, arresting my purposed visitation of Chenango county, and my uniting in the laying of the corner stone of a new Church at Ithaca, at Addison, and at Boonville.

The Bishop read the ante-Communion service, the Rev. Dr. Tyler reading the Epistle, and the Rev. Dr. Bissell the Gospel. The Rev. Dr. Shelton, then, in behalf of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese, addressed the Bishop as follows:

RT. REV. AND DEAR BISHOP,—I am honored by my brethren, your Presbyters and Friends, the President and Professors of this College, and other members of your Diocese, by being asked to present to you their congratulations, and heart-felt delight at your safe return.

We, and your Diocese, and the community at large, have the liveliest interest in this event, and can not but feel that we owe a debt of gratitude to God, for your preservation on the "great deep,"—for your deliverance from every danger, for your renewed strength, and for the restored health of our excellent friend, your loved and honored wife.

We greet you, with every expression of satisfaction, while we assure you of our increased attachment. Temporary separation has but enhanced our affection, and forced us to realize how inestimable is your value to us, how profoundly we respect and honor you, and how thoroughly you are seated in our best affections.

We have followed you through all your journeyings, and have been edified in contemplating you amid events which have not only deeply moved and interested you, but which have indentified as one, the two Churches of England and America.

It has been a renewed satisfaction, to observe you again and again, moving in scenes which, as Churchmen, we have the deepest interest in, and it has been an occasion of honest pride, to learn of your position among those who are world-renowned for their learning, eloquence and worth. We have seen you, with honor to yourself and credit to the Church in this country, among the great and good of Europe. It has filled our hearts with elevating emotions.

It is a gratification that we are able to state to you, that although your absence has made us feel your need, yet have the affairs of the Diocese not been permitted to suffer, and you return, to take up again, the power, temporarily laid down, precisely as you left it.

I have now united with you in the solemn services of the opening of the Convention, and administered the holy communion.

Illness in my family, my absence in Europe, at the desire of the Convention, and my lameness since my return, combine to render the record of my official services very meagre.

I have officiated in the Diocese in 10 organized Parishes.

I have held a confirmation in but 6 Churches, and confirmed about fifty-three persons.

I preached at the consecration of Bishop Bowman in Christ Church, Philadelphia, August 25th, 1858, and before the Board of Missions on the 14th of October, 1858, at Baltimore.

I have preached in England 15 times, in Scotland twice, in France 7 times, and in Switzerland twice, and on the great Ocean 3 times. I administered the holy communion 4 times in England, and once in Switzerland, and assisted in the administration of the elements at the

Here and there death has taken some of your friends, and in a sister State one of the bravest and mightiest of your brethren has gloriously laid aside his mortal mantle. But the Diocese is essentially as it was, and you return to an undivided, affectionate, and regardful body of men, who hold you in perfect confidence and respect, and stand ready, as heretofore, to co-operate with their chief and head, in every effort and in every enterprise, for the honor of religion, and the best interests of the Diocese.

Suffer me to add the hope, that your last days may be your best days, and that your life may be crowned with complete success, and that you may ever be surrounded, while on earth, by as faithful, as loyal, and as affectionate band of Clergy and Laity, as now have the high gratification of welcoming you to your home, your Diocese and the Church, in these United States.

The Bishop, in reply, said that he felt himself unable adequately to express his feelings at the cordial welcome which had thus been extended to him in behalf of the Diocese. The Convention had given him leave of absence for three months, which, subsequently, through several of the Clergy and Laity, had been extended, and he had been gone from the scene of his labors for seven months. He had returned, by the blessing of God, with the same heart warm with love towards all the members of his flock, and with the same devotion to their spiritual and eternal interests. During his absence he had been cheered by many circumstances—he would confine himself to but few. He had found in England the same Church he left here, holding the same Gospel, the same doctrines, the same Liturgy and worship. That Church, and Gospel, and worship, was the same as that of the first ages of Christianity, the Church having been planted by Apostolic hands upon those shores. And as he looked around him there, he could not but ask himself, whence came those great and signal blessings? It was due, under God, to their adhering to the same Bible, the same succession of Bishops, and the same Liturgy, which had been recognized there before the days of foreign intrusion and usurpation. There had, indeed, been trials and adversities, and changes, but still the great fact remained, that that was indeed, in substance, the first Church established in England, and it strengthened his confidence to think that the Church to which he belonged thus extended back to the first and purest days of Christianity, that the Episcopacy ithin the last thirty years, from three to four thousand Churches had been

; that some of the Bishops had consecrated from fifty to two hundred es each. He believed that there were now living ten Bishops who had ated a thousand Churches. Many of these were large and very costly.
had been built and endowed by individuals. He remembered one, s which one individual had given the sum of $150,000. He would not ise the question as to the propriety of such enormous expenditures upon Churches, nor upon their decorations. He would say with the Bishop don, that he must not expect his taste to be a standard for other men. It t for him to say that if God had put it into the hearts of some men, as l in the case of David and Solomon, to make such use of their wealth, ey should be repelled.
was cheered also by the fact that everywhere these Churches were thronged orshippers. They were crowded both in country and city. Never in ars, had attendance upon public worship been so general as now. He od near the entrance of Westminster Abbey when the doors were thrown or special services. He could think of nothing which the scene so resembled, as the rushing of waters at Niagara. It was a perfect torrent ple pouring in, and in a few moments the vast structure was filled. And

Among the sundry ecclesiastical changes that have occurred during the past year I record the following :

The Rev. Thomas Applegate has removed from this Diocese to Ohio.

The Rev. William Atwill has resumed the Missionary station at Bradford, Steuben county.

The Rev. Joseph M. Clarke has become the Rector of St. James' Church, Syracuse, vacant by the resignation and removal of the Rev. C. C. Barclay to Connecticut.

The Rev. Stephen G. Hayward, having returned, in ill health, from Georgia, is residing at Sodus, Wayne county.

The Rev. John H. Rowling, Deacon, acted as tutor in De Veaux College, on a temporary engagement during the winter, and is now residing at Manlius, preparing for Priest's orders.

The Rev. Addis E. Bishop has returned to the Diocese from New York, and is now Missionary at Camden.

it was pleasing to observe that that vast crowd was not composed of the proud and titled; it was a mixture of all classes, high and low, the great and the humble. The mingling of classes being a marked feature since the recent movement in the way of opening pews to all who would come, and the building and endowing of Free Churches.

He was cheered to find that everywhere in England education was placed upon the right basis,—the Christian religion; mingling religious with other instruction. And what other system of education can be called a right one! What is the proper basis of intellectual training, if not leading the mind to God its Maker.

He was cheered by the fact that in their efforts to propagate the Gospel in distant lands, our brethren in England send the Church itself. They create Dioceses in their colonies and send Bishops abroad. This was a lesson derived from a long experience at home. They had at length learned that not a few isolated missionaries, but a corps of Bishops and clergy organized into a Diocese, was necessary in order to propagate the Gospel abroad. These foreign Episcopates were amply endowed, sometimes by private individuals. He remembered with pleasure one noble lady, warm-hearted, modest, humble in her demeanor, who had herself endowed three Colonial Episcopates.

He had been cordially welcomed and entertained by the Bishops, Clergy and Laity, among whom he had visited, and with whom he had enjoyed delightful associations. He returned now to labor in a Diocese which had extended to him its love and regard for the past twenty years—a Diocese in which he had been peculiarly blessed—blessed personally, and blessed with the sight of so much unity, harmony, and spiritual prosperity. When abroad, he did not hesitate to proclaim it among all classes, wherever he went, among Bishops and among lords and noblemen, that he was not there on his private account, seeking health, but his Diocese, as a token of the love they bore him, had sent him there at their own expense. He was proud to bear abroad this testimony to the love of his people. He returned now, refreshed and cheered by his intercourse with his brethren abroad. He exhorted the Clergy and Laity to follow out the course marked out for them by our Lord and His Apostles, laboring diligently, earnestly and faithfully, in their respective spheres; nerving

The Rev. Edward R. Welles has been transferred to Minnesota.

The Rev. William O. Gorham has recently resigned the charge of St. Mark's Church, Newark.

The Rev. Charles E. Beardsley has resigned the Station at Olean, in which he is succeeded by the Rev. William H. Lord.

The Rev. John E. Battin is the Missionary at Canaseraga.

The Rev. Lloyd Windsor has taken charge of the Missionary Station at Hornellsville, vacant by the resignation and removal of the Rev. James A. Robinson.

The Rev. J. W. Birchmore has resigned the charge of St. Michael's Church, Geneseo.

The Rev. Malcolm Douglass has removed from Waterloo to the more bracing climate of Windsor, Vermont, to which Diocese he has been transferred.

themselves to make effort, and to meet all sacrifices that might be required. He concluded by thanking the brethren for the kind and cordial reception they had given him, and prayed for God's blessing and peace upon them.

The Bishop then administered the holy communion, being assisted in the distribution of the elements, by the Rev. Drs. Shelton, Bissell and Jackson.

To the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese of Western New York :

DEAR BRETHREN:—With humble thankfulness to God for His great mercies to me and mine, I affectionately request the Clergy and Laity to unite with me, on Sunday next, in thanksgiving to God our Savior, for a safe return to the Diocese, and in prayers for his continued blessing on the flock committed to my charge; for which purpose I authorize the use, in the proper place, on that day, or some other day, of the following collect.

June 27th, 1859.

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY, Bishop.

"Most gracious God, whose mercies are over all thy works, we praise thy holy name that thou hast been pleased to conduct in safety, through the exposures of travel and the perils of the great deep, thy servant, the Bishop of the Diocese, and his companions, who now desire to return their thanks unto thee in thy holy church. May they be duly sensible of thy merciful providence towards them, and ever express their thankfulness by a holy trust in thee, by obedience to thy laws, and by more earnest devotion to thy holy service. Grant that by the operation of the Holy Ghost, all Christians may be so joined together in unity of Spirit, and in the bond of peace, that they may be a holy temple acceptable unto thee. Especially to the clergy and congregations of this Diocese give the abundance of thy grace, that with one heart they may desire the prosperity of thy Holy Apostolic Church, and with one mouth may profess the faith once delivered to the saints. Visit them, we pray thee, with thy love and favor, enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Everlasting Gospel, graft in their hearts a love of the truth, increase in them true religion, nourish them with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep them in the same, O Blessed Spirit, whom with the Father and Son together, we worship and glorify, as one God world without end." Amen.

The Rev. Israel Foote, having resigned the Professorship in De Veaux College, has been recently called to the rectorship of Grace Church, Rochester.

The Rev. Maunsell Van Rensselaer, D. D., has been chosen President of De Veaux College, in place of the Rev. Henry Gregory, D. D., whose feeble health compelled him to relinquish that post after his able and faithful labors in inaugurating the College.

The Rev. L. S. Stevens has been appointed Professor and the Rev. F. P. Winne, Deacon, from the Diocese of New York, Assistant Professor in De Veaux College.

The Rev. William T. Gibson is in temporary charge of Grace Church, Utica, during the absence of the Rev. J. J. Brandeggee, in pursuit of health. He is succeeded at Waterville, recently, by the Rev. J. C. L. Jones, Deacon, who had resigned the Church at Holland Patent.

The Rev. Edward Livermore has resigned the Missionary Station at East Bloomfield and Richmond.

The Rev. William A. Matson has resigned the charge of Calvary Church, Utica.

The Rev. Martin Moody had charge, as Missionary, of Grace Church, Waverly, during the winter. He resides at Elmira and officiates at Big Flats.

The Rev. W. B. Otis, having resigned the station at Penn Yan and Branchport, has been succeeded by the Rev. John Long, from the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Mr. Otis is in temporary charge of St. Luke's Church, Rochester, vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Benjamin Watson, who has been invited to the charge of a Church in Philadelphia.

The Rev. Robert N. Parke has been invited to the charge of St. Paul's Church, Waterloo.

The Rev. Albert C. Patterson has resigned the rectorship of St. James' Church, Skaneateles, of which Church, the Rev. R. O. Page is at present in temporary charge.

The Rev. P. S. Ruth has resigned the charge of St. Paul's Church, Havana.

The Rev. Hermon G. Wood has been called to the charge of Grace Church, Black Rock, Buffalo.

succeeded at Sackett's Harbor by the Rev. D. C. Loop, received Diocese from Illinois.

Rev. Luther Gregory has been received into the Diocese from and is in charge of St. John's Church, Catharine.

Rev. William O. Jarvis has been received into the Diocese from Ark, and become the Rector of St. Peter's Church, Niagara

Rev. Samuel H. Norton, received from the Diocese of New York, has become the Rector of Trinity Church, Fredonia.

Rev. John A. Bowman, received from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, is in charge of the Missionary Station of Cuba and Wellsville.

Rev. Charles E. Cheney, Deacon, has, since his ordination, been engaged, for the most part, as Deacon in the service of the Rev. Canon, in St. Luke's Church, Rochester; and is now prosecuting his preparatory to the full examinations, when he will take charge of St. Paul's Church, Havana.

Rev. Frederick P. Winnie, Deacon, has been received into this Diocese and is one of the teachers in De Veaux College since the 1st

Rev. Alfred B. Goodrich, received into the Diocese from Massachusetts, has been chosen Rector of Calvary Church, Utica.

At the last Convention five of our Candidates for Holy Orders were admitted to the Diaconate, viz: Charles Edward Cheney, Dunn Sleeper, William Roberts, William Henry Lord, by my friend Lorenzo D. Ferguson, by Bishop McCoakry, acting for me.

Seven new Candidates have been admitted.

Henry W. Spalding, has been transferred to the Diocese of Ohio.

The present number is nineteen, viz:

Frederick Hamilton Rogers,.....	"July 16, 1857

The present number is 47. A number of our Missionary stations remain vacant, for the want of Clergy, over which every Bishop and every Diocese has to mourn, and which so much arrests the aggressive action of the Church and its growth amongst us, in power and numbers.

Six Clergymen have been aided from the Fund, to the amount of $1,200.

It has a small fund of $5,000, and it will be well to place the management of it under the guidance of a Canon of the Diocese, embodying the resolutions of the Convention under which it now exists.

The following is the amount received in the Diocese for recognized Church objects, aside from what are Parochial. Exclusive of interest on permanent funds and loans, and of contributions from sources exterior to the Diocese, the amount received by the Treasurers of the Convention and of the Christmas Fund, has been in all $10,247.50.

Moneys collected in the Diocese for objects exterior to it, and which have not passed through the Diocesan Treasurers, as accurately as can be known, amount to $1,300.

Contributions to the Church Book Society, $553.41.

The whole amount raised in the Diocese during the year for recognized Church objects, aside from what are Parochial, since the 1st of August, 1858, will be as follows:

Of the Permanent Missionary Fund, I have to state that it amounts, as reported by the Trustee, William Young, Esq., to $11,356.00, and that the interest, $702,21, has been paid to the Diocesan Treasurer for the purposes of the Diocese.

The Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, as appears from the report of Joseph Juliand, the Trustee, amounts to $2,000. A portion of the interest, $36,18, has been paid for Missionary labors in the county, and it will henceforth yield annually $140,00 to such county missionary enterprise.

The Report of the Education and Missionary Board, will present the usual detail on these funds.

The Report of the De Veaux College for orphans and destitute children, will be presented to you. The institution is in vigorous, and successful and improving action under the new President and Professors, in the posts which had been so well filled by their predecessors, who gave the primary start to the College by their efficient labors.

As required by charter, the Annual Report has been laid before me, as Bishop. It presents the inalienable domain of 330 acres as intersected by the public road, which places the buildings and 50 acres on one side, and the residue of the farm on the other.

Since the last Convention, two Bishops of the Church have been summoned from earthly scenes to the throne of God, viz: a former Bishop of Pennsylvania, Henry Ustick Onderdonk, and the late Bishop of New Jersey, George Washington Doane. Both were present at my consecration. Both have labored in mind and body earnestly, for the Church. Both had their fiery trials and exposures. Both have been vindicated to the public mind. Both have left behind them works to attest their devotion to the Church of God, and their zeal to promote its interests and influence in our land. Both were pendants on the cross of Christ. Both repudiated reliance on their own merits. Both reposed their hopes in Christ, and "were washed and sanctified and justified" in Him; and both, we may hope, are now among rejoining angels around the throne of God. I put on record the fact that I had been from the first in 1847, in 1850, in 1853 and in 1854, the earnest advocate of the restoration of Bishop Henry U. Onderdonk, and that I deeply deplored the long, needless and unjustifiable continuance of his suspension.

Four other Bishops have been elected, and await consecration, in all of whom we may rejoice in the prospects of blessing to the Church, of zealous labor for the glory of God and the salvation of men. And in regard to two of them, my own personal relations and knowledge embolden me to express the highest gratification, with the most decided conviction of the wisdom of the selection—to cherish the highest hopes of their usefulness, and to offer my most fervent prayers for the divine blessing on their labor, their Dioceses, and themselves.

MY BRETHREN,—We have before us the usual duties of our Convention. Let us engage in them as under the eye of our Master and Lord, and in the same spirit of union, harmony and love, which has so long characterized the proceedings of our body.

And may the Divine Spirit ever rule in our hearts, and preside over our deliberations and our actions.

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,

August 17, 1859.

Bishop.

On motion of W. B. Douglas,

Resolved, That so much of the Bishop's Address as refers to the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, be referred to a committee, to report a Canon, to provide for the care and management of the said Fund.

The Chair appointed the Rev. Dr. Shelton, the Rev. L. W. Norton, and Messrs. William B. Douglas and Alfred Ely, to constitute this Committee.

The hour designated by the XXIst Rule of Order having arrived, the House adjourned to 9 o'clock, on Thursday morning.

THURSDAY MORNING, August 18th, 1859.

The Convention met. Morning Prayer was read by the Rev. L. W. Norton, assisted by the Rev. H. A. Neely, who read the First Lesson, the Rev. W. T. Gibson, who read the Second Lesson, and the Rev. E. Ingersoll, D. D., who read the Creed and Collects; after which the Rev. the President took the Chair.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read, and, on motion, approved.

On calling the absent members, the following Clergy, not present yesterday, appeared and took their seats:

Rev. N. Barrows,	Rev. J. C. L. Jones,
" John E. Battin,	" W. H. Lord,
" George C. V. Eastman,	" James Rankine,
" O. R. Howard,	" Richard Whittingham.

Also, the following Lay Deputies:

COUNTIES.	CHURCHES.	DEPUTIES.
Cortland,	Grace, Cortlandville,	Josiah P. Ingraham.
Livingston, . . .	St. Michael's, Geneseo, . . .	Samuel Lewis.
Onondaga, . . .	Christ, Jordan,	Henry Daboll.
Oswego,	St. James', Pulaski,	James F. Billard.
Steuben,	Christ, Hornellsville,	J. S. Jameson, C. E. W. Baldwin.
Tioga,	St. Paul's, Owego,	George J. Pumpelly.
	Grace, Waverly,	F. H. Baldwin.
Wayne,	Grace, Lyons,	W. D. Perine.

Reports from Standing Committees were then called for in the order named in the VIth Rule of Order.

The Rev. Dr. Ashley, in behalf of the Standing Committee, on the Admission of Churches into Union with this Convention, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the admission of New Churches into union with this Convention, respectfully report: That five applications have been referred to them, viz: From Christ Church, Belvidere, Allegany county; St. Philip's Church, Philippsville, Allegany County; St. John's Church, Wellsville, Allegany county; Grace Church, Randolph, Cattaraugus county; and Grace Church, Dundee, Yates county. The preliminary proceedings in all these cases appear to have been correct, and the papers are drawn in the legal form; the Committee therefore recommend that they be severally admitted into union with the Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. BLISS ASHLEY,
W. HUNT,
C. H. CARROLL.

The question in the case of these Churches, recommended by the Committee, being taken separately,

On motion,

Resolved, That Christ Church, Belvidere, Allegany county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Resolved, That St. Philip's Church, Philipsville, Allegany county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Resolved, That St. John's Church, Wellsville, Allegany county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Resolved, That Grace Church, Randolph, Cattaraugus county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Resolved, That Grace Church, Dundee, Yates county, be admitted into union with this Convention.

Whereupon, Mr. Richard Church, Lay Deputy from Christ Church, Belvidere, Allegany county, Mr. E. M. Nutting, Lay Deputy from Grace Church, Randolph, Cattaraugus county, and Messrs. Wm. S. Johnson and Elijah Stowel, Lay Deputies from St. John's Church, Wellsville, Allegany county, presented their certificates and took their seats.

Mr. Alfred Ely, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, presented the following

REPORT :

The Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, beg leave to report: That they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer for the year ending August 1st, 1859, together with the vouchers produced, and find them correct.

The receipts of the Treasurer have been as follows :

Balance on hand, August 1, 1858,.....	$4,740 81
Interest on loans to date,.....	198 77
Contributions from 92 Parishes,.....	1,502 73
Total,.....	$6,442 31

Disbursements.

Amount paid six Clergymen, as follows :

Four received $200 each,.....	$800 00
One received	100 00
One received	300 00
	<hr/> 1,200 00

Leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer on August 1st, 1859, of $5,242 31

The Committee submit herewith the report of Edgar H. Hurd, Esqr. who by a resolution of a previous Convention of the Diocese, was appointed by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, a Committee "to examine into the character of the securities upon which the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen was loaned. By it, and likewise by the Report of the Trustees having the charge of investing this fund, herewith also submitted, it appears, to the gratification of your Committee, that these moneys, since the sitting of the last annual Convention, have been entirely withdrawn from the uncertain personal securities in which they have been heretofore invested, and now rest in bonds and mortgages, bearing i-annual interest upon unincumbered real property, valued, (exclusive of buildings,) at more than double the amount loaned thereon.

242.30, only, of this fund now remains unappropriated in the hands of the usurer, and your Committee, in examining the statements contained in the report above referred to, have not failed to discover that great care and faithfulness have been observed on the part of the Trustees, in the selection of the bonds and mortgages, the searches and certificates of title, and all the detail faithful to a safe and perfect loan.

We congratulate the Convention that this Fund is at last invested in obedience to its wishes so frequently expressed, and in the only mode, in the judgment of your Committee, best calculated to insure its safety and the noble purposes to which it is devoted.

In conclusion, your Committee, recommend to the Convention, in compliance with that portion of the Bishop's Address on that subject, the passage of an additional Canon of the Church, by which this Fund like other similar Funds, shall be controlled and protected by established Trustees and officers to be herein provided.

Respectfully submitted,

ALFRED ELY,
WM. H. WALKER,
JAMES W. GLOVER.

D. S. HALL, Treasurer.

Report of Committee to "examine the Books, Securities and Funds of D. S. HALL, Treasurer of the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen."

The undersigned, having been waited on by Mr. Hall, the Treasurer, with the books and papers pertaining to his office, and having examined them, finds that the amount of the said Fund, in the hands of the said Treasurer, is $5,242.30. Within the last year, these moneys have been withdrawn from the personal securities, in which they have been heretofore invested, and have been mostly invested on real estate securities. The securities now held by the Treasurer, are the following:

1st. Certificate of Deposit in Bank of Geneva, payable on demand, $242.30, not bearing interest.

2. THOMAS SMITH, EDWARD SMITH AND WILLIAM SMITH, }
To
DAVID S. HALL, Treasurer, &c.

Bond in the penalty of $3,000, dated July 1, 1859; conditioned to pay $1,500, January 1, 1865, with interest, at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, payable half yearly, January 1 and July 1, in each year.

This Bond is accompanied by

THOMAS SMITH AND WIFE, EDWARD SMITH AND WIFE, } AND WILLIAM SMITH, }
To
DAVID S. HALL, Treasurer, &c.

Mortgage of even date, and conditioned the same as the above Bond, upon 33 acres, 2 rods and 10 perches of land, in the village of Geneva, county of Ontario, N. Y., of the value, in the opinion of the undersigned, of at least double the condition, exclusive of buildings. This Mortgage is duly acknowledged and recorded in the office of the Clerk of Ontario county, and is accompanied by the proper County Clerk's certificate, and deduction of title showing this to be the first lien on the mortgaged premises, and that the title is good.

3. GEORGE VAN ANKEN, }
To
DAVID S. HALL, Treasurer, &c.

Bond, dated Oct. 1, 1858, with a penalty of $8,000, conditioned to pay $4,000, Oct. 1, 1863, with semi-annual interest at 7 per cent. per annum. Interest paid to July 1, 1859.

GEORGE VAN ANKEN AND WIFE, }
To
DAVID S. HALL, Treasurer, &c.

Mortgage of the same date and condition as the above Bond, duly acknowledged and recorded in the proper county, upon about 182 acres of land in the town of Phelps, in Ontario county.

This Mortgage is accompanied by the usual search and Clerk's certificate, which shows a good title in the mortgagor, to about 156 acres, except as hereinafter stated, the appraised value of which is $9,048. Upon this part of the mortgaged premises, the above Mortgage appears to be the first lien. The remainder of the mortgaged premises, 26 38-100 acres, as appears by the said search, is largely incumbered by other mortgages, and the title to the same is defective upon the record.

This Mortgage, in the opinion of the Committee, would have been a more desirable security with the 26 38-100 acres left out, being less complicated.

In consequence of the above defect, only $3,500 have been paid to the mortgagor on his Mortgage. It may, therefore, be regarded as an investment of only that sum.

NOTE.—The Mortgage secondly above described, covers only the undivided half of so much of the land described in it, as is occupied by a saw mill, the race to the same, and the mill yard, and excepts the right to dig a new race, and to widen the old one. As the papers do not show the amount of land covered by these privileges, it is impossible to tell how far the securities are affected thereby; but from information obtained outside the papers, the undersigned is of opinion, that these exceptions do not materially affect the securities.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

E. H. HURD, Committee.

To Rt. Rev. W. H. DE LANCEY, Bishop, &c.

Mr. Wm. B. Douglas, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Convention, presented the following:

REPORT:

The Committee appointed to examine the Accounts and Vouchers of the Treasurer of the Convention, respectfully report: That they have made such examination, comparing the moneys reported as received during the Conventional year, with the amounts monthly acknowledged as received, as published by the Treasurer in the Gospel Messenger, and comparing the Vouchers with the payments charged as made, and that they find the same correct.

Mr. Henry W. Rogers, in behalf of the Standing Committee on the part of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, file the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of Episcopate, respectfully report: The Fund amounts, nominally to the sum 50,008.91, being the precise amount of the Fund at the date of last year's report. The amount invested in bonds and mortgages, at the date of the report the Trustees, (August 4, 1859,) is $40,135, the amount from last year having been reduced by the payment of $1,500 of principal. There is in the hands of the Trustees, uninvested, the sum of $4,732.13, and the remainder of the Fund understood to be made up of rail road bonds, pledges of Vestries and unpaid taxes. The receipts from the Fund during the past year amount to $3,181.76, of which amount has been paid to the Diocesan, as appears by his receipt annexed to the Trustees' report.

In computing the interest upon the Fund at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, the income should amount to the sum of $3,500.62, and the difference between the receipts and such amount is $318.86. How this deficit arises the Committee are unable to determine from the report and other papers submitted to them.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY W. ROGERS.
WM. C. PIERREPONT,
MAURICE BIRDSALL.

the President of the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York:

The Trustees for the care and management of the Fund for the Support of Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York, respectfully report:

That during the last year they have received for payments on account of the principal of the Fund, (mortgages satisfied and notes discharged,) the sum of $100, according to *Schedule B, hereto annexed.

The Schedules referred to in this Report, are on file with the Report, among the papers of the Standing Committee of this Diocese.

They have on hand, bearing interest, but not permanently invested, the sum of $4,732.13, for a part of which applications are now pending, and some only awaiting the preparation of the necessary papers.

The statement (A,) appended to this Report, is an account of the Receipts and Disbursements of the income of the Fund during the year.

The net income of the Fund, amounting to $3,179.76, has been paid to the Diocesan, as appears by his receipt hereto annexed.

The principal of the Fund consists of the following items:

Bonds and Mortgages,.....	$40,235 00
Rail Road Bonds, &c.,.....	2,400 00
Pledge of Vestries,.....	1,000 00
Notes unpaid, (to increase the Fund,).....	1,641 75
Moneys awaiting permanent investment,.....	4,732 13

Total,$50,008 91

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. E. HINMAN,
W. H. DE LANCEY.

Aug. 10, 1859.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Western New York :

The undersigned, appointed by the Bishop, as a Committee to examine the Securities for the Support of the Episcopate, begs leave to report :

That he has examined the Securities in connection with J. Watson Williams, Esq., by whom the same are held ; but the same were presented at so late a period, that he can now report only by referring to his Report of last year, which will be found in the Journal of the Proceedings of 1858.

The Bonds and Mortgages and moneys remain as they were last year, with the following exceptions :

1. The Bond and Mortgage of John H. Edmonds, reported as being $900, has been paid.

2. The Bond and Mortgage of Aden Voorhees, reported as being $500, has been paid.

3. On the items "sundry notes to increase Fund," there has been paid $100

This statement diminishes the Bonds and Mortgages by $1,400—diminishes the "sundry note" Fund $100, and makes the cash in Mr. Williams' hands larger by $1 500.

RECAPITULATION.

Mortgages now on hand,.....	$40,135 00
"Other securities,".....	5,041 75
Cash in Treasurer's hands,.....	4,732 13

Total,$49,908 91

Investments have been found by Mr. Williams, as I understand, for a portion of the above moneys on hand.

The Rev. Ferdinand Rogers, in behalf of the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business presented the following

REPORT :

The Standing Committee on Unfinished Business respectfully report : That from an examination of the Journal of the last Convention, they notice but one point that claims their attention. On page 63 they find that the Committee procuring the necessary funds for the opening of the contemplated Diocesan Training School was continued.

Respectfully submitted,

FERDINAND ROGERS,
WM. H. BULL,
D. C. CALVIN,

Committee.

Mr. William B. Douglas, in behalf of the Special Committee, appointed yesterday to report a Canon to provide for the care and management of the Christmas Fund, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, beg leave to report, for the adoption of the Convention, the following

CANON.

OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND FOR DISABLED CLERGYMEN.

SEC. 1. There shall be three Trustees appointed by the Convention, to whom the management and care of the Fund for the Relief of Disabled Clergy shall be intrusted, one of whom shall be appointed by the Convention as the Treasurer thereof. And no act of said Trustees shall be valid, unless authorized by resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees, by a majority of the same, and recorded in a book to be kept as the record of their proceedings, and to be open to the inspection of the Convention. The said Trustees shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention; and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees shall, from time to time, be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. In every Parish in this Diocese there shall be made, annually, on Christmas day, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy of the Diocese. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the congregation; and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

SEC. 3. All appropriations for the relief of Disabled Clergy, shall be made by the Trustees, on the certificate of the Bishop, that the individual has labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than three years, and is disabled by age or physical infirmity from having a Parochial charge, but no appropriation shall be made for a larger sum than $250 per annum, and shall be paid semi-annually, on the 1st of January and July.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the Fund for Disabled Clergy, and not needed for their present relief, shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security on real estate, appraised at double the amount loaned thereon, exclusive of buildings; the appraisal to be made by three appraisers, appointed by the Trustees for that purpose; and all securities and investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said Trustees and their successors in office, as Trustees of the said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities or investments.

SEC. 5. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees, exhibiting the condition of the fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers therefor, shall be reported to each Annual Convention, signed by said Trustees, or a majority of them.

W. B. DOUGLAS,
ALFRED ELY,
WILLIAM SHELTON,
LEVI W. NORTON.

A motion to amend the third section, so as not to limit the appropriation, was lost.

On motion, the third section was amended by inserting, after words "laboring for three years," the words "except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese and having never removed from."*

The Chair having announced that John E. Hinman, one of the trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, had resigned, Ward Hunt was elected to fill the vacancy.

The Rev. C. H. Platt, in behalf of the Special Committee, to nominate Trustees of the General Theological Seminary, reported the following names:

REV. WILLIAM SHELTON, D. D.,	MR. JOSEPH JULIAND,
" FERDINAND ROGERS,	" THOMAS ROCHESTER,
" ANDREW HULL,	" JOHN E. HINMAN,
" HENRY GREGORY, D. D.,	" WILLIAM C. PIERREPONT,
" E. H. CRESSY, D. D.,	" HORATIO SEYMOUR,
" EDWARD INGERSOLL, D. D.,	" WILLIAM S. DEZENIG,
" M. VAN RENSSELAER, D. D.,	" WILLIAM B. DOUGLAS,
" WILLIAM B. ASHLEY, D. D.,	" F. W. HUBBARD,
" THOMAS P. TYLER, D. D.,	" P. B. PECKHAM.
" GEORGE D. GILLESPIE,
" P. P. KIDDER,
" LLOYD WINDSOR,

Whereupon, on motion, the persons nominated were elected.

The Rev. H. A. Neely in behalf of the Special Committee, appointed last year, to receive manuscript sermons of deceased Clergy of the Diocese, made the following

R E P O R T :

The Committee appointed at the last Convention, to receive such manuscript Sermons of the deceased Clergy of this Diocese, as the friends of such Clergy might be willing to put at the disposal of the Convention, would respectfully report:

1st. That by way of making more generally known the existence of the Committee, and its object, they have published in the Gospel Messenger a resolution under which they were appointed, together with the names of the members of the Committee, and the request that manuscript Sermons of deceased Clergy should be deposited with them.

2d. That many of the Sermons of the late Rev. E. B. FOOTE, and the Rev. PARKER ADAMS, are either already in the hands of the Committee, or may at any time be obtained; and that they are now in correspondence with the friends of the late Revs. Dr. JOHN C. RUDD, and Dr. BETHEL JUDD, with a view of gaining possession of their extant manuscript discourses.

* See Appendix.

3d. That they have taken further steps, which they trust will issue in their obtaining other valuable manuscripts.

The Committee would respectfully ask to be continued.

(Signed,)

W. H. DE LANCEY,
H. A. NEELY,
T. P. TYLER,
W. B. ASHLEY,
G. D. GILLESPIE,
W. A. MATSON.

On motion, the Committee was continued.

The hour having arrived for the order of the day, (see Rules of Order, § XVIII,) the House proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and the Deputies to the General Convention, by one ballot, as directed by Section 2 of Canon XII, the Rev. Walter Ayrault and Truman Heminway being appointed by the Rt. Rev. the President, to receive, as tellers, the votes of the Clergy, and the Rev. G. M. Hills and W. B. Douglas, to receive the votes of the Laity.

On motion of Mr. Alfred Ely, a vote by ballot was dispensed with, and Messrs. S. H. Verplanck, Joseph G. Swift and William B. Douglas, were appointed Trustees of the Christmas Fund, under the new Canon, and Mr. S. H. Verplanck was appointed Treasurer of the same.

The Bishop, in behalf of the Committee on the subject of a Diocesan Training School, made the following

R E P O R T :

The Committee on the Training School, have to report: That the absence of the Chairman from the Diocese, has arrested all operations, but that a strenuous effort will be made to start the Senior Department of the School, and an urgent appeal will be presented to the zeal and wealth of the Diocese, for the requisite means without delay.

The Committee ask to be continued.

W. H. DE LANCEY, Chairman.

August 18, 1859.

Whereupon, on motion,

Resolved, That the Committee on the Training School be continued, and that they report at the next Convention.

The Bishop, on behalf of the Education and Missionary Board, made the following

R E P O R T :

The Education and Missionary Board lay before the Convention, their Annual Report.

There have been employed during the past year, in the Diocese, altogether 61 Missionaries. 36 have labored the whole year, and the rest for shorter periods. The present number is 47. The results of their labors are seen in the Parochial Reports.

Four Beneficiaries have received aid from the Education Fund.

The Permanent Missionary Fund consists of $5,000 in Kentucky State Bonds, and $6,356 in Bonds and Mortgages. The Canandaigua & Corning Rail Road Bond, yielded $645, which sum has been invested in bond and mortgage, and the whole Fund is $11,356. The accruing interest has amounted to $702.21, paid over to our Diocesan Missionaries through the Treasurer.

The securities have been examined by a Committee, and the Report is appended with the certificate attached.

The Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, Joseph Juliard, Esq., reports the whole Fund to be $2,000, and that $88.16 has been paid out for Missionary services. The Fund will yield henceforth $140 per annum, for Missionary purposes in Chenango county.

The whole sum appropriated to our Diocesan Missions, has been $5,050. And the sum applied to Education purposes, $400.

Three of our Missionaries have removed to other Dioceses.

And five have entered the Diocese in their places.

Several stations are now vacant. For the first time in twenty years, our funds have not been in hand at the moment the stipends became due. The stipends, however, were kindly advanced by the Treasurer. Appeals have been made to the Diocese to meet the deficiency. The result has been that the deficiency is paid, and we close the year with a balance of about $300 in favor of the funds. It is to be hoped that the liberality of the congregations, and the zealous appeals of the Clergy, will ever retain the Diocese in the position it has now resumed, and which it had so long occupied. The Missionary appointments are made and held under the rule of the Diocese not to borrow, and that the stipends cease, if no funds are supplied to meet them.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

W. H. DE LANCEY, Chairman.

The Bishop in behalf of the Trustees of De Veaux College, made the following

REPORT:

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York:

The Trustees of De Veaux College for orphan and destitute children, respectfully report: That the Institution continues in successful operation.

That the Rev. Dr. Gregory having resigned the Presidency, on account of feeble health, and the Rev. Israel Foote having resigned his Professorship, and the Rev. Mr. Welles having permanently removed to the West, a new Faculty has been elected and inaugurated, viz: the Rev. Maunsell Van Rensselaer, D. D. as President, the Rev. L. S. Stevens, as Professor, and the Rev. F. P. Winne, as Assistant Professor.

Thirty-two boys are supported in the College.

The course of instruction and training, is as heretofore reported.

The income for the year 1858, was $11,902,87, and the expenditure, $11,700.

The Rev. Dr. Metcalf, in behalf of the Standing Committee, offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were, on motion, adopted :

Whereas, In the righteous Providence of Almighty God, W. V. I. Mercer, Esq., late Treasurer of the Diocese, has been removed from us by death, since the last meeting of the Convention,

Resolved, That this Convention entertains, and desires to record its grateful sense of the fidelity, efficiency and christian courtesy, with which Mr. Mercer for more than eight years discharged the responsible duties of his office ; and of their sympathy with his family in this bereavement.

Resolved, That a certified copy of the above resolution be forwarded to the family of the deceased by the Secretary of the Convention.

The Tellers being called upon for their report, on counting the ballots, it appeared that the following persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and were therefore declared duly elected :

STANDING COMMITTEE.

Rev. W. H. A. Bissell, D. D.,	Mr. David S. Hall,
" Kendrick Metcalf, D. D.,	" William C. Pierrepont,
" William B. Ashley, D. D.,	" T. D. Burrall,
" Walter Ayrault,	" William B. Douglas.

DEPUTIES TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

Rev. William Shelton, D. D.,	Mr. Horatio Seymour,
" Thomas P. Tyler, D. D.,	" Washington Hunt,
" Amos B. Beach, D. D.,	" Benjamin Pringle,
" W. D. Wilson, D. D.,	" J. Juliand.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Clergy present their Parochial Reports to the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, as required by Canon XII. of the General Convention of 1853. That the reading of the same be dispensed with, and that they be printed, as usual, in the Appendix of the Journal.

On motion of Mr. H. W. Rogers,

Resolved, That the Treasurer of this Diocese be, and hereby is, authorized to pay to the order of the Bishop and of each of the Clerical Deputies to the General Convention, fifty dollars for his expenses.

Resolved, That the Parishes of the Diocese be requested to make a special collection for this purpose, and for the expenses of the General Convention on the fourth Sunday of September.

On motion,

Resolved, That 2,000 copies of the Journal of the Convention be printed and distributed, as usual, under the direction of the Secretary.

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to prepay the postage on those copies of the Journal directed by Canon to be transmitted by mail.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the congregation of Trinity Church, Elmira, for the hospitality so generously extended to its members during the present session, and that the Rev. the Rector be requested to give publicity to this resolution in such a way as he may deem expedient.

Resolved, That the thanks of this House be presented to the Rev. Wm. A. Matson, the Secretary, and his Assistant, the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, for their services at this session of the Convention.

The House, then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the usual exercises.

Whereupon, after the reading of the minutes and an address from the Rt. Rev. the President, the Convention united in appropriate prayers from the Liturgy, by the Bishop, and after his blessing, adjourned sine die.

Signed by order of the Convention,

WILLIAM H. DE LANCEY,

President of the Convention.

WILLIAM A. MATSON, Secretary.

CHARLES W. HAYES, Assistant Secretary.

Of the communicants admitted, four are waiting for confirmation; five communicants have been transferred to the new Parish in Wellsville, and the names of eight have been omitted from the Parish List, as they have neglected for several years to come to communion.

During the year, I have given 8 services in the then vacant Parish of Philipville; in the hamlet of Belvidere, 7 services—here a Parish has been organized, and money collected for the erection of a Church. In the county jail, 22 Sunday services; the prisoners generally have made use of the Prayer Book, and have shown their appreciation of it by taking it with them on leaving. The religious state of the prisoners may be said to be deplorable; at least three-fourths, though native born, had never been baptized and were totally ignorant of the Commandments and the Lord's Prayer. Such ignorance is a powerful motive to the Church for increased Missionary efforts!

Trinity Church, Canaseraga; the Rev. J. E. BATTIN, Rector.

Congregation...Families, about 20, adults 40; baptisms...adults 2, infants 1, total 4; communicants 10; public services...on Sundays 40; the Holy Communion publicly administered once; Bible Class 1...number of members 14.

The Church at this station, is gradually gaining ground, and a spirit of inquiry is beginning to manifest itself.

We occupy the Methodist Chapel every Sunday afternoon, and occasionally in the morning. Your Missionary has been engaged here since 1st of January last, when the Rev. L. Windsor resigned, and accepted a call to Trinity Church, Hornellsville.

The Rev. Charles E. Beardsley having resigned this Parish on the 1st of July, was succeeded by the present Missionary, who had performed Missionary duty in the Parish, by consent of the late Rector, since the 1st of May. The above report includes the whole year.

St. Philip's Church, Philipville; the Rev. LEWIS THIBOT, Missionary.

Your Missionary took the charge of this station on the 1st of June last. The statistics of the Parish are not yet in a shape to be reported with any accuracy. The congregations are fair, the apparent prospects good. A subscription is on foot for a Church, which is now the thing most needed.

St. John's Church, Wellsville; the Rev. JOHN A. BOWMAN, Missionary.

Congregation...Families 20; baptism...infant 1; burial 1; public services...on Sundays 15, on other days 1, total number of services 16; the Holy Communion publicly administered twice, and in private once; children catechized

..number of children 15, number of times once; Sunday school 1, teachers 5; pupils 22.

When lecturing in Wellsville, last winter, I performed Divine service, and reached to a very large and attentive audience. I found a few Churchwomen, but no male members of the Church. I learned that the public service of the Church, had been performed only on two occasions. At the instance of some of my brother Clergy, I visited Wellsville again, in April last, and found quite a number of persons desirous of having the Church planted there. These united with a deputation from the Parish at Cuba, and invited me to officiate for them one-half the time.

The Ladies have already purchased a Surplice for the Clergyman, and have raised funds and sent for a Communion set.

May 30, 1859, after taking the necessary preliminary steps, the congregation met and organized a Parish, which under the name of St. John's Church, Wellsville, Allegany county, will apply to be received into union with the Convention.

This report extends back only to the 1st of December last, at which time I commenced my labors in this Parish. We labor under a great disadvantage in the village of Windsor, for want of a suitable place to hold the service. Since my ordination, Nov. 22d, I have held service and preached regularly in Windsor, also in three school districts adjacent. The congregations are good. But we are convinced that, to affect any permanent good, there should be Church edifice.

Since the last report, some five hundred dollars have been expended in repairs and additions to the Church edifice of this Parish, and it may now be numbered amongst the most comfortable in the rural parishes of the Diocese, and the prospect of the Parish is very encouraging.

There is a class of some twelve or thirteen ready for confirmation.

I resigned my charge of this Parish the first of July, after which I officiated three Sundays.

Grace Church, Randolph; the Rev. P. P. KIDDER, Missionary.

About one-fourth of the number of services on Sundays reported from St. John's Church, Ellicottville, have been rendered in Randolph, where a Church has been recently organized, by the name of "Grace Church." In this new Parish, a good degree of interest has been manifested in the services of the Church from the very commencement of the regular services, once a month, which I began among them one year ago. The Parish embraces two villages, about two miles apart, known as East and West Randolph, in each of which a very convenient place for holding services is provided. It has been the custom to have the morning services in the one, and afternoon services in the other, and usually a third service and a lecture in the evening in the one village or the other. The chief regret at present is that they cannot enjoy the services of the Church more frequently, and the Vestry are very desirous of making some arrangements at once by which this most desirable result may be obtained. The sum of eight dollars was contributed by this Parish to the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen.

The Rectorship of this Parish having been vacant for several months, Church principles and Church influence have sadly declined; but there is reason for the hope, that with self-denial and pious zeal on the part of a Clergyman, who may take charge of this Parish, the voice of joy and gladness will again be heard among our people. By the invitation of the Wardens and Vestry, Mr. G. W. Dunbar, student in the General Theological Seminary, at New York, has held lay services 10 times.

Services are held in this Parish, every Sunday morning, the Rector officiating in the afternoon at Forestville. During the Winter, he also partially supplied the vacancy in Trinity Church, Fredonia.

The Church edifice here, formerly owned by a private individual, having been purchased by the congregation—aided by a donation from Trinity Church, New York—was, on the 22d of January last, solemnly consecrated to Almighty God, by the Rt. Rev. S. A. McCoskry, D. D., D. C. L., Bishop Michigan, acting for the Bishop of this Diocese, during his absence in England.

The present Rector took charge of the Parish immediately after Easter. There had been a pastoral vacancy of about 7 months. During this time, however, public services were constantly maintained on Sundays, chiefly by means of lay reading, the attendance on which was very full, zealous and interested. For a portion of the time, the Rev. Mr. Edson, of Dunkirk, officiated once a week in this Parish, and also rendered other valuable services. A considerable class now awaits confirmation.

The prospects of this Parish are encouraging. An enlargement which will furnish us with over a third more sittings, and greatly add to the beauty of our Church edifice, is in progress, and will be completed in a month or two.

Ill health has required me to be absent from my post for two months and a half, during which time Lay reading was regularly kept up, with an occasional Clerical supply, through the kindness of friends.

I have also held occasional services at Otselic and Smyrna, which were well attended; I should have visited Linklaen, according to the wish of the Bishop, as expressed per the Treasurer of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, had not the distance been so great as to render it almost impracticable. I still hope, however, to hold Divine service there.

I resigned the Parish of Christ Church, Sackett's Harbor in November, and entered upon my present charge the 1st Sunday in Advent. Although this Parish was one of the first organized in the county, yet for more than 20 years it had suffered from the want of a Church edifice. In February last, efforts were made to build a Church. With that earnestness of heart which characterizes every work of love, the members and friends of the Church united their energies and commenced the work. A lot 62x120 feet, was given by a member of the Parish, whose interest in the growth of the Church, has been shown not less in this, than in other things. Liberal contributions were made, both in this and in the neighboring Parishes. Although begun in the midst of commercial depression, it has gone forward with a rapidity equal to our highest wishes. On the 31st of July, it was so far completed that we were able to open it for public worship. It is a Gothic structure, of wood. The inside dimensions are: Nave 27x57 feet; Chancel 18x18; Vestry-room 9x11; Porch 10x12. It has an open roof, and an open bell turret, surmounted by a cross. The walls are strengthened by heavy buttresses. The windows are of stained glass, done by Mr. Thurston, of this city.

Our beloved Bishop has presented us with a beautiful Chair for the Chancel, placed at his disposal by the Vestry of Trinity Church, Geneva. We hope to have our Church ready for consecration in a short time.

Owing to the peculiar circumstances under which the building has been carried forward, I have done very little pastoral work. I trust that God's blessing will, another year, reward our labors with a healthful Church growth in spiritual, as He has in temporal things.

During the last Conventional year, I have continued my services at Bethany, where we are kindly permitted the use of the Methodist Meeting House one half of the time. The prospects for building up the Church in this place are decidedly favorable, and it is hoped that the time is not far off, when a Parish will be organized, and the regular services of the Church sustained.

In September last, the Rev. J. Winslow was elected Assistant Minister of this Parish, and with the approval of the Bishop undertook a Missionary charge in the neighboring villages of Sterlingville, Carthage and Champion, the communicants of this Parish contributing quarterly to its support. In these places, he has held regular Sunday services, and gathered promising and interested congregations, with results greatly encouraging to the enterprise. I have occasionally aided in these services, and administered the Holy Communion in Sterlingville three times, in Carthage twice. The above report of Families, baptisms and communicants, includes the residents of these villages, who having no Church organization, are ecclesiastically connected with this Parish.

The Parish School continues to prosper, the whole number of pupils for the past year having been 190, average attendance 125.

The Weekly Offertory is still continued with marked advantages.

With these funds we have paid our entire indebtedness, the Parish being free from debt, and the seats of the Church free to occupants—also adding to the Sunday School Library, and placing four new chandeliers in the Church.

This report will be incomplete unless I add, that I have several times visited the ruraly beautiful place called Lyonsdale, on the Moose River. There I have held service several times, and baptized four adults and three infants. There are others awaiting holy baptism upon my next visit. In this romantic and retired glen, shut out from the busy world, a few ladies have the past year continued, with commendable zeal, the morning service and a sermon, thus affording an opportunity for public worship, very generally improved and highly prized.

Of the above mentioned services, more than thirty have been held in the neighboring school houses. The attendance has often been gratifying. During the Winter season, there was no difficulty experienced in gathering a congregation on a week day evening, and introducing a full service, among persons having but little if any acquaintance with the Church. It was an agreeable surprise to find them so willing to listen to any explanations I thought proper to make. Many persons will go in and attend a service at their own school house, who cannot be induced to go any distance to Church, in the present state of religious indifference.

Outside of my Parish, I have officiated at one wedding in Morrisville, one burial in Fenner, and two in Perryville.

It will be seen, by a reference to previous reports, that the number of communicants has been diminished to the extent of five. It could have been increased but for the reason that I have not, this year, (as I did last,) included several communicants from the late Parish of St. Stephen's, Perryville; and have omitted to count some, in this Parish, who have not, for the last year or more, been partakers of the Holy Communion, but whose names are yet included in the list of communicants on the Parish Register.

I have, during the past year, visited and held services at Canastota several times, before and since Mr. Sleeper had charge of it. I have here baptized five adults and eight children. There are here some 8 or 10 members of the Church, five of whom are anxiously awaiting an opportunity for confirmation, so as to become communicants, according to the rule of the Church. They are faithful and devoted members, and earnestly desire the blessed privilege of more frequent services of the Church, in which they take great delight. I hope the time is not far distant when they will be so blessed. My visits there have always been pleasant and cheering, and withal profitable.

The Rector took charge of the Parish on the XII Sunday after Trinity, August 22, 1858. A Bible Class has met at the Rectory on Sunday evenings, during most of the year. The Parish School, though small, has been sustained. Much of the temporal welfare of the Parish is due to the Divine blessing on the persevering efforts of the Ladies' Society.

A late Student in the Theological Department of Madison University, in this place, has applied to be admitted a Candidate for Holy Orders.

The Rector examines or addresses the children in Sunday School every week.

With the date of this report, terminate the services of the present Rector, in connection with this Parish. Although he has been hindered a good deal by sickness during the past year, nevertheless considerable work has been accomplished. Three Mission services a week have been held, through more than half of the year, besides the usual number on Sundays and week days, within the walls of the Church. In these, as also in other ways, the Rector has received much valuable aid from his late Assistant, the Rev. Charles E. Cheney. No confirmations are reported, partly on account of the absence of the Bishop, though mainly by reason of the protracted indisposition of the Rector, about the time when the class ought to have been gathered. It ought to be mentioned, that fifty-eight copies of the Spirit of Missions are taken by the Parishioners, and about one hundred copies of the Parish Visitor distributed.

The above report embraces the period from the middle of March last, when the present Rector entered upon his duties, to the end of the Conventional year. I have not been able yet to make a correct list of the number of communicants, families and individuals. The numbers given above are taken from the report of last year, and approximate the truth. The Parish was without a Rector from the 1st of August, 1857, until I took the charge of it. I hope to be able to make a more complete report of it at the next Convention.

Rev. J. Winslow administered the rite of baptism to 1 adult and 7 infants, contained in the report. The number of public services is therefore, imperfect, including those only of the present Missionary, from the 1st of January, 1859.

The organ has been repaired and tuned, and some repairs made upon the Church. The Missionary has been sustained, from the first of January until Easter, by collections made upon every Sunday evening, since then by subscription. He has also been holding services at Empeyville, a village five miles from Camden, on alternate Sundays, to a congregation averaging about one hundred and twenty-five persons. The people seem to be anxious to have the services continued. They also desire to purchase, for the exclusive use of the P. E. Church, a well built Chapel, which has not been occupied for some time, and in order to do so they will need assistance. This Chapel has been built but a short time, and is in good repair.

At Empeyville, I have held the evening service, with sermons, 14 times.

Congregation about 228; baptisms...infants 5; communicants about 78; marriages 4; burials 3; public services...on Sundays 104; the Holy Communion publicly administered 5 times, and in private twice.

I commenced my services as Pastor of this Parish on the last Sunday in July. During the past year, from October up to the last Sunday in July, there has been no settled Pastor of the Parish, but the Church has been open, and services performed occasionally by Clergymen, and in the absence of Clergymen, Lay services.

Whatever collections have been taken up, were to defray the expenses of officiating Clergymen.

Our Church edifice was completed on the 1st of September last, at a cost of $1,600, and consecrated by Bishop De Lancey on the 1st of November. From Christmas until Easter, the Rev. Wm. Baker officiated one Sunday in two weeks; and since that time we have had Lay services twice each Sunday. The services are well attended, and a good degree of interest is manifested. Several families, not embraced in our last report, are identified with us.

The fact that we have been without a Rector will, in some measure, explain the meagerness of our report. We hope, with the Divine blessing, to show a better record next year.

This report dates from the last Sunday (31st) of October, when, in the absence of the Rector, on account of ill health, I took charge of the Parish, until later; at which time, the health of the Rector still continuing infirm, I was requested to continue in charge for one year longer.

Of the collections, that for the Bishop's expenses to Europe, and a portion that for Diocesan Missions, were made before I entered upon the Parish. The Ladies' Circle of Industry" has raised $452 of the amount reported.

Besides the services reported above, I have assisted in service about 20 times, and preached 6 times in St. Paul's Church, on Saints' Days, or during Lent, and have officiated at 3 burials in that Parish. I have also held service and preached 9 times at Salina, where a considerable congregation attend our worship. This Parish, (St. James'), was vacant the first two months of the Conventional year, my charge having commenced October 1st, 1858. Our whole income, with but few and slight exceptions, now comes in at the offertory. We find the plan of a weekly subscription payable there, to be better than that adopted last year, of a subscription payable quarterly outside. The seats continue to be free.

Services were held in St. Peter's Chapel, for only two months after the last Convention. It was then closed. During the Bishop's absence, it has been not only repaired and painted, but improved by the addition of a recess Chancel with painted windows, by widening the pews, by the erection of a bell turret, and the introduction of a Font, at a cost of more than a thousand dollars, more than half of which was supplied by the benefactions of personal friends of the Bishop. Services are held by Rev. Mr. Ferguson, semi-monthly, and latterly more frequently. It is believed that by more vigorous exertion, good may yet be achieved in this feeble and struggling Parish. The communicants are by no means disposed to cease their efforts.

I resigned this Parish to take place on the 5th of July. It was about 3½ years ago. At that time, there was but one communicant; at that time, I have baptised 22 adults and 24 children, making in all 46; have been three confirmations of 12, 14 and 19 persons, making, together, 45. The number of communicants admitted was 48. The actual number at the time I resigned, was 66. The marriages have been 13, burials 6.

I would add that the Ladies carpentered and partly furnished the Vestibule. A box of valuable goods for the mission at St. Columba, with some other articles, have also been got up by the Ladies.

This Church still keeps its own. The congregation are anxious to advance the Church, and when they shall succeed in this, their advancement will be great. They have procured a melodeon, and a choir is formed, which has rendered much assistance in singing and chanting. Having resigned the Rectory of St. Paul's Church, Havana in July last, I have for the last two months been preaching in a new Parish lately organized.

By the blessing of God this Parish is in a flourishing condition, in respect both to its spiritual and temporal interests. Such is the demand for Pews, that measures have been adopted for the enlargement of the Church, by adding at least one-half to its original capacity. For this purpose, the sum of $2,000 has been promptly subscribed, and the workmen have been several weeks employed upon the building, for which reason our services are necessarily suspended. It is due to the Ladies of the Parish, to record that of the sum specified as raised for Parochial objects, the much greater portion has been procured through the efforts of a few spirited individuals among them, seconded by the co-operation of all. The $20 contributed to Hoffman Station, Africa, is the Easter offering of the Lent contributions of the Sunday School. Twenty-two copies of the Children's Magazine, and twelve copies of the Carrier Dove, taken by them, with sundry other items, are not enumerated in the above statement of contributions.

This Parish has been without a Clergyman during the whole Conventional year, until the last of May, when the present Minister became its Rector. The services on the Lord's day, including the catechising of the young, have been constantly sustained, chiefly by Lay readers from among the communicants. There have been occasional services by the Rev. Messrs. Howard, Long, Birk, Moody, Loveridge and Atwill, all of which are included in the number reported.

An effort is now making to increase the numbers and efficiency of the Parish. To this end it is the earnest and unanimous intention of the congregation to erect a Church edifice which may be a fit thank-offering to God, and a blessing to themselves.

My principal efforts have been directed towards the erection of a new Church; as we have but an inconvenient upper room for present use. Thus far the zeal and industry of the Ladies of the Parish have enabled them to raise about $700 towards the purchase money for a Church lot, which lot has been secured. The Vestry have also raised, by subscription, $3,000 towards the erection of the building; for which they are now procuring plans and specifications.

It will be seen, by a reference to the baptisms of adults and the accession of new communicants, that the Parish is growing; and every thing, so far, is encouraging.

I have been in charge of this Parish since January 1, 1859. The amount of monthly collections, not sent to the Treasurer before August 1, was $19. There was no service in the Parish on Christmas Day.

This Parish has been providentially deprived of the presence and labors of its Rector, during the past year; but there is now a fair prospect, under the blessing of God, of his ultimate recovery and resumption of duty. The Church enterprise, from the pressure of the times, and other untoward circumstances, is taxing the energies of the Parish to their utmost extent; but a plan is now on foot, under the direction of the Rector, which promises speedily to result in placing the congregation within the new edifice.

In addition to the above sum for Parochial objects, we have raised during the present year about $11,000 for a new Church edifice. The building is already far advanced, and we hope it will be completed by June next. We only have our own people given liberally, (one benevolent lady giving upwards of $3000,) but we have received considerable assistance from members of other congregations in the village. Whatever has been given has been given freely and without any equivalent in pews being expected in return. The property will be in the hands of the Vestry, and the revenue derived from the rental of pews will be for the support of the Clergyman, and for the current expenses of the Church.

NOTE.—In the report of Calvary Church, Utica, should be added, for Diocesan Missions $5. For the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen, $12

OTHER CLERICAL REPORTS.

From Clergymen not holding Parochial Cures, the Bishop has received the following Reports, viz :

The Rev. WILLIAM BAKER, residing in Utica, reports : That he has officiated at Grace Church, Waterville, two Sundays, catechised the children twice and administered the Holy Communion once.

At Gethsemane Church, Westmoreland, officiated eight Sundays, and attended one funeral.

At Grace Church, Utica, officiated one Sunday, assisted in the Communion, and in reading Prayers, several times.

At Calvary Church, Utica, officiated two Sundays, read Prayers twice, attended two funerals, and baptised one infant.

At St. Peter's Church, Oriskany, officiated two Sundays.

That he has celebrated two marriages, attended 9 funerals, baptised three adults and six children ; has addressed and catechised the children in several Sunday Schools, at ten different times, and delivered two lectures in private houses ; has also administered the Holy Communion six times.

During the past year, he has disbursed among the poor in the city of Utica, clothing, fuel, provisions, and in other ways, the sum of about eleven hundred dollars. The poor emigrants, belonging to the English Church, have shared much of his attention—they have been visited in sickness, restored to the Church, and their children led to the Sunday School.

In addition to the above, he has officiated in the Diocese of New York as follows :

At Grace Church, Norway, eighteen Sundays.

At Middleville, four Sundays ; and at Newport, one Sunday.

The Rev. JOHN W. BIRCHMORE, residing in Geneseo, Livingston county, reports : That until April 25th, he was engaged in parochial duties in St. Michael's Church, Geneseo, the report of which will be found under the proper heading. That since April, he has been residing in the same village, and has officiated for several of the Clergy in other Parishes, having been engaged in duty every Sunday.

The Rev. JOHN F. EARST, Deacon, residing in Buffalo, teaching a school, reports : That since his canonical report in 1858, he has baptised one infant ; preached thirty-three times ; administered the Lord's Supper twice ; assisted in administering the same nine times ; held Sunday Services twenty-five times, and assisted in conducting such Services twelve times.

The Rev. GEORGE L. FOOT, residing in New Berlin, Chenango County, reports : That since the last Convention he has continued in the discharge of his duties as Associate Rector of St. Andrew's Church, New Berlin, and Principal of the Parochial School of St. Andrew's Parish.

That the instructions of the School have been given to 79 pupils in the several departments, 11 of whom are communicants of the Church.

That the exercises of the School have been opened and closed daily, with morning and evening Prayer, in the School Room, or Chapel of the School; except when morning and evening Prayer has been attended in the Church, as on all the Festivals and Holy Days, and on Wednesdays and Fridays during the Summer half of the year.

That gratuitous instruction in the Latin and Greek Languages has been given to one pupil, preparatory to becoming a Candidate for Holy Orders.

That instruction has been given in Church Music to 12 pupils, including 4 daughters of the Clergy, and one received by request as such.

That gratuitous instruction has been given in singing, to about 30 children, besides those connected with the School.

That a course of fifteen Lectures, on Scientific Subjects, was delivered to the members of the School and citizens of the village, in the Chapel of the School, during the winter season, by professional men of the village, by a neighboring Clergyman, by the Rector of the Parish, and the Principal of the School.

In addition to the labors connected with the School, he has officiated three Sundays in Christ Church, Butternuts, during its destitution of Clerical services, on one of which occasions he administered the Holy Communion; twice in Emmanuel Church, Norwich, on one of which occasions he administered the Holy Communion; and once in Zion Church, Morris. That he has also officiated regularly, during the present season, on Sunday morning, at the School House, near Babcock's Mills, where a Sunday School and Congregation are gathered from the towns of Columbus, Chenango County, and Brookfield, Madison county, and also attended at an early hour of the afternoon, on the same Sunday, a Sunday School at South Edmeston, gathered from the towns of Columbus, Chenango county, and of Edmeston and Pittsfield, Otsego county; in both which places are registered about seventy-five children, with fourteen Teachers, and about fifty adults.

That the summary of his labors, besides the duties of the School is, preached eighty-nine times, assisted at the Holy Communion and administered the same sixteen times, married one couple, buried two persons.

The Rev. PEYTON GALLAGHER, residing at Geneva, reports: That since his resignation of the charge of Grace Church, Cortlandville, and Calvary Church, Homer, on account of loss of health, the following is the record of his services to the close of the year ending July 31, 1859:

Read Service twelve times; assisted in Divine Service seventeen times; preached ten times; assisted in administration of Holy Communion once; lectured twice.

The Rev. R. I. GERMAIN, residing at Buffalo, reports: That the hopes expressed in his report a year ago, of the parish of Grace Church, Black Rock, have been entirely realized, and indeed more than realized; that he continued his labors in the Parish up to the last Sunday in November; on St. Andrew's day, the present Rector, Rev Mr. Wood, took charge of the Parish. For these few months he has nothing special to report.

The Rev. HORATIO GRAY, residing at Owego, reports: That he has been officiating in various places during the past year, but did not desire to take a Parish till fully restored to health; that he contemplates a visit to Europe for a few months; and that he solicits the prayers of God's people in his behalf.

The Rev. HENRY GREGORY, D. D., residing at Syracuse, reports: That from the 1st August 1858, to the 1st May 1859, he was engaged in the duties of President and Chaplain of De Veaux College, at Suspension Bridge, Niagara county. Besides daily morning and evening prayers, there were full services on all Sundays and Holy Days. The Holy Communion was administered 16 times in public, and once in private.

Communicants eight; marriages four; baptisms two.

Since the first of May, he has been without any Pastoral duty, seeking, by means of rest and sea air, the restoration of his health.

The Rev. BENJAMIN HALE, D. D., residing at Geneva, Ontario county, reports: That during the last Conventional year, he has not been able to do any clerical duty beyond occasionally assisting in the Holy Communion, and taking some part in the ordinary services; that his health is improving, and that he still cherishes the hope of being able to serve the Church at a future day.

The Rev. ABNER JACKSON, D. D., President of Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y. reports: That during the past year he has been constantly engaged in his duties as President. He has also assisted at two funerals, and performed the marriage service once.

The past year has been one of prosperity for the College; the number of Students is steadily increasing, and the College is constantly gaining a wider and stronger hold on the confidence of the Church; this confidence it will hope to preserve and increase by the thoroughness of its instruction and discipline and the earnestness and faithfulness of its Christian nurture. But to enable it to fulfill adequately its high mission, it will require a very liberal increase of its endowments, and an effort in this direction must be made at no distant day, which will, it is confidently believed, meet with a kind and generous response from the Churchmen of this Diocese.

The Rev. WILLIAM LONG, residing at Morrisania, N. Y. reports: That during the past year his voice, though constantly improving, has not been strong enough to enable him to commence regular official duty; that he has therefore only performed occasional services,—having preached twenty-five times. That he is now about starting for the West, hoping to find a climate in which the early resumption of his official duties will be practicable.

The Rev. KENDRICK METCALF, D. D., Hobart Professor of Greek and Latin Languages in Hobart Free College, Geneva, reports: That during the past year, in addition to the ordinary instruction in his department, he has delivered ten sermons, in course, on the Decalogue, before the Students, and read daily prayers, a considerable part of the year, in the College Chapel. That he has also celebrated Divine service, and preached sixteen times in the Chapel of the Water Cure, at Clifton Springs, and twenty-two times in other places. That he has administered the Holy Communion three times in the Chapel at Clifton, and once in St. John's Church, Phelps; has baptised three children, and married one couple.

The Rev. MARTIN MOODY, residing at Elmira, reports: That after the last Convention his services were continued at Moravia, until the October following, when he removed to Elmira. That he supplied the Church at Waverly, from the 25th of November, to the following Easter, preaching every Sunday twice; he has also baptised one infant. Since Easter he has officiated at the village of Big Flats, every fourth Sunday. He finds there a few Churchmen anxious for the services of the Church, and disposed to do what is in their power to obtain them. They have as yet no organization, but it seems as if the time was not far distant, when a reorganization will be made, and the once dead be numbered among the living.

The above report is thus made in general terms, because the writer cannot have access to the records of the Parishes in which he has officiated.

The Rev. BEARDSLEY NORTHROP, residing at New Hartford, reports: That since our last Annual Convention, he has officiated in Utica, Rome, New Hartford and other places, some twenty Sundays, usually reading prayers and preaching twice on a Sunday; has occasionally assisted in the service of the Church; has administered the Holy Communion three times, and officiated at one funeral.

The Rev. WILLIAM B. OTIS, residing at Geneva, reports: That from the date of his last report, to the third week in November following, he was engaged at St. Mark's Church, Penn Yan. He then took temporary charge of Christ Church, Burlington, N. J., where he officiated until 1st of March; that he then returned to Geneva, and was engaged every Sunday, and frequently during week days, in assisting such of his brethren as needed his service, until 1st June; that he then commenced officiating at Waterloo, where he continued until August 1st, at which time, by the request of the Vestry, he took temporary charge of St. Luke's Church, Rochester, where he is now actively employed.

The Rev. ALBERT CLARK PATERSON, residing at Skaneateles, reports: That his resignation of the Parish of St. James' Church, Skaneateles, sent in nearly three months since, and not acted upon by the Congregation to whom it was read at that time, having been accepted by the Vestry on the 10th inst, the Parochial Report will be presented by the acting Minister of the Parish, Rev. R. O. Page.

That since accepting, in October last, the leave of absence kindly granted to him by the Parish, he has officiated nearly every Sunday, chiefly at Worcester, Mass. At Easter, his Parish kindly tendered him a further respite of a year, and made arrangements with the Rev. Mr. Page, to take charge of the Church for that period. Judging it, however, to be better for the improvement of his health to be free from all care and responsibility, he resigned the Rectorship of St. James' Church, in May last, and proposes to be occupied in desultory labors for the present, with a special reference to the confirmation of health.

The Rev. MARCUS A. PERRY, residing at Utica, reports: That from the beginning of the current ecclesiastical year, to the 17th day of October, he continued, by request, his services at Christ Church, Herkimer, in the Diocese of New York, when the Vestry of the Church succeeded in procuring a Clergyman for the Parish. Since that time to the end of the year, he has attended the services of Grace Church, and officiated occasionally as necessity required.

Baptisms in all, during the year: adults two, infants 6; marriages three; burials seven.

The Rev. E. PUNDERSON, residing at Cleveland, Ohio, reports: That he has preached at the Chapel of the home for the sick and friendless, and administered the Communion every second Sunday in each month, and on other Sundays has officiated in the service at the Chapel, or at Trinity Church, or elsewhere and occasionally at the daily service; that in this way he has preached and administered the Communion at the Chapel eleven times, and preached at other places ten times, and performed the marriage service twice.

The Rev. JOHN HENRY ROWLINE, Deacon, residing at Manlius, reports: That since the last Convention, he has spent three months, (from September to December,) at Geneva, prosecuting his studies for Priests orders, five months (from December to May,) at De Veaux College, as Junior Professor, filling temporary vacancy, and above three months at Manlius, at which place he is still pursuing his studies. While at Geneva, he assisted in reading service, and preached twice, and officiated at Penn Yan and Branchport, once at each place, while at De Veaux College, he assisted in Chapel Service, daily, and preached twice; while at Manlius, he has assisted in reading service, and preached four times. During the past two months, he has preached once at St. James' Church, Syracuse, once at Pultneyville, once at Sodus Ridge and twice at Sodus Point.

The Rev. MAUNSELL VAN RENSSELAER, D. D., President of De Veaux College, Suspension Bridge, Niagara county, reports: That he entered upon his duties as President of De Veaux College, on the 1st of May last. That since that time he has officiated at daily morning and evening Prayer in the Chapel of the College, except when occasionally absent, or indisposed, when the duty was performed by one of the Faculty. He has administered the Holy Communion three times, and preached in the College Chapel six times, and in other places nine times. In addition he has baptised one adult and four infants, (two reported by Grace Church, Rochester,) and married one couple.

The Rev. G. P. WALDO, residing at Nunda, reports: That he officiates half the time at Nunda, in the absence of the Missionary; and that he has officiated at Wells' Mills, to a congregation varying from twenty to fifty persons, among whom are one male and six female Communicants; and that Lay Service is held there when he is not present; that he has baptised five children, and that there will be some for confirmation if the service is held.

The Rev. W. D. WILSON, D. D., Trinity Professor in Hobart College, Geneva, reports: That during the year past, he has attended to the duties of his Professorship as usual, and generally assisted in the services of the Church on Sundays and other Holy Days.

The Rev. J. WINSLOW, Deacon, reports: That from the time of the last Convention, he continued his services as Missionary at Camden, till September, at which time he was elected Assistant Minister of Trinity Church, Watertown, and also appointed Missionary at Sterlingville, Carthage, and Champion; that at Carthage, he has officiated once each Sunday, with an occasional exception, and at the other places once in two weeks, making two services on each Sunday; that since last report he has baptised one adult and fifteen infants, eight for Trinity Church, Camden, and eight for Trinity Church, Watertown; has attended seven funerals, one in Sacketts Harbor, and six in Watertown; has officiated at two weddings, one in Watertown, and one in Carthage; has assisted the Rector of Trinity Church, Watertown, in Parish work, in the week-day services and occasional Sunday Services, and has also spent a part of each day in giving instruction in the Parochial School.

NO. V.

CANON

OF THE CHRISTMAS FUND FOR DISABLED CLERGYMEN.

SEC. 1. There shall be three Trustees appointed by the Convention, to whom the management and care of the Fund for the Relief of Disabled Clergy shall be intrusted, one of whom shall be appointed by the Convention as the Treasurer thereof. And no act of said Trustees shall be valid, unless authorized by a resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees, by a majority of the same, and recorded in a book to be kept as the record of their proceedings, and to be open to the inspection of the Convention. The said Trustees shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention; and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees shall, from time to time, be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. In every Parish in this Diocese there shall be made, annually, on Christmas day, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy of the Diocese. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the congregation; and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

SEC. 3. All appropriations for the relief of Disabled Clergy, shall be made by the Trustees, on the certificate of the Bishop, that the individual has labored within the limits of the Diocese for a period of not less than three years, (except in the case of Clergymen ordained in the Diocese, and having never removed therefrom,) and is disabled by age or physical infirmity from having a Parochial charge; but no appropriation shall be made for a larger sum than $250 per annum, and shall be paid semi-annually, on the 1st of January and July.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the Fund for Disabled Clergy, and not needed for their present relief, shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security on real estate, appraised at double the amount loaned thereon, exclusive of building; the appraisal to be made by three appraisers, appointed by the Trustees for that purpose; and all securities and investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said Trustees and their successors in office, as Trustees of the said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities or investments.

SEC. 5. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees, exhibiting the condition of the fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers therefor, shall be reported to each Annual Convention, signed by said Trustees, or a majority of them.

Pennsylvania and Western New York, have successively given it their full sanction and warm approval, and, among their services, the Rite of Confirmation has been three times administered to the young who have been gathered under its ministrations and brought to its communion. The Apostolic basis thus happily given to our American Church in Paris, has been further strengthened by the presence and services of many of the clergy who have been enabled to see its operation and promise of greater good. Its witnesses are already numerous and widely scattered at home and abroad, who have found reason to bless it for the new and valued privileges it has opened to them in their exile from home. The frequent administrations of the Holy Communion, made necessary by the transient character of its congregation, show an average of nearly forty communicants; from which it may be judged how large a number have successively been thus spiritually refreshed at its wayside altar. In Baptisms, Visitations of the sick, and Burials of the dead, the church has equally proved that it has a legitimate and important work here. If then such results are recorded in the face of the difficulties through which they have been wrought, what may not be hoped when a more general knowledge of the existence of the Church, and complete provision for its work in the erection and proper appointments of a chapel shall open to it the whole field of its usefulness.

Its plan of organization, matured under the counsel of two of the Bishops above referred to, while providing as far as possible for the exigencies of its position, affords ample protection against the loss or alienation of any funds that may be contributed to carry out its designs. It has voluntarily placed itself in moral dependence upon the home Church and under the care of the General Convention, meanwhile and until otherwise ordered by that authority, committing to the guardianship of the Senior Bishop the integrity of its constitution and requiring his approval to any future appointment to its ministry.

It remains then to urge this movement upon the immediate and earnest attention of those into whose hands this circular may come. The establishment is free from all party character, and, so far as human wisdom can provide, is secure by the terms of its constitution against ever losing its claim to the universal sympathy of the church by falling under any exclusive rule or patronage. The names of the Bishops, clergy and laity found below, who have given it their emphatic sanction, aided in its foundation, and represent it officially or otherwise, form the best guarantee to those from whom it now asks support and substantial encouragement. There are few, very few American churchmen who can feel themselves secure against the possibility of needing its privileges and blessings through the chances that may throw them or those that are dear to them upon foreign shores. And it therefore appeals to them, not only as an important institution of the church, to spread her influence and advance the power of her pure faith in the world, but also as a wise and happy provision which may turn to their own individual comfort by its ministrations to themselves, their friends. Its pastoral care over such as are here, or for a season's sojourn, and especially over children here for education, gives it enough of the parochial form and work to require the ordinary constitution for its government and administration of its affairs, and also to assure to it permanence placed upon a firm basis by the erection of a modest edifice from debt, as is proposed. Thus established, the church will be self-sustaining; and, without being a burden to the Church at home, will give its incalculable benefits to the thousands who will yearly pass under its shadow. May God give this appeal power and success with the same measure that he has given you the ability to forward upon which He has bestowed so many significant marks of His favor.

The Clergy are especially and earnestly moved to interest themselves in its accomplishment, and are requested to furnish their parishes with letters to the Rector. Subscriptions, when they can be publicly acknowledged, may be sent to any member of the committee named below.

WILLIAM O. LAMSON, Rector.

Paris, 30 April, 1859.

The annual festival of parochial choirs of Church Choral Union took place at Southwell C Thursday, the 28th ultimo. The state of the v tions no doubt materially affected the numbers pster was thronged both at the morning and aftern utmost interest was shown.

The whole of the ground floor of the choir o served for the clergy and the choristers, the acco clergy 100, choristers 300, from the following Cinder Hill, Halam, Nottingham—St. John's ancliffe-on-Soar, Retford, Rolleston, Sneinton, So Tuxford, Whatton, Bingham, Bleasby, Calverton stone, Gedling, Ison Green, Kingston, East and W Nottingham—St. Mark's, Ratcliffe-on-Trent, Sut garton, and Woodborough. Of these the first ti number of 156, with the clergy, were surpliced. voices there were, besides the clergy, 120 trebles and 74 basses.

The following is a list of the clergy who were Bishop of Lincoln, the Lord Bishop of Western the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland, the Ven. the tingham, the Ven. the Archdeacon of St. Alban Randolph, of St. Paul's; the Rev. Canon She Canon Percival of Southwell; the Rev. A. An

A few minutes before eleven, the long train of surpliced choristers and clergy issued from the Chapter-house and cloisters, proceeding along the north aisle of the nave to the west door, chanting Psalm 84, "O how amiable are Thy dwellings, Thou Lord of hosts," to the 8th tone 2d ending. Winding round the old Norman pillars, the procession opened out into a double row, extending the whole length of the nave to the door of the sanctuary, while the Bishops of Lincoln, Western New York, (U. S.) and Newfoundland, preceded by four clergy with white wands and a mace bearer, and accompanied by the Archdeacons of Nottingham and St. Albans, Canons Randolph, (of St. Paul's,) Shepherd and Percival, (of Southwell,) passed along into the choir, and took their seats in their respective stalls. As soon as all were in their places, (the arrangement for which had been admirably superintended by the Revs. A. Tatham and R. F. Smith, who acted as stewards for the choir,) the service was at once proceeded with. The prayers were said by the Rev. R. F. Smith, curate of Southwell, the lessons read by the two minor canons, the Revs. A. Tatham and J. F. Dimock, and the litany sung by the Rev. J. M. Wilkins, the Rector. The Venite was chanted to the 8th tone, 1st ending B; the first three Psalms for the day to the 7th tone, 1st ending, and Psalm 135 to the 8th tone, 1st ending A. This last change from the key of G to C was very brilliant and striking. The Te Deum was taken to the 4th tone 3d ending, and was sung with great feeling and impressiveness. The occasional sound of both the sides of the choir softly in the 5th verse, "Holy, holy," &c., contrasted finely with the full power of the 400 voices in the simple cadence of two notes in the words ending three subsequent verses—"Praise Thee." The Benedictus, to the peculiar accent of the 4th tone 1st ending, had also a very solemn effect. After the third collect, Palestrina's sublime Easter anthem, "If God be for us," was sung with great correctness by the surpliced choirs. At the end of the Litany, (which was sung, being Thursday, by command of the ordinary,) the ancient Easter hymn "Ye choirs of New Jerusalem," was sung in unison as an introit, to an ancient and beautiful melody from the Hymnal Noted. The communion service was read by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Bishop of Western New York officiating as epistoler, the Bishop of Newfoundland as gospeller, the Kyrie being Helmore's from Merbecke. An appropriate and impressive sermon was preached by the Bishop of Western New York, who took for his text Psalm 98, v. 6, and enforced from it the duty and value of public worship, introducing a reference to the catholicity of the sister Church of America, in which were used the same prayers, and where the same praises were sung. The Offertory sentences were read by the Archdeacons of Nottingham and St. Albans, and the alms collected were brought by twelve priests to the Bishop, who reverently laid them on the table. After the prayer for the church militant had been read, the non-communicants retired, and the Holy Communion was administered to some three hundred communicants.

The evening service commenced at half-past four, and the church was, perhaps, more crowded than in the morning, many taking their seats in the nave and transepts. Prayers were said, as in the morning, by the Rev. R. F. Smith, the lessons being read by the Rev. A. Tatham and J. F. Dimock.

At the end of evensong, the whole of the choristera, clergy, and people, streamed out into the nave, and the Bishop of Lincoln ascended the pulpit (placed for the occasion against one of the centre pillars,) and delivered an earnest and eloquent sermon, from 1st John iv. 8 to 10, urging therefrom the blessing and the privilege of the love of God, and the duty of rendering to God in the best way (and God demands the best) that highest exercise of created intelligence, vocal praise. The clear and impressive tones of the Right Rev. prelate were distinctly heard to the remotest corners of the building, and were listened to with the deepest attention by a congregation of some two thousand hearers. Before the sermon, the hymn, "O, how joyful," was sung to a beautiful ancient melody from Redhead's Collection, by the whole congregation, and the Evening Hymn to Tallis's Canon in like manner after the sermon and before the final benediction. The access during this latter part of the service was, as we have before observed, one of the most impressive features of the day. The approaching gloom of the evening, relieved only by two lights in the pulpit, the two distinguished Bishops from far-distant lands, the mixed multitude, the many white-robed ministers with their varied hoods, contrasting with the dark stone of the massive Romanesque architecture, the stillness of the listening throng, and the earnest voice and manner of the preacher, altogether formed one of the most imposing and interesting scenes we ever witnessed. This "day in the sanctuary" will not soon be forgotten.

Act of Parliament, relating to Scottish and American Clergy.

[See Bishop's Address, p. 32.]

ANNO TERTIO & QUARTO VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to make certain Provisions and Regulations in respect to the Exercise, within England and Ireland, of their Office, by the Bishops and Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland; and also to extend such Provisions and Regulations to the Bishops and Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; and also to make further Regulations in respect to Bishops and Clergy other than those of the United Church of England and Ireland.

[23d July, 1840.]

WHEREAS, an Act was passed in the Thirty-second year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for granting Relief to Persons of the Episcopal Communion in Scotland: And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the said Act, and to enable the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland, and the Priests of such Church canonically ordained, under certain Limitations and Restrictions, to perform Divine Service, to preach, and to administer the Sacraments, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, in Churches or Chapels within England or Ireland where the Liturgy of the said United Church is used: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the

Bishops of England or Ireland may permit Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church
in Scotland to officiate in their Dioceses under certain restrictions.

Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Bishop of any Diocese in England or Ireland, if he shall think fit, on the Application of any Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland, or of any Priest of such Church canonically ordained by any Bishop thereof residing and exercising at the Time of such Ordination Episcopal Functions within some District or Place in Scotland, to grant Permission under his Hand, and from Time to Time also under his Hand to renew such Permission, to any such Bishop or Priest to perform Divine Service, and to preach, and administer the Sacrament, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, for any One Day or any Two Days, and no more, in any Church or Chapel within the Diocese of the said Bishop where the Liturgy of the said United Church is used, such Day or Days and Church or Chapel to be specified in such Permission or renewed Permission; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Party mentioned in such Permission or renewed Permission, with the Consent of the Incumbent or Officiating Minister of such Church or Chapel, to perform Divine Service, and to preach, and administer the Sacraments therein, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, on the Day or Days specified in such written Permission or renewed Permission, and on so other.

Certain Letters commendatory to be produced to the Bishop before Permission granted.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no such written Permission or renewed Permission shall be granted unless the Party applying for the same shall first produce to the Bishop of the Diocese Letters commendatory given within Six Months before the Production thereof, in the Case of a Bishop under the Hand and Seal of Two other Bishops of the Church to which he belongs, and in the Case of a Priest under the Hand and Seal of the Bishop exercising Episcopal Functions within the District or Place in which such Priest usually officiates, and also a Testimonial given within Six Months before the Production thereof, under the Hand and Seal of such last-mentioned Bishops or Bishop, that the Party applying is a Person of honest Life and godly Conversation, and professeth the Doctrines of the United Church of England and Ireland.

Provisions of this Act as to the Clergy of the Episcopal Church
in Scotland extended to the Clergy of the Episcopal Church in the United States.

III. And whereas another Act was passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act to empower the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Archbishop of York for the time being to consecrate to the Office of a Bishop Persons being Subjects or Citizens of Countries out of her Majesty's Dominions: And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the said Act, and to enable the Bishops and Priests of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America to officiate in England and Ireland, under Restrictions and Limitations similar to those herein-before enacted and provided with respect to the Bishops and Priests of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland; be it therefore enacted, That all the several Provisions herein-before contained with respect to the Bishops and Priests canonically ordained of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland shall respectively extend to the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and to the Priests canonically ordained by a Bishop of such Church residing and exercising at the Time of such Ordination Episcopal Functions within some District or Place in the United States of America.

IV. And be it enacted, That any Incumbent or Stipendiary Curate who, without the Production of such written Permission or renewed Permission as aforesaid, shall allow any Bishop or Priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland or in the United States of America, or who shall allow any Deacon of either of such Churches, or any other Bishop, Priest, or Deacon, not being a Bishop, Priest or Deacon of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of any of Her Majesty's Foreign Possessions, to officiate in any Church or Chapel of which he is Incumbent or Curate, shall for the first offence be liable to be called to appear before the Bishop of the Diocese in Person, and, if he show no sufficient Cause to the contrary, to be publicly or privately admonished, at the Discretion of the said Bishop; and for the second and every subsequent Offence, if a Curate, he shall, after having been in like Manner called to appear, and showing no sufficient Cause to the contrary, be liable to be removed, or to be temporarily suspended from his Curacy, at the Discretion of the said Bishop; and if an Incumbent, he shall, on Proof of the Offence in due Course of Law, be suspended from his Office and Benefice for any Time not exceeding Three Months, or be subject to other Ecclesiastical Censures; and the said Bishop shall, during any such Suspension, provide for the Performance of the Spiritual Duties of such Benefice, by Sequestration or otherwise, as in the Case of Non-residence.

Penalty on allowing Clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland or in the United States of America to officiate without such Permission, or on allowing other clergy to officiate.

V. And be it enacted, That if any Bishop or Priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland or in the United States of America shall, save as herein-before mentioned, or if any Deacon of either of such Churches shall officiate, contrary to the Provisions of the said recited Acts, in any Church or Chapel in England or Ireland where the Liturgy of the said United Church is used, or if any Bishop, Priest, or Deacon, not being a Bishop, Priest, or Deacon of the United Church of England or Ireland, or of any of Her Majesty's Foreign Possessions, or of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland or in the United States of America, Penalty on officiating contrary to recited Acts or this Act, save as herein mentioned.

shall officiate in any such Church or Chapel, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the sum of Fifty Pounds to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, to be recovered, by Action of Debt brought in the Name of the Treasurer of the said Bounty in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Courts of Session in Scotland at the Suit of the Public Prosecutor.

Deacons ordained out of England or Ireland, and afterwards ordained Priests in England or Ireland.

VI. And be it enacted, That no person who has been or shall be ordained a Deacon by any Protestant Bishop other than an Arch-bishop or Bishop of the United Church of England and Ireland, and who shall after the passing of this Act be ordained a Priest by any Archbishop or Bishop of the United Church of England and Ireland, shall be thereby enabled, save as in this Act is provided, to exercise his Office Within England or Ireland.

Admissions, &c. to Benefices and Curacies contrary hereto void.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Admissions, Institutions, and Inductions to Benefices in the Church of England or Church of Ireland, and all Appointments to act as Curates therein, which shall be made contrary to the Provisions of this Act, shall be to all Intents and Purposes null and void: Provided always, that nothing herein shall be construed to affect any Admission, Institution, or Induction to any Benefice or any Appointment as Curate which shall have been made previous to the passing of this Act.

Not to affect the Act 59 G. 3. c. 60.

VIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect or to repeal any of the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to permit the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Bishop of London, for the Time being, to admit Persons into Holy Orders specially for the Colonies.
